HEDGE TRIMMER COMPANY.

AN ACT to incorporate the American Hedge Trimmer Company.

In force March
5. 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Henry L. Bryant, Townsend Atwater, Amos C. Babcock, David Oliver, Christian Bidamon, Robert Dilworth and William Babcock, and their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the "American Hedge Trimmer Company," and by that name they and their successors shall have perpetual succession, and be capable in law of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, of having and using a common seal, of purchasing, holding and conveying real and personal estate for the purposes of this act, and of doing all things which individuals might or could do, to carry into effect and operation the objects and purposes of this incorporation.

Name and style

§ 2. The objects of this corporation are the manufacture of "Oliver's Patent Hedge Trimmer," and the planting and trimming hedges of Osage orange, or other plants.

Objects.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, with power to increase the same to two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, to be subscribed and paid for in the manner which may be prescribed by the by-laws to be adopted by said company, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and shall be transferable on the books of said company, in such manner as its by-laws may prescribe. The capital stock shall be paid in at the time and in the installments required by the directors, and when five thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, the company may then proceed to business.

Capital stock.

§ 4. The said corporation shall have power to borrow money, and may secure the payment of the same by deed of trust, mortgage or other security.

Borrow money.

§ 5. The corporation hereby created shall be under the direction of such number of directors as the stockholders may, from time to time determine, and until otherwise ordered, the number of directors shall be seven. Such directors shall be stockholders, and shall be elected by the stockholders, at such time and in such manner as the by-laws shall provide, and shall hold their offices for the terms for which they were elected, and until their successors are elected.

First board of directors.

§ 6. Henry L. Bryant, Townsend Atwater, Amos C. Babcock, David Oliver, Christian Bidamon, Robert Dilworth and William Babcock, shall constitute the first board of directors under this act, and shall act as such until their successors are elected.

Quorum—by-laws.

§ 7. The directors of said company, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum, shall have and exercise (unless otherwise ordered by the stockholders,) all the powers hereby conferred on said corporation, and may elect such officers and agents, and make such by-laws, rules and regulations, (not inconsistent with the laws of this state) for carrying into effect the objects of this act, as to them shall seem expedient.

§ 8. This act shall be deemed a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED March 5, 1867.

In force February 25, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Urbana and Champaign Horse Railway Company.

Name and style

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Edward Atre, Daniel Gardner and Clark R. Griggs, and their successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the "Urbana and Champaign Horse Railway Company," for the term of one hundred years, with all the provisions, powers and authority incident to corporations, for the purposes herein-after mentioned.

§ 2. Said company is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track railway, with all necessary and convenient tracks for turn-outs, sidetracks, switches and appendages through the cities of Urbana and Champaign, in the county of Champaign, Illinois, and in and over and along such streets, highway or highways within the present or future corporate limits of said cities of Urbana and Champaign: Provided, that in maintaining and operating said road, they shall not materially obstruct the common travel of the public on said streets or highways; and in all cases where vehicles shall meet said cars or carriages, of said railway, in either of said cities, said vehicle shall give way to the cars or carriages of said railway.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be ten thousand dollars, and may be increased from time to time, at the pleasure of the corporation. The capital stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and be issued and transferred in such manner, and upon such conditions as the board of directors of said company may direct. Capital stock.

§ 4. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, and such officers and agents as said board shall appoint. The first board of directors shall consist of Edwin Atre, Daniel Gardner and Clark R. Griggs, and thereafter not less than three directors to be chosen every year, by the stockholders, at such time and in such manner, as said corporation by their by-laws may direct. The said directors shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified; and may fill vacancies which may occur in the board of directors, either by death, resignation or otherwise; they may also adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said corporation and management of its affairs and business as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this state. Government and officers.

§ 5. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to borrow from time to time, such sums of money as in their opinion may be deemed necessary to aid the construction and operating said railway and pay any interest thereon not exceeding ten per cent. and to pledge and mortgage their said railway, and its appendages or any part thereof, or any other property, effects, rights and credits or appendages of said company as security for any loan of money or interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued by such board of directors, at such rates or on such terms as the board of directors may determine; and shall have the right to take mortgage, and convey personal or real property, for the purposes contemplated in this act. Indebtedness.

§ 6. Said company may organize whenever the sum of ten thousand dollars shall have been subscribed to its capital stock, and five per cent. thereof, paid in, and the persons named in the first section of this act, shall be commissioners to open books for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company. Organization.

§ 7. This act shall be deemed a public act, and be in force from and after its passage, and shall be liberally construed in all courts or places, for the benefit of the objects herein contemplated. Construction of act.

Springer, of the town of Jacksonville, in the state of Illinois, and their successors, heirs and assigns, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of the "Jacksonville Railway Company," with perpetual succession, and by said name and style may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in all courts and places, and have and use a common seal, which they may alter and renew at pleasure, and have all the powers and authority incident to corporations, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.
Rights and privileges.	§ 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered and shall have the exclusive right and privilege to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track horse or steam railway, for thirty years, with all necessary and convenient tracks for turnouts, sidetracks and appendages, in the town of Jacksonville, in the state of Illinois, and in, on, over, across and along any and all the avenues, streets, public grounds, squares and alleys, within the present and future corporate limits of said town, and within its present and future additions, and in, on, across and along any and all highways connecting with said avenues, streets and alleys, and being and running beyond said corporate limits for the distance of one mile beyond said corporate limits for the purpose of carrying persons and things, and also shall have power to make all contracts, and own and use all property real and personal, that may be deemed necessary by said corporation, to carry out the objects aforesaid.
Capital stock.	§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, and may be increased from time to time at the pleasure of said corporation, and it shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each and be issued and transferable in such manner and upon such terms as said corporation or any future board of directors of said corporation may order.
Directors.	§ 4. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, and such officers and agents as said board shall appoint, and the first board of directors shall consist of the persons whose names appear in the first section of this act, whose term of office shall run for one year from the date of the organization of said company; and thereafter said board shall consist of not less than three nor more than seven, who shall always be stockholders in said corporation, and whose term of office shall be one year and until their successors are chosen and

qualified, and they shall be chosen by the stockholders, at such time and place and in the manner as said corporation shall by its by-laws prescribe; and said stockholders shall have the right to cast one vote for each share of stock owned by them, either in person or by proxy, duly authorized by written appointment, filed with the records of said corporation, at all elections held by said stockholders, and said board may fill all vacancies therein, that may happen either by death, resignation or otherwise.

§ 5. Said directors may adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said corporation and the management of its business and affairs as they may think proper, not being inconsistent with the laws of this state. By-laws.

§ 6. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to borrow from time to time, such sums of money as may be necessary to aid the construction and operation of said railway, and to issue bonds therefor, and pay any interest, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and to pledge and mortgage said railway and its appendages and profits, or any part thereof, as security for any such loan of money or bonds, and to dispose of the bonds issued for such loan, on such terms as said board of directors may determine. Indebtedness.

§ 7. Said corporation shall have power to procure the right of way over any lands over which the corporation may desire to lay any part of their said railway, by proceeding under and in conformity with the laws of the state of Illinois touching the right of way for public roads or railways, and may purchase, hold, mortgage and convey real estate, and use and contract in regard to the same, to as full an extent as natural [persons] can or might do. Right of way.

§ 8. A majority of said persons whose names appear in the first section of this act, or their successors, heirs or assigns may open books for subscription to the capital stock of said corporation, and when ten thousand dollars shall have been subscribed to its capital stock, and five per cent. thereof paid in, said majority of said persons so named in said first aforesaid section and their successors, heirs and assigns, may organize said company: Provided, however, the same shall be so done, and said corporation shall commence laying the track of their said railway, within three (3) years and complete the same within five (5) years after the passage of this act, on any street or part of street in said town of Jacksonville, and have the same in running order and in operation. Subscription to stock.

§ 9. Said corporation shall not so construct their railway, or lay down the tracks thereof, as to unnecessarily obstruct or prevent the public traveling over said avenues, streets, alleys and highways: And provided, that the grade and gauge of said railway, and the motive powers shall be approved by the common council of said town of Jacksonville, and the said corporation shall forfeit their right to any street or parts of street, over which said railway may be Grade and gauge.

built, if at any time they shall cease to operate the same for six months, at any one time.

AN ACT to incorporate the Rockford Horse Railway Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That A. J. Enoch, W. G. Rea, James B. Agard, Charles O. Upton, Harvey Bartlett, Moses Bartlett, D. L. Bartlett, Thomas Butterworth, Henry Fisher, A. S. Buell and H. P. Holland, of the city of Rockford, and their associates and successors, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate by the name and style of "The Rockford Horse Railway Company," for the term of fifty years, with all the powers and authority incident to corporations for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

Powers.

§ 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered, and shall have the exclusive right to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track railway, with all necessary and convenient sidetracks and tracks for turnouts and appendages in, on, over and along such street or streets, highway or highways, bridge or bridges within the present or future limits of said city of Rockford, as the common council of said city may authorize said corporation, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges as said common council may by ordinance or by agreement with said corporation prescribe.

Property.

§ 3. The said corporation shall have power to purchase and hold real estate for the purpose of erecting thereon such buildings as may be necessary for the purpose of operating and maintaining its said railway.

Bridges—location.

§ 4. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to erect and maintain, for its own uses, such bridge or bridges across Rock river, and any other stream or streams of water within the present or future limits of said city of Rockford as may be necessary to operate and maintain its said railway. Said bridge or bridges are to be constructed at such point or points as the common council of the said city of Rockford may, by ordinance or otherwise, prescribe.

§ 5. The persons named in section one of this act, or any seven of them, may open books for subscription to the capital stock of said corporation, which shall be fifty thousand dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and said capital stock may be increased from time to time, as the exigencies of said corporation may require. Upon subscription being made to said capital stock of twenty thousand dollars, and ten per centum thereof paid in, a majority of said persons named in section 1 of this act may call a meeting of the stockholders of said corporation for the election of not less than five nor more than seven directors of said corporation, which directors shall hold their office for one year, or until their successors in office are duly elected and qualified; and such directors may appoint a president and other needful officers for said corporation who shall hold their office for like term with said directors, unless sooner removed. At all elections each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock by him held, and absent stockholders may vote by proxy; said directors may fill, by appointment, any vacancy which may happen in their number, and they may adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations in reference to calls upon and transfers of stock, the government of said corporation and the management of its affairs and business, as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

Capital stock.

Directors.

President and other officers.

Vote of stockholders.

§ 6. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as, in the opinion of the board of directors, may be necessary to aid in the construction of their said railway and its appendages, and to pay therefor any interest not exceeding ten per cent., and to pledge or mortgage the said railway, its appendages, or any part thereof, or any other property or effects of said corporation as security for any such loan of money and interest thereon; and to issue bonds for such sums of money so borrowed, and said bonds shall be of such denomination as the board of directors may determine: Provided, the aggregate amount of indebtedness so to be created, as herein provided for, shall not exceed the amount of cash actually paid in on the capital stock of said corporation.

Indebtedness.

§ 7. This act, and all powers derived therefrom, shall forever be and remain subject to all future general legislation of this state upon the subject of rates of fare for passengers and freight.

Future legislation.

8. This act shall be a public act, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 28, 1867.

In force Feb'y 16, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Carlinville Horse Railway and Carrying Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That John Dahoney, William B. Dugger, John T. McConnell, William Farrell and Henry Johnson, of the city of Carlinville, and their associates, successors, heirs and assigns, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Carlinville Horse Railway and Carrying Company."

Name and style

§ 2. A majority of said persons named in section one of this act, or their respective heirs, successors and assigns, may open books for subscription to the capital stock of said company, which shall be twenty-five thousand dollars, in shares of fifty dollars each; and said capital stock may be increased from time to time, as the exigencies of said company may require. Upon subscription being made to said capital stock of ten thousand dollars, and ten per cent. thereof paid in, a majority of said named persons may, or their respective successors, heirs and assigns, may call a meeting of the stockholders of said company for the election of five directors of said company; such directors shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected, and they may appoint a president and other needful officers for said company, who shall hold their offices for like terms, unless sooner removed.

Privileges.

§ 3. Upon such organization, said company may and shall have the exclusive right and privilege to establish and operate upon and over the streets of the city of Carlinville, railways for carrying persons and things, for the term of twenty-five years from the passage of this act, with all the convenient appendages thereto, in such manner as the common council of said city may by contract with said company hereafter prescribe. Said company shall have power and may exercise such powers as are or may be necessary for the purposes contemplated by this act, not repugnant to the laws of the United States or this state: Provided, said company shall commence laying such track within five years from the passage hereof.

Indebtedness.

§ 4. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as in their opinion may be deemed necessary to aid the construction of said railway, and pay any interest therefor not exceeding ten per cent., and to pledge and mortgage the said railway and its appendages, or any part thereof, or any other property or effects, rights or credits or appendages of said company, as security for any loan of money and interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued for such loan at such rate or on such terms as the board of directors may determine.

§ 5. This act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act, and take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Dana, and their successors, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the "Lincoln Horse Railway and Carrying Company," for the term of fifty years, with all the powers and authority incident to corporations for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

§ 2. That said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track railway, with all necessary and convenient tracks for turnouts, sidetracks and appendages, in the city of Lincoln, county of Logan, state of Illinois; and in, on, over and along such street or streets, highway or highways within the present or future limits of the city of Lincoln, as the common council of said city have authorized said corporators, or any of them, or shall hereafter authorize said corporation so to do, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions, and with such rights and privileges as the said common council has or may, by contract with said company, hereafter prescribed.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, and may be increased from time to time at the pleasure of said corporation. The capital stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and be issued and transferred in such manner and upon such conditions as the board of directors of said corporation may direct.

§ 4. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors and such officers and agents as said board shall appoint. The first board of directors shall consist of said R. B. Latham, Wm. McGalliard, John Wyatt, Fr. C. W. Koelmle and George S. Dana, and thereafter, of not less than three nor more than seven stockholders, who shall be chosen each and every year by the stockholders, at such time and in the same manner as said corporation shall, by its laws prescribe.

The said directors shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified, and may fill any vacancies which may happen in the board of directors, either by death, resignation or otherwise; they may also adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said corporation and the management of its affairs and business as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

Indebtedness.

§ 5. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as, in their opinion, may be deemed necessary to aid the construction of said railway, and pay any interest therefor, not exceeding ten per cent. and to pledge and mortgage the said railway and its appendages or any part thereof, or any other property or effects, rights or credits or appendages of said company, as security for any loan of money, and interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued for such loan at such rate or on such terms as the board of directors may determine.

Organization.

§ 6. Said company may organize whenever ten thousand dollars shall have been subscribed to its capital stock and five per cent. thereof paid in, and three of the persons mentioned in the first section of this act shall be commissioners to open books for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company.

Subscription.

Real estate.

§ 7. Said corporation shall be authorized to purchase, hold and convey real or personal estate necessary for the use of such corporation, and to manufacture materials, machinery and rolling stock for the use of such corporation.

Notice of act.

Right to construct not exclusive.

§ 12. This act shall not be deemed to confer upon the corporation hereby created the exclusive right to construct and operate railways within said city, and the general assembly hereby expressly reserves the power to confer upon any other person or corporation like powers and franchises within said city, to those conferred by this act, and the rates of charges for the carriage of persons or property by said corporation over said railroads, are hereby made subject to future modification and control by the general assembly.

Capital stock.

§ 13. Whenever the persons named in the first section of this act or a majority of them, shall deem it expedient to enter upon the construction of said railways, they shall before opening books for subscription to the capital stock of said company, request the city council of said city of Freeport to submit this act to the legal voters of said city of Freeport for their ratification, and upon receiving such request, said city council shall and is hereby required to submit this act to the legal voters of said city for their ratification at the next annual election to be held in and for said city: Provided, such election shall occur within sixty days next after receiving such request; and in case such general election shall not be held within said sixty days, then said city council shall submit this act to said voters at a special election, to be called and held for that purpose, within sixty days after receiving such request. Such election shall be by ballot, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, substantially in the following words, "for the city railway," or "against the city railway;" and if at such election the majority of the votes cast shall be "for the city railway," then this act shall be operative, but in case the majority of the votes cast at such election shall be "against the city railway," then this act shall be inoperative until the same shall be ratified at a subsequent general or special election, at which this act shall on like request be submitted to the legal voters of said city, in like manner as above specified: Provided, that this act shall not be submitted to the voters of said city for their ratification twice within any one year.

Period of franchises, etc.—value of.

§ 14. Said corporation is hereby authorized to exercise the powers and franchises granted by this act, for and during the period of thirty years from and after the passage of this act. At the expiration of the said period of thirty years, the value of the said railways, cars and other property and franchises then belonging to said company shall be appraised by five competent, skillful and disinterested commissioners, of whom two shall be selected by said corporation, two by the city council of said city and one by the circuit court of said county of Stephenson, neither of whom shall be residents of said city or in any way interested in the affairs of said corporation; and in case of the refusal or neglect of said corporation or said city to select such commissioners, the same shall be selected by said circuit court; and said commissioners shall before entering upon the duties of their office be severally sworn, fairly and impartially to appraise the value of said railways, cars, property and franchises then belonging to said corporation; said commissioners shall thereupon make the appraisement aforesaid and file the same in the office of the circuit clerk of said county of Stephenson. The said city of Freeport may at any time within one year after the filing of such appraisal pay to said company the amount of such appraisal, and upon making such payment shall be invested with all and singular the railways, cars, property and franchises belonging to said company at the time of such appraisal. In case said city shall neglect to take said property at its appraised value within the time above limited, a similar appraisal shall be made at the expiration of each five years after the making of said first appraisal with the same right to said city to take said property and franchises at their appraised value under such new appraisement, and until said city of Freeport shall elect to take said property at its appraised value, and shall pay said corporation therefor. The corporation hereby created shall continue to exercise the powers and franchises conferred by this act.

Commissioners' duties, etc.

§ 15. This act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Powers.

§ 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track railway, with all necessary and convenient tracks for turnouts, sidetracks and appendages, in the city of Belleville, and in, on, over and along such street or streets, highway or highways, as the said company may elect, within the present or future limits of the city of Belleville.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, and may be increased from time to time, at the pleasure of said corporation. It shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and be issued and transferred in such manner and upon such conditions as the board of directors of said corporation may direct.

Officers and directors.

§ 4. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, and such officers and agents as the said board of directors shall appoint. The first board of directors shall consist of Samuel B. Chandler, Edward Abend, George C. Eisenmeyer, Henry Abend, David L. Phillips, Joseph Kirkpatrick, Edward F. Leonard, John W. Bunn and Edward H. Fleming, Frederick E. Scheel and thereafter of not less than five, nor more than seven stockholders, who shall be chosen each and every year by the stockholders at such time and in such manner as the said corporation shall by its laws prescribe. by-laws, rules and regulations, for the government of said corporation and the management of its affairs and business as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

Extension limits.

§ 5. The said corporation is hereby authorized to extend the said several railways herein authorized to be built in the manner aforesaid, to any point or points in the county of St. Clair, in this state; and to enable said corporation to construct any or all of the railways herein authorized, or their appendages, the said corporation is hereby vested with power to enter upon and take possession of, and use any and all such lands and real estate as may be necessary for their construction or maintenance in the manner prescribed by an act entitled, "An act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852, and the several acts amendatory thereof; and may exercise all the powers conferred upon railroad corporations by an act entitled, "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporation," approved Nov. 3d, 1849. All lands and real estate so entered upon and taken possession of, shall be paid for by said corporation in damages agreeably to the provisions of the act hereinbefore first mentioned. And whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railway, to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad or any stream of water or water course, or road or highway on the route of said railway, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railway across, upon, in, over or along the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not to materially impair its usefulness.

§ 6. The said corporation may take and transport upon said railway, any persons, merchandise or other property by any competent force and power; and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property, transported on the same, as the directors shall from time to time establish, not exceeding the terms usual with like railway companies.

§ 7. The said corporation are empowered to borrow money to be used in the construction of said railway, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purposes aforesaid; and to dispose of bonds issued for money borrowed as aforesaid, at such rates and on such terms as the board of directors may determine.

APPROVED February 25, 1867.

AN ACT concerning the Capital Railway Company of Springfield.

In force Feb'y 25, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the proceedings for the organization of the Capital Railway Company be in all respects, and the same are hereby validated, and the said company is hereby recognized and declared a valid corporation under the laws of this state, and all proceedings of said corporation heretofore done in its corporate name, are declared good and effectual as corporate acts and liabilities incurred by said company are declared binding upon said corporation.

§ 2. That said corporation shall have power to construct, operate and maintain a single track horse railway, with all necessary turn-outs and switches from "Tenth street along and upon Monroe street westerly to its junction with Walnut street, thence south along Walnut street to Governor street, thence westerly along Governor street to the city limits of the city of Springfield, and thence westerly one-half mile beyond the city limits": Provided, however, that the grade of said streets, or the road-bed thereon, shall not be changed but by consent of the city council of the city of Springfield. And said company may hold and acquire all such property, real and personal, as may be necessary and convenient in constructing, operating or maintaining said road.

Right of way.

§ 3. Said company shall have the right to acquire the right of way for their said road beyond the city limits, by grant, gift or otherwise, from the land owners, and any such grant, release or gift heretofore made to said company shall be good and effectual for the purposes intended, and said company may acquire and hold real estate in fee simple not exceeding three acres, for the purposes of operating their said road, housing their carriages, horses or office connected therewith.

Capital stock.

§ 4. The capital stock of said corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars ($100) each, and said company shall have power to increase the same from time to time, as it may determine, and said stock shall be considered as personal property, and shall be transferable, in accordance with the by-laws of said corporation.

Subscriptions.

§ 5. Said corporation, through its directors, shall have power from time to time to call for all subscriptions to the capital stock thereof, heretofore or hereafter to be made, and upon thirty days' notice of such call, published in some newspaper of the city of Springfield, may either sue for and collect such subscriptions or portions called for, or upon default being made in the payment thereof for thirty days after the same shall have become payable, may, at the expiration of said thirty days, forfeit the stock of any delinquent subscriber, and all payments thereon to said company, by a declaration of such forfeiture on the books of said company.

Management of affairs.

§ 6. The affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of directors of not less than three, to be annually elected by the stockholders in such manner as may be determined by the by-laws of said corporation, and said company shall have the right to adopt and enforce all by-laws deemed necessary and proper for the government of said corporation, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this state or of the United States; and said company may prescribe and enforce reasonable rules for the preservation of good order by passengers on their trains.

Rates of fare.

§ 7. Said company shall be entitled to charge and collect such fares for carrying passengers as from time to time it may deem reasonable, and which shall be uniform in respect of persons.

§ 4. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors and such officers and agents as said board of directors shall appoint. The first board of directors shall consist of Willis M. Hitt, Richard Cody, David L. Hough, E. Fallett Bull, Theron Brewster, William B. Day and Philip K. Behrend, and thereafter of not less than five nor more than seven stockholders, who shall be chosen each and every year by the stockholders, at such time and in such manner as the said corporation shall, by its laws prescribe. The said directors shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified, and may fill any vacancies which may happen in the board of directors by death, resignation or otherwise. They may also adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations, for the government of said corporation, and the management of its affairs and business, as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, or the laws of this state. Directors.

§ 5. To enable said corporation to construct said railway, with the necessary appendages, it is hereby vested with power to take and apply private property for the purpose, and in the manner prescribed by an act entitled, "An act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of Private property.

internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852, and the several acts amendatory thereof, and may exercise all the powers conferred upon railroad corporations, by the 25th and 26th sections of an act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations, approved November 5, 1849, as containing and making recompense for all damages sustained, agreeable to the provisions of the act hereinbefore first recited.

Bonds, etc.

§ 6. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to issue bonds, to aid in the construction of said railway; said bonds to bear a rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. The principal and interest of said bonds to be payable at such time and place, as the board of directors may elect. The said bonds shall constitute a first lien upon said railway and its appendages.

Corporation subscription.

§ 7. The said cities of LaSalle and Peru are hereby authorized to subscribe to the capital stock of said corporation, to an amount not exceeding the sum of ten thousand dollars each, and shall make such subscription in the same manner, as cities and counties are authorized to subscribe for stock in railroad companies, by the provisions of an act entitled an act, supplemental to an act, entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 6, 1849, which is hereby incorporated with and made a part of this act: Provided, however, that no registration of voters shall be required for the election at which such question shall be submitted to the electors of said cities.

In force March 5, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Chicago and Calumet Horse and Dummy Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Charles H. Machin, John G. Osborne, John L. Thompson, Benjamin F. Smith and Charles C. Copeland, and their associates and successors, are hereby made a body corporate and po- litic, by the name and style of "The Chicago and Calumet Horse and Dummy Railroad Company," and as such corporation, shall exist with all the powers herein granted for the period of twenty-five years only; may sue and be sued, have a common seal, may make by-laws, make contracts, and have and enjoy so much real estate as shall be necessary for their business.

§ 2. It shall be lawful for said company to locate a horse or dummy engine railroad, with one or more branches, and along and upon any of the streets, roads or highways, in the county of Cook, outside of the limits of the city of Chicago, and east of a line corresponding with the west line of State street in Chicago if extended, that shall be designated and approved by the board of supervisors of Cook county. And the said company may extend their railroad or branches, from time to time, subject to the same approval, and may construct and operate the same, with necessary turnouts, switches and sidetracks, and run thereon cars drawn by horses or cars with engines attached, commonly called dummy engines, for the carrying of passengers; and may charge and collect fare therefor. The said road shall not extend into the city of Chicago, nor shall said company have the power to condemn lands or lots for the use of their road.

§ 3 The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, but the same may be increased from time to time by a vote of the stockholders, to three hundred thousand dollars. The stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be deemed personal property, and transferable as such on the books of the company in the manner prescribed by the by-laws.

§ 4. The business of the company shall be conducted by a board of five directors, who shall have power to appoint officers and agents and prescribe their duties; to make by-laws, to determine times when, and the installments in which the stock shall be paid. The directors shall be elected annually by the stockholders. Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote in the election of directors, and in increasing the capital stock.

§ 5. This act shall be a public act and be in force from and after its passage.

In force March 8, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the City Hotel Company, of Carrollton, Illinois.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Alexander W. Lynn, David M. Woodson, David Pierson, Charles D. Hodges, George Wright, Hiram Keach and Thomas H. Boyd be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic by the name of "The City Hotel Company, of Carrollton, Greene county, Illinois," with perpetual succession, power to sue and be sued, to make by-laws, not contrary to law, to make and use a common seal, and have the powers and privileges of natural persons for the purposes in this act contemplated.

§ 2. Whenever the organization herein provided is effected, the said company shall have power to receive and take, by purchase, gift, or otherwise, lots or real estate within the limits of said city of Carrollton, of whatever value may be deemed necessary, and in whatever amount, for the erection, completion and putting into operation of a first class hotel in said city, at a cost not to exceed $100,000, and which shall be constructed with store rooms and offices underneath, if deemed best, and be completed within five years from the passage of this act.

§ 3. So soon as $25,000 shall be subscribed in shares of $100 each, the said corporators, or any five of them, shall publish a notice in one or more newspapers of said city of Carrollton, calling a meeting of the stockholders, which notice shall be published ten days before said meeting, and at the time therein stated the subscribers, or a majority of them, shall proceed to organize by the election of a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer and board of not less than three nor more than seven directors, all of whom shall be stockholders, who shall all hold their office one year, and shall perform such duties as may be required by resolution, by-laws or by this act, and for such compensation and under such regulations as may be fixed by the said by-laws; and at all regular meetings which shall be held for elections, each shareholder shall cast one vote for every share of stock, and no irregularity in the notice of subsequent annual elections or failure to give the same shall affect the organization, but the meeting, should the calendar yearly day fall on Sunday, shall be held the first Monday thereafter.

§ 4. The board shall have power to borrow money, purchase materials, contract for labor, employ an architect, appoint a building committee, carry on and complete said work, or let the contract to others, and do and perform all acts and things necessary to the effectual completion of the said building, which shall be finished off and ornamented in such style and elegance as the board shall see fit, and be in all respects equal to any house of equal cost in the state.

§ 5. That when so completed, said house shall be put into operation and conducted or rented or leased as the board may think best, and may be sold or leased for a term of years on a two-thirds vote of the stockholders, and when sold, and the corporation dissolved, the proceeds shall be distributed pro rata among the shareholders.

§ 6. The shares of stock so subscribed may be collected in installments, or the whole thereof at one time, as the board may determine, and the publication of any order of the board calling for payment in any newspaper of said city for ten days daily, tri-weekly or weekly, shall be deemed lawful demand of said stock and the same may be forthwith sued for.

shares.

§ 7. The president shall preside at all meetings, and in his absence the vice president; the treasurer shall receive, receipt for and account for all moneys of the company, and shall give such bond as the board may require. The secretary shall keep a record of all official acts of the board, shall keep and control the seal, shall, on treasurer's receipt, issue certificates of stock, which shall be personal property and assignable on the books of the secretary, and the certificate of the printer and the seal of corporation, if they have one, and if not, the private seal of any regular officer of the company shall be prima facie evidence of the official acts of each and of the board, and of the due publication of all notices and orders; and the officers shall be competent to identify all books and records and to prove all the official acts of the company in all courts.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of said commissioners of highways, to expose the said highways, one section at a time, at public sale to the lowest and best bidder, commencing on the first Monday of May, 1867, and continue from day to day until all the sections have been exposed to sale, and every three years thereafter, of which sale at least ten days' notice shall be given by posting up notices in ten of the most public places in said town: Provided, that the commissioners may reject any bid they may deem too high and sell such sections at private sale; also, that any person not holding property subject to execution and sale for debts under the existing laws of the state, shall give such security for the performance of every contract so purchased as the commissioners of highways may require.

Proviso.

§ 3. It shall be the duty of each purchaser of a section to write his name and the sum he is to receive for repairing it in the commissioner's book under the description thereof, and any contractor neglecting to keep his section or sections in repair in conformity thereto, upon complaint of any citizen, made to the commissioners of highways of said town, it shall be their duty to examine thereinto, within four days, and if they deem the complaint well founded, to give notice thereof to the party complained of, and request him to put his portion of the road in good repair within six days, and if he still neglects or refuses to repair the same, it shall be the duty of said commissioners of highways to have the same put in good repair and the cost of said repairs shall be recoverable by said commissioners of said contractor or his security, with costs of suit. And if either of the commissioners holding contracts neglect or refuse to fulfill their contract, then the town auditors shall have the same powers and perform the duties required of the commissioners of highways, in manner and form herein provided for other delinquent contractors.

Taxes.

§ 4. That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of highways, within ten days after the sale of the public highways, and annually thereafter, to assess a poll tax equivalent to two days' labor, on every male inhabitant being above twenty-one and under fifty years of age (except such as may be exempt by law), also to assess a road tax on all real estate and personal property in said town, liable to taxation, for road purposes at such rate as will (with the poll tax) meet the sale and other expenses of making and keeping in repair said public highways in each year. And in no case shall any contractor receive more than one-third part of the amount of said sales in any one year, nor until an equal part of the work is done on his contract as estimated by the commissioners of highways.

Contracts.

§ 5. Any contractor who may remove out of the town by giving ten days' notice thereof in writing to one of the commissioners, before such removal, or in case of death, the commissioners shall pay to such contractor so removing or to the representatives of such decedent, such portion of the money specified in their contract as they shall believe them justly entitled to, and the unexpired time of such contract so yielded up or abandoned, also any sections of new road may be sold at private sale by the commissioners of highways.

Returns of taxes.

§ 6. That it shall be the duty of the commissioners of highways in said town of Richland, to make return to the supervisor of said town, of taxes not paid by contract, nor paid to the treasurer of the commissioners of highways or overseers of highways, are required to do in accordance with section forty-three (43), article seventeen (17), township organization of roads, highways and bridges, in force April 1st, 1861.

sociation for its merciful uses, and the grounds attached thereto shall not exceed the yearly revenue of ten thousand dollars. They shall have power also to make such by-laws and regulations for their own government and discipline and for the admission of new members into the institution, their duties and time of service as they may deem necessary and advisable: Provided, that said by-laws and regulations be not inconsistent with the constitution of the United States or of this state: And provided also, that no person or persons, shall be or remain a member of the corporation except members of the association in good and regular standing, and such officers as are now or shall hereafter be elected in the manner hereinafter provided.

Objects.

§ 2. That the objects of this association shall be the relief of the sick and insane, the care of orphans, the education of youth, and the exercise of mercy to the unfortunate and destitute, and that the property of said association occupied for these purposes and the income used in their support, shall be exempted from taxation, nor shall the grounds of said association be subject or liable to have any public road, street, lane or alley, laid out or opened therein so long as they shall be used and employed for the charitable purposes aforesaid.

Management of affairs.

§ 3. The government and management of this association, shall be under the direction of a board of managers, who shall consist of a director, who is chairman, a vice director, a directing sister, a treasurer and secretary, two of whom with the director, and in case of his absence, the vice director and the directing sister, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; of these, the director, vice director and directing sister shall be chosen by ballot, jointly by the board and the other members of the aforementioned Institution of Protestant Deaconesses, a notice having been given of such election, at least two months before, to the board and all the members of the aforesaid Institution of Protestant Deaconesses, wherever they may be laboring. The secretary and treasurer, shall be annually chosen by the board alone, at the regular annual meeting on the second Monday of February, in each year and in case of any vacancy in the board, by death, resignation, removal or otherwise, the remainder of said board shall have power to fill such vacancy by the election of another person until the next annual meeting, or until an election can be held: Provided, that a failure to elect, on the day and time mentioned shall not work a forfeiture of the charter: And provided also, that a failure to secure a quorum, on the day aforementioned for the annual meeting shall not work a forfeiture of the charter. The aforementioned board of managers shall also have power to establish, control, govern and manage any hospital, orphan house, insane asylum or school, necessary and proper for the carrying out and fulfilling the general objects and purposes of the association, as herein declared and set forth, also to contract for and erect all necessary buildings, provide all the accommodations, arrangements and conveniences requisite for the reception and proper care of the patients, orphans and pupils; they shall prescribe the kind and character, of the inmates and patients, and the terms and conditions upon which they may be admitted, discharged and removed, and make such regulations for their government and that of the officers, and all others employed in and about the institutions, under their care as they may deem necessary and proper, from time to time.

§ 4. That as the persons composing the aforementioned association are members of the Evangelical Lutheran church and desire to remain unmolested in the free exercise of their religious faith and worship: It is hereby provided, that no one shall be elected director of the association, or vice director, who is not a clergyman in good, and regular standing in an acknowledged Evangelical Lutheran Synod, in the United States.

§ 5. That no misnomer of the said corporation shall defeat or annul any gift, grant, conveyance, devise or bequest, to the said corporation: Provided, that the intent of the party or parties, shall sufficiently appear upon the face thereof, whereby any estate or interest, was intended to pass to said corporation, or to any hospital, asylum, orphan house, school or other charity, under the management and control of the corporation hereby created. Hoffman, Van H. Higgins, John V. Farwell, Edwin H. Sheldon, Gilbert Hubbert, Iver Lawson, Erland Carlson and Thomas B. Bryan, and their successors, appointed as hereinafter provided, shall constitute a board of visitors, who shall meet annually on the third Monday in January, to examine and report for publication, the condition and management of the Deaconess' hospital aforesaid, for which purpose they shall have free access to all the buildings, apartments and grounds belonging thereto, and the inspection of all books, papers and accounts relating to the management thereof. And it shall be their special duty to investigate, and in their annual report set forth, any discrimination which may at any time hereafter be made in favor of the sick of one creed, color or country over another in the granting of permits or the care of the sick, to the end that such abuse may be speedily corrected. All vacancies in said board of visitors shall be filled by a vote of the majority of the patrons of the hospital, hereinafter mentioned, at a meeting convened for the purpose on the call of the surviving members of the board, or in default of such election, by the board of visitors at their next annual meeting.

Directors' annual reports.

§ 8. The director of the hospital, together with the physicians and treasurer, all of whom are appointed by the aforementioned "Institution of Protestant Deaconesses," shall present an annual report of their respective departments of the hospital to the said board of visitors, which, if so ordered by them, shall be published in pamphlet form.

Privileges of contributors.

§ 9. Any contributor who has already, or who shall hereafter, subscribe the sum of one thousand dollars at a single benefaction, or who has subscribed a less sum and shall increase the same to one thousand dollars, on payment of the same into the treasury, shall be entitled to become a patron for life, and shall have the right to nominate and send in gratuitously one patient at all times during the year: Provided, that the person so nominated shall be of the condition and fall within and comply with the rules that may be established for the government of the hospital; and the same privileges and rights shall be conferred on any person or corporation paying one hundred dollars annually for the period of fifteen years, and the same privileges and rights to the free beds of the hospital shall be conferred on any church or religious society which shall take an annual collection for the benefit of the hospital amounting to the sum of seventy-five dollars annually.

Removal of funds, etc.

§ 10. The funds and property of said hospital shall never be removed from Chicago.

§ 11. The property and effects of said hospital, in the event of the said board of Protestant Deaconesses becoming, extinct, or in way failing or refusing to take the charge and care of said hospital, shall become and be the property of said board of visitors, in trust, for the uses and purposes, and by them to be managed, in accordance with the provisions of this act. Property, etc.

§ 12. No discrimination shall at any time be made in said hospital in favor of the sick of any creed, color or nation, either in the granting of permits or in the reception of patients, or in the care of the sick, or in any other particular. Discrimination of creed, color etc.

§ 13. In the event of a failure at any time on the part of said institution of Protestant Deaconesses to provide for the care of the sick in said hospital, said board of visitors may make proper provisions for such care. Care of sick.

Assessments. § 8. It shall be the duty of the aforesaid board of directors, immediately upon making any such assessment, to serve a written notice upon each of the stockholders so assessed, stating the amount of the estimate and the sum assessed against such stockholder, which notice may be served by delivering a copy thereof to such stockholder personally, or by leaving a copy thereof at the residence of such stockholder with some member of his or her household: Provided, however, that if any stockholder of said corporation shall not be a resident of said city of Elgin, the said board of directors in lieu of serving such written notice upon such non-resident stockholder, may publish the same by one insertion in a public newspaper of said city of Elgin, which said publication shall have the same force and effect as the personal service of said notice.

Payment of assessments. § 9. Within ten days after the notice or publication of the notice mentioned in the preceding section hereof, the sum so assessed shall become due and payable from each stockholder to said board of directors, and it shall be the duty of each stockholder so assessed, to make immediate payment of the same to the treasurer of said corporation, at his office in Elgin aforesaid.

Refusal to pay. § 10. Should any stockholder of said corporation, neglect or refuse for the space of ten days after the service or publication of such notice as provided in the preceding section hereof, to pay the amount of such assessment to the treasurer of said corporation, it shall be the duty of said board of directors to cause a copy of such estimate, assessment and notice to be filed in the office of the county clerk of said Kane county, and at the next regular term thereafter of the Kane county court, the judge thereof, shall hear the evidence offered in support of and against such estimate, assessment and notice, and confirm, annul, change or amend the same in a summary manner according to the rights and interest of said corporation and stockholder: Provided, however, that no assessment shall be made against any stockholder of said corporation, except upon the basis of the number of square inches of water power owned or represented by him or her, as compared to the whole amount of said power.

Proviso.

Judgments. § 11. It shall be the duty of the clerk of said court, immediately upon the rendition of any judgment in the cases provided for in the preceding section, to enter said judgment upon the records of said court, and to issue execution thereon in the manner provided by statute for the entering of judgments and issuing of executions in the circuit courts of this state.

Validity, force and effect of. § 12. The judgments rendered in pursuance of this act, shall be a valid lien upon the portions of water power against which the same are assessed and the executions issued thereon, shall have the same force and effect, and shall be executed and returned in the manner provided by statute, for the collection and return of executions issued by clerks of the circuit courts of this state.

§ 13. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to prevent said board of directors from bringing suit for the collection of any assessment made by them according to the provisions of this act in the established courts of this state. Collection of assessments.

§ 14. The said company may by its by-laws, establish such penalty for the violation by any of its members of any of the foregoing sections, or the regulations made in pursuance thereof, not to exceed twenty-five dollars for any one offence, the same to be recovered in an action of debt before any justice of the peace, in and for Kane county. Penalties, etc.

§ 15. This act shall be a public act, and shall be favorably construed for the enforcement of its provisions, and it shall be in force from and after its passage. Construction of act.

APPROVED March 9, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Fox River Hydraulic and Manufacturing Company. In force Feb'y 16, 1867

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Clark Wilder, Amos T. Hall, John R. Coulter, Vine A. Watkins, W. W. Bishop, Julian S. Rumsey, Charles L. Hoyt, William Lawrence, E. H. Haddock, Eugene Canfield, Russell C. Mix, D. W. Hurd and Robinson L. Carter, and their associates, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate by the name and style of "The Fox River Hydraulic and manufacturing company," and by that name they and their successors shall have succession and be capable in law of contracting, and being contracted with, in all courts and places, and in all matters whatsoever; of having and using a common seal, and of altering or changing the same at pleasure; and they, and their successors may also, by that name and style, be capable of purchasing, holding, enjoying, conveying, leasing and incumbering, such real and personal estate as, in the opinion of said corporation, may be necessary for the purposes of said corporation, in the due exercise of its business. Corporators.
Name and style
Powers.

§ 2. The capital stock of said corporation shall be two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and be deemed and considered as personal property, and the same shall be subscribed for and taken, under the direction Capital stock.

of the board of directors of said corporation, in such time and places and manner as the board of directors shall from time to time direct. The said capital stock of said corporation may from time to time be increased by the board of directors to any amount not exceeding one million of dollars.

Organization.

§ 3. The affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of nine directors, one of whom shall be chosen by said board president, another secretary, and a third treasurer, of said corporation; and a majority of said board, present at any meeting thereof, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from time to time. The first board of directors of said corporation shall be elected by the corporators hereinbefore named, or a majority thereof, from their number, as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, and shall hold their respective offices until their successors shall be elected and qualified. As soon as fifty thousand dollars of the capital stock of said corporation shall have been subscribed for and taken, in the manner hereinbefore provided for, it shall be the duty of said board of directors to call a meeting of said stockholders by giving one week's notice, either by personal service, or by advertisement in some newspaper published in the city of Aurora, of the time and place of said meeting, at which said meeting, said stockholders shall proceed to elect the second board of directors, a plurality electing; which said board of directors shall hold their respective offices for the term of one year, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; and the annual meeting of the stockholders of said company shall thereafter be held on the same day of the same week in the same month on which said first meeting of said stockholders shall be held, in each and every year, unless said stockholders shall, at some annual meeting direct otherwise: Provided, however, that if for any cause, any such annual meeting shall not be held, and such election had, said corporation shall not thereby be held to be dissolved, but, in such case, it shall be the duty of the president and secretary of said corporation, to call a special meeting of the stockholders thereof, by giving four weeks' notice thereof, in some newspaper published in the city of Aurora, specifying the time and place of such election; and any election had at such special meeting shall be as valid and effectual as though it had been held at the time hereinbefore provided for.

Proviso.

§ 4. At all elections held by the stockholders of said corporation, for said board of directors, each stockholder shall be entitled so one vote for each share of stock held by him, and may vote either personally or by proxy. And no person shall be eligible as a member of said board of directors, unless he be, at the time of such election, a stockholder in said company, and above the age of twenty-one years: Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the board of directors first to be elected under the provisions of this act. Proviso.

§ 5. In case of any vacancy occurring in said board of directors, by death, resignation or otherwise, the same may be filled by the board at any regular meeting of the same; and the person, so elected to fill such vacancy, shall hold his office until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified. In case of the absence of the president, secretary or treasurer, of said corporation, said board shall have the power to appoint substitutes respectively, who shall have the powers, and perform the duties of such office respectively, pro tempore. Vacancies.

§ 6. The board of directors of said corporation, shall have the power, from time to time, to make such rules and regulations, for their own guidance, and for the guidance and control of the subordinate officers and employees of said corporation, not repugnant to the laws of this state and of the United States, as they may deem expedient; they may also appoint such sub-committees, engineers, agents and attorneys, and other subordinate officers, with such powers and under such limitations, as they may deem expedient; and the records of said board of directors, or of any officer thereof, or of said corporation, kept according to the by-laws of said corporation, shall be admitted in all courts and places whatsoever, and be held to be prima facie evidence of the proceedings of said corporation, or of the officers thereof. Rules and regulations.

§ 7 At each meeting of the stockholders of said corporation, for the election of a board of directors as hereinbefore provided, a report of the condition of the affairs of said corporation, shall be submitted by said board of directors to said stockholders, which shall be sworn to by the president, secretary and treasurer, of said corporation. Said report shall contain a statement of the assets and liabilities of said corporation, and of the receipts and expenditures of the same during the preceding year. Reports.

§ 8. The capital stock of said corporation that may be taken and subscribed for, as hereinbefore provided, from time to time, shall be payable in such installments, and at such times, as the board of directors shall from time to time determine, thirty days' notice of each call, (except the installment to be paid down, if any such shall be by said board of directors required), being given by said board, under the hand of the secretary, in some newspaper published in the city of Aurora: Provided nevertheless, that no call on said stock shall be made by said board of directors of an amount exceeding twenty-five dollars a share, at any one time: And provided further, that at least ninety days shall intervene between the time when any two calls on said stock shall be due and payable. Stock subscription.

Proviso.

Proviso.

Stock—transfer

§ 9. The stock of said corporation shall be transferable upon the books of said corporation only, and in such manner and upon such conditions, as the board of directors of said corporation may prescribe; but in case any stockholder shall be in arrears for calls made upon stock held by him, he shall not have the right, while he is so in arrear, to transfer or assign the same, without the consent of the board of directors, and while so in arrear, any such stockholder shall be debarred from the privilege of voting at any election for officers of said corporation.

ments, etc.

§ 10. The said company shall have a lien upon all the shares of stock held by the several stockholders, for the payments of such installments thereon as may be called for by the board of directors, under the provisions of this act; and if any stockholder shall fail to pay any such installment, when the same shall be required of him, said corporation may have any or all of the following remedies, as the board of directors may determine, to-wit:

Suits.

First, Suit may be brought against such stockholder in any court of competent jurisdiction, and the amount of such installment or installments, with interest thereon, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, from time to time when the same became due and payable, to the rendition of the judgment, recovered against him.

Forfeitures.

Second, The board of directors may declare the said stock forfeited to said corporation, unless the amount due thereon, with interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum, from the time when the same so became due and payable, shall be paid within thirty days. And if the same be not paid within thirty days after notice to such delinquent stockholder from said board of directors, of their declaration or resolution as aforesaid, said stock shall be, and be held to be, forfeited to said company.

Sale.

Third, The board of directors may cause the stock of such delinquent stockholder to be sold at auction, by giving thirty days' notice of such sale, in some newspaper published in the city of Aurora; and out of the proceeds of such sale, first deducting all expenses of such sale, they shall retain the sum due on such stock for the installment or installments in arrear, with interest at the rate aforesaid, and the overplus, if any, shall be paid over to the stockholder who held the stock so sold.

Assessments—

§ 11. Without the concurrence of at least three-fourths in value of all the stockholders of said company, no assessment shall be made upon the paid up stock of any stockholder for any additional payment, on account of such stock, nor in any event shall any or all such assessment or assessments ever be made to an amount exceeding twenty-five dollars per share. Every stockholder of said corporation shall be personally liable to the amount remaining unpaid of the stock held by him, for the debts and liabilities of said corporation, and no further.

§ 12. Said company may acquire, hold, own, enjoy and control, create and maintain such lands near to and water power upon Fox river in the state of Illinois, as may be deemed suitable for the operations of said company and improvements connected therewith, or any part thereof, together with the rights and privileges accruing therefrom, or in any wise appertaining thereto; may erect such buildings and machinery, as they may deem expedient; may engage in the manufacture of cotton, woolen, hempen, flaxen or other goods, machinery or other manufactures; and may lease or sell power, lands and machinery, to individuals or corporations, as may be deemed expedient; and may also acquire, hold and enjoy such other real estate as may be deemed necessary, and may lay out the same as a town, or as an addition to a town, in streets, alleys, blocks, lots and squares, and sell and convey the same, or any part thereof under such regulations, and upon such conditions as the board of directors, or any officer or agent appointed for that purpose by said board of directors, may prescribe. Said company may also take and hold such notes, mortgages and other choses in action or securities as in the transactions and business of said company may become necessary or convenient, and may collect, sell or assign the same. And the board of directors shall have power to declare dividends out of the actual profits of said corporation or from the sale of the land last above mentioned, payable either in cash, or stock, as may be deemed expedient.

Lands, etc.

Business and operations.

§ 13. In case said corporation shall desire to obtain from the proprietors or owners thereof any lands for the improvement of any water power which they may acquire under the provisions of this act, which they may need for the location of any canals or race of any kind or description whatever, or for the location upon, of any bulk heads or tail races, head gates, or other appurtenances necessary to the use of said water power, or any lands that may be flowed, or otherwise injured by their said dam, canals or races, and shall be unable to obtain the same by voluntary purchase, grant, assignment or release, said company shall have the right to, and may proceed to appropriate such lands to their use, and to condemn the same, and to have the damages sustained by such owners by reason of such appropriation, assessed under and in pursuance of the provisions of the general laws of this state, that from time to time may be in force, relative to acquiring and condemning of rights of way, and upon the tender of the amount of such appraisal to such owner or owners, and in case the same is not accepted, the deposit of the amount thereof with the clerk of the circuit court, in the county where such lands are situate, said company are hereby authorized to enter upon such lands, for the construction of said improvements.

Appropriations of lands, etc.

Improvements. § 14. The improvements mentioned in the preceding section shall be deemed, and are hereby declared to be, internal public improvements, and this act shall be liberally construed for the furtherance of the same.

Indebtedness. § 15. The said company are authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time such sum or sums of money, not exceeding the capital stock of the company, as in the discretion of the board of directors, may be deemed necessary, in the construction of their improvements and works, and to pay any rate of interest therefor, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and to pledge and mortgage the said improvements and the appendages, or any part thereof, or any other property or effects, rights, credits or franchises of the said company, as security for any loan of money and interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued for such loan at such rate or on such terms, as the board of directors may determine.

§ 16. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 16, 1867.

In force Feb'y 21, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the DesMoines Rapids Improvement and Hydraulic Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Ivory Quimby, Zebulon Parker, John G. Fonda, George Edmonds, jr., Alexander Sympson, Francis M. Corby, Mathew M. Waldemeyer, William C. Hooker and David Mack, and their successors, associates and assigns, be, and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The DesMoines Rapids Improvement and Hydraulic Company," and by that name they, their associates, successors and assigns shall have perpetual succession, shall have power to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in all courts and places; to acquire, hold, use or convey real or personal property, in such quantities as they shall deem necessary for the use of said corporation, not exceeding five millions of dollars, and may acquire the same by purchase, gift, condemnation or otherwise, and may use, rent or sell the same or any part thereof, as fully as natural persons may do; may borrow money for the use of said company, and secure the same by mortgage upon their property, franchises or otherwise. The capital stock of said company shall be five millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, but said company may fully organize and do business whenever one hundred thousand dollars of such stock shall be subscribed and five per cent. thereof paid in. Books shall remain open for subscription to such stock, until the entire stock shall be taken. No stock shall be subscribed after the organization of said company, unless five per cent. of the amount subscribed shall be paid into the treasury of said company at the time of such subscription.

§ 2. The persons named in the first section of this act shall be commissioners to take subscriptions to the stock of said company, until said company shall be organized. Commissioners. Whenever one hundred thousand dollars of said stock shall be subscribed, said commissioners shall call a meeting of stockholders, and said stockholders shall elect nine directors, Officers. but no person shall be elected director unless he owns at least ten shares of said stock. Said directors shall hold their office for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and shall elect one of their number president, who shall hold his office for one year, and until his successor is elected and qualified. Said directors shall appoint a secretary and treasurer, and prescribe their duties, and may require bond in such condition and penalty as they shall prescribe. Said secretary and treasurer shall hold their office during the pleasure of said directors. Said directors may appoint such other officers and agents as they shall think advisable, and prescribe their powers and duties; may fix the compensation of all officers and employees; may make all needful by-laws, not inconsistent with the laws of this state; shall keep an office in Hancock county, Illinois. A majority of said commissioners shall meet at Carthage, Illinois, and open books for subscription to the stock of said company, within thirty days after the passage of this act.

§ 3. Said company are hereby authorized and empowered to construct any work in, or near the Mississippi river, on or near the Des Moines rapids, for the improvement of the navigation of said river, and for hydraulic purposes, which shall be approved by the congress of the United States of America, or by the secretary of war under authority of any law of the congress of the United States, and may charge such tolls, for the use of said works, as congress of the United States or the legislature of Illinois shall prescribe. And for the purpose of the erection and completion thereof, shall have power to condemn such grounds, stone, clay, gravel, earth and other material as shall be required for such work, in the same manner as any railroad company or other public works; or the managers or superintendents thereof, may obtain the right of way, or material Authority to construct work. for the construction thereof, under any law of this state. Right of way. Either party may appeal from such condemnation as prescribed for appeals in case of railroads or other public work condemnations, but such appeal shall in nowise prevent the Mills, etc. progress of the work on the occupation by said company of the property condemned, provided the amount originally assessed shall be paid into court with costs. Said company may construct and operate mills and machinery of any and all kinds, or rent or lease the same, or may lease or sell the use of water for hydraulic purposes, but shall in no case materially interfere with the navigation of said river, by the draft of water therefrom, for hydraulic purposes.

Possession by U.S. etc. § 4. Either the state of Illinois or the United States, may at any time take possession and control of the works hereby contemplated for the improvement of the navigation of said river, upon paying to said company the original cost of such work with interest at ten per cent., (deducting tolls received by said company:) Provided, however, that the hydraulic power created thereby, shall forever be and remain the property of said company, their successors and assigns, and shall never be interfered with, either by this state or the United States, except to make such regulations that the water drawn by said company shall not materially interfere with the navigation of said river.

Subscription to capital stock. § 5. The subscriptions to the capital stock of said company shall be collectable in the name of said company, the same as a note of hand payable to said company; and the directors of said company may make such calls as they may deem advisable therefor, giving thirty days' notice of such calls, and may recover upon each separate call the same as on a note of hand for such subscription. Said stock shall be personal property, and transferable upon the books of said company only. Said company may declare any stock forfeited to said company for non-payment of any call.

Time of construction. § 6. The company hereby created shall commence the making of said improvements in good faith, within three years after the passage of this act, and complete the same within ten years from the same date, and in case of default therein, all the rights granted hereby, shall cease and be null and void.

§ 7. This act shall be a public act and be in force from and after its passage.

Swift, Elisha Wordworth, and all others who may become associated with them as subscribers to the stock of the company hereby created, their successors and assigns forever, be and they hereby are created and made a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of the "International Life Insurance Company," and by that name shall be and hereby are empowered to purchase, have, hold, possess and enjoy, by themselves, successors and assigns, forever, lands, tenements, hereditaments, goods, chattels, choses in action, and effects of every kind, and the same to grant, sell, alien, invest, loan and dispose of; to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity; to have and use a common seal, and the same to change, alter or renew at pleasure. But, nevertheless, said corporation shall not be entitled to acquire, hold or possess real estate, except such as may be necessary for the purposes of its business, unless the same shall be acquired for debts due said corporation. And no real estate, except such as may be used in the transaction of its business, shall be held by said company for more than five years after acquiring the same. In case of any loss which the company may sustain under any policy issued by it, or other evidence of indebtedness or liability, it shall be lawful for said company to draw upon any funds for the payment thereof which may stand to the company's credit, and also to make advances upon orders where moneys may be placed to its credit.

§ 2. The business and affairs of said corporation shall be managed by a board of not less than three nor more than fifteen directors, and such officers and agents in this state and other states and places as they may appoint. The first board of directors shall be elected by the corporators aforesaid, or such of them as may act, together with such other persons as may become associated with them as subscribers to the stock of said company; and thereafter the said directors shall be elected by ballot, by and from the stockholders of said company. They shall hold their office for the term of three years, and until others shall be elected or chosen to fill their places. In case of a vacancy by death, resignation or otherwise, the remaining directors may fill such vacancy, by appointment, until the next regular election. A majority of said directors shall always be residents of the state of Illinois. The said board of directors shall have power to ordain and put in execution such by-laws and regulations as they may deem proper for the well ordering and government of said corporation: Provided, they be not repugnant to the laws of the United States or of this state, or to the provisions of this act of incorporation. They shall have power to appoint all such officers and agents as they may think desirable, and to fix their salaries, compensation, duties and terms of office. They shall require the officers in charge of the home office of said company to make out an annual report of the resources and liabilities, receipts and expenses, business and losses of the company—to be verified by affidavit—of which report each stockholder and policy holder shall be entitled to a copy, on application at the office of the company. The home office of said company shall be located in the city of Chicago. Insurance policies and other contracts to which said corporation may be a party, shall be valid and binding with or without the seal of said corporation attached. There shall be a meeting of the stockholders at the office of the company, in Chicago, on the third Wednesday of May of each and every year. Six stockholders, representing, either by ownership or proxy, one-half the capital stock of the company, shall constitute a quorum for transacting business.

Organization.

§ 3. At any time within two years from and after the passage of this act, the said incorporators, or such of them as may act, shall proceed to organize the company, by the election of the first board of directors, and open books for subscription for the capital stock of said company; and subscribers therefor may be required to pay for the stock so subscribed for by them in installments, as may be ordered by said board of directors; and they may and shall forfeit, for the use of the company, all installments and payments that may have been made by them thereon, upon failure to make due and punctual payment of any installment that may be called for or ordered by said directors.

tion.

§ 4. At all elections for directors the stockholders shall be entitled to one vote, by themselves or proxy, for each share of stock held and owned by them respectively.

§ 5. Shares on said capital stock shall be transferable only on the books of said corporation, according to the rules and regulations of the company.

Capital stock.

§ 6. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, and may be increased to any sum not exceeding one-quarter of a million of dollars. Before any life risks shall be taken, or any annuity or endowment contracts made (except to shareholders), at least seventy-five thousand dollars shall be subscribed; and there shall first be paid in, as capital stock, at least fifty thousand dollars.

§ 7. Certificates of shares in the capital stock may be issued for such uniform amounts as may be provided for in the by-laws; and it shall be lawful for the directors to guarantee and pay from the net profits of the company's business preferred dividends.

Net premiums.

§ 8. A portion of all the net premiums received on life risks or for annuity or endowment contracts, sufficient to cover the value of all outstanding life policies, annuity and endowment contracts, shall be set apart to pay losses and liabilities, and shall be called the reserve fund, and the remainder thereof, after paying losses and liabilities, shall be invested and re-invested for its own account, and the remainder and income thereof shall be kept, held and used to pay losses by life risks, annuity and endowment contracts of this company, so long as any such risks or contracts are outstanding.

§ 9. No insurance to exceed ten thousand dollars shall be taken or granted on any one life. Insurance limit

§ 10. No loan shall be made to any stockholder, on pledge of his or her shares in the said capital. Loans.

§ 11. The company may also have and exercise all other rights and powers incidental, usual and needful, in the business of life insurance, or in granting annuity or endowment contracts and re-insurance.

§ 13. The company may receive, execute and fulfill, for any of its shareholders, any trust or trusts which the board of directors may deem proper to accept for them and their successors in office. Trusts.

§ 14. No trust or trusts, accepted by the board of directors, as provided for in sections fifteen and sixteen hereof, shall in any way be a charge or lien on the said capital or the said reserve fund; nor shall any part of said capital or reserve fund be used or appropriated for any such trust or trusts. Liens.

§ 15. The business, affairs, funds and values of each and every trust accepted for the company by the board of directors, shall be kept separate, each for its own account, and each of such trusts at its own risk. Trusts separate.

§ 16. Nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize the business of banking. Banking forbid.

§ 17. Unless the said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void; and nothing in this act shall be construed so as to exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies. When to organize.

§ 18. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AN ACT to incorporate the Home Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Paris, Illinois. In force March 6, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Calvin W. Levings, Daniel G. Burr, Andrew J. Hunter, James A. Eads, of Paris, Illinois, and their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby incorporated into a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of "The Home Insurance Company, at Paris, Edgar county, Illinois," to have continuance and succession, for the term of fifty years, from and after the passage of this act; and, by said corporate name and style, shall be, for the term aforesaid, capable in law and equity to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, and to do all other matters and things necessary in law to protect and defend their corporate rights; and may have a common seal, which they may change at pleasure.

Capital stock. § 2. The capital stock of said company shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars; which may be increased to three hundred thousand dollars, but no more, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The stock shall be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the company; but no stockholder shall be permitted to transfer his stock while he is indebted to the corporation.

Subscription. § 3. The persons named in the first section of this act are appointed commissioners for procuring said capital stock of one hundred thousand dollars; and said commissioners, or any three of them, shall open subscription books for such stock on such days and at such times and places as they may deem expedient, and shall give at least three weeks' notice of the name in one or more newspapers printed in the town of Paris, or elsewhere; and said books shall be kept open from time to time until the sum of one hundred thousand dollars be subscribed.

Stockholders' meeting. § 4. When the full amount of one hundred thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, and one dollar on each share of stock paid on subscription to said commissioners, they shall then notify the stockholders of the same, and appoint a time and place at which they shall meet, giving five days' notice of said meeting in one or more of the weekly newspapers published in the town of Paris, and receive their votes for the election of not less than five nor more than thirteen directors, who shall manage the business of the company, and shall hold their office for one year and until others are elected in their places, and who shall at the time of their election, be citizens of the United States and holders, respectively, of not less than ten shares of stock. The voting at all elections shall be by ballot; but absent stockholders may vote by proxy, in writing.

Election of directors. § 5. When the stockholders shall have elected the board of directors, the commissioners shall deliver to said directors the subscription books, moneys collected on account of the same, and all other papers and things in their hands necessary to a full organization of said company; and the said directors shall proceed to organize, by the election of a president from among their number, a secretary, and any other officers or agents they may deem necessary for the successful working of said company, who shall hold their offices during one year. The board shall adopt such by-laws for the general conduct of the business of [said] company as they may from time to time deem advisable; they shall also fix the salaries and define the duties of all employees of the company.

§ 6. When the board of directors shall be organized, as provided in section five, they shall call in, by personal or public notice of at least ten days, such an amount of the capital stock as they may deem expedient, but not less than nine dollars on each share; which, together with the amount paid to the commissioners, shall constitute the first installment on the capital stock and shall require the residue of the said stock to be secured by United States bonds, state bonds at their par value, or first mortgages on real estate of double the value on the amount secured, and shall issue therefor certificates of stock, setting forth the amount paid in cash, and the amount and condition of the stock notes for the residue; and that the stock books of said company, after the organization of said board shall continue open at the office of said company for subscription, until the full one hundred thousand dollars shall have been subscribed; and upon the subscription of any stock, after the organization of said board, the sum of ten per cent. shall be paid into the board by the person subscribing such stock, which shall constitute the first installment on the stock so subscribed; and the board of directors shall require the residue of the stock so subscribed to be secured by good and legal stock notes, and issue certificates for such stock, in the same manner as is provided for the execution of stock notes and granting certificates for the stock subscribed before the organization of said board: Provided, that if at any time the directors shall consider any of the stock notes insecure they shall have power to require additional security on the same, after due notice, under such penalties and forfeitures as they may provide in their by-laws.

§ 7. This corporation shall have power to issue policies of insurance against loss or damage by fire on houses, stores and all other buildings and structures, on personal property of all descriptions, and to make marine insurance upon steamboats and all other vessels and water crafts, on their tackle, freight, cargoes and all kinds of personal property in course of transportation; and to do and perform all necessary acts and things connected with these objects or any of them. All policies of insurance shall be subscribed by the president or vice president and countersigned by the secretary.

§ 8. The board of directors shall make such dividends, annually or semi-annually, as in their judgment the affairs of the company will permit. All such dividends shall be indorsed upon the unpaid stock notes until they are paid in full.

Invest funds. § 9. It shall lawful for the said corporation to invest its funds in United States stocks, stocks of this state, mortgages on inuncumbered real estate, in Edgar county, or elsewhere, with fifty per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon, and on such other safe securities as the board of directors may determine.

Fiscal year. § 10. The fiscal year of the company shall commence on the first day of January, and terminate on the thirty-first day of December. The officers of the said company shall during the month of January, in each year, cause a full and accurate statement of the affairs of said company to be made in some one of the weekly newspapers published in the town of Paris.

Principal office. § 11. The principal office of said company shall be located in the town of Paris, Edgar county, Illinois, but it may have agents and transact business within and out of the state.

Possession of real estate, etc. § 12. It shall be lawful for said company to purchase and hold such real estate as may be convenient for the transaction of its business, and, also, to have and hold any real estate as security, by mortgage or otherwise, to secure the payment of debts due in good faith to said company, either for shares of capital stock or otherwise; also, to purchase real estate at any sale in virtue of any judgment at law, decree in equity, or deeds of trust, in favor of said company.

Election for directors. § 13. The stockholders of said company shall meet, annually, on the second Monday of January, in each year, and elect directors for the then current year, at the office of the said company, in the town of Paris.

Conferred franchises, etc. § 14. That all the franchises and powers conferred by act of incorporation upon the "Sangamon Insurance Company," approved February 16, 1857, be and the same are hereby conferred upon the "Home Fire and Marine Insurance company," at Paris, Edgar county, Illinois.

Time for organization limited. § 15. Unless the said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be void, and nothing in this act shall be construed so as to premit said company to [do] banking business or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies.

§ 16. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

And nothing in this act shall authorize this company to do a banking business.

APPROVED March 7, 1867.

AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company," approved Feb. 13, 1863. In force March 7, 1867.

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly:

SECTION 1. That the corporation created by the act to which this an amendment, shall hereafter be known and

Name and style called by the name and style of "The Southwestern Insurance Company," and all the powers, rights, franchises, property and privileges, granted by the act to which this is an amendment, or which may have been acquired by the said "The Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company," are hereby declared to be vested in the persons who were shareholders in said "The Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company," on the first day of January, 1867, and their successors and assigns and associates; and all the powers, rights and privileges granted by section 13 of the act to which this is an amendment are hereby expressly declared to be vested in "The Southwestern Insurance Company," and wherever the word "mutual" occurs in the act to which this is an amendment the same is hereby stricken out.

Sec. 2 repealed. § 2. That section two of the act to which this is an amendment be and the same is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the second section of said act, to-wit: All persons owning shares in the capital stock of said corporation shall be members thereof and shall be entitled to one vote for each share so owned.

Sec. 6 repealed. § 3. That section six of the act to which this is an amendment be and the same is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the sixth section of said act, to-wit: The rates of insurance shall be fixed by the board of directors or executive committee of said company. The capital stock of said company shall be two hundred thousand dollars, and shall consist of stock notes and cash assessments; but the said company may at any time increase its capital stock to any amount not exceeding three million dollars, and may declare the cash premiums, or any portion thereof, to be part of the capital stock.

Sec. 7 amended. § 4. That section seven of the act to which this is an amendment shall be and is hereby amended by striking out of said section the word "premium" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "stock."

Sec. 8 amended. § 5. That section eight of the act to which this is an amendment shall be and the same is hereby amended by striking out of said section the following words, to-wit: "during the time for which their policies were issued to the amount of their premium notes and cash premium," and inserting in lieu thereof the following words, to-wit: "to the amount of their subscribed stock."

Sec. 9 repealed. § 6. That section nine of the act to which this is an amendment be and is hereby repealed, and in lieu thereof the following shall be the ninth section of said act, to-wit: "Whenever an assessment is made upon any stock notes given to said company, such assessment shall be due in thirty days thereafter, and if the stockholders executing the same shall fail to pay such assessment for sixty days after notice thereof (which notice shall be given in the manner provided by by-law), the stock of such stockholder may be forfeited to the company by resolution of the board of directors; and in case of failure to pay such assessment, an action of debt may be maintained against said stockholder in the circuit court of the county where he may reside for the amount of such assessment, and the certificate of the secretary of said company that such assessment was made, the date the same was made, and the fact that thirty days' notice thereof had been given to such stockholder before the commencement of such action, together with the amount of such assessment, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. But upon failure to pay such assessment for thirty days after notice thereof, the said company may at its option bring suit upon the stock note of such defaulting stockholder, against both principal and sureties thereon, and in such suit the certificate of the secretary of said company shall be prima facie evidence as aforesaid."

§ 7. That the eleventh section, to which this is an amendment, of said act, is hereby amended by striking out of said section the word "policy" and inserting therein the word "share."

amended.

§ 8. The said "The Southwestern Insurance Company" shall have full power and authority to take risks and make insurance upon the life of any person for the benefit of such person, or for the benefit of any other person, and whenever they deem it advisable to do so, may establish a life insurance department of said company, to be regulated by by-laws made by said company for that purpose.

Authority and
powers.

§ 9. The said company, in addition to the powers already prescribed, may take risks upon ocean, gulf and lake navigation.

Marine risk.

§ 10. It shall not be obligatory upon said company to appoint an executive company.

§ 11. Hereafter the regular election of directors for said company shall be held on the first Monday in the month of January, annually, and the board of directors last elected for "The Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company" shall hold and continue in office as directors of the company until the first Monday of January, 1868; but a different day for the election of directors may be fixed by by-law.

directors.

§ 12. The president and secretary of said company shall issue stock certificates in the name of "The Southwestern Insurance Company" in lieu of the stock certificates now outstanding, and the stockholders are required to execute stock notes in and of the same amount to and in lieu of the notes executed to the Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company, and on a failure to do so, their stock may be forfeited after forty days' notice of the intention of the directors so to do shall have been given.

Certificates,

ers. § 13. That any and all mistakes, errors or omissions in the organization of "The Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company" are hereby declared to be cured, and all the powers granted by the act to which this is an amendment, and by this act are declared to be vested in this company.

Rights of action. § 14. All rights of action which have accrued to "The South Illinois Mutual Insurance Company" may be prosecuted by "The Southwestern Insurance Company," and suits may be brought and prosecuted to final judgment in the name of "The Southwestern Insurance Company" upon all notes payable to "The Southern Illinois Mutual Insurance Company."

§ 15. This act shall be a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

Banking prohibited.

§ 16. Nothing in this act, or in the act to which this is an amendment, shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies; and one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock of said company shall be secured by mortgages upon unincumbered real estate worth double the amount secured, or by United States bonds, or Illinois state bonds.

of all such committees, attorneys, agents and servants as to said board of directors shall seem proper. The first board of directors shall consist of nine members, all of whom shall be stockholders of said company, and the number of directors may thereafter be increased or diminished by said company, not however to be less than five, nor more than thirty-one, and no person shall be eligible to the office of director, who shall not at the time of his election, be the owner in good faith, in his own right of at least five shares of the capital stock of the company, and in all elections each share of said capital stock of said company shall be entitled to one vote.

§ 6. Said company on becoming organized, and before transacting any insurance business under such organization, shall file a certificate of such organization, specifying the amount of capital stock subscribed, and the amount actually paid in, in cash, and the names of the first board of directors, and the term of office for which they were elected, which certificate shall be executed under the hands and seals of said directors, and acknowledged by them before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds; and recorded in the office of the recorder, of the county of Bureau, and on recording said certificate, said company shall be deemed fully organized, and entitled to enter upon, and exercise and enjoy all the rights and franchises conferred by this act; and said company shall have power to charge and receive for insurance as provided in this act such premium or premiums, as shall be agreed upon, between the parties, either upon the stock or mutual plan, or both.

Additional installments—liabilities of stockholders—investment of capital stock.

§ 7. The board of directors shall have power from time to time, to require the payment of additional installments, of said capital stock, until the whole of said capital stock shall be paid in, and each stockholder shall be held liable for the debts of said company, for any and all losses and liabilities, to the amount of stock subscribed by him and no more; and the said directors may cause said capital stock to be invested in the bonds of the United States, or this state, or in the stocks of any national bank, organized under any law of congress, or in mortgages upon real estate; said land to be in all cases unincumbered, and worth at least fifty per cent. more than the amount secured thereon; and said company may under such rules as said directors may prescribe, make dividends to said stockholders, out of the net profits of the business of said company.

Principal office.

§ 8. The principal office of said company shall be located in the town of Princeton, in said county of Bureau, in this state, but the officers of said company may appoint such agents in other places as they may deem necessary.

Property, etc.

§ 9. Said company shall have power to receive, hold, sell and convey, all such property, personal or real, as shall be mortgaged, pledged, sold or conveyed to them, in security or payment of any indebtedness due in good faith to said company, or in any manner in good faith owing to them, or conveyed to them under any sale, by virtue of any legal process, decree or order of any court, made for and upon such indebtedness.

§ 10. All policies of insurance issued by said company shall be signed by the president or vice president and secretary, and all such policies shall be valid and binding on said company. Policies signed by president.

§ 11. A statement of the true condition of the company, shall be made to the stockholders each year, under oath, by the officers thereof, at the time of the annual election of directors. Statements.

§ 12. Unless the said company shall be organized within twelve months after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void, and nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said board from the operation of such general laws, as may be hereafter passed upon the subject of insurance companies. directors.

§ 5. The first board of directors shall hold their office until the second Monday in January next succeeding the organization of the company, and until their successors are elected. On the second Monday of January, in each year thereafter, or at such time as the by-laws may prescribe, an election of directors of said corporation, shall be held in the city of Chicago at such time and place as the existing board of directors may prescribe. The stockholders in said corporation, in person or by proxy, in writing, shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock held by them, respectively, at the time of election, and the persons to the number of nine, being stockholders, receiving the highest number of votes at such election, shall be declared elected directors of said corporation for one year, and shall hold their office until the next annual election and until their successors are elected. A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

stockholders.

§ 6. The board of directors shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur in their own body; a plurality of votes constituting a choice. They shall choose in the same manner, previous to the annual election of directors, three inspectors of such election, whose duty it shall be to canvass the votes cast thereat, and declare the result. The said inspectors shall be judges of the qualifications of voters. Notice of such election shall be given by publication in one or more daily newspapers, published in the city of Chicago, at least ten days previous thereto.

Vacancy.

Elections.

§ 7. The directors shall meet as soon as may be, after every election, and choose one of their number a president and vice president, who shall hold their office until the next annual election of directors, and until their successors are chosen. They shall also have power to appoint a secretary and such other officers or agents, as the corporation may determine.

Officers chosen.

§ 8. All policies of insurance, made by said corporation, shall be subscribed by the president or vice president, and countersigned by the secretary; and all losses accruing may be adjusted and settled by the president, vice president or secretary, under such regulations as the board of directors may from time to time prescribe.

Policies—losses

§ 9. The office of said corporation shall be at the city of Chicago; but agents may be appointed at other places, as may be deemed expedient.

Office.

§ 10. The board of directors shall from time to time, estimate the net earnings and profits that have accrued in the business of the corporation, and declare such a dividend thereof to the stockholders, as they may deem just and proper.

Dividends.

§ 11. By the consent, in writing of the stockholders, representing three-fourths of the amount of the capital stock, the insured may be allowed to participate in the net profits of the business of the corporation.

Profits.

§ 12. Unless the said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void, and nothing in this act shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies.

Time of organization limited.

Banking business prohibited

§ 13. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

§ 14. Said corporation shall have power to borrow money when deemed necessary in conducting its business; also to loan its surplus funds on good security, or invest the same under such regulations as the board of directors may prescribe.

Borrow money.

In force March 7, 1867. AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Mutual Security Insurance Company."

policies.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly That said Mutual Security Insurance Company shall have full power and authority to make marine, inland, and all other insurances, and to grant insurance policies of all kinds, covering every species of risk taken by insurance companies.

Participating policies.

§ 2. Said company may issue participating policies, or such as will entitle the insured to participate in the net earnings of said company from insurance, as provided in its charter, or non-participating policies, as may be agreed between said company and its customers, and upon all policies upon which shall be written or printed "participating in net profits from insurance," and under which no losses shall occur; the holders shall participate in the manner pointed out in the original charter of said company. All other policies shall be issued, and all other insurances made upon the non-participating or ordinary principles adopted by stock companies.

capital stock.

§ 3. Said company may increase its capital from time to time to such amount as may, in the opinion of the majority of its directors, be expedient; and may have and elect such number of directors as the stockholders present at any annual meeting shall determine or direct. And out of their number, said directors may elect an executive committee, which committee shall have the general management of the business and affairs of said company, subject to the control of the board of directors.

ness prohibited

§ 4. And nothing in this act, or in the act or which this is an amendment, shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies.

§ 5. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AN ACT to incorporate the Illinois Life Insurance Company.

Corporators.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William English, James B. Cahill, George W. Hall, George Edmunds, jr., John Moffitt, Francis M. Corby, Bryant T. Scofield, Charles A. Savage, N. Bushnell, George J. Rodgers and Onias C. Skinner, and all others who shall be associated with them as stockholders in the corporation hereby created, shall be a body corporate by the name of the "Illinois Life Insurance Company," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, may sue and be sued, prosecute and defend in all courts and places; may have and use a common seal, which they may break and alter at pleasure; and may purchase, hold or convey any estate, real or personal, for the use of said company; and the board of directors shall have full power to make and execute by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of said company, so as to secure the well ordering of all its affairs: Provided, that they be not repugnant to the laws of the United States or of this state.

§ 2. The persons named in the first section of this act shall be the first board of directors, and shall hold their offices until the first Monday in January next, after the organization of the said company. Annual elections of the said company shall be held on the first Monday of January, at the office of the company, and if it shall so happen that an election be not held on the said first Monday of January, it shall be lawful for an election to be held on any other day by giving ten days' notice, by publication in a newspaper printed in the city of Quincy. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of the capital stock by him or them subscribed and paid, or secured to be paid, and stockholders may vote in person or by proxy. The board of directors may appoint three of their number to act as an executive committee, which committee shall have all the powers of the board when the board of directors are not in session; and the board of directors may fill any vacancies occurring in the board of directors or executive committee.

§ 3. The board of directors shall meet as soon as may be after every annual election, and choose from their number a president, vice president and treasurer. A secretary, general agent, and other officers, may be appointed by the board of directors or executive committee, upon such terms as may be agreed upon. The duties of officers and agents shall be prescribed by by-laws.

§ 4. The home office of the said company shall be in the city of Quincy, in the county of Adams and state of Illinois. The business of the said company may be carried on at any other place, by agency.

§ 5. All policies of insurance or renewals thereof, made by the said company, shall be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, or by persons authorized to act as such.

§ 6. The capital stock of the said company, shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, and may be increased from time to time, in the manner provided for by this act, or by the by-laws of the said company. The stock of

- the said company shall be transferable on the books of the said company, and not otherwise: Provided, that at least ten per cent. of the capital stock, shall at all times be paid in, in cash, and the balance be secured by mortgage on real estate worth double the amount secured thereby, or by United States or state bonds, at their market value.
- Proviso. § 7. Books of subscription to the stock of the said company, may be opened, by direction of a majority of the parties named in this act, living at the time said company is organized.
- Subscription.
- Business and operations. § 8. The said company shall have power to make insurance upon the lives of individuals, and upon the lives of persons connected, by marital relations, to the persons applying for insurance; and also, upon the lives of persons in whom the applicant has a pecuniary interest as creditor, or otherwise; to receive trusts, grants, annuities and endowments, and purchase the same, in such manner and for such premiums and considerations as the board of directors or executive committee shall direct. The board of directors may collect and sell its securities, and re-invest the proceeds thereof, and may accumulate a contingent capital by receiving conditioned notes for insurance, at the time of insuring any person or persons; such notes to be paid in the way and manner provided for in the note or notes, and by the by-laws of the said company.
- Contracts of insurance. § 9. Said company may issue such contracts of insurance, and receive therefor such premiums, as may be agreed upon. Premiums may be payable at one time, or in conditional installments. The capital stock of said company shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and each share shall be entitled to represent one vote at each annual election of directors.
- Premiums.
- Stock shares.
- Rules, etc. § 10. The board of directors may determine the rates of insurance, and the limitations and conditions of validity in the policies, and the sum that may be insured on one life, not exceeding ten thousand dollars.
- Stockholders' liabilities. § 11. That no stockholder of the corporation hereby created, shall be liable, in his individual capacity, for any debt or liability of said company, beyond the amount of stock held by him. And this act shall not be construed to authorize said company to engage in the banking business. This act shall be subject to any general law of this state, on the subject of insurance or insurance companies. This act shall be void, unless said company shall organize and proceed to business within two years after the passage hereof.
- Organization.
- Construction of act. § 12. This act is hereby declared to be a public act, and the same shall be construed liberally for the purposes herein specified, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

Corporate powers.

States, and do all other things necessary in law to defend their corporate rights.

Capital stock.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and may, at the pleasure of said corporation, or of its board of directors, be increased to any further sum not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, and shall be payable as follows, viz: One dollar on each share when the same is subscribed for, and nine dollars on each share within thirty days thereafter, the remainder of said stock shall be secured, to be paid, by mortgage on unincumbered real estate worth double the amount secured, U. S. bonds, Illinois state bonds, national bank currency, or other security, to be approved by the board of directors of said company, or such other securities as may be required by any general insurance law of the state, and shall be payable on twenty days' demand. The stock shall be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the company, and certificates shall be issued therefor: Provided, that no stockholder shall be permitted to transfer his stock while he is indebted to the corporation; and also, if at any time the directors shall consider any of the notes or securities given for balance of stock, as above specified, insecure, they shall have power to require payment, or additional security on the same, after due notice, under such penalties and forfeitures as they may provide in their by-laws.

—duties of.

§ 3. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners for procuring said capital stock of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and they, or a majority of them, shall at such times and places as they may deem expedient, open subscription books for such stock, and shall keep such books open from time to time until the whole amount of said stock is subscribed, and when said stock is all subscribed, shall give at least five days' public notice in one of the weekly papers published in the city of Rockford, of the time and place of the first election of directors.

Directors.

§ 4. There shall be, for the well ordering of the affairs of said corporation, a board of not less than five, nor more than thirteen directors, chosen annually from among and by the stockholders of such corporation, by ballot, on the second Tuesday in January, in each year, and said directors shall hold their offices, at pleasure, from one annual meeting to another, and until their successors are elected. Absent stockholders may vote by proxy, in writing. Each share shall have one vote at elections and on all questions coming before meetings of the stockholders.

Officers, etc.

§ 5. The said directors shall choose from among their members, a president and vice-president of said corporation, and in case any vacancy shall occur in said directors, said directors may elect a director, (or directors,) from among the stockholders, to fill such vacancy, who shall hold office at pleasure, until others are chosen in their room; and said directors shall have power to appoint, for the time being, such officers, secretaries, agents and servants, as they shall judge necessary, and shall be capable of performing such other acts, and exercising such other powers, as shall be necessary for carrying out the objects of this charter.

§ 6. This corporation shall have power to make contracts of insurance on dwelling-houses, stores, and all kinds of buildings, and upon household furniture and other property, personal and mixed, of all descriptions, and upon books of accounts, leases and rents, against loss or damage by fire or lightning, or any other causes; and to make contracts of insurance upon vessels, boats, cargoes, goods, merchandise, freights and other property against loss or damage by all or any of the risks of lake, river, canal and inland navigation and transportation, for such term or terms of time, for such premium or consideration, and under such restrictions and conditions as may be agreed upon between the company and the persons or bodies corporate or politic, agreeing with them for such insurance, and to do and perform all necessary acts and things connected with these objects, or any of them, and may cause themselves to be re-insured on any risk or insurance which they may have assumed or taken in the progress of their business. All policies of insurance shall be subscribed by the president or vice-president, and countersigned by the secretary, and shall bind and oblige said corporation according to the terms and tenor thereof.

Powers and obligations.

§ 7. The board of directors of said corporation are authorized to invest its funds in United States stocks, or in stocks of any of the United States, mortgages on unincumbered real estate worth fifty per cent. more than the amount loaned thereon, in bonds and stocks of other incorporated companies, or in such other securities as they shall deem most for the interest of the corporation, and the said stocks or securities, at pleasure, to alien and convey.

Investment of funds

§ 8. The principal office of said company shall be located in the city of Rockford, but it may have agents, and transact business within or out of the state.

Principal office.

§ 9. It shall be lawful for said company to purchase, hold, and at pleasure, to dispose of, and convey, such real estate, as may be convenient for the transaction of its business, or such as it may purchase at any sale in virtue of any judgment at law or decree in equity, in favor of said company, and void while said notes are past due; and the said board of directors are hereby authorized to declare null and void, any policy, upon which the note given for premium, or any part of the same is due and unpaid.

Real estate, etc.

Policies.

§ 10. All additional subscriptions to the capital stock, beyond the first one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, shall be made on such conditions as the board of directors may determine.

Treasurer.

§ 11. At each annual election of directors for said company, a treasurer, of said company shall be chosen for the term of one year by a majority of said directors, and such treasurer so chosen, shall be required to give security, by a good and sufficient bond, for the true and faithful performance of his duties as such treasurer; which bond shall be approved by a majority of said board of directors, and in case of the death, resignation or other removal from office, of such treasurer, the directors by a majority, may appoint a treasurer for the unexpired term, and who shall give bond, as is in this section hereinbefore provided.

Time for organization.

§ 12. Unless the said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void, and nothing herein contained shall be construed, so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said company from the operations of such general laws, as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies.

Banking prohibited.

§ 13. This act shall be liberally construed, for the purposes therein contained, and shall be deemed a public act, and take effect from and after its passage.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Freeport Insurance Company.

Change of charter.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the name of said company may be changed to the "German Insurance Company of Freeport," by a two-thirds vote of the board of directors of said company, at any meeting called for that purpose.

Business, etc.

§ 2. For the better security of the policy holders, the directors of said company may secure United States stocks, Illinois state stocks, or mortgages on unincumbered real estate worth double the amount the face of the mortgages; such value to be certified by the clerk of the circuit court of the county, and by the supervisor of the town where such real estate is situated, to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. Such stocks or mortgages shall be entitled to representation in the election of directors in the ratio of one vote for every one hundred dollars; and such stock or mortgages shall be liable for the losses and expenses of the company, whenever the premiums paid or to be paid are not sufficient to pay said losses and expenses.

§ 3. This act and the act to which this is an amendment shall not be deemed to exempt said company from the operations of such general laws as may be hereafter enacted by the general assembly, on the subject of life insurance.

Subject to general insurance laws.

§ 4. This act shall be a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 25, 1867.

AN ACT to amend the charter of the American Insurance Company of Freeport, Illinois. In force Feb'y 25, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the board of directors of the American Insurance Company may, at any time they shall deem it for the best interests of the said company, remove the home office of the said company to the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois. And all acts and things authorized to be done at the city of Freeport shall be lawful, if done at the city of Chicago. And all acts and things already done at the city of Freeport shall in nowise be affected by the removal of said company to the city of Chicago, in the state of Illinois. Notice of such removal shall be published in a daily newspaper printed in the city of Chicago, for at least one week before any removal of the home office of such company shall be made.

Removal of home office.

§ 2. The guaranteed capital or capital stock of said company may consist in United States stock, state stocks, stocks of other corporations, bonds, mortgages upon real estate, and indorsed promissory notes bearing seven per cent. interest. Said company may pass such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws, of this state or the United States, as may be necessary for subscription to guarantee or capital stock, for the payment of assessments upon the same, and for the payment of dividends of profits to stockholders: Provided, that no dividend of profits shall be declared, which shall impair the guarantees or stock capital, or interest be paid to exceed ten per cent. per annum of such guarantees or stock capital, when dividends of profits are not declared.

Capital stock.

§ 3. Said company may do a general life insurance business, and such other kinds of insurance as the board of directors shall deem expedient. The directors may invest and reinvest the surplus funds of said company: Provided, that nothing be so construed as to authorize the business of banking.

Business.

§ 4. The corporation now existing, by virtue of the original charter of said company, together with the several acts amendatory thereto, shall have perpetual succession.

Perpetual succession

[§ 5.] This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall be liberally construed for the purposes therein mentioned, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.
APPROVED February 25, 1867.

In force February 25, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the American Standard Life Insurance Company of Springfield, Illinois.

Hatch, Asa Eastman, Newton Bateman, Milton Hay, James D. B. Salter, John S. Bradford, Samuel H. Melvin, Ellis Worthington, Jeremiah D. Low, C. Moulton Smith, Benjamin M. Griffith, William M. Springer, Edward F. Leonard, John W. Bunn, Levin W. Shephard, Albert H. Lanphear, William F. Fox, P. Wilde Harts, Cyrus G. French, William P. Crafton, Calvin H. Flower, George M. Brinkerhoff and Richmond Wolcott, and the persons who may be assured under the provisions of this act, and their associates, successors, and assigns, be and they hereby are constituted a corporation, by the name of "The American Standard Life Insurance Company," to be located at Springfield, Illinois, for the purpose of making insurance on lives, in all its branches, including the granting and purchase of annuities, with all the powers and privileges, and subject to all the restrictions hereinafter provided.

§ 2. All the corporate powers of this company shall be vested in, and exercised by a board of directors, which shall consist of twenty-eight members, fifteen of whom shall constitute a quorum.

§ 3. The persons whose names appear in the first section of this act, shall constitute the first board of directors, and shall hold their office for the term of three years from the date at which this charter shall commence, under this act, or until their successors shall be chosen.

§ 4. At the expiration of the term of office of the first board of directors, their successors shall hold their office for the term of one year, and be chosen annually, as follows: An election shall be held on the second Wednesday of January, A. D. 1870, and annually thereafter; at which election fourteen directors shall be chosen by the stockholders, and fourteen by the policy-holders, members of this company, who shall hold their office for one year from the expiration of the term of their predecessors.

§ 5. Each stockholder and each policy-holder, holding a policy for an amount not less than one thousand dollars, shall be entitled to cast one vote at any election of directors. Vote of stock-holders.
Voting by proxy

§ 6. Any stockholder or policy-holder, who may not be present to vote personally at any election, may cast his vote by proxy, in such manner as the directors may have provided.

§ 7. Each board of directors shall, at its first regular meeting, choose from their own number a president, vice president, and secretary, whose duties shall be prescribed by the by-laws of the company. Officers.

§ 8. In case of a vacancy in any office or in the board of directors of the company, caused by death, resignation, or removal from the state, the board shall have power to fill such vacancy. Vacancies.

§ 9. The said corporation, by their president, shall have power to bring or defend all suits at law or in equity, in the name and in behalf of said company, which may be instituted by or against the same. Suits.

§ 10. It shall be lawful for this company to buy, sell, lease, or otherwise hold, such real estate as they may deem expedient, not exceeding fifty thousand dollars in value. Real estate.

§ 11. There shall be an original guarantee capital stock subscribed to this company, of not less than one hundred thousand dollars, which shall be transferable in such manner as the board of directors shall by by-law determine, which may be increased, at the discretion of the board of directors, to be not more than one million dollars. Said capital stock shall be divided into shares of one thousand dollars each; ten per cent. of which shall be paid in in cash, and the remaining ninety per cent. secured, as hereinafter provided, before the said corporation shall go into operation for the purpose of insuring—the remaining ninety per cent. of said capital stock to be secured to said company in the same manner as other investments, as hereinafter provided; which unpaid capital stock may be called for by the board of directors, from time to time, whenever they may deem it necessary, and which shall be paid in by the stockholders as demanded. Guarantee capital stock.

§ 12. The board of directors shall invest the paid-in capital stock and premium accumulation of said company in the following manner, except so much of the same as may be necessary to defray the current expenses of said company: Investment of capital stock.

First—In bonds and mortgages, which shall be first mortgage liens upon real estate where the sum invested shall not exceed one-half of the cash value of the property mortgaged, exclusive of perishable improvements.

Second—In government bonds or United States securities, at their market value.

Third—In state bonds of any of the states, at their market value.

Fourth—In county or city bonds, bearing at least seven per cent. interest, the market value of which shall be par.

Insurance rates. § 13. The directors may determine the rates of insurance and the sum to be assured in any one risk, and make all such by-laws and regulations as may be necessary in the management of the affairs of this company.

Dividends. § 14. Whenever the net receipts of the company, over the losses and expenses, and after providing for risks, as may be required by law, shall be sufficient for the purpose, the stockholders shall be entitled to an annual dividend on stock, of seven per cent., to be paid out of the funds of the company; and in case such dividend shall not be made in any one year, it shall be made good at a subsequent period, when the net resources of the company shall be sufficient for paying the same.

Reserved fund. § 15. After providing for risks, losses, incidental expenses, and dividends on stock, as aforesaid, the directors shall set apart one-quarter of the estimated surplus funds as a reserved fund, to be applied to the credit of the guarantee stock, until the same shall be fully paid up by such credits; after which the stockholders shall only be entitled to the annual dividend on their stock, as hereinbefore provided.

Credits. § 16. Whenever the guarantee stock shall receive a credit, as provided in the fifteenth section of this act, the security pledged for the payment of said stock shall receive a like credit; and whenever the said guarantee stock shall have been fully paid up by such credits, as aforesaid, the security of stock shall be released.

Purchase of stock. § 17. It shall be lawful for this company to buy in the original guarantee capital stock, or any part of the same, whenever the board of directors shall so determine.

Directors. § 18. Whenever the guarantee capital stock shall have been entirely bought in, as hereinbefore provided, the policyholders shall elect the board of directors.

Division of dividends. § 19. Dividends arising out of the surplus funds of the company, after making full provisions for all liabilities, shall be divided equitably among the policy-holders, at such times and in such manner as the board of directors may direct.

Charter perpetual. § 20. The charter granted by the provisions of this act shall be perpetual, and shall be in force from and after the first day of March, A. D. 1867: Provided, an organization be effected under the same within two years from the date of its commencement.

Banking prohibited. § 21. Nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to permit said company to do a banking business, or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of life insurance companies.

§ 22. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

- Name.
- Powers, etc. § 2. The corporation hereby created shall have the power to insure lives, on the stock or mutual plan, and to make all and every insurance appertaining to or connected with life risks, the granting of endowments, and to grant and purchase annuities; and all persons who shall insure with this corporation, and also their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, continuing to be insured in said corporation, shall thereby become members thereof.
- Seal and by-laws § 3. The Empire Mutual Life Insurance Company shall have a common seal; and shall have power to make re-insurance of any risk which they may take; and may make all such by-laws, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state, as may be deemed necessary for the appointment of its officers and agents, and the conduct of its affairs, in the various cities and towns of this state and of sister states and foreign governments, as the said corporation may deem most for its interest.
- Plan of insuring § 4. This corporation shall be deemed a Mutual Life Insurance Company, but may adopt either the stock or mutual plan. All profits of the business done on the stock plan shall be the property of the stockholders, and shall be kept in a separate department.
- Premium, etc. § 5. Every person who shall become a member of this corporation, by effecting insurance therein, shall, before he receives his policy, pay the rates that shall be fixed upon and determined; and no premium so paid shall ever be withdrawn from said company, except as hereinafter provided, but shall be liable for all the losses and expense incurred by this company.

§ 6. There shall be a president, a vice-president, a secretary and a treasurer, all of whom shall be elected for the term of three years, by the stockholders. Officers.

§ 7. Geo. M. Kimbark, Fred. H. May, Chauncy T. Bowen and Wm. F. Brewster, shall be and are hereby authorized to act as commissioners in securing subscriptions to the capital stock, and may open books for that purpose at such times and places as may be deemed by them necessary, and may call meetings of stockholders, when necessary, to perfect the organization of the corporation. Commissioners

§ 8. All the corporate powers of the said company shall be exercised by a board of trustees and such officers and agents as they may appoint, all of whom must be members or stockholders. Trustees.

§ 9. The board of trustees shall consist of eleven persons, and those named in this act shall constitute said board, who shall be a quorum for the transaction of business, and who shall be such quorum until otherwise provided by by-laws, and may, from time to time, make due provisions in said by-laws for increasing the number of trustees, as may be deemed proper in the extension of the business of the said corporation.

§ 10. The officers and executive committee shall determine the rates of insurance and the sums to be insured, and shall invest the premiums as hereinafter prescribed. Insurance rates

§ 11. All policies issued by this corporation may grant a general permit for travel to all civilized parts of the United States, or healthy parts of the United States, or healthy portions of the globe, free from extra charge. Travel permits.

§ 12. The central office or chief department shall be located by the stockholders, after the whole amount of the capital stock shall have been subscribed. Central office.

§ 13. This corporation may comply with all lawful requirements of such sister states as may be deemed proper by the officers and executive committee of said corporation; and it shall be lawful for them to establish a principal agency department in each of the said states, and shall appoint a manager of the business in said state, who, together with a local board of medical examiners, of not less than two practicing physicians, shall have power to accept or reject all risks offered for insurance in said state. Agencies, etc.— medical examiners.

§ 14. For the purpose of affording security to policy holders, and to enable the corporation to fully carry the objects in view into active and successful operation in sister states, there may be a stock capital subscribed to the amount of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which shall be divided into two hundred and fifty shares of one thousand Stock capital—dollars each; and at least one hundred and fifty thousand dollars of said capital, so subscribed, shall be paid in cash or secured by first mortgage on improved productive property, worth double the amount insured, located in any state where said corporation may have established an agency department.

Guarantee fund § 15. The said capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars shall be deemed a guarantee fund, and may be loaned or invested, so as to secure to the stockholders a rate of interest of at least seven per centum per annum; but in no case shall the premiums, or any portion thereof, which have been paid by persons seeking insurance on the mutual plan, be used in payment of the interest on said guaranteed capital.

Investment of funds. § 16. It shall be lawful for the said corporation to invest the premiums received in the securities designated in the two following sections, and to sell, transfer and change the same, and re-invest the funds of said corporation, whenever the trustees shall deem expedient.

Premiums. § 17. The whole of the premiums received for insurance by said corporation, except as provided for in the following section, may be invested in bonds secured by mortgages on unincumbered real estate. The real estate or property, to secure such investment of capital, shall, in every case, be worth twice the amount loaned thereon. The real estate which it shall be lawful for this corporation to purchase, hold, possess and convey, shall be:

Real estate. First.—Such as shall be requisite for its immediate accommodation in the convenient transaction of business.

Second.—Such as shall have been mortgaged to it, in good faith, by way of security for loans previously contracted, or for money due.

Third.—Such as shall have been conveyed to it, in satisfaction of debts previously contracted, in the course of its dealings.

Fourth.—Such as shall have been purchased at sales upon judgments, decrees or mortgages, obtained or made by such debts.

Investment of premiums. § 18. The trustees shall have power to invest a certain portion of the premiums received, not to exceed two-thirds thereof, in public stocks of the United States, or of any state, or of any incorporated city.

Suits. § 19. Suits at law may be maintained by said corporation against any of its members, for any cause relating to the business of said corporation. Suits at law may also be prosecuted and maintained by any member against said corporation for loss, by death, if payment is withheld more than three months after the company is duly notified of such losses; and no member of the corporation shall be debarred his testimony as a witness in any such cause, on account of interest in such suit, or of his being a member of said company; and no member of the corporation, not being in his individual capacity a party to such suit, shall be incompetent as a witness in any such suit on account of his being a member of said company.

§ 20. The officers of said company, at the expiration of every year, from the time that the first policy shall have been issued and bear date, or within sixty days thereafter, and during the first sixty days of every subsequent period of one year, shall cause a balance to be struck of the affairs of the company, and shall credit each mutual member with an equitable share of the profits of said company; and, in case of the death of the party whose life is insured, the amount standing to his credit at the last preceding striking of balance, as aforesaid, shall be paid over to the person entitled to receive the same, or, in lieu thereof, an annuity may be paid, in the discretion of the executive committee. Balance.

§ 21. No members, except officers of the company and agents thereof, shall be personally liable for the losses of the company; and such officers and agents, severally, shall be liable, but only for the losses arising by reason of their own respective neglect or misconduct. Liabilities.

§ 22. On some day in the first thirty days after the expiration of the first three years, from the time when the said company shall issue its first policy, and within the first thirty days of every subsequent three years, the officers of said company shall cause to be made a general balance statement of the affairs of said company, which shall be entered in a book prepared for that purpose, which shall be subject to the examination of every member and stockholder of the company, during the usual hours of business, for the term of thirty days thereafter. Such statement shall contain: Statements.

First.—The amount of premiums received during the said period.

Second.—The amount of expenses of said company during the same period.

Third.—The amount of losses incurred during said period.

Fourth.—The balance remaining with said company.

Fifth.—The nature of the security on which the same is invested or loaned, and the amount of cash on hand.

§ 23. It shall be lawful for any married woman, by herself and in her name, or in the name of any third person, with his assent, as her trustee, to cause to be insured, for her sole use, the life of her husband, for any definite period, or for the term of his natural life; and in case of her surviving her husband, the sum, or net amount of the insurance becoming due and payable by the terms of the insurance, shall be payable to her, to and for her own use, free from the claims of the representatives of her husband or his creditors; but such exemption shall not apply where the amount of premium annually paid shall exceed five hundred dollars. In case of the death of the wife, before Who may insure the decease of the husband, the amount of the insurance may be made payable, after death, to her children, for their use, or to their guardians, if under age.

Forfeiture.

§ 24. No policy of insurance issued by this company shall be forfeited or become void by the non-payment of premium thereon, any further than regards the right of the party insured therein to have it continued in force beyond a certain period, to be determined as follows, to-wit: The net value of the policy, when the premium becomes due and is not paid, shall be ascertained according to the "combined experience" or "actuary's" rate of mortality, with interest at four per centum per annum, after deducting from such net value any indebtedness to the company on notes held by the company against the insured; which notes, if given for premiums, shall then be canceled; four-fifths of what remains shall be considered a net single premium of temporary insurance, and the term for which it will insure shall be determined according to the age of the party at the time of the lapse of premium, and the assumption of mortality and interest aforesaid. If the death of the party occur within the term of temporary insurance covered by the value of the policy, as determined in this section, and if no condition of the insurance other than the payment of premium shall have been violated by the insured, the company shall be bound to pay the amount of the policy the same as if there had been no lapse of premium, anything in the policy to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, however, that notice of the claim and proof of the death shall be submitted to the company within ninety days after the decease: Provided, also, that the company shall have the right to deduct from the amount insured in the policy the amount of seven per cent. per annum of the premiums that had been forborne at the time of the death.

Retiring stock.

§ 25. At the expiration of the first ten years of the company's existence, it shall be optional with the stockholders, as to the retiring of said capital stock, provided the mutual department shall be possessed of a sum in cash equal to said capital stock, over and above the necessary surplus or reserve fund required for re-insurance.

Organization.

§ 26. Unless said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void. And nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit said company to do a banking business, or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies.

§ 27. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

APPROVED, February 25, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Kankakee Insurance Company.

25, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James McGrew, John H. Smith, John Dale, Emery Cobb and James N. Orr, and their associates, successors, and assigns, be and hereby are created a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Kankakee Insurance Company;" and by such name may have perpetual succession; may sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto in all courts and places whatsoever; and to have and use a common seal, and to renew and alter the same at pleasure. Said company shall have power to purchase, hold, enjoy and convey all such real or personal property as shall be necessary for the convenient transaction of the business and affairs of said company, and for the preservation and safe keeping of books, papers and records of said company; and also to make all such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States or of this state, as shall be necessary for the proper management, regulation or control of the business or affairs of said company, and amend or repeal the same.

Name and style

Corporate
powers.

§ 2. Said company shall have power to insure any and all persons, companies and corporations, against loss or damage by fire, lightning, or wind, to any dwelling house, store, shop, or other building, household furniture, merchandise, or other property, whether personal or real, and against accidents of every description, both to persons or property, and against all risks by inland navigation and transportation, of persons and property, including navigation and transportation upon any and all the rivers, canals and lakes within the United States of America and the several provinces of North America belonging to the government of Great Britain, and also including transportation upon all railroads within the United States and said British Provinces, and do all such acts and things appertaining to such business of insurance, as may be necessary for the proper transaction of the same.

Insurance.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, and may be increased to any sum, not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and said stock shall be personal property, and be assignable and transferable only on the books of said company, and under such regulations as the directors may establish.

Capital stock.

§ 4. The persons above named are hereby appointed commissioners to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, and shall, as soon after the passage of this act as they or a majority of them shall deem advisable, open books to receive subscriptions to said capital stock; and whenever not less than one hundred thousand dollars of said capital stock shall have been subscribed, and not less than ten per cent. thereof actually paid in to said commissioners, in good faith, in cash, said company shall be authorized to become organized under this act, and to elect a board of directors, and to enter upon the transaction of said insurance business.

Officers.

§ 5. The board of directors shall be authorized to elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and general agent for said company, and such other officers as they may deem proper, and determine the term of office and mode of election of the same; to enact all by-laws, rules and regulations of said company; and to provide for the appointment of all such committees, attorneys, agents, and servants, as to said board of directors shall seem proper. The first board of directors shall consist of nine members; all of whom shall be stockholders of said company; and the number of directors may, thereafter, be increased or diminished by said company, (not, however, to be less than five, nor more than thirty-one); and no person shall be eligible to the office of director who shall not at the time of his election be the owner, in good faith, in his own right, of at least five shares of the capital stock of the company; and, in all elections, each share of said capital stock of said company shall be entitled to one vote.

organization.

§ 6. Said company, on becoming organized, and before transacting any insurance business under such organization, shall file a certificate of such organization, specifying the amount of capital stock subscribed and the amount actually paid in in cash, and the names of the first board of directors, and the term of office for which they were elected; which certificate shall be executed under the hands and seals of said directors and acknowledged by them before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgments of deeds, and recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county of Kankakee; and on recording said certificate, said company shall be deemed fully organized, and entitled to enter upon and exercise and enjoy all the rights and franchises conferred by this act. And said company shall have power to charge and receive for insurance, as provided in this act, such premium or premiums as shall be agreed upon between the parties, either upon the stock or mutual plan, or both.

Organization.

Installments.

§ 7. The board of directors shall have power, from time to time, require the payment of additional installments of said capital stock, until the whole of said capital stock shall be paid in; and each stockholder shall be held liable for the debts of said company for any and all the losses and liabilities, to the amount of stock subscribed by him, and no more; and the said directors may cause said capital stock to be invested in the bonds of the United States, or this state, or in mortgages upon real estate—said land in all cases, to be unincumbered, and to be worth at least one hundred per cent. more than the amount secured thereon. And said company may, under such rules as said directors may prescribe, make dividends to said stockholders out of the net profits of the business of said company.

§ 8. The principal office of said company shall be located in the city of Kankakee, in said county of Kankakee; but the officers of said company may appoint such agents in other places as they may deem necessary. Principal office.

§ 9. Said company shall have power to receive, hold, sell, and convey all such property, personal or real, as shall be mortgaged, pledged, sold or conveyed to them, in security or payment of any indebtedness due in good faith to said company, or in any manner in good faith owing to them, or conveyed to them under any sale by virtue of any legal process, decree, or order of any court, made for and upon any such indebtedness.

§ 10. All policies of insurance issued by said company shall be signed by the president or vice president and secretary; and all such policies shall be valid and binding on said company. Policies signed.

§ 11. A statement of the true condition of the company shall be made to the stockholders each year [by] the officers thereof, under oath, at the time of the annual election of directors. Statements.

§ 12. Unless the said company shall be organized within twelve months after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void. And nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said company from the operations of such general laws as may hereafter [be passed on the subject of insurance companies.] Subject to general laws.

Name and style.	politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Palatine Mutual Guarantee Insurance Association," and by that name may sue and be sued, appear, prosecute and defend, in any court of record; may have and use a common seal, alter and renew the same at pleasure; may make and establish such by-laws, ordinances and resolutions, not being contrary to the laws of this state or of the United States, as may seem necessary for their regulation and government, and for the management of their affairs; and they may do and execute such acts and things as may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act.
Powers.
Privileges, etc. of members.	§ 2. All persons who shall at any time be insured in this association, shall be members thereof, and, as such, shall equally be entitled to vote and hold any office within the gift of said association, so long as they shall remain members, by being insured therein; and they shall, at all times, be bound by the provisions of this act and all the regulations and by-laws of said association. The affairs of said association shall be managed by the president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and five auditors, who shall constitute a board of directors—said officers to be elected annually, by ballot, from among the members of the association, and shall remain in office until their successors are chosen, and a majority of such board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
Officers.
Election of directors.	§ 3.] The directors of said association shall be elected on the first Monday in March, at such hour and place as the association shall prescribe in their by-laws.
Notice of election.	§ 4.] Such election shall be held under the inspection of three members, not candidates for office, appointed previous to each election, by the members present; but, in case of no election on the above named day, then it shall be lawful to hold such election any Monday, by giving at least ten days' notice by posting notices in at least four of the most public places in town.
Rules, etc.	§ 5. The board of directors shall have power to make all necessary rules and regulations for the transaction of business of the association, during their term of office. They shall meet at the office of the secretary, at such times as the interest of the association, in their judgment, may require; and they shall meet at any time on the call of the president, secretary and seven other members of the association, one day's notice being given them. They shall have power to prescribe forms for surveys and policies, and to regulate the rates of insurance, with the approval of the association, in special or general meetings.
Meeting of board.
Property insured.	§ 6. Said association may make insurance on all kinds of property against loss or damage by fire, lightning, wind, and horse thieves.
Membership—requirements.	§ 7. Any person owning property in this town may become a member of said association, and be insured therein, on their executing to the association their application and premium note for the amount fixed by the association on their policy, for the purpose of equalizing assessments for the payment of losses and expenses; and the insured shall be bound to pay all such sums as may be assessed on the amount of such premium note, by the directors, for the payment of any loss or losses sustained by any member of the association, as prescribed for by this act.

§ 8. The directors of said association, may levy such assessments, at any time, upon the premium notes; as shall become necessary for the payment of losses and expenses. Assessments.

§ 9. Any member of this association who shall refuse or neglect to pay the amount of assessment claimed, for more than thirty days after notice of such assessment—notice to be given in the manner prescribed by the by laws of the association—then his, her or their policy shall be null and void until such payment is made; and the association shall be entitled to sue and recover, in any court of justice in Cook county, the amount of such assessment and expenses; and the certificate of the secretary of said association, stating the amount of such assessment, together with the application and premium note of the insured, shall be prima facie evidence, and conclusive in all courts and places whatsoever. Refusal to pay.

§ 10. This association shall have power to issue policies for any term of time not exceeding five years.

§ 11. The board of directors shall be bound to make out assessments, collect and pay over the same to the suffering member, for whose benefit such assessment shall have been made, and report, quarterly or annually, as prescribed by the by-laws. Collection and payment of assessments.

§ 12. Any member of said association suffering loss or damage on any of his, her, or their property, shall not be entitled to recover to the valuation, as placed in his, her, or their application, but as valued by appraisers appointed according to the tenor of their policy, as follows: one by the board of directors, one by the party suffering loss or damage, and one by the first two chosen; but their decision shall be subject to an appeal to the association, as regulated by the by laws or the circuit court of Cook county. Losses.

§ 13. Whenever applications to the amount of ten thousand dollars shall have been made, the company may proceed to organize; and if such organization be not effected within one year from the passage hereof, then this act shall be null and void. Organization.

§ 14. The said association shall insure no property outside of the limits of said town; nor shall any persons hold any office in said association who is not at the same time a resident of the town. Location of property insured.

§ 15. Unless said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall Subject to general insurance laws, etc.

AN ACT to authorize the formation of Township Insurance Companies.

Persons may form corporation.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That it shall be lawful for any number of persons, not less than twenty, residing in any township in this state, who, collectively, shall own property of not less than fifteen thousand dollars in value, which they desire to have insured, to form themselves into an incorporated company, for the purpose of mutual insurance against loss or damage by fire; which corporation shall possess the usual powers and be subject to the usual duties and liabilities of bodies corporate and politic, and may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended in any court of law or equity, in this state or elsewhere; and the corporate name whereof shall embrace the name of the township in which the business office of said company shall be located.

§ 2. Every company so formed shall choose of their number not less than five nor more than nine directors to manage the affairs of such company, who shall hold their office for one year and until others are elected; and such directors shall choose one of their number president and one secretary. Directors.

§ 3. The directors of such company shall file their articles of association, together with a copy of their by-laws and the names of the officers of such company, in the clerk's office of the town in which the office of such company is located, and shall keep a record of their proceedings in a book to be kept for that purpose, together with the names of all persons insured, and the amount each person is insured, and the class of risks to which each insurance belongs; which record shall be open for the inspection of all the members of such company, from the hour of nine o'clock, A. M., to four o'clock P. M., of each secular day, the established holidays excepted. Articles of association—records.

§ 4. The directors of such company may issue policies, signed by their president and secretary, agreeing, in the name of such company, to pay all damages which may be sustained by fire for a term not exceeding five years by the holders of such policies, not exceeding the sum named in said policy, and which shall in no case exceed the sum of three thousand dollars on any one risk. Policies.

§ 5. Every person so insured shall give his obligation, in writing, bearing even date with the policy so issued to him, binding himself, his heirs and assigns, to pay his pro rata share to the company of all losses by fire which may be sustained by any member thereof—the said payment to be estimated on the basis of the amount insured and the class of the risk, as classified by the directors of said company; and every such obligation shall, within five days after the execution thereof, be filed by the secretary of such company in the office of the clerk of the township in which the office of such company is located, and shall remain permanently on file in such office, except when required to be produced in court, as evidence. He shall, also, at the time of effecting insurance, pay such percentage, in cash, and such reasonable sum for a policy as may be required by the rules or by-laws of the company. Obligation.

§ 6. Every member of such company, who may sustain loss or damage by fire, shall immediately notify the president of such company, or, in case of his absence, the secretary thereof, who shall forthwith convene the directors of such company, whose duty it shall be, when so convened, to appoint a committee of not less than three nor more than seven members of such company, to ascertain the amount of such loss; and, in case of the inability of the parties to Basis.

agree upon the amount of such damage or loss, the claimant may appeal to the county judge of such county, whose duty it shall be to appoint three disinterested persons, as a committee of reference, who shall have full authority to examine witnesses and to determine all matters in dispute; who shall make their award in writing to the president, or, in his absence, to the secretary of such company; which award thereon shall be final. The said committee of reference shall each be allowed the sum of two dollars per day for each day's service so rendered and five cents per mile for every mile necessarily traveled in the discharge of such duties; which shall be paid by the claimant, unless the award of said committee shall exceed the sum offered by the company in liquidation of such loss or damage, in which case said expenses shall be paid by the company.

Classification of property.

§ 7. The companies formed under the provisions of this act may classify the property insured therein, at the time of issuing policies thereon, under different rates, corresponding as nearly as may be to the greater or less risk from fire and loss which may attach to each several building insured. Whenever the amount of any loss shall have been ascertained, which exceeds in amount the cash funds of the company, the president shall convene the directors of said company, who shall make an assessment upon all the property insured, according to the amount for which each several piece of property is insured, taking into account the rate of premium under which it may have been classified.

President.

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the president, whenever such assessment shall have been completed, to immediately notify every person composing such company, by letter sent to his usual postoffice address, of the amount of such loss and the sum due from him as his share thereof, and of the time when and to whom such payment is to be made; but such time shall not be less than sixty nor more than ninety days from the date of such notice; and every person designated to receive such money shall immediately pay the sum over to the person who shall have sustained the loss or damage, without charge for his service as collector.

Assessments—liabilities of stockholders.

§ 9. Suits at law may be brought against any member of such company who shall neglect or refuse to pay any assessment made upon him by the provisions of this act; and the directors of any company so formed, who shall willfully refuse or neglect to perform the duties imposed upon them by the foregoing sections of this act, shall be liable, in their individual capacity, to the person sustaining such loss.

Insurance limit

§ 10. No company formed under this act shall insure any property out of the limits of the township in which the office of the company is located, except that in thinly settled townships, where there are not the required number of persons who desire to organize under the provisions of this act, the inhabitants may connect themselves with a company organized or about to organize in any adjoining township; nor shall any company formed under this act insure any property other than detached dwellings and their contents, and farm buildings and their contents; nor shall they insure any property within the limits of any incorporated city of this state.

§ 11. The directors of each company so formed shall be chosen by ballot, at the annual meeting thereof; which shall be held on the first Monday of January, in each year; and every person insured shall have one vote for each two hundred and fifty dollars which he may be insured. Election.

§ 12. It shall be the duty of the secretary of every company as aforesaid to prepare a statement, showing the condition of such company on the day preceding their annual meeting; which statement shall contain the amount of property insured, the number of policies issued and to whom, and the amount insured by each policy, and all other matters pertaining to the interests of such company; which statement shall be filed in the office of the town clerk of the township in which said company may be located, on or before the fifteenth day of January in each year; and which statement shall also be read to the members of said company at their annual meeting. Annual statements.

§ 13. Any member of such company may withdraw therefrom, at any time, by giving notice in writing to the president, or, in his absence, to the secretary thereof, and paying his share of all claims then existing against said company; and the directors, or a majority thereof, shall have power to annul the policy of such withdrawing member. Withdrawal of members.

§ 14. Non-residents of any township in this state, owning property therein, may become members of any company formed under this act, and shall be entitled to all rights and privileges appertaining thereto, except that it shall not be lawful for such non resident to become a director in said company, unless he be, at the time of such membership, a resident of a town adjoining the town in which said company has been formed under the provisions of this act. Non-residents.

§ 15. The company so formed may adopt such by-laws for its regulation as are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and may therein prescribe the compensation of any of its officers. By-laws.

§ 16. This act shall apply to those counties which have adopted the township organization, in accordance with the existing laws of this state, and to no others. Application of act.

§ 17. No company formed under the provisions of this act shall carry on any other business than that of insurance against damage or loss by fire. Other business prohibited.

AN ACT to incorporate the Mokena Insurance Company.

- SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That from the time that this act shall take effect, Abraham T. Green, Edwin R. Moffatt, Hollis Jewell, Isaac R. Hitt, and Alexander Campbell, and all other persons who may hereafter associate with them, in the manner herein prescribed, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of “The Mokena Insurance Company;” and by that name and style may sue and be sued, appear, prosecute and defend, in any court of record or other court or place whatsoever; may have and use a common seal, and alter and renew the same at pleasure; may purchase and hold such real estate and personal estate as may be necessary to effect the objects of their corporation and association, and sell and convey the same at pleasure; may make and establish such by-laws, ordinances and resolutions, not being contrary to the laws of this state or of the United States, as may seem necessary or convenient for their regulation and government and for the management of their affairs, and do and execute such acts and things as may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes of this act.
- Corporators.
- Name and style
- Corporate powers.
- Membership. § 2. All persons who shall at any time be insured in this company shall be members thereof, during the continuance in force of their respective policies, and no longer, and shall at all times be bound by the provisions of this act.
- Directors. § 3. The affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of directors, to consist of not less than five or more than fifteen members, as may be regulated by the by-laws of said company. Said directors shall be chosen by ballot, from among the members of said company; and a majority of the whole board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The executive committee of said company shall possess all the powers of the board of directors, when the board is not in session.
- Officers. § 4. The board of directors shall elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their respective offices for one year, or longer, as may be prescribed by the by-laws of said company, and until others are chosen in their places. The board of directors shall also appoint an executive committee to consist of three directors. Subordinate officers, agents and examiners may be appointed by and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company.
- Business and transactions. § 5. This company may make insurance on all descriptions of property against loss or damage by fire, lightning, wind and the risks of inland navigation and transportation, or any loss or damage to which property may be liable, and may cause themselves to be re-insured upon the whole or any part of any risk on which they may have made insurance.

§ 6. The rates of insurance shall be fixed by the board of directors or executive committee of said company. Premium notes may be received from the insured, which shall be paid at such time or times, and such sum or sums as the directors shall require for the payment of losses and expenses. Any person applying for insurance may pay a definite sum of money, in full for said insurance and in lieu of a premium note. The cash premium, together with the premium notes shall constitute the capital stock of said company, which may be increased by a guarantee capital, as hereinafter provided.

the appointment of proxies, and to specify the evidence that may be required of the execution thereof.

Meetings. § 12. All meetings of the board of directors and executive committee shall be called in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company.

§ 13. This company shall have power to issue policies for any term of years.

Deputy secretary. § 14. The secretary of the company may appoint a deputy, whose power shall be set forth in his certificate of appointment, and be extended upon the record books of said company.

Use of funds. § 15. This company, through its officers or board of directors, may invest, loan and employ the funds of the company in such way and manner as they may judge that the interest and welfare of the company may require.

Place of office. § 16. The principal place of business of the company shall be the city of Freeport, Stephenson county, Illinois; and said company may do business at such other places, by agents, as said company may elect.

Guarantee mortgages. § 17. For the more perfect security of the policy-holders, the said company shall receive guarantee mortgages on unincumbered real estate worth double the amount secured, to be approved by the board of directors or by the executive committee, or United States or state stocks, to the amount of two hundred thousand dollars; the makers thereof shall be paid, in consideration of such guarantee, a compensation, to be determined by the board of directors or executive committee, but not to exceed ten per cent. per annum. Such notes or mortgages shall be entitled to representation in the election of directors, in the ratio of one vote for every one hundred dollars, and shall be liable for the losses and expenses of the company, whenever the cash premiums and premium notes are insufficient to pay the same. Scrip certificates may be issued for such guarantee fund, transferable only on the books of the company.

Liabilities § 18. Should it so happen that the election of directors of said company shall not be held on the day set forth in this act it should have been made or held, the company, for that cause, shall not be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall be lawful, on any other day, to make and hold an election, notice of which shall be given in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company.

Directors—failure to elect § 19. Unless the said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void; and nothing in this act shall be construed and also to make all such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States or of this state, as shall be necessary for the proper management, regulation or control of the business or affairs of said company, and amend or repeal the same.

Business trans-

§ 2. Said company shall have power to insure any and all persons, companies and corporations against loss or damage by fire, lightning or wind, to any dwelling house, store, shop or other buildings, household furniture, merchandise or other property, whether personal or real, and against all risks by inland navigation and transportation upon any and all rivers, canals and lakes, within the United States of America and the several provinces in North America belonging to the government of Great Britain, and also including transportation upon all railroads within the United States and said British Provinces; and to do all such acts and things appertaining to such business of insurance as may be necessary for the proper transaction of the same.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, and may be increased to any sum not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and said stock shall be personal property, and be assignable and transferable only on the books of said company, and under such regulations as the directors may establish.

stock.

§ 4. The following persons, to wit: Maurice J. McGrath, C. E. Smith, and Wm. F. Brewster, or a majority of them, are hereby appointed commissioners to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company; and shall, as soon after the passage of this act as they or a majority of them shall deem advisable, open books to receive subscriptions to said capital stock; and whenever not less than one hundred thousand dollars of said capital stock shall have been subscribed and not less than ten per cent. thereof actually paid in to said commissioners, in good faith, in cash, and the remaining ninety per cent. secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate, worth double the amount secured, or by United States bonds or Illinois state bonds, or other stock, at their par value, said company shall be authorized to become organized under this act, and to elect a board of directors, and to enter upon the transaction of said insurance business.

President.

Officers.

By-laws.

First directors.

§ 5. The board of directors shall be authorized to elect a president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and general agent, for said company, and such other officers as they may deem proper, and determine the term of office and mode of election of the same; to enact all by-laws, rules and regulations of said company, and to provide for the appointment of such committees, attorneys, agents and servants, as to said board of directors shall seem proper. The first board of directors shall consist of nine members, all of whom shall be stockholders of said company; and the number of directors may thereafter be increased or diminished by said company, not however, to be less than five nor more than thirty-one; and no person shall be eligible to the office of director who shall not, at the time of his election, be the owner, in good faith, in his own right, of at least five shares of the capital stock of the company; and, in all elections, each share of said capital stock of said company shall be entitled to one vote.

§ 6. Said company, on becoming organized, and before transacting any insurance business under such organization, shall file a certificate of such organization, specifying the amount of capital stock subscribed, and the amount actually paid in in cash, and the names of the first board of directors, and the term of office for which they were elected; which certificate shall be executed under the hands and seals of said directors, and acknowledged by them before some officer authorized to take the acknowledgments of deeds, and recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said company shall be located; and, on recording said certificate, said company shall be deemed fully organized and entitled to enter upon and exercise and enjoy all the rights and franchises conferred by this act; and said company shall have power to charge and receive for insurance, as provided in this act, such premium or premiums as shall be agreed upon between the parties, either upon the stock or mutual plan, or both.

Certificate of organization.

§ 7. The board of directors shall have power, from time to time, to require the payment of additional installments of said capital stock until the whole of said capital stock shall be paid in; and each stockholder shall be held liable for the debts of said company for all losses and liabilities to the amount of stock subscribed by him, and no more; and the said directors may cause said capital stock to be invested in the bonds of the United States or this state, or in the stocks of any national bank organized under any law of congress, or in mortgages upon real estate—said land in all cases to be unincumbered and to be worth at least fifty per cent. more than the amount secured thereon. And said company may under such rules as said directors may prescribe, make dividends to said stockholders out of the net profits of the business of said company.

AN ACT to incorporate the International Insurance Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That there shall be established in the city of Mattoon, an Insurance Company, to be called "The International Insurance Company."

Name and style § 2. All such persons as may hereafter be stockholders of said company shall be and they are hereby declared to be a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of "The International Insurance Company," and to continue fifty years from and after the passage of this act; and by that name and style shall be competent to contract and be contracted with, and be capable in law and equity to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended, in all courts and places in all matters whatsoever.

Seal and by-laws § 3. The said corporation may have and use a common seal, which they may alter, change, or break at pleasure; and may also make and establish and put into execution such by-laws, ordinances and regulations as shall, in their opinion, be necessary for the good government of said corporation and the prudent and efficient management of its affairs. No by-laws, ordinances or regulations of the same shall be in anywise contrary to the constitution of the United States or of this state.

§ 4. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, to be paid in such installments as the directors chosen under this act may, from time to time, direct, under such penalties as the president and directors may, in their discretion, appoint and order. The capital stock may hereafter be increased to an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand dollars, in the discretion of a majority of the directors of said incorporation, to be subscribed for and taken under the direction and superintendence of the president and directors aforesaid, or by any person or persons duly appointed by a majority of said directors, in the same manner as is provided for the subscription to the original capital stock. The stock of said incorporation shall be assignable and transferable according to such rules as shall be adopted in that behalf by the by-laws and ordinances thereof.

§ 10. In case of the death, resignation or absence of any of the commissioners named in this act of incorporation, it shall and may be lawful for any three of them to form a quorum and proceed to business, whose duties shall be the same in the premises as those prescribed to the whole of said commissioners by this act of incorporation named, and their acts as such shall be legal.

stock property,
etc.

§ 11. The stock, property and concerns of said incorporation shall be managed and conducted by seven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company, under the superintendence of the commissioners, or a majority of them, and who shall hold their offices for one year, unless others shall be chosen before the expiration of that time, and who shall, at the time of their election, be citizens of this state and holders, respectively, of not less than ten shares of the capital stock of said company.

§ 12. The directors for every subsequent year shall be elected on the first Monday of June, in each year, at such time of the day and at such place within the city of Mattoon, and under the direction of such persons as a majority of the directors for the time being shall appoint, by a resolution to be entered on their minutes. Election of directors.

§ 13. All elections shall be by ballot, allowing one vote to each share of the capital stock; and the five persons who shall have the greatest number of votes shall be directors; and if, at any election, two or more persons shall have an equal number of votes so as to leave their election undecided, then the directors who have been duly elected shall proceed, by ballot and by a plurality determine which of said persons so having an equal number of votes shall be director or directors, so as to complete the whole number; and whenever any vacancy shall happen for the office of president, vice president, or director, from death or other causes, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the year in which it shall happen, by the directors for the time being, or a majority of them. The said commissioners, as provided for by this act, to superintend elections, shall certify, under their hands and seals, the person elected, and deliver such certificates to the persons so elected or to some one of them; and if through any unavoidable accident said directors shall not be chosen on the first Monday, as afore said, it shall be lawful to choose them on any other day, in the manner herein provided. § 16. The president and directors of said company shall, previous to subscribing any policy, and once in each year, publish in two of the newspapers printed in this state the amount of their capital stock. Annual publication of capital stock.

- Dividends. § 17. It shall be the duty of the directors of said company, at such time as the by-laws thereof shall prescribe, to make dividends of so much of their interest and profits arising from the capital stock of said company as to them shall appear advisable; and in case of any loss or losses, whereby the capital stock of said company shall be lessened before all installments are paid in, each proprietor's or stockholder's estate shall be held accountable for the installments that remain unpaid on his or her share or shares at the time of such loss or losses taking place; and no subsequent dividend shall be made until the sum arising from the profits of the business or additional installments on the capital stock shall be paid said company, equal to such diminution; and once in every three years, and oftener, if required by a majority of the votes of the stockholders, the directors shall lay before the stockholders, at a general meeting, an exact and particular statement of the profits, if any there be, after deducting losses and dividends. If any stockholder or subscriber to stock in said company shall, for the space of sixty days, neglect or refuse, after being duly notified for that purpose, to pay in any installment due from him for such stock, in manner directed and required by the board of directors, the said board shall be authorized to sell stock of such stockholder or subscriber, at public auction, giving at least thirty days' public notice of such sale; and the surplus money, the avails of such sale, after deducting the payments due and interest thereon and necessary expenses of sale, shall be paid over to such delinquent stockholders. The purchaser of such stock shall be liable, unless the company shall be the purchaser thereof, for so much of said stock as shall remain uncalled for at the time of his purchase: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent said company from suing for and recovering of the stockholders the amount of calls upon their stock by action of debt or assumpsit.
- Stockholders' liabilities. Triennial statements of profits. Neglect to pay installments. Delinquents. Proviso. Construction of act. § 18. This is hereby declared to be a public act, and shall take effect from and after its passage, and shall be liberally construed for every purpose therein contained.
- Stockholders' estate liable. § 19. That in case of any loss or losses taking place, which shall be equal to the amount of the capital stock of said company, and the president and directors, after knowing of such loss or losses having taken place, shall subscribe to any policy of insurance their estates, jointly and severally, shall be accountable for any and every loss which shall take place under policies so subscribed; and the estates of stockholders, as aforesaid, shall be liable for any losses equal to the amount of said capital stock subscribed and not actually paid in, in all cases of losses exceeding the means of said company, whether they consist of stock paid in or profits not divided.

§ 20. This charter shall be void and of no effect unless the stock be subscribed and the company shall commence operations, agreeably to the provisions thereof, within one year after the passage of this act. Limit of law.

§ 21. The stock in this corporation shall be deemed personal property, and no transfer shall be valid while the holder is indebted to the corporation. Stock personal property.

§ 22. And nothing in this act shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies. Banking forbid.

§ 23. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Dividends. § 7. Whenever the net surplus receipts of the corporation, over their losses and expenses, and after providing for risks, shall be sufficient for the purpose, the stockholders shall be entitled to an annual dividend of ten per centum, or to such less dividends as may be agreed upon at the time of subscribing the stock; and in case of such dividend not being made in one year it shall be made good at a subsequent period, when the net resources of the company shall be sufficient for the paying the same.

§ 8. After providing for risks, losses, incidental expenses and dividends, as aforesaid, the directors shall set apart one-quarter of the estimated surplus funds and receipts as a reserve fund, to be applied to the redemption of the guarantee stock. Whenever the assured and the stockholders shall decide, by a vote to be taken for that purpose, that the said fund shall be so set aside and applied, and the directors shall thereupon divide said fund annually among the stockholders, according to the amount actually paid in by each. Upon the redemption and extinguishment of the guarantee stock, as provided in this section, the directors shall be chosen by the assured—each of the assured being entitled to one vote in both the above cases.

Choosing directors.

§ 9. Annually from the time of the organization of this company, the remaining estimated surplus funds and receipts shall be re-imbursed to and among the assured and the stockholders. To the stockholders in proportion to the amount of cash actually paid in to said corporation by each said stockholder, and to the assured in manner following, namely: To the holder of policies for entire lives, each of which is insured at a uniform annual premium for the whole life, in proportion to the amount of premium paid during the preceding years, and in a corresponding and equivalent proportion upon policies made otherwise than at such uniform rate of premium, that is to say, the reimbursement shall be made in the same proportion as if each policy subsisting at the end of the year had been made at its commencement for an entire life at an uniform annual premium: Provided, that the reimbursement to the holder of any policy shall not be estimated upon a greater amount than shall have been actually paid in on such policy.

Surplus funds.

§ 10. The stock of said corporation shall be assignable and transferable, according to such rules as shall be adopted by the directors in that behalf; but no transfer of the same shall be valid whilst the holder is indebted to the corporation and if any subscriber of any share or shares shall neglect or refuse to pay the installments, as called for, for the space of sixty days after the same shall become due and payable, as required, and after he or they have been notified thereof, according to the by-laws of said company, the amount already paid by said negligent stockholder, shall be forfeited to the uses of the company, and the stock by him so held shall be sold at auction or disposed of in such manner as may be required by the by-laws of said company.

Stock shares transferable.

§ 11. The president, or the vice president in the absence of the president, and any two of the directors shall be competent to the transaction of business; and all questions shall be decided by a majority of votes. All policies of insurance or other contracts, authorized by this act, may be made with or without the seal of said corporation; and, when signed by the president or vice president and secretary, shall be binding and obligatory upon said corporation, according to the true intent and meaning of such policies and contracts.

Home office.

§ 12. The home office of this corporation shall be located in the city of Monmouth, in the county of Warren, and state of Illinois; and to carry out the provisions of this act, the corporators herein before named are hereby constituted the first board of directors of said company, and shall hold their office until an election be had according to this charter; and they, or a majority of them, are authorized to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company; and when the amount specified in section two of this act shall have been subscribed, according to the requirements of this charter and the regulations of said corporation, the board of directors shall cause publications to be made in one newspaper published in the city of Monmouth of the full and complete organization of said company; and it shall be lawful for the said company to commence business at any time after publication shall have been so made, and shall organize within one year.

AN ACT to incorporate the Vesuvius Insurance Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James H. Knowlton, Henry S. Durand, Egbert Jamieson, Alex. F. Stephenson, and Thompson Maple, and their associates and successors, and all such persons as shall become stockholders, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of "The Vesuvius Insurance Company;" and, as such company, shall have perpetual succession, and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded unto, answer and defend, in any and all courts of law and equity in this state and elsewhere. The corporation shall have a common seal, and power to appoint all such servants and agents as it may deem necessary, and may make and establish such by laws, rules and regulations, for the management of its affairs, as it may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of the United States and of the state of Illinois, and shall be reorganized in all its rights and powers, without pleading, the same in all the courts of Illinois.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be five hundred thousand dollars, with power to increase its cash capital stock to any sum not exceeding three millions of dollars, by a vote of the majority in interest of the full paid stock, at the date of such vote. Said stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and shall be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the company only, under such regulations as may be adopted by the board of directors of said company.

§ 3. The incorporators named in the first section of this act, or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to open books, at such time and place in the city of Chicago, and other places, for subscription to the capital stock, as they may appoint, not to exceed one year from the time of the passage of this act, by giving ten days' notice in some newspaper printed in the city of Chicago, that such books will be opened for subscription to the capital stock and that they will remain open until one hundred thousand dollars shall have been subscribed. Said corporators shall require a payment of ten per cent. upon all the subscriptions for stock at the time of subscribing for the same; and the remaining ninety per cent. shall be secured by mortgages upon real estate worth double the amount secured, by U. S. bonds, or by Illinois state stocks. And as soon as the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is subscribed and ten per cent. is paid, as herein provided, the incorporators shall within ten days thereafter call a meeting of the stockholders, by publishing a notice in some newspaper published in Chicago, stating the time and place for the stockholders to meet to elect a board of directors. The election of the first board of directors shall be managed and superintended by the incorporators who have acted in opening the books for subscription to the capital stock of said company.

§ 4. The officers of said company shall consist of a board of directors, of not less than seven nor more than nine persons, a president, vice-president, secretary and

The board of directors shall as soon as fully organized, adopt by-laws, establish rules and regulations by which its members shall be governed and the business of the company conducted. The by-laws so adopted, shall define the powers and duties of the directors and other officers of the company; and said board of directors shall fix the salaries of all officers and employees of said company, and provide for their own compensation, from time to time, as the interest of the company may require; and may alter and amend the by-laws of said company, as they may see fit and proper: Provided, that such by-laws, rules and regulations shall not, in any way, conflict with the laws of this state.

Duty of stockholders. § 5. It shall be the duty of the incorporators who have acted in opening books for subscription to the capital stock of this corporation, so soon as the board of directors is chosen by the stockholders and such board is fully organized, to deliver over the subscription books and all moneys received by them on subscriptions of stock to the board of directors.

Directors. § 6. The stockholders shall elect, annually, from their number, a board of directors, consisting of not less than seven nor more than nine persons, at such time and place as the by-laws may provide—each share of stock being entitled to one vote—to be cast either in person by the holder thereof, or by proxy, as may be provided for in the by-laws of the company. A majority of the votes cast at any and all elections shall decide the same. A majority of the directors, shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

Quorum. At all annual elections for directors of the corporation the members present shall appoint three stockholders, who are not directors, to act as inspectors of election, who shall canvass the votes and declare the result; and the persons who shall have received the greatest number of votes shall be directors for the coming year, and shall immediately, as soon as notified, accept or decline the election. And said directors shall, as soon as qualified, organize the new board and proceed to elect from their number a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer. The directors and officers of said company shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are qualified. And said board of directors ties of said committee, in connection with the affairs of the company, shall be defined and their compensation determined by the by-laws of said company.

§ 7. The corporation hereby created shall have power to make insurance against loss or damage by fire on any and all kinds of property, buildings and fixtures; to make insurance and take all and any marine risks; and, also, said corporation shall have power to make insurance against loss or damage occasioned by explosion produced or caused by the force or power of steam, and on any or either of the risks above mentioned; to fix charges and rates of insurance therefor, and receive such rates for such insurance as may be agreed upon by the parties; and any or either of the risks and insurances above mentioned may be taken upon the stock or mutual principle, or upon both together, as said company may provide in their by-laws, rules and regulations for conducting the business of said company under this charter.

Business and operations.

§ 8. All persons who shall at any time be insured in this company upon the mutual principle, shall become members thereof during the continuance of their respective policies, and no longer, and shall, at all times be bound by the provisions of this act. All cash premiums paid by such insured and members, to the amount of one hundred dollars, shall be entitled to a certificate of stock, representing one share, and the holder thereof shall be entitled to the same rights and dividends thereon as the full paid stock of the company.

§ 10. Said company shall have the power and authority to issue policies of insurance to any person or persons, or to any body corporate, against loss or damage by fire, or loss and damage occasioned by explosion produced or caused by the force or power of steam, and also marine risks for any term of years not exceeding ten.

Policies—risks.

§ 11. The directors shall have power and authority to levy assessments upon the premium notes any time they may deem it necessary for the payment of losses and expenses; and the parties giving such premium notes shall be and are hereby bound to pay their proportions of all loss and expenses happening and accruing during the time for which their policies were issued and in force and to the amount of their premium notes.

Assessments.

§ 12. Whenever any assessment is made upon any premium note given to said company and the maker thereof shall neglect or refuse to pay the amount claimed by said company for the space of twenty days after notice of such assessment, his, her, its or their policy shall become null and void, until such payment is made; and an action may be brought at law for the whole amount of the premium note; and proceedings in a court of chancery, by bill, may be instituted to enforce the claim given the company under this act; and in case suit is brought, either at law or in chancery, or both, for the recovery of any assessment due said company, the certificate of the secretary or president of said company, stating the amount of assessment and the amount due shall be taken and received as prima facie evidence in all courts of law and equity in this state.

Home office.

§ 13. The home office of said company shall be in the city of Chicago, and state of Illinois. Said company may do business in any other place, by an agent or agents, and may establish a branch office or offices in any other state or states, under the laws thereof; and said company may take, in its name or otherwise, such real estate, and hold the same, as may be necessary to have and hold for the purpose of transacting its business; and may take and hold such personal property as may be necessary for the use of the company.

Duties of first directors.

§ 14. The first board of directors elected under this act, and any subsequent board, may open subscription books for capital stock of said company, and shall have power and authority to fix the per cent. to be paid at the time of subscribing, and shall have power and authority, from time to time, to require it to be paid upon the capital stock of said company from the subscribers, until the stock shall be fully paid; and in case any subscriber shall neglect or refuse to pay such installment, or any part thereof, said board of directors shall have the power to forfeit such stock and sell the same, in such manner as may be prescribed in the by-laws of said company. The stock of said company may [be] transferable in such manner as said company may provide in the by-laws.

Investment of moneys.

§ 15. The corporation, by its board of directors, may declare dividends; but all dividends shall be applied in payment of the capital stock subscribed until the amount subscribed by each shareholder shall be fully paid by installments or dividends; and after such full payment of stock of any and all of the stockholders, all dividends shall be paid to such stockholders or to the person or persons holding the stock.

§ 16. The company may invest any surplus capital, or other money on hand, in any kind of interest paying stocks or securities, or on real estate, lands and mortgages, or may loan the same, at any rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent.; and may discount the interest reserved out of such loan, and may take, hold, sell and convey such real estate and personal property as it may be necessary, to secure any loan or debt due to said company, by payment or otherwise. In all cases of loss exceeding the property and paid stock of the company each shareholder shall be liable, pro rata, on the amount of and to the amount of unpaid stock due from each. Nothing contained in this act shall be so construed as to allow the company any banking privileges, or issue any certificates of deposit to circulate as money or currency. Losses.

§ 17. If it shall happen that the election of directors of this company shall not be held on the day when pursuant to this act it should have been made or held, this company, for that cause, shall not be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall be lawful, on any other day, to make and hold an election, notice of which shall be given in a manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company: Provided, that if the corporation created by this act shall not organize within one year from the passage hereof, then this act shall be null and void. Elections.

§ 18. And nothing in this act or in the act of which this is an amendment shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies. Construction of act.

§ 19. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

The affairs of said company shall be managed by a board of directors, to consist of not less than five nor more than fifteen members, as may be regulated by the by-laws of said company. Said directors shall be chosen by the members and stockholders of said company, and a majority of the whole board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The executive committee of said company shall possess all the powers of the board of directors when the said board is not in session.

Officers. § 3. The board of directors shall elect a president, vice president, actuary and treasurer, who shall hold their respective offices, for one year, or longer, as may be determined by the by-laws of said company, and until others are chosen in their places. The board of directors shall also appoint an executive committee, to consist of three directors. Subordinate officers, agents and examiners may be appointed Agents and examiners. by the board, and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company.

Business. § 4. The corporation hereby created shall have full power and authority to take risks and make insurance with any person or persons upon their life or lives or upon the life of any person for the benefit of any other person having a pecuniary interest in the insured person's life, as creditor, guarantee, or interest by marital relation; to grant, sell or make and contract for annuities or endowments; and to do all other acts and things necessary and incidental to the transaction of a life insurance and annuity business; and Surplus capital. to loan their surplus or unemployed capital or money on personal or real estate securities, state and United States bonds, and other securities, at such rates of interest as the said directors may agree, not exceeding the rate at the time that may be allowed by law to individuals, payable annually, semi-annually, quarterly or in advance; they may also Re-insurance. cause themselves to be insured against loss upon any or all of their risks, and also to insure their own property or their interest in any property against loss by fire.

Privileges of married men. of women. § 5. It shall be lawful for any married woman, by herself and in her name, or in the name of any third person, with his consent, as her trustee, to cause to be insured for her sole use, the life of her said husband; and the premium of said insurance, not exceeding three hundred dollars per annum, may be paid by or from the estate or funds of her said husband; or a policy in his name and by him obtained may be made payable to his wife, or to her and her children, or to either; and in case of her surviving her husband the sum or net amount of insurance becoming due and payable by the terms of the insurance shall be payable to her, to and for her own use, free from the claims of the representatives of the husband or of any of his creditors, other than this corporation. In the case of the death of the wife before the decease of her husband, the amount of the said insurance may be made payable, after such death, to her children, for their use, and to their guardian, if under age.

§ 6. The board of directors shall determine the rate of insurance, the sum to be guaranteed in any one risk, and the fees and premium to be paid therefor. Each and every applicant for insurance in said company, before he, she or they shall be entitled to a policy or certificate of membership, shall deposit with the company such premium or membership fee as may be determined by the rules, rates and regulations of the company, and shall, also, stipulate for the payment of such further premiums and contributions as may be agreed upon. The board of directors may establish separate classes for the risks presented for their acceptance, and the members of each class shall contribute and participate pro rata, with members of the same class in the receipts and distributions of said company. The policy or certificate of membership of any person insured in said company shall cease and determine at any time when the holder or holders thereof shall fail or refuse to pay to said company the contribution or premium by him, her or them agreed to be paid, but the company may proceed to collect the amounts due from such delinquent policy-holders or members up to the time of such termination of their membership.

§ 7. For the better security of policy-holders, the board of directors of said company may establish a stock capital of not less than fifty thousand nor more than five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. There shall be paid, at the time of subscription to said stock, by each subscriber, at least ten per cent. of the amount by him, her or them subscribed, and the residue shall be paid or secured by mortgage on unincumbered real estate worth twice the amount for which the mortgage calls for, or United States bonds, state or county bonds, at their cash value.

§ 8. The annual election for directors of said company shall be held on the first Monday in January in each year, ten days' notice of which shall be given by public notice in some newspaper published in the county wherein the home office of the company is located. Each member shall be entitled to one vote and each stockholder one vote for each share by him, her or them held, and absent members may vote by proxy. Should it so happen that the annual election should not be held at the time when, pursuant to this section it ought to have been had and held, the corporation shall not be deemed to be dissolved thereby, but the same may be had and held at any other time thereafter, notice having been given as hereinbefore provided for. Vacancies in the board may be filled at any regular or special meeting thereof by a majority of the directors.

§ 9. The shares of the capital stock of said company shall be assignable only on the books of the company, and in such manner as may be prescribed by the by-laws of the corporation. The persons named in the first section, of this act are hereby constituted the first board of directors, and are authorized to fill up their number to any number not exceeding fifteen, and shall serve as such until the first annual election or until others are chosen in their stead.

Home office.

§ 10. The home office of the company shall be located in the city of Springfield, Illinois.

Limit of law.

§ 11. Unless the said company shall be organized within two years after the passage of this act, then this act shall be null and void. And nothing in this act shall be construed so as to permit said company to do banking business, or exempt said company from the operation of such general laws as may hereafter be passed upon the subject of insurance companies.

§ 12. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

C. Keller, John K. Van Dorn, Henry L. Warren, Henry S. Osborn, Porter Smith, Henry Root, F. W. Jansen, William Steinwedell, Allen Comstock, Charles A. Savage, U. S. Penfield, and their associates and successor, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Library Hall Company of Quincy;" and, by that name and style, shall have perpetual succession; may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto, defend and be defended in all courts and places whatsoever of competent jurisdiction, and in all manner of actions whatever; may have a common seal, and alter, change and renew the same; may receive and acquire, by gift, demise, lease, purchase, or otherwise; and may hold, use, enjoy, convey, sell or otherwise dispose of such real and personal estate as may be necessary and convenient for the purposes hereinafter recited; and may do all acts and things necessary and proper to carry the same into full effect.

§ 2. The corporation hereby created shall have power to make such constitution, by-laws, and rules and regulations for the appointment of its officers, the government of the company, the management of its property, and the superintendence of all its concerns, as its members shall deem most proper and beneficial, and may change the same at pleasure: Provided, the same is not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of this state or of the United States. Powers.

§ 3. The funds of this corporation, hereby created, are hereby exempted from taxation, and shall be expended, as is hereinafter provided, in buying an adequate lot or piece of ground and erecting thereon a building, sufficient and commodious for the use of the Quincy library, which ground and building, while the same or any part thereof shall be occupied and used as a public library, shall not be subject to taxation. The stock of said company shall be in shares of twenty-five (25) dollars each, which shall be personal property, and be transferable only upon the books of the company. Funds exempt from taxation.
Shares of stock.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of the corporation hereby created, as soon as the necessary funds can be obtained, to purchase ground suitable for a library building, for the use of the Quincy library, and, without unnecessary delay, to erect thereon such building, as commodiously as may be, for that purpose, and, when ready for use, as aforesaid, to lease perpetually said building and ground to the Quincy library, incorporated under the general law, by acts approved January 31, 1823, and January 31, 1835, upon the terms following, to-wit: That said Quincy library shall annually pay to the corporation hereby created, on or before the first day of January of each year, all general or special taxes, insurance and repairs to which said ground and building may be necessarily subjected, and, in addition thereto, six per cent. interest upon the whole cost of said land and building, which shall not have been on said first days of January of each year repaid to the corporation hereby created by the Quincy library; and, upon the due payment of the before mentioned taxes, repairs, insurance and interest, the Quincy library shall forever have the full and entire control, use and possession of said land and building, and Duties of corporation.
Lease.
Rate of interest

may sub-let any part thereof and collect and appropriate the rents thereof: Provided, nevertheless, that the Quincy library shall not be required to pay insurance greater than one per cent. upon the whole cost of the building, nor interest upon any part of the cost of the ground and building which said library shall have repaid to the corporation hereby created; and that said library is hereby required to apply all moneys received from rent of the library building, which may remain after payment of taxes, repairs, insurance and interest, to the reimbursement to the corporation hereby created of its outlay for ground and building: And provided, further, that when the Quincy library shall be in arrears for two whole years' taxes, repairs, insurance and interest, or shall be in arrears any such part thereof as amounts to the sum of three thousand (3000) dollars, then they shall forfeit their lease aforesaid, and the corporation hereby created may, after six (6) months' notice to the president of the board of directors of said library, take possession of the ground and building aforementioned; but if the corporation hereby created does thus take possession of the ground and building, it shall annually pay to the Quincy library such proportion of the net revenue received from said ground and building as the amount paid by said library towards the reimbursement of the cost of said ground and building shall be to the whole original cost thereof; and said library shall be entitled to a like proportion of the proceeds of sale of the whole or any part of said ground and building.

Indebtedness.

Covenants.

§ 5. On or before the day on which the Quincy library shall take possession under the lease of the ground and building before mentioned, the corporation hereby created shall enter into good and sufficient covenants with the Quincy library to convey to said library all the right, title and interest of the corporation hereby created in the ground and building aforesaid, so soon as the library shall have reimbursed to the corporation hereby created its cash outlay for ground and building; and whenever the Quincy library shall tender to the corporation hereby created any sum, not less than one thousand ($1000) dollars, in part payment of said outlay, the latter shall receipt for same in triplicate, under its corporate seal, and shall deliver said triplicate receipt to the officers of the Quincy library, and shall, on the day of receipt, enter into a book, to be kept for the purpose, the time, date, amount and purpose of said payment, which book shall be carefully preserved by the corporation hereby created in a place as secure as may be from loss by fire, theft, or otherwise, which book shall at all reasonable times be open to the inspection of the officers of the Quincy library.

Books.

Payments.

§ 6. On or after the first day of January, of each year, the corporation hereby created shall, by its treasurer or other proper officer, pay to the owners of the stock of said company, for the time being, pro rata, the sum of money it shall have received for interest for the preceding year from the Quincy library.

§ 7. This act shall be a public act, and shall be construed benignly and favorably, in all courts and places, for every beneficial purpose herein intended, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

AN ACT to incorporate the Alpha Zeta Society of Shurtleff College. In force April 20, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Samuel O. Curtiss, Henry L. Field, Solomon Draper, Frederic Hill, Linn Bedell, Thomas J. Keith, and John M. Titterington, and their successors, be and the same are hereby created a body politic and corporate, to be styled and known by the name of "The Trustees of the Alpha Zeta Society of Shurtleff College;" and, by that style and name, to remain and to have perpetual succession. The said corporation shall remain connected with Shurtleff college, in Upper Alton, and county of Madison, and shall, at all times, be subject to the rules and regulations of said college. The number of trustees shall not exceed nine, exclusive of the president and corresponding secretary, who shall, ex officio, be members of the board of trustees. Five members of the board shall constitute a quorum to do business. For the present, the above named individuals shall constitute the board. Vacancies may at any time be filled by the society from its active members. All elections of trustees shall be by ballot. In case any trustee shall be elected president or corresponding secretary, the vacancy or vacancies so occasioned may be filled, for the time, by other members of the society, duly elected for that purpose.

§ 2. The object of this corporation shall be the promotion of the interests of education, by advancing and improving the members of said Alpha Zeta Society in original composition, extemporaneous speaking, debate, criticism, parliamentary business, and whatever else is usually contemplated in the best literary societies—thus preparing its members to discharge honorably and usefully the various duties of life which may devolve upon them.

§ 3. The corporate powers hereby bestowed shall be such only as are essential or useful in the attainment of the objects of said society, and such as are usually conferred on similar corporate bodies, viz: to have perpetual succession, to make contracts, to sue and be sued, defend and be defended, implead and be impleaded in courts of law and equity; to grant and receive, by its corporate name, and to do all other acts as natural persons may; to accept, acquire, purchase or sell property or money, belonging to said society, as the society may from time to time direct;

Seal and by-laws to have a common seal, and to alter or change the same; and to make such by-laws for its regulation as are not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the United States, or of this state, or of the institution with which this society is connected.

Property. § 4. The action of the said trustees shall, at all times, be subject to the control of the society; and no sales, purchases or exchanges of property, in its behalf, shall occur without the consent of the society. The trustees may elect their own chairman, and through him or any of their number, shall, whenever required, report their proceedings to the society. At the close of each college term, they shall, through their chairman or some other member designated for that purpose, present to the society a full written report of all their proceedings during the term.

Chairman.
Reports:
Donations, etc. § 5. In case any donation, devise or bequest shall be made to the society, for particular purposes, accordant with the objects of the society, and the trustees shall accept the same, every such donation, devise, or bequest shall be applied in conformity with the express conditions of the donor or devisor.

APPROVED February 20, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Marion County Trust and Loan Company. In force March 8, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That John Cunningham, George W. Pace, Benjamin T. Marshall, Henry C. Moore, James S. Martin, David P. Snelling, Daniel K. Green, and Benjamin Lydick, and their associates and successors, and such persons as shall become stockholders in the company hereby created, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Marion County Trust and Loan Company," to be located in the city of Salem, Marion county, Illinois; and shall have succession, a common seal, with power to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, contract and be contracted with; to appoint all necessary officers, servants, and assistants; and may have, enjoy and exercise all powers necessary to carry out and execute the powers and interests of a trust, deposit and loan company.

§ 2. The capital of the said corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, with liberty to increase the same to five hundred thousand dollars, to be subscribed and paid for in the manner hereinafter provided, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars, which shall be deemed personal property, and shall be subscribed on the books of said company in such manner as its by-laws may prescribe.

§ 3. The said corporation shall have power to borrow money, and receive money on deposit, and pay interest thereon, and to loan the said money at any rate of interest not exceeding that now or hereafter by law allowed to individuals; and to discount in accordance with bank usage; and in the computation of time thirty days shall constitute one month and twelve months one year; and to take such security, real and personal, as the directors or managers of said company shall deem sufficient; and may buy and sell exchange, bills, notes, bonds, or other securities; may have and hold coin and bullion, and buy and sell the same, issue letters of credit, certificates of deposit, and other commercial obligations: Provided, the same shall not be in the similitude of bank notes, or other evidences of debt, designed to be circulated as money.

§ 4. It shall be lawful for the company hereby incorporated to purchase and hold such real estate as may be convenient for the transaction of its business, and to take and hold any real estate, in trust or otherwise, as security for or in payment of loans and debts due or to become due to the said corporation or others; to purchase real estate at any sale made in virtue or on account of any loan, debt or mortgage, or trust made to or held by said corporation, and to receive and take in satisfaction of any loan or debt any real estate, and hold and convey the same, and to acquire, hold, possess and use and enjoy the same; to sell, lease, convey and dispose of all such real estate and personal property as it may deem necessary for the use by said corporation or as may be deemed by the directors proper and necessary to carry on the business and accomplish the objects of the corporation or for the promotion of its interests.

affairs.

§ 5. The affairs of this company shall be managed by a board of directors, of at least five in number, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, who shall be stockholders in the corporation. The election of said directors shall be held by the stockholders when thirty thousand dollars shall have been subscribed to the capital stock of said corporation and ten per cent. paid thereon; and three of the corporators herein named shall be commissioners to open books for subscription.

directors.

§ 6. The election of directors shall be held annually at the office of the corporation, and the board shall give at least ten days' notice thereof to the stockholders, in such manner as they may determine. Every election for directors shall be by ballot, and the number of shares owned by each stockholder shall be indorsed on the ballot by the person or persons who may receive the same; and a plurality of votes shall elect. Every stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share of stock standing in his or their name on the books of the corporation, and he or they may vote in person or by proxy. Any omission or failure to elect directors shall not in any wise impair the rights of stockholders, depositors or others interested; and the directors in office shall hold over until their successors shall have been elected.

scribed, as provided in the foregoing section, the corporation shall be fully organized; and after the payment of fifteen dollars per share on the whole number of five hundred shares of the capital stock of the corporation, they may commence business in the full enjoyment of the privileges of this charter at such place in the said ——— as the said directors may designate.

§ 8. The board of directors shall have power to call for the payment of the balance due on the subscription to the stock of the corporation, at such time as they may deem proper; and in the event of the non-payment of the balance due by any stockholder on his stock within sixty days after due notice, it shall lawful for the directors, at their option, to enforce such payment or to sell at public auction, to the best advantage, the amount of stock standing in the name of said non-paying stockholders, who shall thereupon cease to be a stockholder in the corporation; and the purchaser or purchasers of said shares of stock shall have and enjoy all the privileges and profits accruing on account to the said shares of stock, and become liable for the payment of all calls then due or thereafter made on such shares of stock.

Balance due on subscription.

§ 9. The board of directors shall have power to declare dividends on the stock of the said corporation, from time to time, after the accumulation of the profits of said corporation shall exceed five per cent. on the amount of capital actually paid in: Provided, said dividend shall not reduce the surplus of profits of the corporation below five per cent. on the amount of capital actually paid in; but in no case shall the amount of any dividend be paid over to any stockholder on his or their stock until the amount of twenty-five dollars has been paid into said corporation.

Dividends.

Proviso.

§ 10. At any time after the full payment of the original capital of fifty thousand dollars into the corporation, as hereinbefore provided, the board of directors may increase the capital stock of the corporation to the amount limited or any part thereof, in shares of one hundred dollars each, in such manner as may be deemed proper; and such increase shall be liable and subject to all the liabilities, immunities and privileges of the original stock, as provided in this act. Stockholders shall have the option of subscribing to such increased stock, pro rata, within such time as the directors may limit, of which due notice is to be given.

Increase of the capital stock.

§ 11. That any real estate, acquired in fee by this corporation, either by purchase or in payment or satisfaction of any loan or debt, and not held in trust or security by other than what shall be necessary for the convenient use of the same for the transaction of its business, shall not be held by the said corporation longer than ten years, and shall, within that time, be sold and conveyed, either at § 14. Be it further enacted, That said company shall have a lien upon all shares of stock held by the several stockholders, for the payment of such installments thereon as may be called for by the board of directors, under the provisions of the last preceding section; and if any stockholder shall fail to pay any such installment, when the same shall be required of him, the board of directors may cause his stock to be sold at auction, and out of the proceeds of such sale, first deducting all incidental charges, they shall retain the sum due on such stock for the installment in arrear, and the remaining surplus, if any, shall be paid over to the defaulting stockholder who held the stock so sold.

Liabilities.

§ 15. Be it further enacted, That said company shall be liable upon no express contracts, except such as shall be signed by the president or vice-president and countersigned by the secretary of said company.

Possession of property, etc.

§ 16. Be it further enacted, That, for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act, either in prosecuting their business or improving their water power, this company may enter upon and take real estate or material, by first appraising and making payment or tender of payment therefor, in the same manner as is provided for condemning and appraising lands for right of way by the general laws of this state concerning right of way.

Construction of act.

§ 17. Be it further enacted, This act shall be regarded as a public act, and shall be liberally construed in furtherance of the purposes for which said company is incorporated.

Organization.

§ 18. Be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage: Provided, that if the corporation hereby created shall not be fully organized within three years from the passage hereof, then this act shall be null and void.

APPROVED February 28, 1867.

In force Feb'y 23, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the United States Hydro-Caloric Light Manufacturing Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Jacob H. Beidler, Abraham Mayfield, Samuel W. Wadsworth, James F. D. Elliott, Henry M. Beidler, Charles H. Ham, Sidney W. Sea and their associates and successors, and all such persons as shall become stockholders, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of "The United States Hydro-Caloric Light Manufacturing Company;" and, as such company, shall have perpetual succession, and with power, by that name, to contract and be contracted with; and shall have power to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded unto, answer and defend in any and all courts of law and equity in this state and elsewhere. The corporation shall have a common seal, and power to appoint such agents and attorneys as it may deem necessary; and to make, ordain and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of its affairs as it may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of the United States and the state of Illinois; and shall be recognized in all its rights and powers, without pleading the same, in all the courts of Illinois.

Corporate name

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and shall be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the company, only, under such regulations as may be adopted by the board of directors of said company: Provided, that the capital may be increased to four hundred thousand dollars, if the stockholders shall so desire.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The incorporators named in the first section of this act, or a majority of them, shall have power and authority to open books in the city of Chicago and elsewhere, at such time and place as notice thereof may be given, for subscriptions to the capital stock; and as soon as the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars shall be subscribed and such per cent. as said incorporation may require at the time of subscribing for the same shall be paid in, then said incorporators, or a majority of them, shall call a meeting of the stockholders for the election of the first board of directors of said company; which election shall be superintended and managed by the said incorporators acting in the organization of the company, and each share of stock then subscribed for shall be entitled to one vote, to be cast by the person subscribing, or by proxy, as they may see fit; and as soon as the directors shall be elected the said incorporators shall pass over the books, papers and money to said directors, so elected, and said incorporators shall then be discharged from further duties as incorporators under this act.

§ 4. The officers of said company shall consist of a board of seven directors, a president, a vice president, a secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their offices for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified, by accepting the offices, to which they are elected. A majority of the directors shall form a quorum for the transaction of business; and the board of directors shall have power and authority to appoint, from time to time, such other officers of the company for the management of its business as they may deem necessary; and said board of directors shall, also, have power and authority to fill all vacancies in their number; and in case any vacancy shall at any time exist in the office of president, vice president, secretary or treasurer, or if any of said officers shall become disqualified to act, for any cause, said board of directors may fill the same at any regular or special meeting of said board.

Appointments
of officers.

§ 5. The directors first elected under this act of incorporation shall immediately proceed to elect from their number a president, a vice president, a secretary and treasurer; and, at the pleasure of the board, the secretary and treasurer may be the same person; and said board of directors shall also make and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of the business of the company as they may deem advisable, not inconsistent with the laws and constitution of the United States and the state of Illinois; and the board of directors may, from time to time, alter or amend said by-laws, rules or regulations, as they may deem necessary for the government of the company and the management of its affairs.

§ 6. The stockholders shall elect, on the first Tuesday prior to the day fixed in the by-laws for the commencement of the business and fiscal year of the company, and annually thereafter, a board of seven directors of said company, at such place as the by-laws may provide—each share of stock being entitled to one vote, to be cast either in person by the holder thereof or by proxy, as may be provided for in the by-laws of the company. A majority of the votes given at any and all elections under this act shall decide the same; and it shall be the duty of the directors, when elected, to organize the board and proceed to elect a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer, from their number.

Business and

§ 7. The company organized under this act of incorporation shall have power and authority to engage in and carry on the manufacturing business in the city of Chicago, or at any place in the county of Cook, or in the state of Illinois, to manufacture lamps and such other articles as said company may desire, for the purpose of bringing into use Beidler's Hydro-Caloric Light, using, to produce the same, petroleum, benzole or refined oils, upon the principle authorized in letters patent issued by the government of the United States; and said company shall have the power and authority to manufacture such machinery and other articles necessary to a full prosecution of the business of making and vending lamps and other articles, for the use of said light, and the promotion thereof; and, for that purpose, said company may purchase, lease and hold such real estate as may be necessary for the machine shops, founderies, finishing shops, office, yards and other grounds; and may, from time to time, change the location of the same, and for that purpose, may sell and convey the property so held and purchase other land and property at any place or places in the said county of Cook, as said company may deem for its advancement in the manufacturing of said articles and business; and said company may, for the purpose of engaging in said business and carrying on the same, purchase and sell such personal property, stock and materials as may become necessary, from time to time; and shall, also, have power and authority to purchase patents and patent rights, and improvements thereon, for the Hydro-Caloric Light and such as may be connected therewith, in any one or more principles, and articles in which to introduce the same; and may sell rights to manufacturers and others to make, use and vend the same, and convey the same in the corporate name or in the name of a trustee, as the board of directors of said company may deem beneficial for the interests of the company; and to issue stock of said company in payment of the same or any part thereof, as may be deemed for the interest of the company.

§ 8. Said company shall have power and authority to borrow money, from time to time, and to pledge and mortgage the property of the company to secure the payment thereof; and may mortgage property for the purchase money or any part thereof, as the board of directors may deem beneficial for the interest of the company. Indebtedness.

§ 9. The general office of the company shall be in the city of Chicago; and this act shall be deemed a public act, recognized and noticed by all courts as such, without pleading the same. General office.

§ 10. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

In force March 5, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Home Manufacturing Company, of Jacksonville, Illinois.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a corporation, under the name of the "Home Manufacturing Company," has heretofore been organized under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to authorize the formation of a corporation for manufacturing, mining, mechanical or chemical purposes," approved February 18, 1857, the object of which company is the manufacturing and vending of woolen and cotton fabrics; now, therefore, to promote and facilitate the carrying on of the above specified business,

Name and style
Principal office
Powers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William T. Beekman, Marshall P. Ayers, Augustus E. Ayers, Hamilton M. Staley, John Gordon, William Richardson, and George M. McConnell, be hereby declared a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of "The Home Manufacturing Company," with their principal office in the town of Jacksonville; and, by that name, shall have perpetual succession; shall be capable in law to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded in all courts of competent jurisdiction; may borrow money, acquire and hold real estate or personal property, may have a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; and may alter, extend or enlarge their aforesaid business whenever they may elect so to do.

§ 2. The affairs of said company will be managed by a board of seven directors, chosen by the stockholders of said company, four of whom shall constitute a quorum for transacting business, who shall hold their offices until their successors are chosen; shall elect their own officers and fix the compensation of the same; and shall have power to fill any vacancy occurring in this body, from death, resignation or otherwise; and the directors now in office, under the organization mentioned in the preamble to this act shall continue in office until regularly superseded by the election of new directors; which election may be had at any meeting of the stockholders, where two-thirds of the capital is represented; and, in all such elections, as also in the decision of all questions arising before the stockholders or the board of directors, each person shall cast as many votes as he may own shares of the capital stock of said company.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into shares of five hundred dollars each, to be paid in at such times and in such sums as the said board of directors may direct; but said company may increase the same to any sum not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars, at any meeting of the stockholders of said company, at which all of the then existing stock thereof shall be represented: Provided, that votes representing two-thirds of such then existing stock shall be cast in favor of such increase; and the stock certificates heretofore issued by said company, under the organization mentioned in the preamble hereto, shall, in all respects, be deemed and taken to be valid and legal certificates of ownership in the capital stock herein provided for until regularly canceled on the books of said company.

§ 4. Said company may, at any time, engage in the manufacture and sale of any article or articles whatsoever;
 may prosecute mining for coal, iron, or other substances; engage in the transportation of any articles of their own or other's productions: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to confer any banking privileges; and the board of directors of said company shall have power to make and establish rules for calling meetings and for all purposes, under the provisions of this act: Provided, that in all respects, not herein provided for, said company shall be governed by the provisions of an act entitled "An act to authorize the formation of corporations for manufacturing, mining, mechanical or chemical purposes," approved, February 18, 1857.

§ 5. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, to be subscribed and paid for in the manner hereafter provided, and shall be divided into shares of two hundred and fifty dollars each, which shall be transferable on the books of the company in such manner as the company may by its by-laws direct.

§ 3. The said named corporators, and each and any of them, are hereby appointed commissioners to receive subscriptions for stock in said company, and shall open proper books for that purpose in the city of Quincy, Illinois, within ninety days after the passage of this act. Every subscriber for such stock shall pay to said commissioners, or to such of them as may officiate as such, twenty-five per cent. upon the amount of his or her subscription, at the time of said subscription; and, when the amount actually paid in shall amount to the sum of twelve thousand five hundred dollars, including the amount actually paid out in money by or for the said Mrs. Ellen Dexter, for the procuration of a certain patent right, issued out of the patent office of the United States to her on and dated June 5, A. D., 1866, for the manufacture and sale of an instrument known and designated as Mrs. Ellen Dexter's Abdomino-Uterine Supporter, and for the machinery and stock and expenses incurred and paid out for and by her in the development and manufacture of the instrument so patented to her, which said amount may be ascertained and established by the affidavits of any of the parties making such payments or knowing of the same having been made, or in manner satisfactory to said commissioners or to such of them as may officiate in the matter as such, the said company shall go into operation, and shall organize by the election of a president, secretary, and treasurer, who shall collectively constitute a board of directors of said company, and shall manage and control the business thereof, subject, however, to such by-laws as may be passed in conformity with this act.

§ 4. At the election of said board of directors, each stockholder shall cast as many votes as he or she holds shares of the capital stock of said company; and a plurality shall elect. The board of directors shall be elected annually, at a meeting of the stockholders to be called by the president, of which meeting seasonable notice shall be given to the stockholders.

§ 5. The board of directors shall determine the manner and time of payments to be made upon the stock subscribed upon the books of said commissioners; and the shares of stock which shall not be taken at or before the organization of said company shall be the property of the company, to be disposed of as the corporation may by by-laws direct.

§ 6. The object and business of said company shall be the manufacture and sale of abdomino-uterine supporters, for use of males and females, and all or any kind of articles patented, for which the patent right may be obtained, as also all other articles for surgical or domestic and ordinary use which the said Ellen Dexter now has or may hereafter acquire the right to manufacture and sell; and for these purposes it may use and exercise all and singular the corporate powers conferred upon it by section first of this act, said Ellen Dexter consenting thereto.

§ 7. The stockholders at their annual and special meetings, may adopt any and all by-laws and regulations concerning the business of said company and the disposal of its funds and property, not inconsistent with this act and

APPROVED February 25, 1867.

In force Feb'y 19, 1867. AN ACT to authorize the city of Ottawa to subscribe to the stock of the Ottawa Manufacturing Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William Reddick, Milton H. Swift, Jeremiah Wood, George Avery and Richard Thorn, be and they hereby are constituted a board of commissioners, for and on behalf of said city, to subscribe to the capital stock of "The Ottawa Manufacturing Company," the sum of one hundred thousand dollars; and, when fully paid, to receive and hold the stock of said company for the same and the proceeds thereof for and on behalf of said city.

§ 2. In order to raise the money to enable said commissioners to make such subscription, they are hereby authorized, for and on behalf of said city, to make, execute and dispose of bonds of the same to the amount of one hundred thousand dollars, in sums of not less than one thousand dollars, at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per centum per annum, payable in not less than ten years, irrevocably pledging the faith and resources of said city for the ultimate redemption of the same and the payment of the interest thereon. Such bonds shall not be disposed of by said commissioners for less than their par value.

§ 3. The city council of said city is hereby authorized and required, annually, after being notified by said commissioners of the issuance of such bonds, to levy and collect, as other taxes are levied and collected, and at the same time and in the same manner, not less than six mills on each dollar of the assessed value of the real and personal property in said city. The proceeds of such tax shall be paid over by the collector of said city to the treasurer thereof, and by him kept as a separate fund, subject to the order of said commissioners, for the payment of the interest on said bonds; and, in case of a surplus, the said commissioners shall invest the same in bonds of the United States or of the state of Illinois for the ultimate redemption of such bonds.

§ 4. The said commissioners may appoint a president and a secretary, who shall be treasurer. The latter shall give bonds to said city, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties; and they may, also, appoint a proxy to vote on said stock at any meeting of the stockholders of said company, and instruct such proxy in what way to vote; but no vote shall be given on said stock for either of such commissioners, for directors of said company.

§ 5. Said commissioners may, at any time, dispose of such stock, at not less than its par value; and any holder of any such bonds may, at any time, exchange the same for an equal amount of said stock. In case of a sale of such stock or of any portion of the same, the said commissioners shall, if practicable, take up said bonds, and, if not, shall invest the proceeds in bonds of the United States or of the state of Illinois. Said commissioners shall keep a record of their proceedings, and annually report to the city council their doings herein. Said commissioners shall be allowed all reasonable expenses, but no compensation for their services. In case of a vacancy in said board, by death, resignation, refusal or neglect to act, or removal from the county of La Salle, the circuit court of said county shall fill such vacancy.

AN ACT to incorporate the Pontiac Woolen Manufacturing Company. In force Feb'y 20, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William Maulone, John Roberts, J. B. Tyler, Jonathan Duff, J. W. Strevell, J. W. Remick, Samuel L. Fleming, Stephen C. Crane, J. W. Benham and B. P. Babcock, and their associates and successors, and all such persons as shall become stockholders in the company hereby created, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Pontiac Woolen Manufacturing Company," located in Pontiac, Livingston county, Illinois; and shall have succession, a common seal, power to plead and be impleaded, to appoint all necessary officers, servants and assistants, and may have and enjoy all the powers necessary to carry out and execute the purposes and interests of a manufacturing company.

§ 2. A majority of the corporators herein named may proceed to open books for subscription to the stock of said company, and shall, at the same time, or thereafter, designate a time and place for the first election of directors of said company, by parties subscribing to the stock thereof; and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall be fifteen thousand dollars, with power to increase the same to one hundred thousand dollars, to be subscribed and paid for in the manner which may be prescribed by the by-laws to be formed by the said company, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and shall be transferable on the books of the said company in such manner as its by-laws prescribe.

Borrow money. § 4. The said corporation shall have power to borrow money, and may secure the payment of the same by deed of trust, mortgage or other securities, upon real estate or personal property owned by them.

AN ACT to incorporate the Lancaster Coal Company.

Corporators.

Name.

Powers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Levi Z. Leiter, Hamilton N. Eldridge, William H. Rand, Frederick W. Tourtellotte, Lester L. Bond, Edwin Judson and Ebenezer Robinson, and their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby treated a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The Lancaster Coal Company," with perpetual succession, and with power by that name, to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued; to have a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure; to take and hold, by purchase lands in this state, for the purpose of mining, coking, transporting, buying and selling mineral coal and its products, fire clay, and other minerals, and in the manufacture of and sale of the products of the land now owned or hereafter to be owned by them, not exceeding one thousand acres; and in the transportation of the same or any of them to home and foreign markets; to hold their meetings, and have all powers needful for the successful prosecution of their business and for the execution of the powers herein granted; and, moreover, to appoint all necessary agents and officers, and to make such by-laws and regulations, for the more thorough organization of said company, and the prosecution of its business within the meaning of this act: Provided, said by-laws and regulations are not inconsistent with the laws of this state and of the United states; and, moreover, with power to hold such personal property, and possess and erect such docks, buildings, roadways, steamboats, barges, and machinery, as may be necessary for the purposes of mining, coking, transporting, manufacturing, buying and selling, in pursuance of the powers and privileges of this act. The general office of said company shall be in the city of Chicago.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The said company shall have power and authority to construct a railroad or canal, from any part of the lands owned or hereafter to be owned by said company to the Illinois river, or to any navigable waters in this state, or to any railroad or canal: Provided, always, that said railroad or canal shall be constructed and used for the transportation of the coal and the minerals of said company, and for the convenient prosecution of its business, and not for the purpose of general transportation: And provided, also, said railroad or canal shall not exceed four miles in length.

Line of road.

Proviso.

§ 4. The subscription for the capital stock of said company shall be made and paid into said company, under the direction of the directors hereinafter named, subject to such rules and regulations as they shall prescribe. The stock shall be considered personal property, and shall be assignable and transferable on the books of said company.

Subscription to stock.

§ 5. It shall be lawful for the directors to require payment of the sums subscribed to the capital stock at such time and in such proportions and on such conditions as they shall deem fit, under the penalty of the forfeiture of all previous payments thereon, and may sue for and recover all such subscriptions—notice of the time and place of said payments, when and where such payments are to be made, having previously been given, either by personal service on the subscriber or owner of such stock or by publication for at least ten days in any newspaper published in the city of Chicago, state of Illinois.

§ 6. The concerns of said company shall be managed by its directors, who shall consist of not less than three nor more than seven, who shall be stockholders, and who shall be elected, annually, by the stockholders of said company, at such time and place as the by-laws of such company may prescribe, and who shall hold their office for one year and until others are chosen in their places. That the first election shall be held within one year from the passage of this act. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote upon each share of stock held by him or her. Voting shall be by ballot, and may be in person or by proxy. The directors shall, annually, appoint a president from their number, and a secretary and treasurer, and such other officers as they may deem necessary, from among the stockholders, who shall hold their office until others are appointed in their places. The directors may make and ordain such by-laws and regulations as they may deem necessary and proper for the management of the business and for the accomplishment of the purposes of the corporation; they shall issue certificates of stock to the subscribers thereof, whenever the same shall be paid for; which certificates shall be signed by the president or the officer acting as such, and shall be countersigned by the secretary, and shall be assignable or transferable only in such manner and at such places as said directors by their by-laws prescribe.

Indebtedness. § 7. It shall be lawful for the president and directors of said company to borrow or obtain on loan or loans, any sums of money, and on such terms as they may deem expedient, for said company; and they may issue notes, or bonds for the same, secured by mortgages or deeds of trust on the real estate, improvements and assets of said company or otherwise.

§ 8. This act shall be a public act, and [be] in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 28, 1867.

In force March 5, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Sangamon Coal and Manufacturing Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That P. L. Howlett, George H. Locey, Philip A. Hoynes, Daniel Evans and Amos C. Steadman, and their associates, successors and assigns, and all such persons as shall become stockholders in the company hereby created, shall be and are a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Sangamon Coal and Manufacturing Company;" and, by that name, shall have perpetual succession, with the power to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, to plead and be impleaded, in that name, in all courts and places; to have a common seal, and change the same at pleasure; to engage in the mining, sale and transportation of coal, iron, or other materials, and in the manufacture of iron, lime, coal oil, fire brick, coke and other products of lands, now owned or occupied, or hereafter to be owned or occupied by them, and in the transportation of the same, or any of them, to home and foreign markets; and, also, in their discretion, power to establish and engage in the manufacture of cotton and woolen fabrics and in the sale and transportation of the same to home and foreign markets.

Possession of real estate, etc. § 2. The said company may receive, purchase and hold any real estate, mining rights, and right of way, for the purpose of mining, manufacturing and preparing for sale and transportation of coal, iron lime, brick, slate, coal oil, coke, woolen and cotton fabrics, for home and foreign markets as may be deemed necessary by them, to the successful prosecution of their business, and the execution of the powers herein granted; and may build and own boats, railroad cars, trucks, houses and other personal property, for carrying on their business, and may dispose of the same, by sale or otherwise, and may receive real estate in payment of stock; and shall have power to construct and equip wagon-ways or railways and appurtenances thereto, either above or below ground, from their mines to such points as they may deem expedient, and for such purposes are hereby invested with all needful rights and powers.

§ 3. The above named incorporators, or any one of them, may open books at such time and place in the cities of Chicago and Springfield, in this state, for subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, at such time as they may appoint, not exceeding one year from the date of the passage of this act, by giving five days' notice in one or more of the daily papers published in said cities that such books will be opened to the capital stock of said company, and that they will remain open until the amount of thirty thousand dollars shall be subscribed, when the stockholders will organize the company, by choosing five directors, who shall hold their offices until the first Monday of May next, succeeding the organization of the company, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and on the first Monday of May, in each year, an election shall be held at the office of the said company, to elect five directors, who shall be stockholders, and who shall hold their offices until the next annual election and until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

§ 4. The said directors, when chosen, shall choose a president, who shall also be a stockholder, and shall have power to appoint a secretary and such other officers and agents as they may deem necessary, and shall define their duties; and said board of directors shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur in their own body—a plurality of votes constituting a choice; and such persons, so elected to fill such vacancy or vacancies, shall hold their office until the next annual election of directors. A majority of the board of directors present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

§ 5. Said company shall have power to make such by-laws, rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the government and management of said company, not in conflict with the constitution and laws of this state or of the United States.

§ 6. The capital stock of said company shall be five hundred thousand dollars, with power to increase the same to any sum not exceeding one million of dollars, or to diminish the amount of stock at pleasure; said stock to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and the legal owner of said stock in said company shall, by himself, or by proxy, be entitled to cast one vote for each share so held by him at all elections held by said company,

§ 7. Certificates of stock shall be issued by the president of said company, to the holders thereof, whenever the

Corporators.

Name.

Powers.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Glover L. Booth, Charles H. Hapgood and Charles A. Gregory of Cook county, their associates and successors and assigns, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, under the name of "The Culver Coal Company;" and, by that name, shall have perpetual succession, with power to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued in that name in all courts and places; to have a common seal, and change the same at pleasure; to engage in the mining, sale and in the transportation of coal, iron and other minerals, and in the manufacture of iron, lime, coal oil, fire-brick and other products of lands now or hereafter owned or occupied by them, or them and their associates, successors and assigns, and also to engage, generally, in the transportation of coal and other products, aforesaid, for themselves and for all other persons and corporations, to and from all places, for due compensation, to be fixed and received by said company. Said company shall have the right to make any and all such contracts to and with any person or corporation for the mining and sale and for the transportation of coal and other products, as aforesaid, as may be deemed advisable by said company, and to contract for such preference and for such favorable rights for the transportation of coal, etc., as may be deemed advantageous to said company; and may receive, purchase and hold any real estate, mining rights and rights of way, for the purpose of mining and preparing for sale or for the purpose of transportation of coal, as may be deemed necessary for them to the successful prosecution of their business and the execution of the powers herein granted; and may build and own boats, trucks, houses, wagons, cars and other personal property, for carrying on their business; and may dispose of their property, by sale or otherwise, and may receive real estate in payment of stock; and shall have power to construct railways and appurtenances thereto, either above or below ground, from their mines to such points as they may deem expedient, with power to connect with any internal navigation or railroads, by means of railways, to facilitate the transportation of the products aforesaid to home and foreign markets; and for such purpose are hereby invested with all needful powers and rights. The right of way for said road or roads to be constructed under this act, as also for buildings, landings and other depots, may be obtained by said company, either by purchase, gift or grant, or in the mode prescribed by the general law or laws of Illinois pertaining to condemning the right of way for railroads.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be fifty thousand dollars, with power to increase the same to any sum not exceeding one million of dollars, or to diminish the same, at pleasure—said stock to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and the holder of stock in said company shall, by himself or proxy, be entitled to cast one vote for each share so held by him at all elections held by said company. The directors of said company shall consist of not less than three nor more than seven persons, who shall be elected annually by the stockholders of said company, at such time and place as the by-laws of said company may prescribe; and the directors, when chosen, shall hold their offices until the next annual election, and until their successors are elected and qualified; and a failure to hold any annual election shall not work a forfeiture of any powers or rights under this charter. The said directors, when chosen, shall choose a president, and also have power to appoint a secretary and treasurer, and all such other officers and agents as they may think necessary, and to define their duties; and said board of directors shall have power to fill any vacancy or vacancies that may occur in their own body—a plurality of votes constituting a choice; and such person or persons so elected to fill such vacancy or vacancies, shall hold office until the next election of directors. A majority of the board of directors present at any meeting shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. The directors may, from time to time, require the stockholders, respectively, to pay the amount of their subscriptions or the assessments upon their shares, at such times and in such proportions as the directors shall think proper, under the penalty for non-compliance with such requisitions of forfeiture to the company of said shares and all previous payments thereon; and notice of such requisition and the demand for such payment shall be made in the manner prescribed by the by-laws of said company, and non-compliance therewith shall be sufficient to work a forfeiture to the company of the stock of any delinquent subscriber or stockholder, and of all payments thereon. Said company shall have power to make such by-laws, rules and regulations as they may deem necessary for the more thorough organization and for the government of said company, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state or of the United States. The president or other officers of said company shall issue certificates of stock to the stockholders, which certificates shall be countersigned by the secretary, and shall be assignable and transferable only in such manner and on such conditions and at such times and places as the stockholders of said company shall by their by-laws prescribe. It shall be lawful for the president and directors of said company to borrow any sums of money, on such terms as they may deem expedient, for said company, and issue notes or bonds for the same, and may secure the same by mortgage on the real estate or personal property of the company, or otherwise. All the real and personal estate of said company shall be liable to be assessed for taxation as other property is, but the stock shall not be liable to be assessed.

§ 3. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

In force Feb'y 23, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Union Mining and Prospecting Company, of Chicago.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Caleb Calkins, Josephus S. Howell, Leonard G. Calkins and Henry C. Ballard, and their associates and successors, are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Union Mining and Prospecting Company, of Chicago," with perpetual succession, for the purpose of mining and prospecting for gold, silver and other metals, ores and minerals; locating and securing, for the purpose of development or sale, lodes of gold and silver-bearing quartz, in the territory of Colorado; and, by that name and style, have power to contract and be contracted with, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, appear, prosecute and defend, in any and all courts of law or equity, in all suits and actions, and have and use a common seal with the privilege to alter the same at pleasure; establish, alter or change any by-laws for the government of the company; and may borrow money, purchase, hold, sell, mortgage, transfer and convey any real or personal estate or property; may make, erect or construct any mills, buildings, shafts, tunnels, races, roads, forges, furnaces, dikes, and all other works necessary for carrying on their operations in Colorado; hold and enjoy mining rights and property; mine and work for gold, silver and other metals, ores and minerals, in Colorado, and transport the products of their said mining and work; and to have and enjoy all the privileges, rights and immunities incident to corporations for such purposes necessary to execute and carry on such business in Colorado. The general office of said company shall be in the city of Chicago, county of Cook, and state of Illinois.

§ 2. The persons named in this act shall have power to organize said company, by the selection and appointment of such officers or managers as they may deem necessary, who shall have power, subject to the control and direction of the company, to make regulations and by-laws, from time to time, for the management of their business, not inconsistent with the laws of the state or states or territories where such company may be operating, or of the United States.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall not be less than five hundred thousand dollars, ($500,000), and may be increased to any sum not exceeding five million dollars, ($5,000,000), by a vote of the majority in interest of the said stock. Said company shall have power to fix the amount of each share of the capital stock, and to take real or personal property, or either, in payment of subscriptions to its stocks, at such prices as they may deem proper and expedient. Capital stock.

§ 4. Said company shall have power to create, dispose of and issue such number of shares of the stock of said company, not exceeding in the aggregate five million dollars, ($5,000,000), at the representative value thereof, as may be ordered by a vote of the company; to determine the par value of shares; to pay in the stock of the corporation for such mining rights and interest in real estate, as it may be deemed necessary to purchase for the operations of the company. Disposition of stock.

§ 5. This act shall be deemed a public act, and take effect from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Gardner Coal Company.

In force February 22, 1867.

 their associates and successors, be and hereby are constituted a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Gardner Coal Company," with perpetual succession, and with power, by that name, to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued; to have a common seal; to take and hold, by grant, donation, purchase or lease, lands or personal property, in the village of Gardner or elsewhere, for the purpose of mining or transporting coal; Name and style with power to lease, sell and convey the same, or any part thereof; to appoint all necessary agents or officers, and to make such by-laws and regulations for the organization of the company and the transaction of its business as may be necessary, the same not being inconsistent with the laws of the United States or this state. Powers.

Capital stock.

§ 2. The capital stock of this company shall be forty thousand dollars, which may be increased, by vote of the stockholders, to any amount not exceeding one million dollars. The said stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, for which stock certificates shall be issued to the stockholders, signed by the president and secretary of the company.

Government of affairs.

§ 3. The incorporators, above named, shall call a meeting of the said corporation at the office of the Gardner Coal Company, in the village of Gardner, by posting up a written notice on the door of said office one week before the time set for said meeting; and at said meeting, provided forty thousand dollars of stock is subscribed, a board of directors shall be chosen from among the stockholders, which board shall consist of not less than three nor more than five, who shall hold their office for one year or until their successors are elected and qualified; they shall appoint from among themselves a president and treasurer, and shall make and adopt all by-laws and regulations for the government of the concerns of the company, and appoint such agents and officers as to them shall seem necessary.

Rights and privileges.

§ 4. The said company shall have the right to purchase all the property, both real and personal, owned by the Gardner Coal Company; and shall have the exclusive and perpetual right to mine under any of the streets, alleys or public parks, in the village of Gardner, that may intersect or adjoin any of the property for which said company may have or may acquire leases for mining purposes: Provided, that the same shall in no way conflict with the rights of the public to travel upon said streets or alleys.

Railroads.

§ 5. The company shall have power to construct railroads from their coal mines to any point on the St. L. A. & C. R. R., or to any point in the counties of Grundy, Will or Kan-kakee, and to connect with any internal navigation or railroad therein.

Right of way.

§ 6. The right of way for said road or roads, to be constructed under this act, as also for buildings, landings and depots, may be obtained by said company, either by purchase, gift or grant, or in the mode prescribed by an act of the state of Illinois, entitled "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvements," approved June 22, 1852.

of said company, it will be for the advantage of said company to increase the said capital stock, it may be increased to such an amount as the said directors may determine: Provided, however, that said capital stock shall not be increased at any one time to a greater additional amount than one hundred thousand dollars, without the consent of a majority in interest of all the stockholders thereto. Said capital stock shall be deemed personal property, and be issuable and transferable only on the books of said company in such manner and subject to such restrictions as said board of directors may determine and provide, and shall be payable in such installments and in such manner and kind, whether in real or personal property, or otherwise, and at such times and places, as said board of directors shall provide. And in case any stockholder shall neglect, fail or refuse to pay the installments called for by said board of directors on the shares of the stock held by him, such shares shall be thereby forfeited to said company: Provided, that in all cases of installments in said shares of stock being called for after the first payment or installment thereon, ten days' previous notice of such call shall be given to all of the stockholders, in person or by mailing a notice thereof to each of said stockholders, through the post-office, to the last known address of said stockholders; and if such installments, so called for, be not then paid, said company shall have the right and authority to sell or otherwise dispose of such shares as to said board of directors shall seem most expedient, and shall only be liable to account to such delinquent stockholder for the amount in excess over previous payments and subsequent calls which said company received in cash for the stock so sold or disposed of.

Organization.

§ 3. The persons named in the first section of this act shall have power to open books of subscription to said capital stock and superintend the subscribing of the same, and may organize said company, after the subscription of said stock, by the appointment of such officers and managers as they may deem necessary; and may create, ordain and adopt such by-laws for the government and management of the business and affairs of said company as are necessary; which said by-laws shall provide for the election of a board of directors; but nothing shall be contained in such by-laws which shall deprive each stockholder from having and exercising one vote for each share of stock held by him and standing on the books of said company in his name at such election or elections, nor be inconsistent with the laws of the United [States] or the state wherein such company may be working or operating.

Indebtedness.

§ 4. Said company may borrow money and issue bonds, in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same; and may mortgage or convey, by deed of trust, all or any of the franchises, real or personal property belonging to the said company, to secure the payment of said borrowed money, or said bonds or any part thereof; and said board of directors may confer the right upon any bondholder of converting said bonds or any of them, into the stock of said company at any time within ten years from the date thereof, subject to the restrictions and regulations which said directors may adopt; and all sales of said bonds shall be as good and valid and as binding upon said company, if made at less than their par or representative value as if made at the full value or representative amount thereof.

§ 5. This act shall be deemed a public act, and take effect from and after its passage.

AN ACT relative to mining for lead ore or other minerals.

Duties of cor-
companies.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That every corporation, company, association of persons or other party now engaged in mining for lead ore or other minerals, or which may hereafter be engaged in operating or mining for lead ore or other minerals, whenever it is necessary for the purpose of prosecuting such mining enterprise to conduct or convey the water from any shaft, levels or land occupied by them for mining purposes, shall have the right and privilege of conducting and conveying the water therefrom, upon, over or below the surface of the lands of any owner or owners of lands adjoining or adjacent to the grounds so worked or to be used for mining purposes by such corporation, company, association of persons or other party, in pipes, ditches, water races or tunnels, and to deposit waste earth from their said mines, thereby doing as little damage or injury to the owner or owners of adjoining lands or the improvement thereon as the same will admit of, with the privilege of extending said pipes, ditches, water-races or tunnels as far over adjacent lands as may be necessary to obtain a proper outlet for the water, upon complying with the provisions of this act.

§ 2. Whenever such corporation, company or other party can not agree with the owner or owners of such adjoining lands upon the amount of damages for the right and privilege of conveying the water from any shaft, level or mining land aforesaid, such corporation, company or association of persons, or other party, may apply to the judge of the county court of the county where the land is situated for the appointment of three commissioners, to assess such damage. The judge of said county court, upon such application being made, shall appoint three disinterested freeholders, residents of his county, to act as commissioners, who, after being duly sworn for that purpose, shall proceed to make an examination of all the lands necessary and proper to be used by said company, corporation, association of persons, or other party in conducting or conveying the water from such shaft, level or mineral lands, and for depositing waste earth, as aforesaid, and also for such lands as may be overflowed or liable to overflow by the reason of erecting, constructing and maintaining such pipes, ditches, tunnels or the keeping up and maintaining water-races upon said lands, and make an award, in writing, in which they shall award to the owner or owners of such land or lands the amount of damages to which such owner or owners of said land or lands shall be entitled, by reason of use of lands for waste earth and for the erection, construction and maintaining such pipes, ditches, tunnels or water-race, or that may be erected and maintained for the purpose of conveying the water from the same.

§ 3. Said commissioners shall meet within thirty days from the time of their appointment to make their examination and award, by virtue of this act, and shall have power to adjourn, from time to time, not exceeding two adjournments in all; and the owner or owners of such land shall be notified to appear before them, at the time and place of such meeting, and shall be entitled to be heard before said commissioners in regard to the amount of damages by them sustained or liable to be sustained in consequence of the erecting, making and maintaining of such pipes, ditches, tunnels or water-races, and depositing waste earth, as aforesaid. Such notice shall, at least six days before such meeting, be served personally or by leaving a copy thereof at the residence of the owner or owners of such land aforesaid: Provided, such owner or owners reside in the county where said lands are situated; and in case such owner or owners are non-residents of the county, then such notice shall be served upon their attorney or agent, if they have any in such county, and if there is no such agent or attorney in the county then such notice shall be published in a newspaper printed in said county for at least three weeks before the meeting of said commissioners.

Decisions and awards. § 4. The decision and award of said commissioners shall be final, unless appealed from, as provided for in this act; and the said award, together with due proof of the notice or notices upon the owner or owners of said land, or upon their attorney or agent, as provided for in this act, shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the award is made, shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of said proceedings; and at the next term of the circuit court of the proper county, upon motion made by any party interested therein, a judgment may be entered up and execution issued to the same effect and in the same manner as judgments are entered, executions issued upon actions of civil nature commenced and tried in the circuit court.

Appeals. § 5. Any corporation, company, association of persons, or other party considering themselves aggrieved by the award of said commissioners, may appeal therefrom, within twenty days from the time of filing said award, to the circuit court of the proper county, in the same manner as is provided by law for appeals from judgments of a justice of the peace. Said commissioners shall be entitled to receive two dollars per day, each, for their services as such commissioners, which shall be paid by such corporation, company or party.

Use of property § 6. And it is hereby expressly provided, that the pipes, ditches and water-races or tunnels laid, excavated or constructed by virtue of the provisions of this act, shall, under no circumstances, be used by the owners of the lands through which they may be laid or constructed or by any other person or persons, for any purpose whatsoever other than the drainage of the lands; and no person or persons whatsoever shall be authorized to enter the same, except for the purpose of repairing, altering, extending or otherwise improving the same, without the written consent of the parties interested first had and obtained.

name, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts of law and equity, and have all the rights and powers incident to a corporation. Said corporation may have a common seal, and alter and renew the same at pleasure; and may purchase and hold real and personal property necessary to promote the business and interests of the corporation.

Capital stock. § 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and may be increased to any amount not exceeding one million dollars, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and be transferable as said company, by its by-laws, may prescribe. The stockholders shall be personally liable for the debts of the company, to an amount equal to the amount of stock by them respectively subscribed and not actually paid in.

§ 3. Said company may construct a dam or dams across Rock river and the sloughs thereof, at the Lower Rapids of said river, in Rock Island county, in sections fourteen and twenty-three, township seventeen north, range two west of the fourth principal meridian, and construct a canal and lock or locks on either side of the main channel of said river, for the purpose of making said river navigable by said rapids, and of developing, improving and using the water-power. The title to the land on Vandruff's island, in said section fourteen, taken by the state of Illinois under the law relating to internal improvements, and the rights of the state there, are hereby granted and transferred to and vested in said company: Provided, however, that the same shall revert to the state if said company shall not commence work within two years, and within six years from the passage of this act make said river navigable by said Lower Rapids, by the construction and completion of a canal and lock or locks of sufficient width and depth for the convenient passage of steamboats and other water craft drawing not more than three feet of water: And, provided, that the dam herein authorized to be constructed across said Rock river shall not be higher than shall be necessary to raise the water at the head of said rapids, at Carr's island, enough for the safe and convenient passage, at low water, of steamboats and other craft drawing three feet of water. And said company may construct a dam across the chute or slough, between Carr's island and Vandruff's island, and prevent the water from passing through said chute from the main stream into the slough at Camden Mills, in high water, and place a gate thereon, to allow the water to flow into said slough at low water.

Exclusive water privileges.

§ 4. Said company shall have the exclusive control and ownership of the water power created or developed by the construction of said dam or dams, canal and lock or locks, and may use the said water power or sell, let or contract it, or any part of it, to others. And said company may construct such steamboats and water craft, and such offices, shops, mills, machinery and works, as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes of navigation and the development, improvement and use of said water power and for the business of said company.

§ 5. Said company shall have authority to enter upon and take land necessary for the construction and maintenance of said dam or dams, canal, lock or locks, and for wharves, piers and landing places, and for any other purpose necessary and incident to the navigation of said river; and when any land is so taken, said company shall pay for the same such price as may be agreed upon between said company and the owner or owners thereof; and in case said company shall fail to obtain said land by purchase or agreement said land may be taken and condemned; and the damages for taking the same shall be ascertained and recovered and paid in the manner prescribed by an act of the state of Illinois, approved February 13th, 1855, and entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act for the improvement of the navigation of Rock river, and for the production of hydraulic power," approved February 5th, 1849, and the provisions of said act, approved February 13th, 1855; and the rights therein conferred are extended and made applicable to and conferred upon the Rock River Navigation and Water Power Company. And should any land be flowed or be liable to flow, by reason of the dam or dams of said company, it shall be lawful for said company to enter upon said land and construct levees or embankments, for the purpose of preventing flowage. And the damage, if any, caused by the construction of said levees or embankments, shall be ascertained and paid for in the manner herein prescribed in cases where land is flowed by reason of the construction of dams.

§ 6. Said company shall keep said canal and lock or locks in good repair, and shall have power to establish, regulate and collect a uniform rate of toll upon all steamboats and craft passing through said canal or lock or locks, and to distrain and detain them until said toll is paid; or said company may sue for and recover said toll and costs before any court of competent jurisdiction; and said company shall have a lien upon all steamboats and craft for the amount of said toll and judgments until paid: Provided, that the legislature may, at any time, establish, change or regulate the rate of said toll: Provided, further, that if the state, at any time hereafter, shall improve the navigation of said Rock river, and by the construction of canals and locks make said river navigable by the rapids above said Lower Rapids, the legislature may require said company to make its canal and lock or locks of a capacity for navigation equal to the capacity of the canals and locks constructed by the state, so that the navigation of said river shall

When the state shall take possession of said dams, canal and lock or locks, the state shall thereby assume to keep them in good repair and assume all the liabilities thereafter resulting from them. And should the state take possession before the time limited in this act for the completion of said works, the state shall complete the same, and said company shall be relieved from any liability or forfeiture by reason of not completing the said works within the time herein prescribed. And should the state, after having taken possession of said works, abandon them, said company may complete and sustain them, and have all the rights and liabilities created by this act the same as though the state had never taken possession.
- § 7. The corporators herein named shall constitute a board of commissioners to receive subscriptions for the capital stock of said company; and said commissioners may open books of subscription and take such measures for the obtaining of subscriptions as they may think fit. When one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock shall have been subscribed for, said company may organize and elect officers. Said commissioners shall call a meeting of the stockholders at some convenient place in said Rock Island county for the purpose of electing a board of directors, consisting of three, five or seven stockholders. Said commissioners shall be the inspectors of said election, and shall furnish to each stockholder elected a certificate of his election, which shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.
- § 8. The board of directors shall have the general management of the business of said company. They shall elect one of their number president and shall elect or appoint a secretary and treasurer, and such other officers, clerks and agents as they may deem proper; shall fix and regulate all salaries; and shall require bonds for the faithful performance of duties from such officers as they may think fit. Said directors may fill vacancies in their own number, and may establish and promulgate a code of by-laws for the guidance of said company, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state and the United States. But the action of a meeting of the stockholders shall be necessary to increase the capital stock.

And should said annual meeting, for any cause, fail to be held, as herein provided, or should said meeting fail to elect a board of directors, the rights of said company shall not thereby be lost or forfeited, but the business may all be done at a special meeting called for that purpose.

§ 10. The board of directors may, and upon the written application of the stockholders representing a majority of the stock, shall call a special meeting of the stockholders, stating the time, place and object of said meeting. Said special meeting shall be called, by giving each stockholder six days' personal notice, or by publishing notice thereof three times in any paper printed and published in said Rock Island county, the last of which publications shall be at least ten days before said meeting. The sending of written notices, by mail, directed to any stockholder, at his last and known post office address, at least ten days before said meeting, shall be taken and held to be six days' personal notice.

sions of this act, as hereinafter authorized, and of holding real estate and personal property, for the purpose contemplated and authorized by this act or in the discharge of debts due the said corporation, and of using and disposing of the same; may have a common seal, which they may alter at pleasure; and may make all needful by-laws for the government of the company, its officers and the management of its affairs, and may alter the same at pleasure; may appoint or provide for the election of such officers and agents as may be necessary, and prescribe the duties and liabilities of all the officers of said company, subject to the provisions of this act.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be two hundred thousand dollars, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each; and said capital stock may be increased by the directors of said company to such an extent as they may deem necessary to effect the purposes of the corporation, as hereinafter set forth, and the same shall be subscribed for, taken and paid under the direction of the board of directors of said company at such times and places and in such manner as the said board of directors shall from time to time appoint and direct: Pro- Capital stock.
vided, that no assessment or installment upon said capital stock shall be deemed to be due and payable until notice of the time when and the place where the same is to be paid shall have been served personally on each stockholder or has been published by at least three insertions in one newspaper in the city of Ottawa—the personal notice or the first insertion being at least twenty days before the day on which the same shall be required to be paid; and no member of or stockholder in said company shall in any event be personally or individually liable to said company or to any creditor thereof for any other or greater sum than the amount of unpaid capital stock owned or held by him; and the said capital stock and the shares thereof shall be held and considered as personal property. Proviso.

§ 3. Said company is hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon and improve the navigation of that portion of Fox river, commencing at the head gate of the Fox river feeder of the Illinois and Michigan canal, and following the general course of said river to the village of Wellington, and with the authority to extend said improvements to Yorkville, Kendall county, if the interests of the company shall seem to require it, so as to admit of the easy passage of steamboats, tugs, barges and other water craft, at all usual stages of water, not drawing to exceed three feet, by the construction of dams, locks, or canals, by deepening the bed of said river, or by taking therefrom driftwood, snags, loose rocks or other obstructions to the safe navigation thereof, and, also, by removing from the banks and elbows or bends of said river the leaning or standing To enter upon.

trees or other substances which hinder or obstruct the navigation of said river. It shall also be lawful for said company to build or purchase and own steamboats, tugs, barges and other water craft, adapted to the navigation of said river, and to engage in the general business of transportation with the same.

Directors. § 4. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed provisional directors of said company; and the said directors, or a majority of them, may meet at a time and place to be by them agreed upon and proceed to organize, by the election of one of them as president, to preside at the meetings of the board; and they may, also, appoint such other officers as may be deemed necessary:

Proviso. Provided, that the board of directors shall consist of not less than three or more than seven members, as may be determined by the aforesaid provisional directors, and shall be elected annually, at a time and place to be fixed in the by-laws of the company, and that they shall hold their offices until their successors are elected.

Vacancy. § 5. Any vacancy which may occur in the board of directors, by death, resignation or otherwise, may be filled by appointment by the board until the next election; and in case of a failure to hold an election on the day fixed on in the by-laws the said board of directors and all their officers shall hold over until their successors are elected; and the president and secretary shall have power to call a special election for said purpose, giving ten days' notice thereof in one newspaper in the county of La Salle and Quorum. § 6. A majority of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum to transact business; and in all elections for directors or for other purposes, each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, which may be given by the holder of such stock, by person or by proxy.

Payment of stock. § 7. The directors shall have power to determine the time, manner and proportions in which the subscribers shall pay the money due on their stock, and otherwise direct the business of the company, subject to the provisions of this act and the by-laws made in pursuance thereof.

Certificates of stock. § 8. The directors shall procure certificates of stock to be signed by the president and countersigned by the secretary, and shall deliver one to each stockholder. The stock may be transferred by assignment, to be entered on the books of the company by the owner of such stock assigned, or his attorney duly appointed, and accompanied by a surrender of the certificate, on which other certificates may be issued accordingly: Provided, that stock that has not been paid up in full shall not be assigned, neither shall any paid up stock be sold, assigned or transferred for less than its par value without the consent of the directors. Proviso.

§ 9. In case of the assignment of any stock before the same shall have been paid up, according to the requirements of the directors, the assignee shall become liable for all the sums due on the stock assigned, and, as such, may be sued on the original subscription as if he had himself subscribed such stock. Assignments.

§ 10. It shall be lawful for said company, by their agents and servants, to enter on the said Fox river, and on the lands on either side thereof, to hold and use the same, so far as necessary for the objects herein provided for, and to use the timber, rocks, stone, gravel or earth that may be found thereon in the construction of their works, and to form, erect, make or set up any dams, locks, canals or other device whatever, by said company deemed most proper to improve the navigation of said Fox river, and most to subserve its commerce, whether the same be by slack water or otherwise, from the aforementioned head of the Fox river feeder, near Dayton, in La Salle county, to the village of Yorkville, in Kendall county: Provided, that said company shall pay the owners of lands occupied by them, as afore said, or from which materials be taken, as aforesaid, or which may be overflowed by the works by them constructed, the value of the lands so occupied, or the materials so taken, or the damage so done: And, provided, that the said value shall be ascertained or said damage estimated and compensation made in manner hereinafter provided. Powers conferred.

§ 11. The said company shall have the privilege of, and be entitled to use for manufacturing purposes, the water power from the said river, created by any dam, lock or canal or other works of said company, and may sell, in fee simple, lease or rent powers, lands and machinery to individuals or corporations, as may be deemed expedient; and may acquire, hold, own and enjoy such real estate in the vicinity of the water powers created by the construction of any dams, canals or other works and improvements contemplated under this act, as may be deemed suitable for the operations of this company and town or city improvements connected therewith, or any part thereof, with the rights and privileges accruing therefrom or in anywise appertaining thereto; may erect such buildings and machinery as they may deem expedient; may engage in the manufacture of cotton, woolen, hempen, flaxen or mixed or other goods, machinery or other manufactures; and may acquire, hold and enjoy such other real estate as they may be able to acquire by voluntary purchase, and as they may deem Proviso.

And the board of directors shall have power to declare dividends out of the actual profits of said corporation or from the sale of its real estate, water power or other property of the said corporation: Provided, that the use of said water power shall not impede the navigation of said river, and that the money arising from the sale or rent of said water power shall be applied to the benefit of the company. And if at any dam, lock or other point on said river there shall be a surplus of water, and only at such point, shall the company be authorized to erect the mills or machinery, as heretofore mentioned; and at such point or points it shall be the duty of said company to propose to purchase from the owner or owners of such parcels of the adjoining land as may be necessary for the full use, improvement and enjoyment of such water power. And should said company and the owner or owners of such lands be unable to agree upon the quantity of land to be taken or the price to be paid therefor, the same shall be condemned, estimated, fixed and determined under the provisions of an act, entitled "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, A. D., 1852; and when it shall be deemed necessary by the said company, for the purposes set forth in this act, to use, occupy or effect any lands, lots or water privileges of any other person or persons, it shall be lawful for said company to appropriate, use, occupy or effect the same on payment of a just compensation to the owner or owners thereof; and should said company be unable to agree with such owner or owners, the same shall be determined according to the provisions of the aforementioned act.

AN ACT to incorporate the Orphan Asylum for Southern Illinois, at Cairo, In force Feb'y 25, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Mrs. Corporators.

D. Hurd, Mrs. H. W. Wardner, Mrs. A. B. Fenton, Mrs. G. D. Williamson, Miss Jennie Sloo, Mrs. J. C. Rankin, Mrs. D. T. Parker, Mrs. A. B. Safford, Mrs. William Stratton, Mrs. Rachel Slack, Mrs. H. W. Webb, Mrs. J. M. Morrow, James C. Sloo, Daniel Hurd, Henry W. Webb, Henry H. Candes, Charles Galigher, A. B. Fenton, Samuel R. Hay, Alfred Commings, William J. Yost, John Olney, and Charles Latimer, and their successors, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Orphan Asylum for Southern Illinois, at Cairo," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with power to contract and be contracted with; sue and be sued; and to hold all kinds of property, real, personal and mixed, which said corporation may acquire by gift, grant, purchase, devise or otherwise; and to do and perform all other acts and things that may become necessary or advisable to carry out the purposes of said institution; and said corporation shall have power to dispose of, convey or mortgage its property at pleasure; to have and use a corporate seal, and to alter or change the same at pleasure; to make and alter by-laws for the government of such corporation, its officers and agents, not inconsistent with the laws of this state; and shall have and enjoy and may exercise all the powers, rights and privileges which other corporate bodies may do, for the purposes mentioned in this act.

Corporate name and powers.

§ 2. On the first Monday in March, A. D. 1867, or as soon thereafter as may be agreed upon by a majority of the corporators, an election shall be held at the asylum, in Cairo, for the election of twelve trustees, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified. Election of officers.

§ 3. The trustees shall have the general supervision and management of said asylum, and shall have power to elect one of their number president, and to remove him at Trustees.

pleasure, and to prescribe the number of trustees to be elected after the first election, and fix their term of service and the mode and manner of election; to appoint such officers, agents, teachers and matrons as they may think proper, and prescribe their duties; and to provide for the admission and expulsion of members of said asylum.

Object and purposes.

§ 4. The objects and purposes of this corporation shall be the relief, nurture, maintenance and education of orphan children of soldiers and sailors, and such other children as may come under the control of said asylum. All orphan children, who have no guardian or sufficient means of support, may be taken charge of by said asylum. Any father or mother (the father being absent or dead) shall be authorized to place his or her child or children under the charge of said asylum. The county court or county judge of any county in the state, instead of placing a child under eighteen years in the poor house or binding out such child, as now provided by law, may commit such minor to the care and custody of said asylum; and the trustees are hereby made the guardians of all children who may lawfully come into the custody of said asylum, and shall have the care, custody and control of such minors until they arrive at the age of eighteen years, if females, and twenty-one years, if males. And said trustees shall have power to indenture any of such minors, during their minority, to any suitable person, for the purpose of learning any honorable trade or employment; and, in all cases, shall provide in such indentures for the receiving the rudiments of a good English education.

Constitution and by-laws.

§ 5. The constitution and by-laws of the Protestant Orphan Asylum Association, of Cairo, Illinois, not inconsistent with this act, shall be and remain the rules and regulations, constitution and by-laws of the corporation hereby created, until repealed or changed by said corporation; and all property, rights, credits and interests of said association are hereby vested in the corporation hereby created, with full power in said corporation to maintain actions for the recovery of any such property, rights, credits or interests, if necessary, whether the same shall have accrued to said association by voluntary subscription or otherwise.

§ 6. This act shall be a public act, and take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

21, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James H. McCall, Daniel W. Vittrim, jr., William Babcock, Townsend Atwater, Andrew B. Hulit, Amos C. Babcock, William Hulit, George W. Wright, Nathaniel Vittrim, John McCurn and Charles T. Heald, and their associates and successors, be and they are hereby created a body corporate and politic, with perpetual succession, by the name and style of "The Canton Driving Park Association;" and by that name they and their successors shall be capable in law of contracting and being contracted with, suing and being sued, defending and being defended, in all matters whatsoever, with full power to acquire, hold, possess, occupy and enjoy all such real estate as may be necessary and proper for the construction, extension and usefulness of the grounds, works and buildings of said association, and for the purpose of carrying out the intention and design of said association, and for the management and good government of the same; and they may have a common seal, and the same may alter and renew at pleasure.

Corporators.

Name.

Powers, etc.,

§ 2. The corporation hereby created shall have full power to acquire, hold, occupy and enjoy real estate, at or near Canton, in county of Fulton, not to exceed one hundred acres, and not to exceed in value thirty thousand dollars, and upon the same to erect all the necessary buildings, machinery and improvements that are used or required for the purposes of an agricultural and mechanical fair, and suitable and proper tracks for the exhibition of horses and other animals, under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by said association; and that this corporation shall have all the rights and privileges and the same protection as is by law now granted to county agricultural and mechanical fairs, in addition to the powers herein specifically created.

§ 3. The capital stock of said association shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be subscribed and paid for in such proportions as shall be prescribed by the by-laws and rules for the regulating the concerns of said association as they shall think proper and necessary respecting the management and disposition of the stock, property and estate of said association.

Capital stock.

§ 4. The affairs of said association shall be managed by a board of directors, to consist of not less than five nor more than eleven, who shall be chosen at the annual meeting of the association, which shall be held on the first Monday in January.

Directors.

Elections.

§ 5. At all elections of said association, each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share he may hold.

§ 6. The persons herein named as incorporators shall constitute the first board of directors. They may elect one of their number as president, and shall elect a secretary and treasurer, which treasurer shall give bond for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, in such sum, and with such sureties as a majority of the directors shall require.

Rules—by-laws.

§ 7. The directors shall have power to change the time of holding fairs, and make all needful rules and by-laws for the government of said association.

§ 8. This act shall be deemed a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 21, 1867.

In force Feb'y 27, 1867. AN ACT to provide for the location, improvement and regulation of a park, for the towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park and Lake.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That five persons, who shall be designated by the governor, and the judges of the supreme court of the state of Illinois, or a majority of said judges, at the April term, A. D. 1867, or at any succeeding term after the certificate of the county clerk of the county of Cook has been filed in the office of the clerk of said supreme court for the third grand division, as required by the 17th section of this act, be and they are hereby appointed a board of commissioners, and, together with their successors, shall constitute a board of public commissioners, for the towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park, and Lake, and be known under the name of "The South Park Commissioners." Such of said commissioners as shall accept such appointment shall, within thirty days of their notification of their appointment, notify in writing the clerk of said supreme court of said third grand division of such acceptance; and in the event of the failure, for any reason, of any one or more of the designated commissioners to notify said clerk, his or their place in said commission shall be thereby vacated; and it shall be the duty of a majority of the commissioners so accepting to nominate to said judges some suitable person or persons to fill the place of the person or persons so failing to accept; which nomination, if confirmed by said judges or the majority of the same, when accepted by such nominee or nominees, shall constitute such person so accepting a commissioner under this act; and a majority of said commissioners shall so continue to nominate until the said board shall consist of five persons; and said commission so constituted shall have all the power and authority in and by the act given to said board of park commissioners for the towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park and Lake. Each of said commissioners, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take an oath to well and properly discharge the duties of the said office for the interest of the public; which oath shall be reduced to writing and subscribed by him and filed in the office of the county clerk of Cook county.

Oath of office.

§ 2. As soon as convenient after the said board shall be constituted, as aforesaid, the members thereof shall decide, by lot, at a meeting to be called by any three of them, as to the respective terms for which he shall hold his office. The number of lots shall equal the number of commissioners, and the person drawing the longest term shall serve for five years from the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven; the one drawing the next shall serve for four years from said date; the one drawing the next shall serve for three years from said date; and so on, until the term of each one of said commissioners shall be definitely determined—each one serving for the length of time inscribed on the lot drawn by him—the last of said commissioners serving for the term of one year, only, from said first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven. As soon as the term of office of said commissioners shall be determined, as aforesaid, said board shall organize, by selecting one of their number as the president, and shall choose a secretary, who shall not necessarily be a commissioner, and who shall hold his office until his successor shall be appointed, as hereinafter provided. The said board of commissioners shall adopt a seal, and alter the same at pleasure; shall keep a complete record of all their proceedings and transactions, which shall be open at all times for the inspection of the public. The said commissioners shall receive no compensation for their services, except the president of said board, who may, in the discretion of said board, have and receive such compensation as may be fixed, as hereinafter provided. All vacancies occurring in said board shall be filled by persons nominated to such places by a majority of the board in office when such vacancy or vacancies shall occur, and confirmed by the superior court of Chicago. Said board of commissioners shall be a body politic and corporate, and shall have and enjoy all the powers necessary for the purposes of this act.

Term of office.

Organization.

Compensation.

Vacancies.

Officers.

§ 3. The president and secretary shall be elected, annually, by said board, at the annual meeting thereof, and shall receive such salary for their services as the said board may, from time to time, determine.

Authority and powers.

§ 4. The said commissioners are by this act authorized and empowered and shall within ninety days from and after their organization, as aforesaid, select such land, in the said town of South Chicago Hyde Park or Lake, in the county of Cook, aforesaid, not exceeding in area one thousand acres, as may to them seem fit and proper for the purposes of a public park, and, by their name, to take the title thereto, by purchase, gift, devise or condemnation, as hereinafter provided, to be held by them and their successors, in trust for the health and recreation of the people, and to inclose, improve, manage and control the same.

Right of way.

§ 5. In case the said commissioners can not agree with the owner or owners, lessees or occupants of any real estate selected by them, as aforesaid, they may proceed to procure the condemnation of the same in the manner prescribed in the act of the general assembly of the state of Illinois, entitled "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852, and the acts amendatory thereof the provisions of which said act and the several acts amendatory thereof are hereby extended to the park and park commissioners to be created by virtue of this act.

§ 6. When the title to the land selected for such park, as herein provided, shall have been acquired by said commissioners, by gift, purchase, condemnation or otherwise, it shall be the duty of such commissioners to make, acknowledge and file for record in the office of the recorder of deeds of Cook county a map, showing the said land, with correct description, including section, township and range.

§ 7. As soon as the amount required for the purchase or condemnation of the grounds selected for the said park shall have been ascertained by said commissioners they shall apply to the judge of the circuit court in the seventh judicial circuit for the appointment of three disinterested freeholders of the county of Cook as park assessors. The commissioners shall give notice in one or more of the daily newspapers published in the city of Chicago, of the time when such application will be made, and all parties interested may appear and be heard by the said judge touching such appointment. The said assessors shall proceed to assess the amount so ascertained upon the property in the towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park and Lake, in Cook county, deemed benefited by reason of the improvement occasioned by the location of said park, as near as may be, in proportion to the benefits resulting thereto. Upon entering on the duties of their office the said assessors shall make oath before the clerk of the said circuit court faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties of their office. They shall give at least ten days' notice in one of the said daily papers of the time and place of their meeting for the purpose of making said assessment, and may adjourn such meeting from time to time until the same shall be completed. In making the said assessment, the said assessors shall estimate the value of the several lots, blocks or parcels of land deemed benefited by them, as aforesaid, and shall include the same, together with the amount assessed as benefits in the assessment rolls. All parties interested may appear before the said assessors and be heard touching any matter connected with the assessment. When the same shall be completed it shall be signed by the assessors and returned to the said circuit court, and shall be filed by the clerk thereof. The assessors shall thereupon give notice in one of the said daily papers of the filing of said assessment roll, and that they will on a day therein named, apply to the said circuit court for confirmation of the same, which said notice shall be published at least ten days before the time fixed for such application. Said circuit court shall have power to revise, correct, amend or confirm said assessment, and may make or order a new assessment. All parties interested may appear before said circuit court, either in person or by attorney, when such application shall be made, and may object to said assessment, either in whole or in part: Provided, all objections shall be in writing, and shall be filed at least three days before the time fixed for the application, and shall specify the lot, block or parcels of land, on behalf of which objection is made. After the confirmation of the said assessment, the clerk of said circuit court shall file a copy thereof, under the seal of the said court, with the clerk of the county court of Cook county. Ten per cent. of the amount so ascertained shall be due and payable annually, and shall be a lien upon the several lots, blocks and parcels of land assessed for benefits, as aforesaid; and the clerk of said county court shall include in the general warrants for each year, until the whole sum shall be paid, for the collection of state and county taxes, in the said towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park and Lake, ten per centum of the said assessments in an appropriate column, to be termed "South Park Assessment," with the amount to be collected opposite the several lots, blocks or parcels of land assessed, as aforesaid; and like proceedings, in all respects, shall be had for enforcing the collection of the same as is now provided by law for the collection of state and county taxes. The money collected under the provisions of this section shall be paid to the treasurer of Cook county and be held by him in the same manner and be subject to the same control and direction as provided in this act for other moneys belonging to said corporation.

§ 8. For any deficiencies occurring through acquiring title to said park and for the payment of the expense of inclosing and improving the park herein provided for, and the expenses, disbursements and charges in the premises, the said commissioners shall have power to loan or borrow from time to time, for such time as they shall deem expedient, a sum of money not exceeding one million of dollars, and shall have authority to issue bonds, secured upon the said park and improvements, which bonds shall issue under the seal of said commissioners and shall be issued by them, or a majority of them and by the secretary of said board, and bear interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum. And it shall be the duty of said commissioners to keep an accurate register of all bonds issued by them, showing the number, date and amount of each bond, and to whom the same was issued; and said register shall at all times be open to the investigation of the public; and for the payment of the principal and interest of which bonds the said park and improvements shall be irrevocably pledged.

Interest—bonds

§ 9. The said board of park commissioners shall, annually, on or before the first day of December, in each year, transmit to the clerk of the county court of Cook county an estimate, in writing, of the amount of money, not exceeding in any one year two hundred thousand dollars, necessary for the payment of the interest on the bonds so issued by said board—and that, in addition thereto, will be required for the maintenance and government of said park during the current year. And the said clerk shall proceed to determine what per cent. said sum is on the taxable property of said towns, according to the several assessors' returns for the respective year, and shall, in the next general tax warrants for the collection of state and county taxes in said several towns, set down the amount chargeable to the several persons, corporations, lots or parcels of ground, in a separate or appropriate column, and the collectors, respectively, shall proceed to collect the same in the manner now provided by law for the collection of state and county taxes; and all the provisions of law in respect to the collection of state and county taxes and proceedings to enforce the same, so far as applicable, shall apply to said assessment and taxes. The said sum of money shall be retained by the treasurer of the said county of Cook, to the credit of said board of park commissioners, and shall be drawn by said board from the county treasury by a warrant signed by the president and secretary of said board and countersigned by an auditor or comptroller, who shall be one of said board, to be appointed by said board, and in no other way—the appointment of such auditor or comptroller having been first duly certified to by such president and secretary and filed in the office of the said treasurer of Cook county.

Vacation and closing up of roads, etc.

§ 10. It shall be lawful for the said commissioners to vacate and close up any and all public roads or highways, excepting railroads, which may pass through, divide or separate any lands selected or appropriated by them for the purposes of a park, and no such road shall ever be laid out through said park, except such as the said commissioners shall lay out and construct.

Liabilities of commissioners

into by them with any other person, nor shall they be interested, directly or indirectly, in the purchase of any material to be used or applied in and about the uses and purposes contemplated by this act. And it shall be a misdemeanor for a commissioner to be directly or indirectly in any way pecuniarily interested in any contract or work of any kind whatever connected with said park. Said commissioners shall give bond in the penal sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, each, with one or more sureties, to be approved by the judges of the superior court of Chicago, to the treasurer of Cook county, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their duties under this act.

§ 12. The said commissioners, or either of them, may be removed from office by the judges of the superior court of Chicago, upon petition presented to them in term time or in vacation by one hundred freeholders of said towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park and Lake. If it shall appear, after hearing and proof before said judges, that the said commissioners or either of them have been guilty of misdemeanor or malfeasance in office under this act, and if the said judges shall remove any two or more of said commissioners from office for any cause before the expiration of their term of office, they are hereby authorized and empowered to appoint others in their stead, who shall fill such offices for and during the unexpired term of such commissioners so removed.

§ 13. The said board shall have the full and exclusive power to govern, manage and direct said park; to lay out and regulate the same; to pass ordinances for the regulation and government thereof; to appoint such engineers, surveyors, clerks and other officers, including a police force, as may be necessary; to define and prescribe their respective duties and authority, fix the amount of their compensation, and, generally, in regard to said park, they shall possess all the power and authority now by law conferred upon or possessed by the common council of the city of Chicago in respect to the public squares and places in said city.

§ 14. The office of any commissioner under this act who shall not attend meetings of the board for three successive months after having been duly notified of said meetings, without reasons satisfactory to the board or without leave of absence from said board, may, by said board, be declared vacant.

§ 15. The real and personal property of said corporation shall be exempt from taxation.

§ 16. No part of said park shall be laid out north of Douglas place, west of Michigan avenue, nor south of Junction avenue, nor east of Cottage Grove avenue: Provided, that whenever the piece of land known as the Reform School property, and now occupied by the Reform School and grounds, shall cease to be used for the purposes of such reform school, the same may be taken by gift, purchase or condemnation, as herein provided; but Lake View avenue shall not be obstructed or interfered with: Provided, also, that the said commissioners may select and acquire for such park, by gift, purchase or condemnation, a strip of land, two hundred feet in width, north of and adjoining the north line of Elm street, in the town of Hyde Park, and also two hundred and fifty feet in width, south of and adjoining the south line of said Elm street, and extending from Cottage Grove avenue to Lake Michigan; but said Cottage Grove avenue, Van Buren, Adams and Washington or Hyde Park streets, in said town, shall not be obstructed or interfered with: Provided, also, that nothing in this act shall be construed to prohibit or prevent the said commissioners from selecting any lands without the limits herein prescribed, if the title to the same may be acquired otherwise than by condemnation.

Act to be submitted to legal voters.

§ 17. This act shall be submitted to a vote of the legal voters of the towns of South Chicago, Hyde Park and Lake, at an election to be held in said towns, at the usual places of holding elections therein, on the third Tuesday in April, A. D. 1867, and such elections shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for other elections in said towns. The ballots used at such election shall be printed or written "For Park," or "Against Park." And if a majority of the votes cast on that subject shall be "For Park," then this act shall remain in force; otherwise it shall be void. The votes shall be canvassed and the returns thereof made in the manner provided by law for the election of state and county officers; and the clerk of the county court of Cook county shall immediately thereafter cause a certificate of the result of such election to be filed in the office of the secretary of state and in the office of the clerk of the supreme court of the third grand division. A copy of this act, when adopted as aforesaid, and of such certificate of said clerk, authenticated under the seal of the secretary of state, shall be evidence in all courts and places of the adoption or rejection of this act, as the case may be.

APPROVED February 27, 1867.

AN ACT to amend "An act to provide for the location, improvement and regulation of a certain park therein named," approved Feb. 16, 1865. In force March 8, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the commissioners contemplated by said original act were made a body politic and corporate, for the purposes set forth in said original act, with powers to make and use and at their pleasure change, for said corporation, a common seal; to contract and be contracted with, to sue and in matters touching said park to be sued; individual liability, except for malfeasance in office, being in nowise incurred in the discharge of their duties as said commissioners. Original powers

§ 2. That Ezra B. McCagg, Edwin H. Sheldon, Anthony C. Hessing, Jacob Rhem and Samuel H. Kerfoot, are hereby appointed, in lieu of those persons named as such commissioners in said original act; and in case of any of those now named failing, within sixty days from and after the passage of this act, to qualify as such commissioners, as provided for in said original act, their places shall be filled by the nomination to be made by a majority of those accepting and qualifying and by a confirmation of such nomination by the judge of the circuit court of Cook county, as provided for in said original act; and when the full number of five shall have been qualified and installed in the commissionership, their respective terms of office shall be determined by lot, as contemplated in said original act; but the terms for which they shall serve shall end in five, (5), four, (4), three, (3), two (2), and one (1) years, respectively, from and after the first Monday in July, A. D. 1867. Commissioners

§ 3. The North Park assessors, named in and created by said original act, shall have power to include in their list of property, by them deem benefited by the location of said park, such portion of the town of Jefferson, in said county of Cook, as lies in the east half of sections one (1) and twelve (12), and these parts of section thirteen, (13), twenty-four, (24), and twenty-five, (25); all in township forty north, range thirteen (13) east of 3d r. m., lying east of the North Branch of the Chicago river, and shall have power to assess such benefits on said last named lands, in the same manner and under the same plan and provisions, as are made in said original act for the assessment of benefits. The total benefits to be assessed by the said assessors, as arising from the location of the said park, may amount to but shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, ($100,000.)

§ 4. The words "one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight (1868)" are hereby substituted in section nine (9), of said original act, for the words "one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, (1866)," and the words "one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, (1867)," are hereby substituted. AN ACT to establish a police force for the city of East St. Louis.

22, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, The city council of the city of East St. Louis may pass ordinances for preserving order, securing property or persons from violence, danger or destruction, protecting public and private property, and for promoting the interest and insuring the good government of the city; but no ordinance heretofore passed or that may hereafter be passed by the city council of East St. Louis shall in any manner conflict or interfere with the powers or the exercise of the powers of the board of police commissioners of the city of East St. Louis, as hereinafter created; nor shall the said city or any officer or agent of the corporation of said city or the mayor thereof, in any manner impede, obstruct, hinder or interfere with the said board of police or any officer or agent or servant thereof or thereunder.

property.

§ 2. So much of the city charter and ordinances as authorize the mayor and city council to appoint, pay and arm the police of said city and protect the said police in the discharge of their duty, be and the same are hereby repealed.

§ 3. There shall be and is hereby established within and for the city of East St. Louis a board of police, to be called the "Police Commissioners of the City of East St. Louis," to consist of three commissioners, as is hereinafter provided. The said commissioners shall be citizens of the state of Illinois and shall have been residents of the city of East St. Louis for the period of one year next preceding their appointment. They shall, except as hereinafter specified, hold their offices for four years and until their respective successors shall have been appointed and qualified, and shall receive each a salary of three hundred dollars per annum, payable quarterly. Before entering upon the duties of their said offices, the said commissioners shall take and subscribe before the judge of the circuit court of St. Clair county or the clerk thereof, the oath or affirmation prescribed by the constitution of the state of Illinois, and shall also take and subscribe, before the same judge or clerk, the further oath or affirmation that in any and every appointment or removal by them made to or from the police force created and to be organized by them under this act, they will, at all times and in all such appointments and removals, be governed by the fitness or unfitness of such persons so appointed or removed. The said oaths or affirmations shall be recorded and preserved among the records of said circuit court. One of their own number shall, from time to time, be appointed by said commissioners treasurer of said board of police; and his appointment, when made, shall be certified to the clerk of the county of St. Clair, under the seal of the said board. Said treasurer shall hold his office for such term as may be designated by the commissioners, who may remove him at pleasure; and shall be entitled to an additional compensation of two hundred dollars for acting in that capacity. Before he enters on the duties of his office as treasurer, he shall give bond to the state of Illinois, with one or more securities, in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful discharge of his duties as treasurer of the board of police, and for the faithful application and payment over, pursuant to the orders and direction of said board, of all moneys that may come to his hands as such treasurer. The bond of the treasurer shall be approved by the judge of the circuit court of St. Clair county, and shall be delivered to and safely kept by the clerk of said county of St. Clair. A majority of the board of police shall constitute a quorum. In case a vacancy should occur in said board, the same shall be filled by the governor of the state of Illinois, after having been notified that such vacancy exists. Any of said commissioners who, during his term of office, shall accept any other place of trust or emolument, or, who, during the same period, shall knowingly receive any nomination for any office elective by the people, without publicly declining the same within twenty days succeeding said nomination, shall be deemed thereby to have vacated his office. For official misconduct, any of said commissioners may be removed by the governor of the state of Illinois, upon his being fully satisfied that the said commissioner is guilty of the alleged official misconduct.

the governor.

§ 4. The governor of the state of Illinois, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall, without unnecessary delay, appoint the three commissioners provided for in the last preceding section; and said commissioners shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed and qualified. The governor shall issue commissions to the persons so appointed for the term of appointment.

§ 5. The duties of the board of police hereby created shall be as follows: They shall, at all times of the day and night, within the boundaries of the city of East St. Louis, as well on water as on land, preserve the public peace, prevent crime and arrest offenders, protect the rights of persons and property, guard the public health, preserve order at every public election and public meetings and places, and on all public occasions prevent and remove nuisances on all streets, highways, water and other places; to provide a proper police force at every fire, for the protection of firemen and property; protect emigrants and travelers, at steamboat landings and railway stations; see that all laws relating to elections and to the observance of Sunday and regulating pawnbrokers, gamblers, intemperance, lottery policies, vagrants, disorderly persons, and the public health are enforced. They shall, also, enforce all laws and all ordinances passed or which may hereafter be passed by the city council of the city of East St. Louis, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or any state law which may be properly enforced by a police force. In case they shall have reason to believe that any person within said city intends to commit a breach of the peace or violation of law or order beyond the city limits. Any person charged with the commission of crime within the city of East St. Louis, and against whom criminal process shall have been issued, may be arrested in any part of this state, upon said process, by police force created or authorized by this act: Provided, however, that before the person so arrested shall be removed from the county in which such arrest shall be made, he shall be taken before some judge or justice of the peace of that county, to whom the papers authorizing such arrest shall be submitted; and the person so arrested shall not be removed from said county, but shall be forthwith discharged, unless such judge or justice of the peace shall approve or indorse said papers. Said police commissioners, or either of them, shall have power to administer oaths or affirmations on the premises of any person appearing or called before them. They shall have power to summon and compel the attendance of witnesses before them, whenever it may be necessary for the more effectual discharge of their duties.

missioners.

§ 6. To enable the said board to perform the duties imposed upon them, they are hereby authorized and required, as speedily as may be, to appoint, enroll and employ a permanent police force for the city of East St. Louis, which they shall equip and arm as they shall deem necessary. The number of policemen to be so appointed and employed, exclusive of officers, shall, at the first organization, be not exceeding the number employed by the corporate authority of the city of East St. Louis during the year A. D. 1866,

with power, however, to reduce that number or increase it as the necessities of the service may require: Provided, however, that for any extraordinary emergencies, the board may raise such additional force as the exigency may in their judgment demand. No person shall be appointed or employed as policeman or officer of police who shall have been convicted of or against whom any indictment may be pending for any offence the punishment for which may be confinement in the penitentiary. Nor shall any person be so appointed who is notoriously of bad character, or who is not a citizen of the United States, or who is not able to read and write the English language, or who does not possess ordinary physical strength and courage. The policemen shall be appointed to serve for the term of four years, and be subject to removal only for cause, after hearing by the board, who are hereby invested with exclusive jurisdiction in the premises. Any policeman whose time of service shall expire, and who, during his appointment, shall have faithfully performed the duties of his office, shall have preference given him by the board in making their new appointments.

Officers of police.

§ 7. The officers of police shall be as follows: one captain, who shall be chief of police, and one lieutenant. They shall be appointed by the board, for such time as the board shall determine, and be subject to removal, at any time, for cause.

Compensation.

§ 8. The pay of ordinary policemen shall be fifteen dollars per week, payable semi-monthly; and in case the board shall employ detective police, which they may do, to the number of two, the detectives shall receive a like sum, payable semi-monthly.

Of captain and lieutenant.

§ 9. The officers of police shall be paid semi-monthly, and their pay shall be as follows: the captain shall receive one thousand dollars per annum, and the lieutenant eight hundred dollars per annum.

Vacancies.

§ 10. Whenever any vacancy shall take place in the office of captain, it shall be filled by the lieutenant, provided he shall be competent to fill the position. The board of police are hereby authorized to make all such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with this act, as they may judge necessary for the appointment, employment, uniforming, disciplining, trial and government of the police. The said board shall, also, have power to require of any officer or policeman a bond, with securities, when they may consider it demanded by the public interest. All lawful rules and regulations of the board shall be obeyed by the police force, on pain of dismissal or such other lighter punishment, either by suspension, fine, reduction or forfeiture of pay, or otherwise, as the board may adjudge.

§ 11. No officer of police or policeman shall be allowed to receive any money or gratuity or compensation for any service he may render, without the consent of said board; and all such moneys as any policeman or police officer may be so permitted to receive shall be paid over to the board, and shall form a fund which the board may apply, by way of extra pay, to such members of their force as gallantry and good conduct or extraordinary occasions may be adjudged to merit it.

§ 12. The said board shall be and they are hereby authorized to provide themselves with such office and office furniture and such clerks as they may need; and to have and use a common seal. They may, if by them deemed necessary, divide the city into the needful number of police districts, and provide, if necessary, a station house or houses for the use of the police. Other officers.

§ 13. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of St. Clair county, whenever called on for that purpose by said board, to act under their control for the preservation of the public peace and quiet; and, if ordered by them to do so, he shall summon the posse comitatus for that purpose, and hold and employ such posse, subject to their discretion. The said board shall have the power to assume the control and command of all conservators of the peace of the city of East St. Louis, whether sheriff, marshal, constable, policeman or others; and they shall act under the orders of the said board, and not otherwise, and in case of the refusal of the said sheriff, marshal, policeman, constable or other peace officer or person to obey any lawful command of the said board, under the provisions of this section, they shall, respectively, be liable to the penalties following, that is to say: the said sheriff, to a penalty of two thousand dollars; the city marshal, or any peace officer, to a penalty of four hundred dollars; any private citizen to a penalty of one hundred dollars—to be recovered by said board by civil action, in the name of the state. Duty of sheriff of St. Clair county.

§ 14. So soon as the board created by this act shall hold their first meeting, it shall be their duty to inform the city marshal, the captain of police and other officers of the police force of the city of East St. Louis, that they require their attendance upon them, and obedience to their orders; which attendance the officer or officers so notified shall be bound respectively to give, under a penalty of four hundred dollars, each—to be recovered by action at law, instituted by said board, in the name of the state, for failure to attend, as required, and for each and every failure to obey the lawful order of said board. From and after the first meeting aforesaid the whole of the then existing police force in the city of East St. Louis, both officers and men, shall pass under the exclusive management and control of said board, and be subject to no other control and entitled to receive neither orders or pay, except arrearages then due, from any other authority; and shall so continue, subject, Requirements of police board however, to removal or suspension, at the discretion of said board, and with the power in said board to fill vacancies until the said board shall publicly declare that the organization of the police force created by this act is complete. Upon such public declaration and from the time thereof thenceforward all ordinances of the city of East St. Louis are annulled and declared void, so far as they conflict with this act or assume or confer upon the mayor or any other person the power to appoint, dismiss or in any way or to any extent employ or control any police force organized or to be organized under such ordinance, or any of them; and from and after such public declaration, as aforesaid, the police force, organized or which may be organized, under such ordinance or any of them, shall cease to exist, and all its functions and powers to be at an end.

§ 15. Any officer or servant of the mayor or city council of the city of East St. Louis, or other person whomsoever, who shall forcibly resist or obstruct the execution or enforcement of any of the provisions of this act, providing a permanent police for the city of East St. Louis or relating to the same, or who shall hinder or obstruct the organization of said board of police, or the police force hereunder provided to be organized, or who shall maintain or control or attempt to maintain or control the existing police force of said city or any part thereof or any other police force, under the ordinances and acts herein and hereby repealed, except as herein provided, shall be liable to a penalty of one thousand dollars for each and every such offense, recoverable by the board by action of law, in the name of the state, and shall forever thereafter be disqualified from holding or exercising any office or employment whatever under the mayor or city council of East St. Louis or under this act: Provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be construed to interfere with the punishment under any existing or future law of this state of any criminal offense which shall be committed by the said parties in or about the resistance, obstruction, hindrance, conspiracy, combination or disbursement aforesaid.

§ 16. It shall be the duty of the said board, with all convenient speed, after qualifying as aforesaid, and annually thereafter, to estimate what sum of money will be necessary for each fiscal year, to enable them to discharge the duties hereby imposed upon them; and they shall, forthwith, certify the same to the city council of the city of East St. Louis, who are hereby required in the first appropriation ordinance of the fiscal year to set apart and appropriate the amount so certified, out of the general fund of the said city of East St. Louis; and in case the city council shall fail to make such appropriation or the disbursing officer or officers shall not forthwith pay over the amount of such requisition, as made and required, it shall be the duty of said board and they are hereby authorized and required to issue certificates of indebtedness, in the name of the city of East St. Louis, in such amounts as they may deem advisable, for the amount of such requisitions, respectively, bearing interest at ten per cent. per annum, payable not more than twelve months after date, and signed by a majority of the board, and to raise the money on said certificates, on pledging or disposing of the same; which certificates shall be receivable at par in payment of all city taxes, and be as binding upon such corporation and be as recoverable against it as if the city council of East St. Louis had themselves authorized the issuing of said certificates. The city council of the city of East St. Louis shall have no power or authority to levy or collect any tax or appropriate any money for the payment of any police force other than to be organized and employed under this act. No officer or servant of the mayor or city council of said city of East St. Louis shall disburse any money for the payment of any police force other than that to be organized and employed under this act; and the power of said mayor and city council to appropriate and disburse money for the payment of the police force to be organized or employed under this act shall be exercised as in this section directed, and not otherwise. In case the amount, as aforesaid, to be estimated by the said board, shall, from any unforeseen cause, prove insufficient for the necessary expenses of the current year, the said board are hereby authorized and empowered to issue certificates and raise money therefrom, as hereinbefore provided, to meet the exigency: Provided, however, that no such additional issue shall exceed the sum of two thousand dollars in any one year; and that the amount thereof shall be added to the appropriation for the year next ensuing. The city clerk or city comptroller shall furnish to the board of police a statement of the expenditures of the city of East St. Louis, which shall show the full amount of salaries paid to regular and special policemen, and the amount of per-centage paid to policemen upon fines and penalties recovered by said city during the year 1866, immediately on the demand of said board.

§ 17. The board shall cause a full journal of their proceedings to be kept, and shall also cause all the receipts and disbursements of moneys to be faithfully entered in books to be provided and kept for that purpose; and said journal and all said books and all other documents in the possession of said board shall always be open to the inspection of the general assembly of the state of Illinois or any committee appointed by it for that purpose. It shall be the duty of the board to report to the city council of the city of East St. Louis, at each annual session thereof, the number and expense of police employed by them under this act, and all such other matters as may be of public interest in connection with the duties assigned them by this act.

Conflicting acts repealed.

§ 18. All acts and parts of acts and charter provisions, and all ordinances of the city of East St. Louis, conflicting with this act, are hereby repealed. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

AN ACT to amend an act in relation to the poor in Stephenson county, approved February 18th, 1861.

port of poor.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That every town in Stephenson county shall relieve and support all poor and indigent persons having a lawful residence in such town, whenever they shall stand in need thereof and not relieved and supported by their kindred, as by the laws of this state provided.

seers.

§ 2. The overseers of the poor, in their respective towns, shall have the care and oversight of all such poor and indigent persons, so long as they remain at the charge of their respective towns, and shall see that they are suitably relieved, supported and employed at the charge of such towns, either in the poor house provided by said county, or in such other manner as the legal voters of the town may direct at their annual town meeting, or in case of no directions by the town, then at the direction of the overseers.

relief, etc.

§ 3. The said overseers, in their respective towns, shall also provide for the immediate comfort and relief of all persons residing or found therein, though they have no lawful residence in such town, when they shall fall into distress and stand in need of immediate relief, and until they shall be removed to the place of their lawful residence, if any they have.

Non-residents.

§ 4. When any non-resident, transient or other person, not coming within the definition of a pauper, shall fall sick, or become lame or in any manner disabled, in any town in said county, not having money or other property to pay his or her board, nursing, medical aid and other necessities, it shall be the duty of the overseer of the poor of such town to give or order to be given such assistance to such poor person as he may deem just and necessary; and if said person shall die, then the said overseer shall give or order to be given to such poor person a decent burial.

Interment.

paupers.

§ 5. All expenses incurred and all money laid out and expended under the provisions and requirements of the two preceding sections, as well as under sections one and two of this act, and also under and by virtue of the provisions and requirements of all and every law of this state in relation to paupers or poor persons, shall be a town charge against the proper town in said county, to be audited and paid by said town as other town charges are audited and paid.

Paid.

§ 6. The person at whose house, in any town, in said county, the poor person mentioned in sections three and four of this act shall fall sick or be in need of assistance, shall aid and provide for such person until he or she shall represent the need and situation of such person to the overseer of the poor of such town; and if said overseer shall refuse or neglect to provide for such poor person, as provided and required in said sections three and four, the person aiding or supporting shall continue to do so; and in case such poor person shall die, he or she shall give to such poor person a decent burial, and may recover, in an action at law against said town, for a l necessary expenses incurred in aiding, providing for, supporting and burying such poor person: Provided, that no suit shall be commenced against any town, under the provisions of this section, until a bill of items of said expenses shall be presented to the board of auditors of such town, or filed in the town clerk's office of said town.

Duties of private persons in relation to the poor, etc.

Deaths.

Suits at law.

Proviso.

§ 7. When any person becomes a town charge in any town in said county, under any of the provisions of this act or any law of this state, in relation to paupers or poor persons, and the overseer of the poor of such town shall believe that such person did not reside in such town at the commencement of the six months immediately preceding his or her becoming so chargeable, then said overseer shall ascertain, by examination of said person or other means, his or her lawful place of residence, if any he or she may have within this state; and if said overseer shall find or believe that such person's lawful residence is in some other town in said county then said overseer shall notify, by written notice, the overseer of the poor of the town to which such person belongs, that said person has become chargeable to such town, and requesting said overseer to remove said person, with his or her family and effects, if any he or she has, forthwith, and pay all expenses accrued in taking care of him or her. Said notice may be in the following form, to-wit:

mediately serve the same on the overseer of the poor to whom it is directed, by delivering to him a true and attested copy of said notice, or by leaving such a copy at the house of the usual abode of said overseer, with some person of sufficient discretion, then resident therein, and shall then indorse on said notice the manner and date of service, and return the same within six days to the town clerk of the town from which he received it; and said clerk shall file and preserve the same. The officer serving said notice

Fees for serving shall be entitled to the same fees as is by law allowed for serving and returning a summons before a justice of the peace; which fees shall be paid, in the first place, by the town giving the notice, but to be considered and allowed against the town to which the notice is given, as a part of the charges in respect to said pauper or poor person.

Certified copies § 9. A copy of said notice and of the officer's return therein, certified by the town clerk, in whose office the same shall be on file, shall be received as prima facie evidence that said notice has been served, as stated in said return.

Lawful residence of paupers. § 10. But in case the lawful residence of any pauper or poor person, chargeable to any town in said county under any of the provisions and requirements of this act or of any law of this state, in relation to paupers shall be in any town in this state, out of said county, or in any other county in this state, then the notice required in section seven of this act shall be directed to the town clerk of the town or the clerk of the county court of the county in which such pauper or poor person has a lawful residence, and send by said overseer to such clerk by mail.

Removal of paupers—support and costs, etc. § 11. The overseer of the poor to whom such notice is given and the authorities of the town or county to the clerk of which the notice is given, shall immediately remove such pauper or poor person, with his or her family and effects, if any he or she may have, into his or their town or county, if such person has a lawful residence therein, and there provide for and support him or her at the charge of said town or county; and said town or county shall also pay to the town from which the removal is made all just and necessary costs and expenses incurred by such town in behalf of such pauper or poor person, to be sued for and recovered by such town in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Suits for expenses in case of non-removal. § 12. If said pauper or poor person, by reason of sickness, disease or any disability, can not be removed, or by refusal or neglect of the overseer of the poor to whom notice is given, or of the authorities of the town or county to the clerk of which notice is given, shall not be removed, then the town taking charge of such pauper or poor person may sue for and recover from such town or county the amount expended for and in behalf of such pauper or poor person and his or her family and in taking care of the same, both before and after notice given, and in case such pauper or poor person shall die, then the expense incurred in giving to him or her a decent burial; all of which may be sued for and recovered in any court of this state having jurisdiction.

§ 13. That section one (1) of an act to amend an act entitled an act to provide for township organization and to extend the powers and duties of overseers of the poor, approved March 4th, 1854, be and hereby is so amended in its application to said county of Stephenson that in all places in said section after the words "county court," where the word "county" occurs, the word "town" be and hereby is substituted, in place of "county;" and that section six (6), of chapter fifty, of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Idiots and Lunatics," be and the same is hereby so amended in its application to said county as to read as follows: "The overseers of the poor in every town in said county shall take charge of the body of any person so insane, lunatic or distracted, and shall have full power to confine him or her, and shall comfortably support him or her, and make out an account thereof, to be audited and paid by said town as other town charges are audited and paid: Provided, if said idiot or lunatic has property sufficient to pay said expense and support or any part thereof, the same shall be appropriated for that purpose, under the directions and order of the county court of said county.

Sec. 1 of act approved March 4, 1854, amended.

Sec. 6, chap. 50, of Revised Statutes, applicable to this county, amended.

§ 14. Every overseer of the poor in said county shall keep a book, to be purchased at the expense of the town, and to be called the record of the poor of the proper town. He shall enter in said book the name of every person to whom his town is rendering aid or support, under the provisions and requirements of this act or of any other law of this state in relation to paupers. He shall, also, enter in said book the age of said pauper or poor person, and where born, if the same can be ascertained; how long he or she has resided in such town; when the town commenced rendering aid or support to him or her and when it ceased to do so; and shall also enter therein, in connection with the name of such pauper or poor person, every item of expense incurred by the town in aiding or supporting him or her; and in case such pauper or poor person shall die, while at the charge of the town, he shall note the date of his or her death; he shall also keep a correct index to each person's name, entered in said record as a pauper or poor person.

Books of record

§ 15. Said book or record shall, at all times, be open to the inspection of every tax-payer in the town and of any other person in anywise interested, and shall be submitted by the overseer to the board of auditors on the settlement of his account, and to be delivered by him to his successor in office, in the manner prescribed by the laws of this state.

Books of record to be open for inspection.

§ 16. In the case of the absence of the overseer of the poor of any town or [if] there should be a vacancy of the office of Duties, etc.	overseer, then the duties and responsibilities of overseer shall devolve upon the supervisor of such town until the return of the overseer or until one shall be elected or appointed and qualified.

Penalties for maltreatment of the poor.	§ 17. If any overseer of the poor, supervisor or any other person having any pauper or poor person under his charge, shall wilfully abuse or maltreat such pauper or poor person, or shall refuse or neglect to render to him or her relief or support, as by this act required, shall forfeit and pay a fine not less than three nor more than one hundred dollars, and prosecution for the same may be before any justice of the peace of said county, upon the complaint of any competent person; and the manner of the prosecution shall be the same as provided in cases of assault, assault and battery, and affrays in chapter fifty-nine of the Revised Statutes.
Lawful residence.	residence. § 18. The term "lawful residence," wherever it occurs in this act, shall be taken and considered to mean the place where the pauper or poor person resided at the commencement of six months immediately preceding such person's becoming a town charge; and "residence" shall be defined the same as in section 15 of chapter eighty of the Revised Statutes.
Suits.	§ 19. All suits authorized and actions given by this act may be commenced and prosecuted before any justice of the peace of said county, when the amount claimed does not exceed one hundred dollars: Provided , that no suit shall be commenced before any justice of the peace of any town interested in the event of the suit.
Disposition of paupers.	§ 20. The several towns in said county may, at their annual town meeting, dispose of their respective paupers in such manner and make such rules and regulations for taking care of them as a majority of the legal voters present shall agree upon, not in conflict with any law of this state.
Town indebtedness under the provisions of this act.	§ 21. The supervisor of any town in said county may borrow, on the credit of said town, any sum of money he may deem necessary to meet any of the liabilities of said town that may arise under any of the provisions of this act: Provided , that the amount borrowed and owed for borrowed money shall not exceed one-half of one mill on the taxable property of said town.
Proviso.
Penalties for removal of paupers.	§ 22. If any person, except persons authorized to remove paupers or poor persons, under this act or other laws of this state, shall bring any poor and indigent person from any town in said county into another town in said county, or from any town or county in this state, or from any place out of this state, into any town in said county, or aid therein, with the intention to charge such town with his or her support, he shall forfeit and pay a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence; and if such poor and indigent person has not a lawful residence in such town, the person making such removal or aiding therein shall, also, from time to time, be liable to pay such town all such damages as shall accrue to such town for the support of such poor and indigent person.

§ 23. The penalty and damages given by the preceding section may be recovered in an action on the case, by and for the use of the town into which the removal is made, and when the amount claimed does not exceed one hundred dollars, before any justice of the peace of said county, excepting justices of the peace of the town prosecuting.

Penalties and damages recoverable by law.

§ 24. The poor house and farm in said county shall be kept open for the reception of such paupers or poor persons as any town in said county may see fit to support therein, under such rules and regulations as the board of supervisors of said county may make in relation to said house and farm; and said board of supervisors shall make the rules and regulations in respect to said house and farm and cause the same to be printed and a copy thereof to be sent to the town clerk of each town in said county, to be by him preserved for the use of his town.

Poor house and farm — regulations.

§ 25. If at the election for county officers to be held in said county on Tuesday after the first Monday in November next, after the passage of this act, a majority of all the legal voters of said county of Stephenson, voting at said election, shall vote in favor of the adoption of this act, which vote shall be by ballot, written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, substantially in the following words: "For the amendment to the poor law," or "Against the amendment to the poor law;" which votes shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner that the other votes cast at said election are required to be canvassed and returned, then this act shall be in full force and effect; otherwise void; and in case a majority of all the votes cast at said election shall not be "For the amendment to the poor law," then the act to which this is an amendment shall be in full force and effect.

Act to be submitted to legal voters.

§ 26. All laws and parts of laws inconsistent or in conflict with this act are hereby repealed.

Conflicting acts repealed.

unity, power and glory of the American Republic—not only as the adopted home of a large section of the Irish people, but as the hope and refuge of the oppressed peoples and nations of the earth, and the source from which light and freedom shall eventually flow to them all—the union of all peoples in defense of freedom, and in opposition to every form of slavery and injustice, and the right of men of every color and clime to life, liberty and happiness.

Capital stock.

§ 4. The capital stock of said company shall be at first one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), and may be increased from time to time by the board of directors of said company, as may be deemed necessary; which capital stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred ($100) dollars each; and whenever stock to the amount of seventy-five thousand ($75,000) dollars shall have been subscribed, and ten per cent. thereof shall have been paid, it shall be lawful for the company to commence business under this act.

Officers and directors.

§ 5. The said company shall have seven (7) directors, to be elected annually; such election to be held on the first Tuesday in each year; which directors shall, at their first meeting, elect from their number a president and vice-president, and shall also elect and appoint a secretary and treasurer, and such other officers and servants as they may deem necessary, and shall fix their compensation and term of office as they may deem right and proper; a majority of said board of directors to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and the following shall be, and they hereby are appointed the first board of directors of said company, viz: Michael Scanlan, of Chicago; Nicholas Crickard, John D. D., of New York city.

Subscription to stock.

§ 6. The board of directors of said company are hereby empowered to solicit and receive subscriptions for stock as soon as their president and secretary and treasurer shall have been duly appointed, and the last named officer—the treasurer, shall have given proper bonds for the due performance of his duties; and said board shall hold their first meeting within ninety days after the passing of this act; and said board shall call the first meeting of the stockholders within fifteen (15) days after the necessary amount of stock shall have been subscribed for, agreeable to section four of this act; and said board shall have power to purchase and hold all such real estate as may be sold under mortgage, trust deed, execution, or other legal process, to secure and satisfy debts due to said company; and said board shall have power to lease such real estate and buildings as may be necessary to carry on the business of the company, and to sub-let or lease to others such houses, apartments or rooms in their own buildings or in buildings leased by them as may not be needed in the printing, publishing and binding business as aforesaid.

§ 7. Said company, at their first meeting, shall have power to enact all necessary rules or by-laws, for the regulation and direction of its affairs, and for the transfer of its stock; and such rules or by-laws, when so made, shall be binding on the stockholders of said company; and said rules or by-laws shall not thereafter be altered, changed or amended, except by a vote of the stockholders personally present, and voting and representing at least two-thirds of the shares of said company, at some regular meeting, of which due notice shall be given in writing or otherwise, to all of said stockholders at least ten days before such meeting; and said stockholders shall be liable only in proportion to the amount of stock severally held by them, for all debts contracted by said corporation during the time they were stockholders, as aforesaid. By-laws, etc.

§ 8. At all meetings of the company, each stockholder shall be entitled to cast one vote for each share of stock holden, subject to such regulations as the by-laws shall provide; and no person shall be eligible to the office of a director who does not own and hold at least ten shares of stock; and should it at any time happen that a board of directors shall not be elected at any time fixed by the by-laws, said company shall not, for that cause, be dissolved, but the old board of directors shall hold their offices until their successors shall be appointed and enter upon the duties of their offices, and should the president or any of the directors die, resign, or be removed from office, refuse to act or in any way become incompetent to act, the board of directors may fill any such vacancy so occasioned until the next regular meeting of the stockholders for the election of officers of said company, and may, in the absence of the president or the vice president, appoint a president pro tem. Elections.

§ 9. This act shall be deemed and taken as a public act, and shall be construed beneficially for all purposes hereinbefore specified or intended, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage. Construction of act.

In force March 5, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Chicago and Indiana Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Corporators. John Tyrrell, Philip Wadsworth, Edwin R. Harmon, James Wadsworth, Charles M. Henderson, James McKindley and Henry G. Miller, and all such other persons as shall hereafter become stockholders in the company hereby incorporated, shall be a body politic and corporate, by the name and Name and style. style of "The Chicago and Indiana Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and by that name and style, Powers. shall be capable in law of taking, purchasing, holding, leasing, selling and conveying estate and property, whether real, personal or mixed, so far as the same may be necessary for the purposes hereinafter mentioned; and, in their corporate name, may sue and be sued; have a common seal; and may have and exercise all the powers, rights, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act, as the same are hereinafter set forth.

Business powers. § 2. The said railroad company shall have full power and authority to locate, construct, furnish and maintain a railroad from the city of Chicago, in a south-easterly direction, to the line between the states of Illinois and Indiana, striking said line at some point not more than fifty miles from Lake Michigan; and with the right to enter said city of Chicago by such route as may be granted to them by the common council of said city; and, for the purpose of constructing said railroad, said company shall have authority and power to lay out, designate and establish their road in width not exceeding one hundred feet, through the entire line thereof; and may take and appropriate to their own use all such lands so designated for the line and construction of said railroad, upon first paying and tendering therefor such amount of damages as shall have been settled by agreement or appraisal, in manner hereinafter provided, on all such land so designated for the line and construction of said railroad, and all such lands as may be taken or upon any track which may be located by said company; and for the purpose of embankments, cuttings, obtaining stone, gravel and sand, may take and appropriate as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said road and depots and other suitable fixtures for said road.

§ 3. The said company and, under their direction, their agents, servants and workmen, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into and upon the lands or grounds of or belonging to the state, to any person or persons, body politic and corporate, excepting however all such lands and premises as are or may be owned or occupied by any railroad company incorporated by this or any other state, and survey and take the same or any part thereof, as they may think necessary and proper, for the making of said railroad and for all the purposes connected therewith.

§ 4. The said company shall have power and authority to receive, take and hold all such voluntary grants and donations of lands and all real estate, for the purpose of said railroad, as may be or shall be made to said company, in the construction, maintenance and accommodation of said railroad; and said company may contract and agree with the owners or occupants of any lands upon which said company wish to use or occupy for the purpose, stone, gravel or other materials to be used in embankments or otherwise in or about the construction, repair or enjoyment of said railroad, or which said company may wish to use or occupy in any manner or for any purpose connected with said railroad, for which said company is empowered and authorized by this act to take, have or appropriate; and to receive and take grants and conveyances of any and all interests and estates therein, and to them and their successors or assigns, in fee, or otherwise; and in case said company can not agree with such persons, owners or occupiers of such lands, as aforesaid, so as to procure the same by voluntary deed or act of such owners or occupiers of such lands, as aforesaid, or if the owners or occupiers or any of them be a femme covert, infant, non compos mentis, unknown or out of the county in which the lands or property may lie or be situated, the same may be taken and paid for, if any damages are awarded, in the manner provided for in the "Act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5th A. D. 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereto.

Grants, etc.

§ 5. The said company shall have the right and privilege to survey and construct the said line of road in sections of thirty miles in length, or as said company by their directors may decide upon, from the northern terminus thereof, and finish the same and use and enjoy the benefit thereof as soon as the same shall be so finished.

Survey and construction.

§ 6. The capital stock of said company shall be thirty thousand dollars for every mile of road undertaken; which

§ 7. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to consist of nine stockholders, and such other officers and servants as in their judgment the said board of directors may from time to time think the interests of the said company may require. Vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining; such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors, and which said annual election shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company, thirty days' printed notice being given in two newspapers having circulation along the line of said railroad.

§ 8. At any election held for directors each share of stock upon which all calls or assessments due twenty days prior to said election have been paid shall be entitled to one vote, to be given either in person or by proxy; and the persons receiving the largest number of votes to be declared duly elected, and to hold their offices until the next annual election and until their successors are elected and qualified. All elections for directors to be conducted by three judges selected by the stockholders present.

§ 9. The directors are required to organize the board by electing one of their number president and elect a secretary and treasurer. Organization.

§ 10. The said company shall have power to purchase and contract for and place on the railroad hereby authorized to be constructed all machines, carriages and vehicles, of every description, which may be necessary and proper for the purpose of transportation on said road; and shall have the right to charge fares for the transportation of passengers, at the rate of three cents per mile for single fares, for local traffic, and two and one-half cents per mile for passengers carried the whole length of their road. They shall have the right to charge one and one-half cents per ton per mile for the transportation of coal and wood or other fuel, and not more than the above rates on the articles mentioned, and such rates of freight as they may deem proper on freight not restricted as above and not inconsistent with the laws of this state now in force or hereafter to be enacted. Business and operations.

§ 11. Said company shall have power to make, ordain and establish all such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be deemed expedient and necessary to fulfill the purposes and carry into effect the provisions of this act and for the well ordering and securing the affairs, business and interests of said company: Provided, that the same be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United states or of this state. By-laws, etc.

§ 12. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to cross the track of any other road, railroad or stream of water or water course, being on the route of said railroad, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across the same; that for the purpose of constructing their railroad across any river, stream or body of water, the privilege of bridging said stream is hereby granted to said company: Provided, that the said company shall restore the road, railroad, stream of water or water course to its former state or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness: And provided, further, that the bridge so erected across said streams of water, if any, shall be so provided with draws as not to become serious impediments to navigation—said draws to be kept in good repair and in condition to be easily opened. Crossings.

§ 13. The said company shall annually or semi-annually make such dividends as they may deem proper of the net profits or income of said company among the stockholders therein, in proper proportion to their respective shares. Dividends.

§ 14. If any person shall do or cause to be done, or aid in doing or causing to be done, any acts whatsoever, whereby any building or structure or work of said company, or any engine, machine or structure, or any matter or thing appertaining to the same shall be stopped, obstructed, impaired Damages to property, etc.

or weakened, injured or destroyed, the person or persons so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and may be punished, upon conviction, by fine, in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding five years, or both, at the discretion of the court, and shall forfeit and pay to said corporation treble the amount of damages sustained by reason of said offence or injury; to be recovered in the name of the company, with costs of suit, in an action of trespass, before any justice of the peace in this state or before any court having jurisdiction thereof.

Connections.

§ 15. Said company shall have power to connect or consolidate its railroad with any other railroad in the states of Indiana or Michigan, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so uniting, connecting or consolidating, and, for that purpose, full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of said connection or consolidation; but said company is hereby expressly forbidden to consolidate or unite its road or any part of the same with any other railroad in this state.

Other roads.

§ 16. Said company may lease or purchase any other road in any other state, for the purpose of reaching any points out of this state.

Indebtedness.

§ 17. The said company is hereby, authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for completing, equipping and furnishing their said railroad and to issue and dispose of their bonds, in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars, at such rate of interest not exceeding eight per cent. per annum, and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid; and the directors of said company may [confer] on any bondholder of any bond issued for money borrowed, as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stock of said company, at any time not exceeding ten years from the date of the bond, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and any such bond that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same was sold for the par value thereof.

Commencement
tion of sections

§ 18. The said company shall commence the construction of one section of its line of road within two years and complete the same within five years from the date of the passage of this act.

Change of name

§ 19. The directors of said company shall have power, within two years after its organization, or at any time thereafter, to change the corporate name of said company, by adopting a resolution, specifying such name of said company, and causing the same to be recorded in their own journal and in the several counties through which the said line of road may run, and causing the same to be published in two newspapers at Springfield and in one newspaper in each county through which the line of said road is located, where there is a newspaper published in such county or counties.

§ 20. It shall be the duty of the corporation hereby created, in operating its road, to give preference to fuel, such as wood, coal or peat, or any other fuel, over any and all other freight, and to transport the same at the lowest price consistent with paying running expenses, renewal of road bed and track, wear and tear of machinery and rolling stock, and a small dividend on the cost of the road, and to charge no more for freight on same at any rate than one cent and one-[half] per ton per mile, when offered in full car loads and loaded and unloaded by the owner thereof, and to give preference to freight offered to said road by individuals as against any freight offered by any other railroad corporation in this state.

Rates of freight

§ 21. It shall be the duty of said railroad company to run accommodation trains, to accommodate persons who wish to ride over the said road daily or such as wish to reside in country towns and do business in the city of Chicago, and to run at least three trains each way per day, and to carry passengers at the lowest rate of fare which is charged by any railroad in the United States which propels its cars by locomotives.

Connection and daily trains.

D. 1852, and the acts amendatory thereof, and to which said act is amendatory, or under the provisions of any other existing law concerning the Proviso.	power of condemnation for such purposes: Provided , that said company shall, before proceeding to condemn the right of way, as herein provided, use reasonable diligence to secure said lands by purchase and agreement with the owners thereof, but in case of a failure to agree therefor, or if the owner or occupier of said lands be a femme covert , infant, non compos mentis , unknown to said company, or out of the county in which said lands may be situated, then said company may proceed to take, use and condemn said lands, as hereinbefore provided; and the lands so acquired or taken shall thereupon become the property, in fee simple, of said company.
Capital stock.	§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall be one million dollars, which may be increased to any sum necessary for the construction of said railroad and appendages, and the full effectuation of the objects of this act, by the board of directors of said company. Said capital stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and shall be deemed personal property, and may be subscribed for, issued, transferred and assigned in such manner as the board of directors may prescribe and determine.
Indebtedness.	§ 4. Said company may borrow money and issue bonds for such amount as may be necessary, and secure the same by mortgage or deed of trust upon any and all of its property or franchises, to be payable at such times and to bear such rates of interest as the board of directors may determine; and in case any of such bonds shall be sold or negotiated for less than their par or representative value, they shall be equally as valid and obligatory upon said company as if sold or negotiated at their par or representative value.
First board of directors.	§ 5. The persons named as corporators in the first section of this act shall constitute the first board of directors of said company, and shall have full power to open books for subscription to the capital stock of said company, and to superintend the same; may establish, ordain and adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be necessary; may elect and appoint all necessary officers, agents, attorneys or servants, and prescribe the duties of each; may provide the manner in which the capital stock of said company shall be subscribed and paid for, issued and transferred; may provide for the election of their successors: Provided, however, that there shall be an annual election of not less than eleven directors, after said company shall have proceeded to business under this charter; at which election each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each and every share of stock held by him and standing in his name at such time on the books of said company; and may do all things which said company is hereby authorized to do; and in them and their successors all the powers, privileges, immunities, rights, franchises, and corporate powers of said company are hereby absolutely vested, with full power of control. A majority of the board of directors of said company shall constitute a quorum and be sufficient to transact all business and do all things. Vacancies in said board of directors, whether by death, resignation, failure to act, or otherwise, may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors. The certificate of the secretary of said company or the presiding officer of said board of directors, under the seal of said company, shall be received in all courts and places as competent and prima facie evidence of the by-laws, rules and regulations of said company or of any resolution, order, act or proceeding of said board of directors, and of the due organization of said company.

§ 6. Whenever it shall become necessary for the construction and operation of said railroad to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad, or any road, highway, lane, street, alley, canal, stream of water or water course, it shall be lawful for said company to construct and operate their railroad across the same: Provided, that said company shall restore the same, respectively, thus intersected or crossed, to their or its former state and condition, or in a manner sufficient so as not to materially impair its or their use.

Crossings, etc.

§ 7. It shall be lawful for said company, whenever necessary, to acquire real or personal property, either by gift, grant, lease, purchase or assignment, mortgage or otherwise, for the use of said company; and whenever, in the construction of said railroad, embankments or cuttings, or crossings shall occur, and it shall be necessary and desirable to take and hold more than one hundred feet in width for the proper construction and security of said railroad, said company is hereby empowered so to do in the same manner as hereinafter provided for taking right of way, and are likewise, in the same manner, empowered hereby to take, hold, use and appropriate such adjacent earth, stone or gravel, as may be needed in the construction of said railroad; and whenever, in the course of the business of said company, any of the real or personal property or franchises of said company shall become undesirable or unnecessary to be retained, the said company may grant, bargain, sell, lease or convey the same; and the by-laws of said company shall provide for the manner of executing and attesting any such grant, sale, lease or conveyance.

§ 8. The by-laws of said company shall provide for the forfeiture of all stock on which there may be unpaid assessments due; and the said company shall have the right of action, either in law or equity, against any of its stockholders for any unpaid amount on the stock held by him or them, and for any and all lawful claims, the same as if he were not a stockholder. In actions brought by or against said company the president or secretary or other executive officer shall be a competent witness in any court, notwithstanding his interest as a stockholder.

Business transactions and operations.

§ 9. The said company may receive, take and transport upon said railroad any person or persons, merchandise or other property, the United States' mails, and all materials needed in the construction of said road, upon and over all or any part of the distance of said road, by the force and power of steam or animals, or any combination of them, and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll or tariff or fares therefor as the said board of directors shall from time to time determine, adopt and establish, subject, however, to such regulations and restrictions as have been or may hereafter be established by the laws of this state of a general application.

Connections.

§ 10. Said company shall have the right to form an intersection or connection, at the state line, within the limits hereinbefore prescribed, with any other railroad, for the purpose of securing an eastern or southern connection: Provided, however, and it is hereby expressly forbidden to said company to consolidate said railroad with any existing railroad of a competing direction, or for the purpose of hindering or preventing competition; and such intersecting railroad may run its [trains] and carry its passengers and freight over the line of said company at such rates as may be agreed upon between such intersecting or connecting lines or companies.

§ 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AN ACT to incorporate the Indiana and Chicago Railroad Company.

Corporators.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That H. A. Gray, B. J. Stevens, E. S. Howley, Benjamin F. Smith, Charles H. Ham and William E. Mortimer, their asso- ciates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Indiana and Chicago Railroad Company;" and, by that name, shall have perpetual succession, with power to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded in all courts and places; to adopt a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; to adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations as they may deem expedient; and to have and exercise all other rights and powers necessary to carry out the provisions and intentions of this act.

and powers.

§ 2. Said company, when organized, shall have the right to locate, build, construct, maintain, equip, operate and continue to operate a railroad, from some point within or near the state line of Indiana, in said county of Cook, to the city of Chicago, with such side tracks and branches as may be necessary. •

powers.

§ 3. Said company in laying out, locating, building, constructing and operating said railroad may cross any railroad or railroad line now laid out, or hereafter to be laid out in this state, and may construct said railroad across any stream of water, water course, road, highway, street, alley or canal, in such manner as not materially to obstruct the same; and may unite, intersect or connect, at any point in Cook county, Illinois, at the state line of the state of Indiana, with any other railroad running in an eastern or south-eastern direction, for the purpose of securing an eastern or southeastern connection, on such terms as may be agreed upon between the parties.

Operations.

§ 4. Said company shall have the right to purchase, hold, lease and convey real estate and personal property, so far as the same shall be necessary to carry out the intentions of this act, and may sell and dispose of the same, when not required for the purposes of their business.

and personal.

§ 5. Said company shall have the right to lay out and establish their railroad, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, through the entire line thereof; and may take and appropriate to their own use all such lands necessary for the line and construction of said railroad, by first paying therefor such amount of damages as shall be agreed upon between said company and the owner or owners of said lands; and, in case of disagreement, then paying or tendering therefor such damages as shall have been settled by appraisal, in the manner hereinafter provided; and, for the purpose of cutting and making embankments, obtaining stone, sand, gravel or other material, said company may take and appropriate so much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said railroad, and for the purpose of constructing shops, depots, side-tracks, and other suitable and convenient fixtures and appurtenances of said railroad; may take, have, use and occupy any land on either side of said railroad, not exceeding two hundred feet in width. Said company taking all such lands by gift or purchase, or making satisfaction for the same in the manner hereinafter provided.

Lands taken.

§ 6. If said company can not agree with the owner or owners of lands required for the purposes aforesaid, so as to procure the same by deed, or voluntary act of such owners, or if the owners or occupier or either of them be a femme covert, infant, non compos mentis, unknown or out of the county in which the land wanted is situated, then the same may be taken and paid for (if any damages are awarded) in the manner provided for in an act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations, approved November 5th, A. D. 1849, and an act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvements, approved June 22, 1852, and of all acts amendatory thereof, and of which that act is amendatory.

Capital stock.

§ 7. The capital stock of said company shall be one million dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be deemed personal property, and transferable, as such, on the books of the company, in the manner and subject to the conditions provided in the by laws. The capital stock may be increased, by a vote of the stockholders, from time to time, to any amount that may be deemed necessary, not exceeding in the aggregate the whole cost of said railroad and its appurtenances; which said capital stock shall be paid in such manner at the time and in such installments as required by the directors. Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote in the election of directors, and to increase the capital stock; and any person entitled to vote may vote by written proxy.

Directors.

§ 8. There shall be elected, annually, at such time and place as the by-laws shall provide, a board of five directors, who shall have the general management of the officers and affairs of said company; they shall have power to make by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the officers and affairs of the company; and they shall elect from their number a president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their offices during the term for which they were elected and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and the directors may appoint other officers and agents and prescribe the powers and duties of the several officers, agents and employees of said company; and a failure to elect directors at the time provided by the by laws shall not work a forfeiture of this charter or impair the rights of the stockholders.

By-laws, etc.

Officers.

Borrow money.

§ 9. The said company is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, maintaining, furnishing and operating or altering said railroad, and to issue and dispose of their bonds at any rate of interest, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their property and franchises, or any other property or effects, or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any of the debts contracted for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them; and the directors of said company may, at any time, confer on the holder of any such bonds the right to convert the amount due or owing thereon into the stock of said company; and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

§ 10. The right of way and other real estate purchased by or donated to said company shall be held by them in fee simple; and any such right of way or real estate taken, condemned or appropriated shall, upon due fulfillment by said company of the conditions prescribed by law, to be by them performed or observed, to entitle them to such property, shall, also, be held by said company in fee simple.

§ 11. This act shall be deemed a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED March 5, 1867.

In force March 7, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Broadway and Dyke Railway Company, of East St. Louis.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Vital Jarrott, Ernest W. Weder, George H. Bender, John O. Butler and B. C. Renois, and their successors, be and the same are hereby created a body corporate and politic by the name of "The Broadway and Dyke Railway Company," for the term of fifty years, with all the powers and authority incident to corporations, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

§ 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track railway, with all necessary and convenient bridges and tracks for turnouts, sidetracks and appendages, in the city of East St. Louis, and in, on, over and along Broadway street and Dyke avenue, between the levee, at the Mississippi river bank, and the old route of the Saint Clair County Turnpike Company, east of Cahokia creek, subject to the control of the common council of said city, as hereinafter provided. But said corporation shall not be liable for the loss of any baggage carried on said railway, kept in and under the care of its owner or owners, or his or their servant or servants or agents.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, and may be increased from time to time, at the pleasure of said corporation. The capital stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and be issued and transferred in such manner and upon such conditions as the board of directors of said corporation may direct.

§ 4. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors and such officers and agents as said board shall appoint. The first board of directors shall consist of said Vital Jarrott, Ernest W. Wider, George H. Bender, John O. Butler, and B. C. Renois, and thereafter of not less than three nor more than seven stockholders, who shall be chosen each and every year, by the stockholders, at such times and in the same manner as said corporation shall by its by-laws prescribe. The said directors shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified, and may fill any vacancy which may happen in the board of directors, either by death, resignation or otherwise; they may, also, adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said corporation and the management of its officers and business as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

§ 5. A majority of said persons named in section one of this act, or their respective heirs, successors and assigns, may open books for subscription to the capital stock of said company. Upon subscription being made to said capital stock of twenty thousand dollars and five per cent. thereof paid in a majority of said named persons, or their respective successors, heirs and assigns, may call a meeting of the stockholders of said company for the election of directors of said company. Such directors shall hold their office for one year and until their successors are elected and qualified; and they may appoint a president and other needful officers of said company, who shall hold their offices for like terms, unless sooner removed.

§ 6. Upon such organization said company may establish and operate said railroad in, on, over and along said Broadway and Dyke avenue, of the said city of East Saint Louis, and may construct and operate branch roads, in, on, over and along any other street or streets, highway or highways, bridge or bridges, river or rivers, within the present or future limits of the said city of East Saint Louis, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions and with such rights and privileges as the council of said city may, by contract with said company, hereafter prescribe.

§ 7. The said corporation is authorized and empowered to take, hold, mortgage and convey real estate, for the purposes contemplated by this act, and to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as in their opinion may be necessary to aid the construction of said railway, and pay any interest therefor, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and to pledge and mortgage the said railway and its appendages, or any part thereof, or any of the property and effects, rights or credits or appendages of said company, as security for any loan of money and interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued for such loan at such rates or on such terms as the board of directors may determine.

§ 8. Said railway shall be commenced within two years from and after the passage of this act.

Haynie, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of "The Cairo and Vincennes Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and, by that name, both in law and equity, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended against, in any court in this state or any other place; and may make, have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; and may receive, purchase, hold, sell, lease, convey and deliver real and personal property, for the purposes hereinafter mentioned; and shall have all the powers, privileges, rights and immunities which are or may be necessary and proper to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act.

§ 2. The Cairo and Vincennes Railroad company shall have full power and authority to locate and, from time to time, to alter, change, re-locate, construct, reconstruct, and to fully finish, equip and maintain a railroad, with one or more tracks, from the city of Cairo, in Alexander county, by the way of Mound City, in Pulaski county, to some point on or near the line between this state and the state of Indiana, at or near Vincennes, Indiana; and, for this purpose, said company is authorized to lay out its said road, not exceeding two hundred feet wide, throughout the entire length of said road; and, for the purpose of obtaining stone, earth, sand or gravel, may take and appropriate as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said railroad; and, for constructing shops, depots and other suitable and convenient buildings and fixtures, in connection with and appurtenances to said railroad; may take and have, use and occupy any lands, upon either side of said railroad, not exceeding three hundred feet in depth from said railroad; and may take, have, use and occupy all lands necessary for the construction and preservation of all necessary bridges for said railroad. And said company may take all such lands, by gift, purchase or making satisfaction for the same, in the manner hereinafter provided.

§ 3. The said company, and under their direction, their agents, servants and workmen are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into and upon the lands and grounds of or belonging to the state, or to any person or persons, body politic or corporate, and survey and take levels of the same or any part thereof, and to ascertain and set out such part or parts as they shall think necessary and proper for making said railroad; and, also, to make, build, erect or set up, in and upon the route of said railroad or upon the land adjoining or near the same, all such works, ways or roads and conveniences as may be requisite and convenient for the purposes of said railroad; and, also, from time to time, to alter, repair, reconstruct, widen or enlarge the same, or any of the conveniences above mentioned, as well for the carrying and conveying goods, commodities, timber and other things to and upon the said railroad, as for carrying all kinds of materials necessary for the making, erecting, furnishing, altering, repairing, amending, reconstructing or enlarging the works of or connected with the said railroad; and contract and agree with the owner or owners thereof for earth, timber, stone, sand, gravel or other materials, or any article whatever, which may be wanted in the construction or repairing of said railroad or any of its appurtenances—said company doing as little damage as possible in the execution of the powers hereby granted and making satisfaction in the manner hereinafter mentioned for all damages, if any there be sustained by the owner or owners of said land.

etc.

§ 4. Said company may contract and agree with the owner or owners of such land or lands, as the said company may wish to use or occupy, for the purpose of said railroad or for the purpose of procuring said gravel, stone, earth, timber or other material to be used in the construction of said railroad, for the repair of the same; and in case said company can not agree with the owner or owners of all or any part of such lands as aforesaid, so as to procure the same by the voluntary deed or act of such owner or owners; or if the owner or owners thereof, or any or either of them, be a femme covert, an infant, non compos mentis, unknown, or out of the country, in which the lands or any property wanted be situated, the same may be taken, condemned and paid for, if any damages are awarded, in the manner provided in "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement, approved June 22, 1852;" and the final decision or award shall vest the company hereby created, with all the rights, privileges, powers, franchises and immunities in said act contemplated.

Capital stock.

§ 5. The capital stock of said company shall be four millions of dollars, and the same may be increased by a vote of the majority of the stockholders, at any regular meeting, or at any called meeting, legal notice being given to each stockholder of such meeting and its object: Provided, the total amount of stock shall not exceed the sum necessary to build and complete said railroad, and furnish the necessary buildings, machine shops, station houses, water-tanks, wood sheds, depots, engines, freight and passenger cars, and all other necessary rolling stock for carrying on the business of said railroad.

§ 6. The capital stock of said company shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars, which shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued, certified and registered in such manner, and in such places, as may be ordered or provided by the board of directors, who shall have power to require the payment of stock subscriptions in the manner, and at the time and place, and in such sums, as they may direct; and on refusal or neglect on the part of any stockholder to pay the calls on the stock owned by him or her, as required by the board of directors, the share or shares belonging to such stockholder, may, after thirty days' public notice, be sold at auction under such rules as the directors may adopt; and if any surplus money remain, after deducting the payment due with interest and necessary costs of sale, the same shall be paid to the delinquent stockholder.

§ 7. Each share of stock on which there shall be no unpaid calls, shall entitle the owner thereof to one vote, either in person or by legal proxy: Provided, that he or she shall have been the bona fide owner thereof for thirty days previous to the day of meeting at which such vote shall be offered, and for that purpose the ownership of said stock shall be determined by the books of the company.

Directors.

§ 8. The board of directors of said company shall consist of seven persons, each of whom must be a stockholder therein; and the first board of directors shall be chosen within sixty days from the passage of this act, and shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are duly elected or appointed; and said board of directors shall elect one of their own number as president, and shall also elect a secretary and treasurer, and such other officers as may be necessary for the transaction of the business of said company, who shall hold their offices as the rules and by-laws of said company shall determine. Vacancies in the board may be filled by vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining, such appointees to continue in office until the next regular annual election of directors.

Borrow money.

§ 9. The said company shall have power to purchase lands with the stock of said company or otherwise, and to borrow money to build, construct and equip said railroad; and to secure the payment of said money may mortgage the lands, road or other property of said company; may give bond on the income or any portion thereof, and may, by their officers or agents, duly authorized, sell, dispose of, negotiate or hypothecate such bonds, stocks or mortgages belonging to said company, at such times and places, and at such rates, and for such prices, as in their opinion will best advance the interests of said company; and if such bonds, mortgages or stocks, are sold at a discount, such sale shall be as valid and binding in every respect, as if sold at par value; and said company may authorize the holders of any bond or mortgage issued as aforesaid, to convert the same into the stock of the company: Provided, the stock thus issued, shall not increase the actual issue beyond the amount of capital necessary to complete and equip the said road as before mentioned.

Disposition of bonds.

Proviso.

§ 10. The several towns, cities or counties, through or near which said railroad shall pass, may subscribe for and take stock in this company, and may issue bonds in payment for such stock of five hundred dollars each, bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, or less, payable half-yearly in the city of New York, on the first days of January and July of each year, and bonds to run not longer than twenty-five years. And a tax of not more than one dollar on each hundred dollars' worth of taxable property, may be levied and collected in such town, city or county, per annum, to pay the installments on such stock, or to pay the interest and principal of bonds issued in payment for such stock: Provided, that no such subscription shall be made, no such bonds shall be issued, and no such tax shall be levied, unless a majority of the legal voters of said town, city or county, shall vote for the same, at an election to be held under order of the corporate authorities in cases of towns and cities, and of the county court, in cases of counties: Provided, further, that a majority of legal voters at any such election, shall be held as a majority of the legal voters of any such town, city or county; and the questions, of making a subscription, issuing bonds, and levying taxes, may be submitted as one question, or as separate questions, at such election; and either or all of said questions may be submitted to an election at any time, in the discretion of the authorities authorized to call such election.

or double track, through the whole length, and for the purpose of cutting and making embankments, and procuring stone and gravel, may take as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of said railroad.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of one million of dollars and may be increased to two millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in seven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided; who shall hold their offices for one year after their election, and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their places as directors; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect one of their number to be the president of the company. The said board of directors shall have power to appoint all necessary clerks, secretary and other officers necessary in the transaction of the business of said company.

§ 3. The said company is hereby authorized, by their agents, surveyors and engineers, to cause such examination and surveys to be made of the route, as above specified, as shall be necessary to determine the most advantageous ground whereon to construct said railroad, and it shall be lawful for said company to enter upon, and take possession of, and use all such lands and real estate, as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of their said railroad, depot houses and other appendages: Provided, that all lands and real estate entered upon and taken possession of and used by said corporation for the purposes and accommodation of said railroad, or upon which the site for said railroad shall have been located or determined by the said corporation, shall be paid for in damages by said company, if any be sustained by the owner or owners thereof, by the use of the same for all the purposes of said railroad; and all lands entered upon and taken for the use of said corporation, which are not donated to said company, shall be paid for by said corporation, at such price as may be mutually agreed upon by the said corporation and the owner or owners of such land; and in case of disagreement, the price shall be estimated, fixed and recovered, in the same manner provided for taking lands for the construction of public roads, canals or other public works, as prescribed by the "Act concerning right of way, approved March 3rd, 1843."

§ 4. If any person shall willfully, maliciously or wantonly, and contrary to law, obstruct the passage of any car on said road, or any part thereof, or any thing belonging thereto, or shall damage, break or destroy any part of the said railroad, or implements or buildings, he, she or they, or any person

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of five hundred thousand dollars, and may be increased by said company to one million, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in seven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided, who shall hold their office one year after their election, and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their places as directors; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect one of their number to be president of the company, and shall have power to appoint or elect such other officers as they shall deem proper.

§ 3. The corporation hereby created, shall have power to locate, construct, furnish, maintain and operate a railroad as aforesaid, with all necessary side tracks, turn-outs, switches, depots, stations, and all necessary buildings, erections and structures; and for this purpose they are hereby vested with all the powers necessary for the purchasing, taking, holding and selling and transferring property, real and personal, as natural persons, as the board of directors may deem necessary to carry out the objects of this act.

§ 4. For the purpose of acquiring the rights of way for the construction of said road, side-tracks and turn-outs, and grounds for depots, stations and other buildings, erections and structures, and for the purpose of obtaining stone, gravel and other materials for building, ballasting or repairing the same, and of a right of way to said material, the said company be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to take, condemn and use the same, under the provisions of "An act to amend the law condemning the rights of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved February 22, 1852.

§ 5. Said company shall have power to unite or connect its railroad with any other railroad constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed in this state, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so uniting or connecting; and for that purpose full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of such connection; and the said corporation may furthermore lease or purchase, upon such terms as may be agreed upon, any other road or parts of road, either wholly or partially constructed, which may constitute or be adopted as part of their main line; and by such lease or purchase they shall acquire and become vested with all the rights and franchises pertaining to such road or part of road so leased or purchased, in the right of way, construction, maintenance and working thereof.

Connections.

§ 6. The said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, furnishing, operating and maintaining their said railroad, and to issue and dispose of the bonds at such rate of interest and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises or convey the same by deed of trust to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid. And the directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bond issued for money borrowed as aforesaid the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stock of said company at any time, and may further authorize the holder of any such bonds to vote, at any and all elections, for the election of officers of said corporation, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par, shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

Indebtedness.

§ 7. All the corporate power of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to consist of seven members, and such officers, agents and servants, as they shall appoint. Vacancies in all the board of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining—such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors; which said annual election shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company; thirty days' printed notice being given in one newspaper having circulation along the line of said railroad.

Directors

- Commissioners § 8. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after a meeting duly called by thirty days' notice thereof in the Pontiac Sentinel, or other newspaper published in the town of Pontiac aforesaid, shall meet and proceed to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company. Five dollars for each share subscribed shall be paid on subscribing, and whenever fifty thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, the subscribers may organize said corporation, and proceed to the election of directors; and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver the said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director who shall not be a stockholder, and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he shall hold, upon which all calls have been paid. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books to fill up the capital stock of said company, or any part thereof, at such time as they may deem expedient; and all installments required to be paid on the stock originally subscribed, or what may be taken to increase said capital, shall be paid at such times and in such amounts as said directors may prescribe: Provided, that subscriptions of stock may be made to said company in lands, at their cash value, at the time of subscription, as may be agreed upon between the subscriber and the directors of said company, such subscriptions to be designated on the books as a land subscription, and to be considered as paid, by a conveyance of such land to the company. And, provided, further, that said corporation shall dispose of all lands to which it may acquire title or fee, other than such real estate as it may acquire for the use and operation of said road, as in this act provided, within five years after the acquisition thereof. Whenever it shall be necessary, for the construction of said railroad, to intersect or cross the track of any other railroad, or stream of water, or water course, or road or highway, on the route of said road, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water or water course, road or highway, intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

§ 10. To further aid in the construction of said road by Corporation subscription. any town under township organization, in Livingston county and La Salle county, Illinois, may subscribe to the capital stock of said company in any sum not exceeding fifty thousand dollars.

§ 11. No subscription shall be made until the question To be voted on. has been submitted to the legal voters of the town in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of each of said [towns] is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition signed by at least ten citizens, who are legal voters and tax payers of the town for which he is clerk, in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated, to post up notices in at least three of the most public places in said town, which notices shall be posted not less than ten days before the day of holding such election, notifying the legal voters of said town to meet at the usual places of voting, or some other convenient place in said town, for the purpose of voting for or against such subscriptions; but no such vote shall be taken, unless at a regular election for town and county officers.

§ 12. If it shall appear that a majority of all the voters have voted "For subscription," it shall be the duty of the supervisor of each of said towns that shall vote for such subscription to subscribe to the capital stock of said railroad company, in the name of the town for which he is supervisor, the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificates therefor; he shall also execute to said company, in the name of said town, bonds, bearing interest not to exceed ten per cent. per annum, which bonds shall run for a term not less nor more than twenty years, and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually; and which bonds shall be attested by the clerk of the town in whose name the bonds are issued; and it shall be his duty to make a record of the issuing of said bonds. Said bonds shall be delivered to the president or secretary of said railroad company for the use of said company. Duties of supervisor.

§ 13. It shall be the duty of the clerk of each of said towns, in which a vote was given for subscription, within ten days thereafter, to transmit to the county clerk of Livingston county, a transcript or statement of the vote given, and the amount voted to be subscribed, and the rate of interest named in the bonds. Statement of votes and the amount voted.

§ 14. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, annually Assessments. thereafter, to complete and assess upon all taxable property returned by the assessor of each of said towns which have voted to subscribe, a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all bonds issued by the respective towns, which tax shall be extended upon the collector's books as other taxes are, and shall be collected in the same manner that other taxes are collected, and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury as county taxes are paid.

Duties of treasurer.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of said county to pay out, on the presentation to him of the bonds issued by any towns as aforesaid, the amount due upon each of said bonds as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, and indorse the payment upon said bonds or take such voucher as he may prescribe. He shall also keep an account with each town of all money received by him, and paid on account of said towns, which account shall at all times be open to inspection by all persons wishing to examine the same.

Supervisor to represent and cast votes.

§ 16. At all elections for officers, and on all questions voted upon by the stockholders of said company, the supervisor of the town or towns who may subscribe to the stock of said company shall represent and cast the vote which said stock is entitled to.

Railroad subscriptions.

§ 17. Any railroad company with whose road the aforesaid road may intersect or connect, is hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe to the capital stock of this company, any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, and shall have the same rights, privileges and powers as other stockholders in this company, and shall be subject to the same conditions, restrictions and limitations as other stockholders therein.

Stockholders — liabilities of.

In force March 7, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Monee, Crete and Dyer Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Aaron N. Hart, Charles Clayes, John G. Osborne, John B. Hickox and James Briggs, their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name and style of "The Monee, Crete and Dyer Railroad Company," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, with power to contract and be contracted with, sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, in all courts and places to adopt a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; to adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations as they may deem expedient, and to have and exercise all other rights and powers necessary to carry out the provisions of this act.

Name and style

Powers.

Line and route of road.

§ 2. Said company when organized shall have the right to locate, build, contract, maintain, equip, operate and continue to operate, a railroad from some point within, at or near the village of Monee, in Will county, Illinois, through, or near Crete, to some point on the east line of sections twenty or twenty-nine, in township thirty-five north, of range fifteen east of the third principal meridian, and to extend the same, by the most eligible and practicable route, to some point in or near sections seven, eight or nine, in township thirty-nine north, of range fourteen east of the third principal meridian.

§ 3. Said company, in laying out, locating, building, constructing and operating said railroad, may cross any railroad or railroad line, now laid out or hereafter to be laid out, in this state, and may construct said railroad across any stream of water, water course, road, highway, street, alley or canal, in such manner as not materially to obstruct the same; and may unite, intersect or connect, at or near Monee, with the Wilmington and Monee railroad, or with any other railroad running in a western or south-western direction, and on the east line of sections twenty or twenty-nine, aforesaid, with any other railroad, for the purpose of securing an eastern or south-eastern connection, on such terms as may be agreed upon between the parties: Provided, however, and it is expressly forbidden to said company to consolidate said railroad with any existing railroad of a competing direction, or for the purpose of preventing or hindering competition.

§ 4. Said company shall have the right to purchase, hold, lease and convey real estate and personal property, so far as the same shall be necessary to carry out the intentions of this act, and may sell and dispose of the same when not required for the purposes of their business.

§ 5. Said company shall have the right to lay out and establish their railroad, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, through the entire line thereof, and may take and appropriate to their own use all such lands necessary for the line and construction of said railroad, by first paying therefor such amount of damages as shall be agreed upon between said company and the owner or owners of said land; and in case of disagreement, then paying or tendering therefor such damages as shall have been settled by appraisal in the manner hereinafter provided; and for the purpose of cutting and making embankments, obtaining stone, sand, gravel or other material, said company may take and appropriate so much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said railroad; and for the purpose of constructing shops, depots, side-tracks, and other suitable and convenient fixtures and appurtenances of said railroad, may take, have, use and occupy any lands on either side of said railroad, not exceeding two hundred feet in width; said company taking all such lands by gift or purchase, or making satisfaction for the same in the manner hereinafter provided.

§ 6. If said company can not agree with the owners of lands required for the purposes aforesaid, so as to procure the same by deed, or the voluntary act of such owners, or, if the owner or occupier, or either of them, be a femme covert, infant, non-compos mentis, unknown or out of the Capital stock. § 7. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, to be deemed personal property, and transferable as such, on the books of the company in the manner and subject to the conditions provided in the by-laws. The capital stock may be increased by a vote of the stockholders from time to time, to any amount that may be deemed necessary, not exceeding in the aggregate the whole cost of said railroad and its appurtenances, which said capital shall be paid in such manner, at the time and in such installments, as required by the directors. Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote in the election of directors and to increase the capital stock, and any person entitled to vote may vote by written proxy.

Directors. § 8. There shall be elected annually, at such time as the by-laws shall provide, a board of five directors, who shall have the general management of the officers and affairs of said company. They shall have power to make by laws, rules and regulations for the government of the officers and affairs of the company, and they shall elect from their number a president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their offices during the term for which they were elected and until their successors are duly elected and qualified; and the directors may appoint other officers and agents, and prescribe the powers and duties of the several officers, agents and employees of said company; and a failure to elect directors at the time provided by the by-laws, shall not work a forfeiture of this charter or impair the rights of the stockholders.

Indebtedness. § 9. The said company is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, maintaining, furnishing and operating or altering said railroad, and to issue and dispose of their bonds at any rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or any other property or effects, or convey the same by deed of trust to secure the payment of any debt contracted for the purposes aforesaid or any of them. And the directors of said company may at any time confer on the holder of any such bonds the right to convert the amount due or owing thereon into the stock of said company, and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par, shall be as valid and binding upon said company, as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

§ 10. The right of way, and other real estate purchased by or donated to said company, shall be held by them in fee simple, and any such right of way or real estate taken, condemned or appropriated, shall upon due fulfillment by said company of the conditions prescribed by law to be by them performed or observed to entitle them to said property, shall also be held by said company in fee simple.

purposes and accommodation of said railroad, or upon which the site of said railroad shall have been located and determined by said corporation, shall be paid for by said company to the owner or owners thereof, by the use of the same for the purposes of said railroad; and all lands entered upon and which are not donated to said company for the use of said railroad, shall be paid for by said corporation, at such price as may be mutually agreed upon by the corporation and the owner or owners of such lands; and in all cases where said company shall not be able to acquire the right of way through any lands or premises they may wish to occupy for the purposes of said railroad or its appendages, by purchase or voluntary cession, said company may proceed to obtain such right of way by the provisions of "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations, approved, November 5, 1849," and any act or acts passed amendatory thereof or supplemental thereto; and said corporation shall have and possess all the powers, privileges and immunities provided in and by said general railroad act, or acts amendatory thereof, or supplemental thereto.

§ 4. The capital stock of said company shall be one million dollars, which may be increased to such amount as may be found necessary to complete said road. Said stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued and transferred as the board of directors may prescribe.

Capital stock.

§ 5. The time of holding the annual meetings of said corporation for the election of directors, shall be fixed and determined by the by-laws of said company; and at all meetings each stockholder shall be entitled to vote in person or by lawful proxy, one vote for each share in the stock, he, she or they may hold, bona fide, in said corporation.

Annual meetings.

§ 6. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed the directors of said corporation, and shall hold their office for one year from the first day of June, A. D. 1867, or until others are elected; and said persons heretofore named in section one of this act, are also appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, are hereby authorized to open stock subscription books for the capital stock, at such time or times and place or places, as they may deem proper; said commissioners shall require each subscriber to pay five dollars on each share of capital stock subscribed at the time of subscribing. The directors appointed by this act, or a majority of them, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and shall elect one of their number to be president of said company. They shall also elect a secretary and treasurer, and such officers and agents as they shall deem proper. In case a vacancy occurs in the board of directors, it may be filled by the remaining directors, or as the by-laws of said corporation may prescribe; no person shall hereafter be elected a director in said company, unless he shall be a stockholder thereof.

Property in fee simple.

§ 7. The right of way, and real estate acquired for the right of way and depot ground, by said company, whether by mutual agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in this act provided, shall, upon the payment of the amount of money belonging to the owner or owners of said lands as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

Femme covert and non compos mentis.

§ 8. That when the lands of any femme covert, person under age, non compos mentis, or any non-resident of the state, shall be taken in the construction of said railroad, as is provided by this act, the said corporation shall pay the amount that shall be awarded as due to said owner or owners respectively, whenever the same may be lawfully demanded, together with interest thereon at six per cent. per annum, or may deposit the amount with the county treasurer of the county in which the land so taken lies.

Connections.

§ 9. It shall be lawful for the company created by this act, to unite with any railroad company whose line of road comes to the east line of this state from the east, and it may also unite with any railroad company whose line of road comes to the Mississippi river from the west, or with any such company or companies who have the right to use any railroad or railroads coming to the said east line, or to the Mississippi river, or the company hereby formed may lease or sell their road to any company, either in or out of this state who will agree to furnish the capital to finish, build, construct, furnish and equip said railroad to completion for practical use, and that such purchasing or leasing company may go on and complete said railroad, and work the same with like power and effect, and in the name of the company hereby formed.

Borrow money.

§ 10. For the purpose of facilitating the construction of the railroad authorized by this act, said corporation is empowered to borrow money and pledge its property, both real and personal, and its rights, credits and franchises, to secure the payment thereof.

§ 11. This act shall be deemed to be a public act, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

Company.

[SECTION 1.] Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That M. G. Leonard, Ira Wilson, Stephen A. Hurlbut, Charles F. Witt, James S. Waterman, Reuben Elwood, Jonathan Abel, and James H. Culver, and their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under and by the name and style of "The Belvidere and Illinois River Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and by that name shall be and are hereby made capable in law and equity, to sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in all courts of law and equity in this state or elsewhere; to make, have, and use, a common seal, and the same to renew and alter at pleasure; and shall be and are hereby vested with all the powers, privileges and immunities which are or may be necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act; and the said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct, and finally complete and put in operation, a railroad from the town of Belvidere, in Boone county, southwardly to any point on the Illinois river, from Morris to Ottawa, deemed by the said company the most eligible; and for that purpose the company are authorized and empowered, upon the most eligible route, to lay out their railroad for a single or double track, to any width not exceeding one hundred feet, through the whole length; and for the purpose of constructing embankments, may take as much land as may be necessary for the proper construction and security of said railroad. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, and may be increased from time to time, at the pleasure of said corporation. It shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and be issued and transferred in such manner and upon such conditions as the board of directors may direct. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in not less than five nor more than thirteen directors, and such officers and agents as said board of directors shall appoint. Said directors shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner herein provided, and shall hold their office for one year after their election, and until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified, a majority of whom shall form a quorum to do business. Said board may require any appointee to give bond and security. The said company are hereby authorized by their agents, surveyors and engineers, to cause such examinations and surveys to be made of the ground and country between the said town of Belvidere and Illinois river afore-

The directors of said company are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules, by-laws, regulations and ordinances, that they may deem necessary and expedient to accomplish the designs and purposes, and to carry into effect all the provisions of this act, and for the issuing and transfer of its stock. Said directors are hereby authorized and empowered to take and receive subscriptions to their capital stock on such terms, and in such amounts, as they may deem for the interest of said company, from any other railroad company or corporation, and from any county, city, town or village; and any such subscription shall be valid and binding upon any railroad company, corporation, county, city, town or village making the same: Provided, said subscriptions shall be made subject to the provisions of "An act supplemental to an act entitled 'An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations, approved November 6, 1849:'" And provided, further, said company may take or receive subscriptions to their capital stock, payable in real estate. The said corporation may take and transport upon said railroad, any person or persons, merchandise or other property, by the force and power of steam or animals, or any combination of them, and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property transported upon the same, as the said directors shall from time to time establish, subject, however, to such regulations and restrictions as have been, or may hereafter be, established by the laws of this state of a general application. The right of way, and the real estate purchased for the right of way, and for other purposes, by said company, whether by mutual agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in this act provided, shall, upon the payment of the amount of money belonging to the owner or owners of said lands, as a compensation for the same, or upon tendering the amount therefor, become the property of the said company in fee simple, unless otherwise agreed upon between said company and the seller thereof. Any person who shall willfully injure or obstruct the said road, or any of the appurtenances thereto, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit to the use of the company, a sum three-fold the amount of the damages occasioned by such injury or obstruction, to be recovered in an action of debt, in the name of said company, with costs of suit, before any justice of the peace or before any court of record in this state. In case of the death, resignation or removal of any of the directors, at any time between the annual elections, such vacancy may be filled for the remainder of the year, by the remaining directors or a majority of them.
- Vacancies. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross the track of any other railroad, or any stream of water, or water-course, or canal, or road or highway, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water-course, canal, road or highway, thus intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness. Said company shall have power, and it is hereby made lawful for said company; to unite its railroad with any other railroad or railroads now constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed, within this state, which may cross or intersect the same, or be built at either end thereof, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the said company and any other company so connecting; and for that purpose full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company or companies as shall secure the objects of such connections. The said company may borrow such sums of money as may be necessary for completing and furnishing or operating their said railroad, and issue its bonds or other evidence of indebtedness, bearing a rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and payable at such time or times and at such place or places as its directors may think proper, and may secure such bonds or other indebtedness, by mortgage or deed of trust of its corporate property and franchises, in such manner as the said directors may think fit, and may sell such bonds or other evidences of indebtedness, at any rate of discount agreed upon by the said directors.
- Crossings and intersections. § 2. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall be favorably construed for all purposes herein expressed, in all courts and places whatsoever, and shall take effect from and after its passage: Provided, that said company shall commence the construction of said railroad within five, and complete the same within ten years from the passage of this act.

 Name and style style of "Dixon, Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and, by that name and style, shall be capable, and are hereby empowered and authorized Powers, privi- in law, of taking, purchasing, holding, leasing, selling and leges, etc. conveying real and personal estate and property, so far as the same may be requisite and necessary for the purposes hereinafter mentioned; and in their said corporate name, may sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in all the courts and places; to have a common seal, which they may alter and renew at pleasure; to have a capital stock of five hundred thousand dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which said capital may be increased from time to time, by a vote of a majority of the directors of the corporation, to any sum requisite for the completion and fulfillment of the objects and purposes of the corporation hereby created; and the said above named persons shall be and constitute the first board of directors, and are hereby vested with and may have and exercise all powers, rights, privileges and immunities, which are or may be necessary to carry into effect and complete, use and enjoy the purposes and objects of this act, as hereinafter set forth.

§ 2. Said directors shall organize the board as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, by electing one of their number president, and by appointing a secretary and treasurer, which organization shall be certified by said directors or a majority of them, and such certificate shall be recorded in the record book of said company, and said record shall be sufficient evidence of such organization, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of said corporation, shall be received in all the courts of this state, as evidence of the facts therein stated; and said directors shall hold their offices until the first Wednesday of October following their organization, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified as hereinafter provided. All vacancies in said board may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors present, and at any regular meeting of the board, or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

§ 3. The said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, and from time to time to alter, change, relocate, construct, reconstruct and fully to finish, perfect, operate and maintain a railroad, with one or more tracks, from the city of Dixon, in Lee county, to some practical point on the east side of the Mississippi river, near or opposite the city of Hannibal, in the state of Missouri, with the right to extend a branch road from any point on the main line, by way of Princeton, to some point on the Illinois river, in the county of Bureau or Putnam, and with the right to either run the main line of said railroad to or through the city of Peoria, or to extend a branch road from any point on the main line to said city of Peoria, and to determine and locate the line of said railroad, upon such route and line between said points as may be deemed proper and advantageous by said company. Said company are hereby authorized and empowered to commence the construction of any portion of said railroad, at such place and places along the line of the route to be selected by said company, as it may be deemed expedient and advantageous so to construct the same by said company; and the said company are further authorized to use and operate said railroad, and shall have power and authority to regulate the time and manner in which goods, effects and persons shall be transported on the same, and to prescribe the manner in which said railroad shall be used, and the rate of toll for the transportation of persons or property thereon, and for the storage of merchandise and other property under their charge, and shall have power to provide all necessary stock and materials for the operation of said road, and shall have power to erect and maintain all necessary depots,

§ 5. All and singular the powers, rights, privileges, provisions, rules and regulations conferred, expressed and contained in sections five (5), six (6), seven (7), eight (8), nine (9), ten (10), eleven (11), twelve (12), thirteen (13) and fourteen (14), of an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Mississippi Railroad Company," approved February 15th, 1865, shall be and are hereby conferred upon, and made applicable to the company hereby created, in as full and complete a manner as if said sections were inserted at length in this act: Provided, that the words "either in this state or the state of Wisconsin," which occur in two places in the said tenth section of said act, shall not be deemed or taken as any part of this act, and said tenth section shall, for the purposes of this act, be read and construed the same as if said words were erased therefrom.

Corporation

§ 6. The several counties in which any part of said road may hereafter be located, and the several townships in said counties which have adopted or may hereafter adopt township organization, and the cities and incorporated towns in said counties, are hereby authorized to subscribe and take stock in said Dixon, Peoria and Hannibal Railroad Company. Elections may be held in any such county, township, city or incorporated town, upon the question whether such county, township, city or town shall subscribe for any specified amount of the stock of said company, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars for each county, and not exceeding thirty-five thousand dollars for each of such townships, cities or towns; and elections may be held in any such county, township, city or town, as often as a petition shall be presented as hereinafter specified, until such county, township, city or town shall have subscribed for the full amount of stock authorized by this act. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the board of supervisors, signed by fifty legal voters of any such county, setting forth the amount of stock proposed to be taken by any such county, and specifying the time for holding such an election, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of such county, to give twenty days' notice of the time of holding such election, which shall be the same time as that specified in such petition, and whenever a petition shall be presented to the supervisors of any such township, or to the corporate authorities of any such city or town, signed by twenty-five legal voters of any such township, city or town, setting forth the amount of stock proposed to be taken by any such township, city or town, and specifying the time for holding such an election, it shall be the duty of the clerk of every such township, city or town, to give twenty days' notice of the time of holding such an election in such township, city or town, which shall be the same as that specified in such petition, which said notice or notices shall be given in the same manner, and such election or elections shall be conducted in the same mode and at the places, provided for holding general elections in such counties, townships, cities and towns; at which election or elections the qualified voters of the respective counties, townships, cities and towns shall vote "For subscription," or "Against subscription;" and if a majority of the votes actually cast at any such election shall be "For subscription," it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of every such county, the supervisor and clerk of any such township and the corporate authorities of such city or town, to subscribe without unnecessary delay, upon request of said company, for stock in said company, to the amount mentioned in such petition, and to issue and deliver to said company the same amount as the stock so subscribed of the bonds of such county, township, city or town, as the case may be, payable at any time specified, not exceeding twenty years from their date, with interest, at a rate not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, payable annually, which said bonds and the interest accruing thereon, shall be made payable at such place, within the United States, as said company may request.

§ 7. It shall be the duty of the respective authorities of the several counties, townships, cities and towns, which may vote such subscription, and they are hereby required to levy and collect a sufficient special tax on all the taxable property, both real and personal, in such counties, townships, cities and towns, not exceeding three dollars on every one hundred dollars' worth of taxable property, to pay the interest annually accruing on such bonds, and to liquidate the principal of said bonds, within the time specified in the same for their payment. Said tax shall be levied on the assessments made by the assessors of their respective counties, townships, cities and towns, as provided by the revenue laws of this state, for assessing property, and shall be extended on the collector's books of such county, township, city or town, as a special road tax, and collected by the respective collectors of such counties, townships, cities and towns, at the same time, and in the same manner, as provided by law for collecting state and county tax, which said tax shall be paid by the respective collectors to the county treasurer of the county in which the tax is collected, deducting therefrom a commission of two per centum only for collecting. And the said county treasurers shall be respectively liable on their bonds for the faithful application of said tax to the payment of the interest and principal of the bonds for which said tax was levied and collected to pay, and shall receive therefor, in full compensation, a commission of two per centum only, for paying out said tax. The corporate authorities of the respective counties and townships, shall certify to the county clerk of the proper county, the rate per cent. to be levied for each year, for such special tax, and the said county clerks shall extend on the collector's books for such county or townships, as a special railroad tax, at the rate so certified for each year in the same manner and on all the property on which state and county tax is extended, and the respective authorities of such cities and towns, shall levy and collect such special railroad tax, in the same manner as other tax is levied and collected in and for such towns: Provided, that in case the said authorities for any such county or township, shall fail to certify to such clerk the rate per cent. to be levied for any year, before the time required by law for said clerk to extend state and county tax, then the said clerk shall extend such tax for such year, at the rate of one per centum.

§ 8. Said company shall have the right to acquire, by purchase or lease, the chartered rights, powers and privileges of any person or persons, corporation or corporations, to keep, operate and maintain any ferry or ferries across the Mississippi river, now operated and run, or hereafter to be operated and run, in connection with said railroad, and to build and erect a bridge across said Mississippi river at such point as shall be deemed most eligible by said company for that purpose; and upon acquiring such rights, by purchase or lease, or upon the building and erection of such bridge, said railroad company shall have the right to keep and operate such ferry or ferries, and to use and maintain such bridge, in connection with such railroad.

§ 9. In case said company shall, within ten years from the passage of this act, complete and put in operation any twenty-five miles or upwards of said railroad so authorized to be built, but shall for any cause fail to complete the whole of said line within that time, such failure shall not operate as a forfeiture of the franchises of said company, so far as the same may affect or relate to such portion of said road as shall have been so completed and put in operation.

Examinations and surveys.

§ 3. The said company are hereby authorized, by their agents, surveyors and engineers, to cause such examinations and surveys to be made of the ground and country between the said city of Chester and the city of Centralia, aforesaid, as shall be necessary to determine the best route for the proper line or course whereon to construct their said railroad; and it shall be lawful for said company to enter upon and take possession of and use any and all such lands and real estate as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of their said railroad: Provided, that all lands and real estate entered upon and taken possession of and used by said corporation for that purpose and accommodation of said railroad, or upon which the site for said railroad shall have been located or determined by the said corporation, shall be paid for by said company in damages, if any be sustained by the owner or owners thereof by the use of the same for the purposes of said railroad; and all lands entered upon and taken for the use of said company, which are not donated to said corporation, shall be paid for by said corporation at such price as may be mutually agreed upon by the said corporation and the owner or owners of said land; and in case of no agreement therefor the price shall be estimated, fixed and recovered in accordance with an act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvements, approved June 22, 1852.

Possession of real estate, etc.

Proviso.

Property in fee simple.

§ 4. That the right of way and real estate purchased for the right of way and for other purposes by said company, whether by mutual agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in this act provided, shall, upon the payment of the amount of money belonging to the owner or owners of said lands, as a compensation for the same, or upon tendering the money therefor, become the property of said company, in fee simple, unless otherwise agreed between the said company and the seller thereof.

§ 5. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to open or cause to be opened subscription books for the stock of said company at such times and places as they may think proper, and also to appoint one or more agents to open such books and to receive such subscriptions. The said commissioners or their agents shall require such subscribers to pay five dollars on each share subscribed at the time of subscribing; and whenever a hundred thousand dollars shall be subscribed, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall call a meeting of the stockholders, by giving four days' notice in some newspapers printed in the counties of Randolph, Washington and Marion; and at such meeting it shall be lawful for the stockholders to elect the directors of said company and transact any other business that may be deemed necessary; and when the directors are chosen the said commissioners shall deliver said subscription books, with all moneys received by them or by any agent appointed by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director unless he shall be a bona fide stockholder in said company.

§ 6. The time of holding the annual meetings of said company for the election of directors and for the transaction of any other business by the stockholders shall be fixed and determined by the by-laws of said company; and at all such meetings the stockholders shall each be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he, she or they may own and hold, bona fide, in said company; and such vote may be given in person or by proxy.

§ 7. In case that it should at any time appear that an election of directors should not be made on the day which in pursuance of this act or the by-laws of said company it ought to be made, such failure to elect shall in nowise affect the right of said company, but such election may be held at any other time which may be directed by the directors.

§ 8. The directors after the same is organized, shall have power to open books at such time and places as they may deem proper for the subscription of stock, until the whole amount of the capital stock shall be subscribed or such parts and amounts thereof as they shall desire to have subscribed; and said directors are hereby authorized, and empowered to take subscriptions to their said capital stock, on such terms and in such amounts as they may deem for the interest of said company and as they may prescribe by their by-laws and regulations, from any other railroad company or corporation, and from any county, city, village or town making the same: Provided, said subscriptions shall be made, in every respect, subject to the provisions of an act supplemental to an act entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporation," approved November 6, 1849: And, provided further, said company shall be authorized to take or receive subscriptions to their capital stock, payable in real estate; and all owners of real estate may pay for their subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, execute their notes with mortgage upon the whole or any part of their real estate for the security of said notes, at a rate of interest to be agreed upon by said company and the said owners of said real estate, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum.

Payment of stock.

§ 9. That it shall be lawful for the directors to require payment of the sum subscribed to the capital stock at such times and in such proportions and on such conditions as they shall deem proper, under penalty of the forfeiture of all previous payments thereon, and shall give notice of the payments thus required and of the time when and the place or places where the same are to be made, at least thirty days previous to the time of the payment of the same in public newspapers printed in Chester, Nashville and Centralia.

Business and operations.

§ 10. That said company may take and transport upon said railroad any person or persons, merchandise, or other property, by the force and power of steam or animals, or other proper and competent force and power; and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property transported on the same as the directors shall from time to time establish; and the directors are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules, by-laws, regulations and ordinances that they may deem necessary and expedient to accomplish the designs and purposes and to carry into effect all the provisions of this act and for the transfer and assignment of its stock.

Crossings, etc.

§ 11. That whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad or any stream of water or water course or road or highway on the route of said road it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway thus intersected or crossed to its former state or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

Connections.

§ 12. The said company shall have power and it is hereby made lawful for said company to unite its railroad with any other railroad or railroads now constructed or being constructed or which may hereafter be constructed which may cross or intersect the same, or be built on either end thereof, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the said company and any other company so intersecting or connecting, and, for that purpose, full power is hereby given to said company to make, execute and confirm such contracts with any other company or companies as shall secure the objects of such connections.

§ 13. In case of the death, resignation or removal of the president, vice president or any director at any time between the annual elections such vacancies may be filled for the remainder of the year, whenever the same may happen, by the remaining directors or a majority of them; and, in case of the absence of the president or vice president, the board of directors shall have power to appoint a president pro tempore, who shall have and exercise such functions as the by-laws of said corporation may prescribe.

Vacancies.

President pro tem.

§ 14. The said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for completing and furnishing or operating their said railroad and to issue and dispose of their bonds in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars, bearing interest at a rate not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, for any amount so borrowed, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debts contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid; and the directors may confer upon any holder of bonds issued for money so borrowed, as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due and owing thereon into stocks of said company at any time not exceeding ten years from the date of said bond, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and all sales of such bonds that may be made at less than their par value shall be good and valid and binding upon such corporations as if said bonds had been sold for the full amount thereof.

Indebtedness.

§ 15. Every or any person who shall willfully injure or obstruct the said road, or any part of the appendages thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall forfeit to the use of the said company a sum three-fold the amount of the damages occasioned by such injury or obstruction, to be recovered in an action of debt, in the name of said company, with costs of suit, before any justice of the peace or before any court of record in this state.

Penalties, etc;

§ 16. The said company shall be allowed five years from the passage of this act for the commencement of the construction of said railroad and fifteen years thereafter for the completion of the same.

§ 17. This act shall be deemed and taken as a public act, and shall be construed beneficially for all purposes herein specified or intended, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

Construction of act.

APPROVED March 5, 1867.

In force March 5, 1867. AN ACT to provide for a South-eastern Extension of the Pana, Springfield and North-western Railroad, and to incorporate the South-eastern Railroad Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That D. B. Alexander, L. R. McMurry, J. M. Mette and T. D. Craddock, of the county of Effingham; Thomas Martin, Samuel B. Todd, D. B. Brown, A. G. Caldwell and Joseph Picquet, of Jasper county; Aaron Shaw, Gilbert T. Nigh and Peter Smith, of Lawrence county; Stephen Riggs, of Shelby county; Grove Lawrence, D. D. Shumway and Charles Manners, of Christian county; Alexander Starne, Jesse K. Dubois and John W. Priest, of Sangamon county, Illinois, and their associates and successors, are hereby created a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of "The South-eastern Railroad Company," with perpetual succession; and, under this name and style, shall be capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, defending and being defended against, in law and equity, in all courts and places whatsoever, in like manner and as fully as natural persons; may make and use a common seal, and alter or renew the same at pleasure; and, by their said corporate name and style, shall be capable in law of contracting and being contracted with; shall be and are hereby invested with all the powers, privileges, immunities and franchises of receiving and disposing of real and personal estate which may be needful to carry into effect fully, the purposes and objects of this act; and said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct and complete a railroad, commencing at or near Pana, in Christian county; thence to Effingham, in Effingham county; thence to or near Newton and New Liberty, in Jasper county; and thence to the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad, at some convenient point in Lawrence county, Illinois, to be determined by said company, with one or more tracks or lines of rails. Said company shall commence the construction of said road in good faith within five years and shall complete the same within ten years.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of two millions of dollars, and may be increased by said company to fifteen millions, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be vested in eleven directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided, who shall hold their office one year after their election and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their places as directors; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect one of their number to be president of the company, and shall have power to appoint or elect such other officers as they shall deem proper.

§ 3. The corporation hereby created shall have power to locate, construct, furnish, maintain and operate a railroad as aforesaid, with all necessary sidetracks, turnouts, switches, depots, stations, and all necessary buildings, erections and structures: and for this purpose, they are hereby vested with all the powers necessary for the purchasing, taking, holding and selling and transferring property, real and personal, as natural persons, as the board of directors may deem necessary to carry out the objects of this act.

Business powers and franchises.

§ 4. For the purpose of acquiring the rights of way for the construction of said road, sidetracks and turnouts, and grounds for depots, stations and other buildings, erections and structures, and for the purpose of obtaining stone, gravel and other materials for building, ballasting or repairing the same, and of a right of way to said material, the said company be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to take, condemn and use the same, under the provisions of an act to amend the law condemning the right of way for the purposes of internal improvement, approved June 22, 1852.

Possession of lands, etc.

§ 5. Said company shall have power to unite or connect its railroad with any other railroad constructed or which may hereafter be constructed in this state, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so uniting or connecting; and, for that purpose, full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of such connection; and the said corporation may furthermore lease or purchase, upon such terms as may be agreed upon, and any other road or parts of road, either wholly or partially constructed, which may constitute or be adopted as part of their main line; and, by such lease or purchase, they shall acquire and become vested with all the rights and franchises pertaining to such road or part of road, so leased or purchased, in the right of way, construction, maintenance and working thereof.

Connections.

§ 6. The said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, furnishing, operating and maintaining their said railroad; and to issue and dispose of the bonds at such rate of interest and of such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid; and the directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bonds issued for money borrowed, as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stock of said company, at any time, and may, further authorize the holder of any such bonds to vote at any and all elections for the election of officers of said corporation, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

- Officers. § 7. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors to consist of eleven members, and such officers, agents and servants as they shall appoint. Vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining—such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors; which said annual election shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company—thirty days' printed notice shall be given in three newspapers having circulation along the line of said railroad.
- Vacancy.
- Commissioners § 8. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who or a majority of them, after a meeting duly called by thirty days' notice thereof in three newspapers published on the line of said railroad, shall meet and proceed to open books, and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company. Ten dollars for each share subscribed shall be paid on subscribing; and whenever fifty thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, the subscribers may organize said corporation and proceed to the election of directors; and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver the said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director who shall not be a stockholder; and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he shall hold upon which all calls have been paid. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books to fill up the capital stock of said company, or any part thereof, at such time as they may deem expedient; and all installments required to be paid on the stock originally subscribed, or what may be taken to increase said capital shall be paid at such time and in such amounts as said directors may prescribe: Provided, that subscriptions of stocks may be made to said company in lands, at their cash value at the time of subscription, as may be agreed upon between the subscriber and the directors of said company—such subscriptions to be designated on the books as a land subscription, and to be considered as paid by a conveyance of such land to the company: And provided, further, that said corporation shall dispose of all lands to which it may acquire title or fee other than such real estate as it may acquire for the use and

§ 9. That the right of way and the real estate for the right of way and for the purpose aforesaid, purchased or acquired by said company, whether by agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in the act provided, shall, upon the payment of the money agreed or adjudged to be paid to the owner or owners of said land as compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

Property in fee simple.

§ 10. That all the rights, privileges and advantages, with the limitations and restrictions conferred upon the Pana, Springfield and North Western Railroad company; also, the rights, privileges and advantages, with their limitations, conferred by an act entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5th, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof, except as hereinafter qualified, are hereby conferred upon the South Eastern Railroad Company; and cities, towns, townships and counties shall be entitled to subscribe for stock in said company in like manner and with like effect as is provided in the said act referred to and acts amendatory thereof: Provided, also, that the county courts of the counties through which the line of said railroad runs may, with or without submitting the question to the people, subscribe for stock in said company, payable in lands, to be taken upon such terms and conditions and be conveyed in such manner as the said county courts and said company may agree upon: And provided, also, that such powers to subscribe for stock on the part of said counties, payable in lands, shall not be restricted in amount or value to one hundred thousand dollars, nor shall such right of subscription in lands in any manner impair the power of said counties to make a money subscription of one hundred thousand dollars to said company, under the provisions of said act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations and act amendatory thereof: Provided, that a land subscription shall not in any way impair the right or derogate from the power to make a money subscription.

by vote.

§ 12. No such subscription shall be made until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of the town in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of each of the said towns is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition, signed by at least ten citizens, who are legal voters and tax payers of the town for which he is clerk—in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated—to post up notices in at least three of the most public places in said town, which notices shall be posted not less than ten days before the day of holding such election, notifying the legal voters of said town to meet at the usual places of voting, or some other convenient place in said town, for the purpose of voting for or against such subscriptions; but no such vote shall be taken unless at a regular election for town and county officers.

§ 13. If it shall appear that a majority of all the voters have voted "for subscription" it shall be the duty of the supervisor of each of the said towns that shall vote for such subscriptions to subscribe for the capital stock of said railroad company, in the name of the town for which he is supervisor the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificates therefor; he shall also execute to said company, in the name of said town, bonds bearing interest not to exceed ten per cent. per annum, which bonds shall run for a term of not less than ten nor more than twenty years; and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually; and which bonds shall be attested by the clerk in the town in whose name the bonds are issued; and it shall be his duty to make a record of the issuing of said bonds. Said bonds shall be delivered to the president or secretary of said railroad company, for the use of said company.

Clerk's duties.

§ 14. It shall be the duty of the clerk of each of said towns in which a vote was given for subscription, within ten days thereafter, to transmit to the county clerks of their respective counties a transcript or statement of the vote given and the amount voted to be subscribed and the rate of interest named in the bonds.

Taxation.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the county clerks, annually thereafter, to compute and assess upon all taxable property returned by the assessor of each of said towns, which have voted to subscribe a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all bonds issued by the respective towns, which tax shall be extended upon the collector's books as other taxes are, and shall be collected in the same manner that other taxes are collected, and, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasuries as county taxes are paid.

§ 16. It shall be the duty of the treasurers of said counties to pay out on the presentation to them of the bonds issued by any town, as aforesaid, the amount due upon each of said bonds as interest out of any money in their hands for that purpose and indorse the payment upon said bonds, or take such vouchers as they may prescribe. They shall also keep an account with each town of all money received by them, and paid on account of said towns, which account shall, at all times, be open to inspection by all persons wishing to examine the same.

Treasurers' duties.

§ 17. At elections for officers and on all questions voted upon by the stockholders of said company the supervisors of the bonds who may subscribe to the stock of said company shall represent and cast the vote which said stock is entitled to.

Elections.

§ 18. The road to be constructed by said company shall be divided into three divisions. That portion of the road between Pana and Effingham shall be designated the first division. That portion between Effingham and Newton shall be designated the second division; and that portion between Newton and the intersection of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad shall be designated the third division. And subscribers, either individual or corporate, to the stock of said company, may designate upon which division of said road such subscription shall be applied. And said corporation shall faithfully apply such subscriptions to the division thus designated; but any surplus of stock so subscribed for the benefit of any one section of said road remaining after the construction of said section may be applied by said company in aid of the construction of any other section.

further, that such vote shall not be taken unless thirty days' notice thereof be given by the county clerk of Henderson county, by posting notices thereof in three of the most public places in each of said townships. Said county clerk shall give such notice whenever fifty legal voters residing within said several townships shall request him, in writing, to give the same, but not without. Whenever such subscription shall be made said county judge shall certify the fact thereof to the county clerk of Henderson county, and such clerk shall extend on the tax books of said county a tax of one per cent. annually on all the taxable property of said several townships until said bonds shall be paid. Said tax shall be collected as other taxes in said county and paid over to the county treasurer of said county as a separate fund specially appropriated to the payment of said bonds. Said county treasurer shall apply the money so collected, first, to the payment of interest on said bonds, and second, to the payment of said bonds in their numerical order. Said county judge shall keep a record of the issue of said bonds in a well bound book, and shall deliver the same to the county treasurer of said county; and said county treasurer shall keep in said book a record of the payment of the interest and bonds paid and canceled; shall annually settle with the county court of said county of Henderson, and shall, in the presence of said court, cancel the bonds paid by burning the same. Said county treasurer and the collector of said county of Henderson shall be liable on their respective official bonds for the collection, paying over and disbursing of said tax fund. The bonds to be issued by the supervisor under the last section of this act shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of Hancock county; and those to be issued by the county judge under this section at the office of the county treasurer of Henderson county, and shall each contain a condition that such bond may be paid and canceled at any anniversary of the making thereof, at the option of the makers, upon the supervisor or county judge, as the case may be, giving thirty days' notice of such intended payment: Provided, said bonds shall be paid in the order in which they are numbered; and if the holder of such bond shall neglect or refuse to receive such payment and surrender such bond such holder shall be forever barred from collecting interest on such bond thereafter.

Directors.

§ 2. Said directors shall organize the board as soon as practicable after the passage of this act, by electing one of their number president, and by appointing a secretary and treasurer; which organization shall be certified by said directors, or a majority of them; and such certificate shall be recorded in the record book of said company; and said record shall be sufficient evidence of such organization; and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of said corporation, shall be received in all the courts of this state as evidence of the facts therein stated; and said directors shall hold their offices until the first day of July, A. D. 1868, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified as hereinafter provided. All vacancies in said board may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors present at any regular meeting of the board or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

§ 3. The said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, and, from time to time, to alter, change, re-locate, construct, re-construct and fully to finish, perfect, operate and maintain a railroad, with one or more tracks, from Belvidere, in the county of Boone, and state of Illinois, to the city of Ottawa, in the county of LaSalle, and state of Illinois, and to determine and locate the line of said railroad upon such route and line between said points, as may be deemed proper and advantageous by said company. Said company are hereby authorized and empowered to commence the construction of any portion of said railroad at such place and places along the line of the route, to be selected by said company, as it may be deemed expedient and advantageous so to construct the same by said company; and the said company are further authorized to use and operate said railroad, and shall have power and authority to regulate the time and manner in which goods, effects, and persons shall be transported on the same, and to prescribe the manner in which said railroad shall be used, and the rate of toll for transportation of persons or property thereon, and for the storage of merchandise and other property under their charge; and shall have power to provide all necessary stock and material for the operation of said road; and shall have power to erect and maintain all necessary depots, stations, shops, and other buildings and machinery, for the accommodation, management and operation of said road.

§ 4. Said directors shall as soon after the passage of this act as practicable open books for the purpose of receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of said company, at such places along the line of said road and elsewhere as said directors shall determine, under the direction of such agents as said directors shall appoint; and said books shall be opened, from time to time, until the amount of said capital shall be entitled to the said lands, in fee; and if such valuation be not received when tendered it may at any time thereafter be received or may be collected from said company, without interest, by action at law, at the cost and expense of the person or persons entitled to the same: Provided, such valuation shall not have been paid to the clerk of the court in which such appeal may have been taken: And, provided, that the costs of any proceedings and judgments specified in this act shall be taxed by the court and be paid by said company, except in cases where upon appeal the verdict of the jury shall be for the same or a less sum than that reported by the said commissioners.

§ 6. The said company are authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money, not exceeding double the amount of stock subscribed, and upon which at least twenty-five per centum shall have been paid, as may be necessary for constructing, completing and finishing or operating said railroad, and to issue and dispose of their bonds in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars, for any amount so borrowed, and to pay any rate of interest therefor, not exceeding ten per cent., and to pledge and mortgage the said road and its appendages, or any part thereof, or any other property or effects, rights, credits or franchises of the said company, as security for any loan of money and interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued for said loans, at such rates and on such terms as two-thirds of the directors may determine; and may make such bonds convertible into the capital stock of said company, at the option of the holder; and may provide a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds out of the earnings of said road.

§ 7. The said company shall annually or semi-annually make such dividends as they may deem proper, of the net profits, receipts or incomes of said company among the stockholders therein, in proper proportion to their respective shares.

§ 8. Said company shall have power to make, ordain and establish all such by-laws, rules and regulations as may be deemed expedient and necessary to fulfill the purpose and carry into effect the provisions of this act and for the well ordering and securing the affairs and interest of said company: Provided, that the same be not repugnant to the constitution and laws of the United States or of this state. This act and all by-laws that may be adopted by the directors of said company, and all additions thereto and alterations thereof, shall, from time to time, be printed in a convenient form and be distributed among the stockholders of said company.

§ 3. The corporation hereby created shall have power to locate, construct, furnish, maintain and operate a railroad as aforesaid, with all necessary side-tracks, turn-outs, switches, depots, stations and all necessary buildings, erections and structures; and for this purpose they are hereby vested with all the powers necessary for the purchasing, taking, holding and selling and transferring property, real or personal, as natural persons, as the board of directors may deem necessary to carry out the objects of this act.

property.

§ 4. For the purpose of acquiring the rights of way for the construction of said road, side-tracks, turn-outs and grounds for depots, stations and other buildings, erections, and structures, and for the purpose of obtaining stone, gravel and other materials for building, ballasting or repairing the same, and of a right of way to said materials, the said company be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to take, condemn and use the same, under the provisions of "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852.

Connections.

§ 5. Said company shall have power to unite or connect its railroads with any other railroad constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed in this state, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so uniting or connecting; and for that purpose full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of such connection; and said corporation may, furthermore, lease or purchase, on such terms as may be agreed upon, any other road or parts of roads, either wholly or partially constructed, which may constitute or be adopted as part of their main line; and by such lease or purchase they shall acquire and become vested with all the rights and franchises pertaining to such road or part of road, so leased or purchased, in the right of way, construction, maintenance and working thereof.

Indebtedness.

§ 6. The said company is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, furnishing, operating and maintaining their said railroad, and to issue and dispose of the bonds at such rate of interest and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid; and the directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bond issued for money borrowed as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stock of said company, at any time; and may further authorize the holder of any such bonds to vote at any and all elections for the election of officers of said corporation, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par, shall be as valid and binding upon said company, as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

Directors

§ 7. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to consist of seven members, and such officers, agents and servants as they shall appoint. Vacancies in all the boards of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining, such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors; which said annual elections shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company, thirty days' printed notice being given in two newspapers having a circulation along the line of said railroad.

§ 8. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after a meeting, duly called by one or more of them, by giving thirty days' notice of the time, place and object of such meeting, in one newspaper (if one shall be published) in each of the counties through which said road will run, shall meet and proceed to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company. Ten dollars for each share subscribed shall be paid on subscribing; and whenever fifty thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, the subscribers may organize said corporation and proceed to the election of directors; and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver the said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director who shall not be a stockholder, and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he shall hold upon which all calls have been paid. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books to fill up the capital stock of said company, or any part thereof, at such time as they may deem expedient; and all installments required to be paid on the stock originally subscribed, or what may be taken to increase said capital, shall be paid at such time and in such amounts as said directors may prescribe: Provided, that subscriptions of stock may be made to said company in lands, at their cash value at the time of subscription, as may be agreed upon between the subscriber and the directors of said company; such subscriptions to be designated on the books as a land subscription, and to be considered as paid by conveyance of such land to the company: And, provided, also, that owners of land along or near the line of said road may be authorized to subscribe stock, and to secure payment of the same by promissory note and mortgage; such note to draw eight per cent. interest, payable semi annually from and after the road shall have been completed, through, to or parallel with the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, with the privilege to the maker to discharge the principal at pleasure; such subscription to be designated on the books as a mortgage subscription, and to be free from all calls upon stock. Such subscribers however, shall have no right to vote as stockholders in said corporation, until interest shall have become payable upon such subscriptions: And, provided, further, that said corporation shall dispose of all lands to which it may acquire title or fee other than such real estate as it may acquire for the use and operations of said road as is in this act provided, within five years after the acquisition thereof. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross the track of any other railroad or stream of water, or water course, or road, or highway, on the route of said road, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

Proviso.

Property in fee simple.

§ 9. That the right of way, and the real estate for the right of way and for the purpose aforesaid, purchased or acquired by said company, whether by agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company, by operation of law, as in the act provided, shall, upon the payment of the money agreed or adjudged to be paid to the owner or owners of said land, as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

Rights and privileges.

§ 10. That all the rights, privileges and advantages, with the limitations and restrictions conferred upon the Illinois Central Railroad Company, also the rights, privileges and advantages, with their limitations, conferred by an act entitled "An act to provide for [a] general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof, except as hereinafter qualified, are hereby conferred upon the said company.

What counties may subscribe to stock.

§ 11. To further aid the construction of said road by said company, the counties of Jackson, Williamson, Saline and Gallatin, in said state of Illinois, may each subscribe to the capital stock of said road in any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars.

Subscription determined by vote.

§ 12. No such subscription shall be made by any of said counties until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of such county, in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of the county court of each of said counties is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition signed by at least one hundred citizens of said county, who are legal voters and tax payers of such county, in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated, to post up a notice, in the most public place in each precinct in said county, (which notice shall be posted not less than ten days before the day of holding such election,) notifying the legal voters of said county to meet at their usual places of voting, in each precinct, for the purpose of voting for or against such subscription; but no such vote shall be taken unless at a regular election for county officers.

Duty of county court therein.

§ 13. If it shall appear that a majority of all the voters voting [at] such election have voted for subscription, it shall be the duty of the county court of each of said counties that shall vote for such subscription, to subscribe to the capital stock of said railroad company the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificate therefor. The said county court shall also execute to said company, in the name of said county, bonds, bearing interest not to exceed eight per cent. per annum; which bonds shall run for a term of not less than fifteen years nor more than twenty years, and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually, and which bonds shall be signed by a majority of the county court and attested by the clerk of said court of such county; and it shall be the duty of said clerk to make a record of the issuing of said bonds. Said bonds shall be delivered to the president or secretary of said railroad company, for the use of said company.

§ 14. It shall be the duty of the county court of such county, annually thereafter, to compute and assess upon all taxable property in said county, returned by the assessors thereof, which have voted to subscribe a sufficient sum to pay the interest on the bonds issued to said company by said county, which tax shall be extended upon the collector's books as other taxes are, and shall be collected in the same manner as other taxes are collected; and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury as county taxes are paid: Provided, however, that said taxes shall be collected and paid into said county treasury in the same kind of funds that taxes collected for state purposes shall be collected in.

Property assessed to pay interest, etc.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer of such county to pay out, on presentation to him of the bonds issued by said county, the amount due upon each of said bonds, as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, and indorse the payment thereof upon said bond, and take duplicate receipts for the same—one of which duplicate receipts he shall file with the clerk of the county court of said county, on or before the next regular term of said court. And said treasurer is now required, by law, to report all such moneys received by him, and present his accounts and make a settlement with the county court of said county, and file, with the clerk of the county court, a full and complete statement of all such moneys, so received by him, and how he has disbursed the same; which statement shall be made under oath. And said statement shall be open to the inspection of all who desire to examine the same.

Duties of county treasurer.

§ 16. At all the elections for officers, and on all questions voted upon by the stockholders of said company, one of the judges of the county court of said county, which may subscribe to the stock of said company, shall represent and cast the vote which said stock is entitled to: Provided, that said judge shall be appointed by said court for said purpose, and a certificate of the county clerk of said court, of said appointment, under the seal of said court, shall be sufficient evidence of his appointment.

Vote of judges of county court

Proviso.

§ 17. Any railroad company with whose road the aforesaid road may intersect or connect is hereby authorized

Subscription to stock by railroad companies and empowered to subscribe to the capital stock of this company any sum, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; and shall have the same rights, privileges and powers, in this company, and shall be subject to the same conditions, restrictions and limitations as other stockholders therein.

Stockholders'

§ 18. No stockholder, whether corporate or natural person, shall be otherwise liable upon his, her or their subscription of stock, than for the amount of their respective subscriptions of stock to said company, and according to the calls of the directors, as hereinbefore provided.

APPROVED March 7, 1867.

In force March 7, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Hamilton, Lacon and Eastern Railroad Company.

Corporators.

Corporate name
and powers.

ers.

§ 2. Said company is hereby authorized and empowered to locate, build, construct, maintain, equip, operate and continue to operate a railroad from Hamilton, in Hancock county, Illinois, by the most eligible and practicable route, through or near Lacon, in Marshall county, to or near Monee, in Will county, Illinois. Said company, in laying out, locating, building, constructing and operating said railroad, may cross any railroad or railroad line now laid out, or hereafter laid out in this state, and may construct said railroad across any stream of water, water course, road or highway, street, alley or canal, in such manner as not materially to obstruct the same; and may unite, intersect or connect said railroad, at or near Monee, with any railroad running in an eastern or northeastern direction, or with any railroad it may cross on its route, or at its termination, running in the direction of Chicago: Provided, however, and it is herein forbidden to said company to consolidate said railroad with any other railroad of a competing direction, or for the purpose of preventing competition. Said company shall have the right to purchase, hold, lease, sell and convey real estate and personal property, so far as the same may be necessary to carry out the provisions and intentions of this act; and they may sell and dispose of the same whenever not required for the purposes of their business.

§ 3. Said company shall have the right to lay out and establish their railroad, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, through the entire line thereof, and may take and appropriate to their own use all land necessary for the line and construction of said railroad, by first paying therefor such amount of damages as shall be agreed upon between said company and the owner or owners of said land, and in case of disagreement their paying, or tendering therefore, such damages as shall have been settled by appraisal, in the manner hereinafter provided, on all such lands as may be taken by said company; and for the purpose of cutting and making embankments, obtaining stone, sand, gravel or other material, said company may take and appropriate so much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said railroad; and for the purpose of constructing shops, depots, side-tracks and other conveniences and suitable fixtures, in connection with appurtenances to said railroad, may take, have, use and occupy any lands on either side of said railroad, not exceeding two hundred feet in width—said company taking all such lands by gift or purchase, or making satisfaction for the same in the manner hereinafter provided. And it shall be lawful for said company, at any time or times hereafter, to project and extend, from any point or points of their said road, branches or side-tracks thereof to any coal or mineral bed or beds or mines in the respective vicinity, with the necessary appendages, which shall be laid out, built and governed, and rights of way and other ground obtained therefor, under and according to the provisions of this act; and the same shall be treated in all respects as a part of the main line.

Possession and

§ 4. If said company can not agree with the owner or owners of land which it may be necessary to take, for the purposes aforesaid, so as to procure the same by deed or the voluntary act or gift of such owners of land, or if the owner or occupier or either of them be femme covert, infant, non compos mentis, unknown or out of the county in which the land wanted may be situated, then the same may be taken and paid for, if any damages be awarded, in the manner provided for in "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5, 1849, and the amendments thereto. The right of way and other real estate purchased by or donated to said company, for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be held by them in fee simple; and any rights of way or real estate taken, condemned or appropriated as aforesaid, upon the payment or tender of the amount of damages awarded, shall also be held by said company in fee simple.

Capital stock. § 5. The capital stock in said company shall be two million of dollars, which may be increased to any extent considered necessary, by said company, to complete, construct and operate said railroad; and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. And the said company is hereby authorized to receive, in payment for stock, any land lying within ten miles of their said railroad line; and whensoever the directors of said company may deem it expedient to sell and convey said lands, the corporators named in the first section of this act, or a majority of them, shall, at their option, cause books to be opened for subscription to the capital stock of said corporation, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, at such times and places as they determine; and it shall be lawful for any person, of lawful age, to subscribe any amount to the capital stock of said company.

Payments. § 6. The corporators of said company may require such subscriber to pay such an amount, at the time of subscribing, not exceeding five dollars on each share subscribed, as they or a majority of them may determine.

Directors. § 7. As soon as one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock shall be subscribed, the corporators herein named, or a majority of them, shall call a meeting of the stockholders for the election of five directors, who shall be stockholders, of which meeting twenty days' notice shall be given, by publication in one or more papers, published in Marshall county; and said election shall be conducted by and under the direction of two judges, appointed by the stockholders who may be present; and the persons having a plurality of votes shall be declared elected such directors. Each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote, for every share he or she may hold, and every person entitled to vote may vote by written proxy. Whenever the sum of one hundred thousand dollars shall be subscribed, the said corporation may commence to construct and complete their said railroad.

Officers. § 8. As soon as the said five directors shall be elected they shall immediately, from their number, choose a president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their offices for the period of one year, and till their successors are duly elected and qualified. It shall be the duty of the secretary, whenever required by the president, to call meetings of the board of directors; and notice thereof shall be given in the manner prescribed by the president. The secretary shall keep the books of said company, and shall keep a correct record of all the acts and doings of said corporation.

Directors.

§ 9. All elections, after the first, for officers of said corporation shall be held on the first Monday of April, annually, under the direction of two stockholders, not directors at the time, to be appointed by an order of the board, at a previous meeting: Provided, that the said board of directors may cause elections to be held on any other day, should there be no election on that day; and all elections shall be held at the office of said company, which may be established wherever the board of directors may determine, and which said board may remove at pleasure. The directors elected as aforesaid shall continue in office for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified, and a majority shall form a quorum to do business.

Elections.

Proviso.

Office.

§ 10. The said board of directors is hereby authorized from time to time to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for completing, equipping, furnishing, maintaining, operating or altering their said railroad, and to issue and dispose of their bonds, at any rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or execute deeds of trust on the same or any part thereof, or any other property or effects, rights or credits of the said company, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purposes aforesaid, or any of them; and the directors of said company may at any time confer on the holder of any such bonds the right to convert the amount due or owing thereon into stock of said company, and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par, shall be valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof. And the capital stock and shares of said company shall be deemed and held to be personal property; and may be sold and transferred upon the books of said company in the manner and form prescribed by the by-laws.

Indebtedness.

Stock transferable, etc.

§ 11. Said company shall have the right to erect a suitable bridge for the passage of its cars across or over the Illinois river, or other navigable stream, so as not materially to obstruct the navigation thereof.

Bridge privileges.

§ 12. This act shall be deemed and taken to be a public act, and shall be construed beneficially for all purposes herein specified or intended, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Construction of act.

AN ACT to incorporate the Peoria and Rock Island Railway Company. In force March 7, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Tobias S. Bradley, Valentine Dewein, William F. Bryan, Orrin E. Page, Vincent M. Ayres, Patrick M. Blair, Thomas J. Robinson, Cornelius Lynde, and George H. French, and their associates, successors and assigns, be and they are hereby created and constituted a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The Peoria and Rock Island Railway Company," with perpetual succession, and by that name be and are hereby made capable, in law and equity, of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, defending and being defended in any court of law or equity in this state or elsewhere; and may make, have and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; and shall be and are hereby invested with all powers, privileges and immunities incident to corporations for the purpose hereinafter mentioned.

Corporators.

Corporate name and powers.

§ 2. The said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate and from time to time to alter, change, re-locate, construct, re-construct and fully finish, perfect, equip and maintain a railway, with one or more tracks, from the city of Peoria, in the county of Peoria, to the city of Rock Island, in the county of Rock Island, by such route as the directors of said company may deem most feasible and eligible; and also to extend and continue said railway from said city of Peoria to some point or place in the county of Tazewell, where it may intersect or connect with the St. Louis, Chicago and Jacksonville railroad; and for this purpose said company is authorized to lay out and construct said road, in width not exceeding one hundred feet, throughout its whole length; and for the purpose of cuttings, embankments, and obtaining stone, sand and gravel, and for constructing and erecting shops, depots and other suitable, proper and convenient fixtures in connection with and appurtenances to said railway, and all necessary and proper uses, may take as much more land as may be needed for the construction, operation and security of said road.

Business powers and privileges.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall be one million dollars, which may be hereafter increased, by a vote of a majority of the directors of said company, to any sum requisite for the completion and fulfillment of the objects and purposes of the corporation hereby created. Said capital stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shares shall be deemed personal property, and shall be transferable only in such manner and upon such terms as shall be prescribed by the by-laws of said company.

Capital stock.

tion.

§ 4. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the corporation, who, or a majority of them, are hereby authorized to cause books to be opened at such times and places as they may deem proper, for receiving subscriptions to said capital stock. Notice of the time and places when and where the books will be opened shall be given by publication, for at least thirty days previous to opening the same, in such newspaper or newspapers as shall be selected for that purpose by said commissioners. On opening said books, said commissioners shall attend, in person or by agents, and continue to receive subscriptions to said capital stock until the sum of one hundred thousand dollars thereof shall have been subscribed. Each subscriber shall, at the time of subscription, pay to said commissioners the sum of five dollars on each share of stock subscribed for by him; and the commissioners shall, so soon as the directors of said corporation shall have been elected, deliver to them the whole amount so received, and also all subscription books and papers belonging to said company. A majority of said commissioners may fill any vacancies that may occur in their number by death, resignation or otherwise.

Management of

§ 5. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of nine directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided, and who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; and said directors, a majority of whom shall form a quorum for the transaction of business, shall elect, by ballot, from among themselves, a president and vice president, and shall have power to appoint a secretary, treasurer, and all other officers deemed necessary for the transaction of the business of said company; and may require such officers to give such security for the faithful performance of the duties of their office as the company, by its by-laws, may require. Said directors shall also have power to make all such rules, by-laws and regulations as they may deem necessary and expedient to accomplish the designs and purposes and to carry into effect the provisions of this act and for the transfer and assignment of the capital stock and prescribing the duties of officers, artificers and servants, that may be employed, and for the appointment of all officers to carry on the business within the objects and purposes of said company, not inconsistent with the laws of this state.

directors.

§ 6. The first election for directors shall be holden as soon as may be after the said one hundred thousand dollars of stock shall have been subscribed. The commissioners shall give notice of the time and place at which a meeting of the stockholders will be held, for the choice of directors, by publication in a newspaper, published in any one or more of the counties along the route of the said railway, as they may deem proper, at least thirty days before the day set for such organization. At the time and place appointed for that purpose the commissioners, or a majority of them, shall attend and act as inspectors of said election. The stockholders who shall be present shall proceed to elect, by ballot, nine directors, and the commissioners present shall certify the result of such election, under their hands; which certificate shall be recorded in the books of the corporation, and shall be sufficient evidence of the election of the directors therein named. All future elections shall be held at the times and places and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws and regulations of said corporation. Each stockholder shall be entitled to vote, in person or by proxy, one vote for every share of stock he or she may hold, bona fide, upon which all installments, called and due, have been paid; and a plurality of votes at any election shall determine the choice. But no stockholder shall be allowed to vote, at any election after the first, for any stock which shall have been assigned to him within thirty days previous to the day of holding such election.

§ 7. The directors shall have power and are required to re-open the books to fill up the capital stock of said company, and shall continue to receive subscriptions therefor until the whole amount of such capital (not subscribed before said commissioners) shall have been taken; and shall also receive subscriptions to the additional capital stock of said company, should the same be increased by said directors, pursuant to the authority herein given, at such time and places as the directors may deem expedient; and all subscriptions to the stock of said company shall be paid at such times and in such amounts, and on such conditions, as said directors may prescribe, under the penalty of the forfeiture of the stock and all previous payments thereon; and they shall give notice of the payments thus required, and of the place where and the time when the same are required to be paid, at least thirty days previous to the time when said payments shall be required to be made, by publication in such newspaper, and for such time, as said directors shall determine.

directors.

§ 8. In case of death, resignation or removal of the president, vice president, or any director, at any time before the annual election, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the year, wherein it may happen, by the board of directors; and in case of absence of the president and vice president, the board of directors shall have power to appoint a president pro tempore, who shall have and exercise such powers and functions as the by-laws of the said company may provide. In case it should at any time happen that an election should not be made on any day on which, in pursuance of this act, it ought to be made, the corporation shall not, for that cause, be deemed dissolved, but such election shall be held at any time directed by the by-laws of said corporation.

Corporation
subscription.

§ 9. Any incorporated city, town or county on or near the line of said railway may subscribe to the capital stock of said company any sum, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, and may issue bonds in denominations of not less than one hundred dollars, bearing interest at the rate not exceeding ten per centum per annum, payable annually; which bonds may run any period, not exceeding twenty years, to be determined on by the county court, board of supervisors, city council, town trustees, or other proper authority issuing said bonds: Provided, that before said stock shall be subscribed an election shall be held, in conformity with the laws in regard to ordinary city, county or town elections, the usual notice having been given and returns to be made in the usual way, at which election a majority of the legal voters, voting on that question, shall have voted in favor of said subscription; and to this end the county court, board of supervisors, city council, town trustees or other proper authority may, from time to time, order elections, specifying the amount proposed to be subscribed; and such city, town or county is hereby authorized and required to assess and levy a sufficient tax to pay the interest accruing on such bonds, and the principal of the same, when due; which tax shall be assessed, levied and collected in the same manner as other taxes are, by law, required to be assessed, levied and collected.

subscription.

§ 10. Any township under township organization, on or near the line of the said railway, may also subscribe to the capital stock of said company, in any sum not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; but no such subscription shall be made until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of the town in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of each of said towns is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition, signed by at least ten citizens, who are legal voters and tax payers of the township for which he is clerk, in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated, to post up notices in at least three of the most public places in said town, which notices shall be posted not less than ten days before the day of holding such election, notifying the legal voters of said township to meet at the usual places of voting in said township, for the purpose of voting for or against such subscriptions; which election shall be held and conducted in the manner provided by law for the election of town officers.

§ 11. If it shall appear that a majority of all the voters voting on that question, have voted "For subscription," it shall be the duty of the supervisors of each of said townships, that shall vote for such subscription, to subscribe to the capital stock of said railway company, in the name of the township for which he is supervisor, the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificates therefor. He shall also execute and deliver to said company, in the name of said township, bonds, bearing interest not to exceed ten per centum per annum, which bonds shall run for a term not exceeding twenty years, and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually, and which bonds shall be attested by the clerk of the township in whose name the bonds are issued; and it shall be his duty to make a record of the issuing of said bonds.

§ 12. It shall be the duty of the clerk of each of said townships in which a vote shall have been given for subscription, within ten days thereafter, to transmit to the county clerk of the county a transcript or statement of the vote given and the amount voted to be subscribed, and the rate of interest named in the bonds. Duty of clerk.

§ 13. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, annually thereafter, to compute and assess, upon all the taxable property returned by the assessor of each of said townships which have voted to subscribe, a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all bonds issued by the respective townships, which tax shall be extended upon the collector's books as other taxes are, and shall be collected in the same manner that other taxes are collected; and when collected shall be paid into the county treasury, as county taxes are paid: Provided, that when any county refuses or neglects to subscribe to the capital stock of said company, and any city, town or township within said county shall subscribe to said stock, as herein authorized, then all taxes assessed, levied and collected for county purposes, upon the real and personal property of said corporation, shall inure to the sole benefit of the city, town or township so subscribing; and when said taxes shall have been collected, they shall be passed or placed by the county treasurer to the credit of such city, town or township, in proportion to the amount subscribed by each, to be applied in payment of the principal and interest, as they may respectively become due, of any and all bonded indebtedness created by such city, town or township, for railroad purposes; and when all such indebtedness shall have been extinguished, then said taxes, so collected, shall constitute a perpetual fund, subject to the order and control of the city, town or township entitled thereto, by virtue of this proviso, which shall apply to Peoria county only: Provided, always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to interfere with or in any manner interrupt the levy, collection or appropriation of state taxes upon the real and personal property of said corporation. Duties of county clerk.

Duty of treasurer.

§ 14. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of such counties in which townships have voted for said railway subscriptions, to pay out, on the presentation to him of the bonds issued by any townships, as aforesaid, the amount due upon each of said bonds, as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, and indorse the payment upon said bonds, or take such voucher as he may prescribe. He shall also keep an account with each township of all money received and paid by him on account of said townships, which account shall at all times be open to inspection by all persons wishing to examine the same.

Township supervisors vote.

§ 15. At all elections for officers, and on all questions voted upon by the stockholders of said company, the supervisor of the township or townships who may subscribe to the stock of said company shall represent and cast the vote which said stock is entitled to, in person or by lawful proxy; and in case the supervisor is absent or unable to act, and has not appointed a person to act as proxy, then the township clerk shall be vested with the same powers as is herein given to the supervisor.

Possession of lands and real estate.

§ 16. The said corporation is hereby empowered to purchase, receive and hold such real estate as may be necessary and convenient in accomplishing the objects for which this incorporation is granted, and may, by their agents, engineers or surveyors, enter upon, take possession of and use all such lands and real estate as may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of said railroad and the appendages and accommodations requisite and appertaining thereto; and may also receive, take and hold all such voluntary grants and donations of lands and real estate as shall be made to said corporation for the purpose aforesaid. And in case said company shall not be able, by purchase or voluntary cession, to acquire the right of way and grounds for said railroad, appendages and accommodations, and grounds of stone or gravel, for the purpose of building, ballasting or repairing the same, or any of them, and the rights of way to such grounds of stone or gravel, said company are empowered to take, condemn and use, or otherwise to lawfully obtain and use the same, respectively, under the provisions of "An act to incorporate the Mississippi Railroad Company," approved February 15, 1855, or under any of the laws of this state, now in force, in that behalf, and authorizing the appropriation of lands for right of way for such purposes.

Property in fee simple.

§ 17. The rights of way and other real estate purchased by said company, for any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be held by them in fee simple, and any such rights of way or real estate taken, condemned or appropriated, as aforesaid, shall, upon due fulfillment by said company of the conditions prescribed by law, to be by them performed or observed, to entitle them to such property, also be held by said company in fee simple.

§ 18. The said company shall have power to borrow money, on the credit of the company, at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per centum per annum, payable semi-annually; and may execute bonds therefor, with interest coupons thereto annexed, and secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust on the whole or any part of said railway, property, income and franchises of the company then existing, or thereafter to be acquired; and may annex to said mortgage bonds the privilege of converting the same into the capital stock of the said company, at par, at the option of the holders, if such election be signified in writing to the company three years before the maturity of said bonds. Indebtedness.

§ 19. The directors of said corporation are hereby authorized to negotiate and sell the bonds of the said company at such times and in such places, either within or without this state, and at such rates and for such prices as will, in their opinion, best advance the interests of the said company; and if said bonds are so negotiated or sold at a discount, below their par value, such sale shall be as valid and binding on the said company, in every respect, as if they were sold or disposed of at their par value. To issue bonds.

§ 20. The said company, in securing the payment of said bonds by mortgage or deed of trust on the road, property, income and franchises of said company, shall have power to execute a mortgage or deed of trust aforesaid, to secure the payment of the full amount of bonds which the company, at the time the said mortgage or deed of trust bears date, or at any time thereafter, desired to sell and dispose of; and may execute and sell, from time to time, such amount of said bonds and of such dates, and payable to such persons, as the directors of said company may deem advisable, till the whole amount of bonds mentioned in such mortgage or deed of trust is executed and sold; and the said mortgage and deed of trust shall be as valid and effectual to secure the payment of the bonds, so executed and sold, and every part thereof, as if the same and every part thereof had been executed with even date with said mortgage and deed of trust. Mortgages and deeds of trust.

§ 21. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railway, to intersect or cross the track of any other railway, or stream of water, or water-course, road or highway, on the route of said railway, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railway upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railway, stream of water, water-course, road or highway, thus intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness: And provided, further, that for the purpose of extending said railway into the county of Tazewell, as authorized by section 2 of this act, said corporation may construct and maintain a draw-bridge, or such other kind of form of bridge, across the Illinois river, as shall be sufficient to subserve the purpose of said railway, and shall not materially obstruct the navigation of said river.

Penalties for obstructing passage of cars, and destruction of property, etc.

§ 22. If any person or persons shall willfully or negligently do, or cause to be done, any act or acts whatever, whereby the said railway or any part thereof, or any building, construction or work of said company, or any engine, machine, structure or matter or thing appertaining to the same, shall be stopped, obstructed, weakened, impaired, injured or destroyed, the person or persons so offending shall forfeit and pay to the said company treble the amount of the damage sustained by reason of such offense, to be recovered, with costs of suit, in the name of said company, by action of debt; and such offender or offenders shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be subject to indictment and punished as in other cases.

Consolidations.

§ 23. The said company is hereby authorized to unite or consolidate its railway stock and property with that of any other railway company or companies whose line or lines of road may intersect or connect, by continuous lines, or at either terminus, or at the terminus of the extension herein authorized, or which may be on or near the line thereof; or it may purchase, lease, sell or make any arrangement it may deem proper with any such railway company, or with any other company whose line of road may form a continuous line with the railway hereby authorized, to or from either terminus; and in the event of consolidation, the companies so consolidating may take upon themselves any name and style of designation they may think proper; and they shall be vested with all powers, privileges and franchises of each or both or all of the companies, and may borrow money upon mortgage or deed of trust upon the property of one or all of said companies, at their option: Provided, that this section shall not be so construed as to allow any consolidation or arrangement with any other company which will materially divert the road herein authorized to be built from the line herein contemplated.

Business and operations.

§ 24. The said company may take and transport, on said railway, any person or persons, merchandise or other property, by whatever motive or propelling power and force it may deem proper, and may fix, establish, take and receive such rates of toll or freight, for all passengers and property transported upon the same, and for the storage of merchandise and other property under their charge, as the directors, from time to time, shall establish, and shall have power to provide all necessary stock and materials for the operation of said railway; and shall have power to erect and maintain all necessary depots, stations, shops and other buildings and machinery for the accommodation, operation and management of said railway.

This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall be favorably construed for all purposes herein expressed and declared, and shall be in force from and after its passage.

lawful for said company to enter upon and take possession of and use all such lands and real estate as will or may be necessary for the construction and maintenance of the said railroad, its depots, side-tracks water stations and engine houses, machine shops, and other buildings and appendages necessary to the construction of said railroad: Provided, that all lands or real estate entered upon and taken possession of by said company or corporation, for the purpose and accommodation of said railroad, or upon which the site for said railroad shall have been located or determined by said corporation, shall be paid for by said company in damages, if any be sustained by the owner or owners thereof, by the use of the same for the purposes of said railroad; and all lands, entered upon and taken for use of said corporation, which are not donated to said company, shall be paid for by said corporation at such times as may be mutually agreed upon by the said corporation and the owner or owners of such lands; and in case of disagreement, the price shall be estimated, fixed and recovered in the manner provided for taking lands for the construction of public roads, canals, or other public works, as prescribed by the act concerning the right of way, approved March 3, 1845; or any other laws of this state, in aid or amendment thereof, for condemning the right of way for the purposes of internal improvement.

Proviso.

§ 5. Said company shall have power to unite or connect its railroad with any other railroad constructed, or which may be constructed, in this state, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the companies so uniting or connecting; and for that purpose, full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts, with any other company, as will secure the objects of such connections, by lease or otherwise.

Indebtedness.

§ 6. The said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, furnishing, operating and maintaining their said railroad, and to issue and dispose of the bonds at such rate of interest and at such discount, as may be thought for the benefit of the company; and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company, for the purpose aforesaid; and the said directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bond issued, for money borrowed, as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stock of said company, at any time; and may further authorize the holder of any such bond to vote at any and all elections for the election of officers of said corporation, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and any such bonds, that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par, shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

§ 7. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to consist of seven members, and such officers, agents and servants as they shall appoint. Vacancies in all the board of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining, such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors; which said annual election shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company, thirty days' printed notice being given in two newspapers having circulation along the line of said railroad.

Proviso.

§ 2. That all damage which shall be done to any lands or property, under the provisions of this act or of the act of which this is an amendment, shall be ascertained and paid for in the manner hereinafter provided; and when such damage shall have been paid for or tendered, the title to the said lands or property shall vest in fee simple in said railroad company. It shall be the duty of any judge of a circuit or county court of this state, upon application of the said company, either in term time or vacation, at the cost of said company, to appoint three disinterested persons, residing in the county where such lands are situate, not of kin to the owner or owners thereof, whose duty it shall be Damages.
Property in fee simple.

to view and examine all the lands or property taken in said county, with the buildings and improvements, if any, thereon, and to estimate the value of the same, and all damages which the owner or owners thereof shall sustain, or may have sustained, by reason of the taking of the same for construction and benefit of said railroad, or works appertaining thereto—taking into consideration the advantages as well as the disadvantages of the same, by means of the construction and operation of said road, to the said owner or owners; and when said persons, who shall be called commissioners, are so appointed, they shall act in all cases arising, in said county, requiring the action of commissioners. But if, for any cause, either or all of said commissioners shall decline or become disqualified to serve, or their place or places become vacant, such vacancy or vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as provided for the original appointments. It shall be the duty of said company to give five days' notice of their application for the appointment of such commissioners, said notice to be by publication in some newspaper published in the county where said lands are situated, or if no newspaper be printed in said county, then in some newspaper published on the line of the road, in the nearest adjacent county seat; and the certificate of the publisher or printer shall be legal evidence of such publication. The commissioners, so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, shall take an oath, before some officer authorized to administer oaths, faithfully and according to their best abilities to examine the several pieces or parcels of lands or property so taken or acquired by said company, and impartially to estimate and appraise the value of the same, and the damage or injury which the owner or owners of each piece or parcel thereof shall have sustained or may sustain by reason of the taking and using thereof, by the said railroad company, over and above the benefits and advantages which said owner or owners shall or may derive from the construction of such railroad. Thereupon such commissioners shall proceed to examine the premises, and estimate the value of such lands and property, and the amount of damages, if any, over and above the benefits and advantages which may accrue to such owner or owners, as aforesaid; and shall make a report, in writing, of such valuation of damages, if any, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the land lies, and shall return the same within ten (10) days after making their appraisal; and it shall be the duty of said clerk to file the same. And in case no appeal shall be made, within twenty days after the filing of the said report, as hereinafter provided, then the said clerk shall record the same, at the expense of said company, and judgment of the said court shall be entered thereon, either in term time or vacation, on motion of either party, for the amount of damages so reported: Provided, that either party may appeal to Appeals. the circuit clerk of the county in which said lands shall lie, within twenty days after said report shall have been filed in the clerk's office of said court, and such appeal shall be tried in the same manner as other issues are tried in said court; and the jury empaneled to try the same shall find the value of the land, so taken or required by said company, and the damages which the owner or owners thereof shall have sustained or may sustain, by the taking of the same, over and above the benefits which will accrue to such owner or owners from the construction of such railroad; and the judgment of the court shall be entered for the actual damages sustained. Such appeal shall be taken by giving notice thereof to the clerk of the said court, in writing; and thereupon the clerk shall enter the same upon the docket of said court, setting down the railroad company as defendant and the said claimant or claimants as plaintiff:

Provided, also, that it shall not be lawful for the said commissioners or the said court to proceed in the assessment of damages, or in the valuation of lands or materials, as aforesaid, in the absence of the owner or owners thereof, his, her or their agents or attorneys, unless it shall be shown to them, by competent testimony, that the said owner or owners are non-residents or are absent from the state of Illinois, or that the said owner or owners have had at least five days' notice, in writing, of the time and place at which such assessment or valuation was to be made—which notice shall be served at their last or usual place of residence, with some person of suitable age and discretion; and if the said owner or owners shall be minors or non compos mentis, the service of the notice may be made on their guardian or trustee, if there be any, or in such manner as the court or judge appointing said commissioners shall direct; and if said owner or owners shall be non-resident or absent from the state, or his residence unknown, the service of the notice may be made by publishing the same in a newspaper, in said county, for two successive weeks: Provided, Proviso also, that upon the making and filing of any report, as aforesaid, and the payment or tender of the amount of any valuation or appraisal, specified therein, to the owner or owners of any such lands, his, her or their legal representatives, or on the payment of the amount of such valuation or appraisal to the clerk of the court, to which any appeal under this act may have been taken, to abide the issue of such appeal, the said company, their agents, or the contractors for making or repairing said railroad, may immediately take and use the same, without awaiting the issue of any appeal brought thereon. Whenever any judgment shall have been entered, as hereinbefore provided, for the value of any lands, or for any damages for the taking and using of the same, and the amount specified in such judgment shall have been paid or tendered to the owner or owners of such lands, his, her or their legal representatives, on the payment of the amount specified in such judgment or in such report of the commissioners to the clerk of the court to which any appeal under this act may have been taken, the said company shall be entitled to the said lands in fee; and if such valuation be not received, when tendered, it may at any time thereafter be received or may be collected from said company, without interest, by action at law, at the cost and expense of the person or persons entitled to the same: Provided, such valuation shall not have been paid to the clerk of the court in which such appeal may have been taken: And, provided, that the costs of any proceedings and judgments, specified in this act, shall be taxed by the court and paid by the said company, except in cases where, upon appeal, the verdict of the jury shall be for the same, or a less sum than that reported by the said commissioners.

Proviso.

Possession of lands.

§ 3. The said company, and under their direction, their agents, servants and workmen, are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into and upon the lands and grounds of and belonging to the state, or to any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, and survey and take levels of the same or any part thereof, and to lot out and ascertain such parts as they may deem necessary and proper for making said railroad, with one or more tracks; and for all the purposes connected with said railroad, to take and appropriate any lands, to fell and cut down all timber and other trees standing or being within seventy-five feet on each side of said railroad—the damage occasioned by the felling of said trees, unless otherwise settled, to be paid in the manner hereinbefore provided for damages for lands taken for the use of said railroad company; and, also, to make, build, erect and set up, in and upon the route of said railroad, or upon the land adjoining the same, all such works, ways, roads and conveyances as may be required for the purposes of said railroad; also, from time to time, to alter, repair, widen, amend or enlarge the same, as deemed necessary by said company—the said company doing as little damage as possible in the exercise of said powers hereby granted, and making satisfaction, in the manner hereinbefore mentioned, for all damages to be sustained by the owners or occupiers of the said lands.

Subscription.

§ 4. The said corporation are hereby further authorized to receive any subscriptions, donations or gifts to the capital stock of said company, either in money, lands, labor, materials, cars, locomotives or other articles, personal or real, adapted to the construction or operation of said railroad, or any property that, in the opinion of the board of directors, may be exchanged or converted to such use, and upon receiving full payment, in manner aforesaid, of any such subscription of stock, may issue to such subscriber or subscribers certificates of stock therefor.

§ 5. The several counties in which any part of said railroad has or may hereafter be located, or that may lie on or near the line of said road, and the several townships in said counties which have adopted or may hereafter adopt township organization, and the cities and incorporated towns in said counties, are hereby authorized to subscribe and take stock in said company.

§ 6. Elections may be held in any such county, township, city or incorporated town upon the question whether such county, township, city or town shall subscribe for any specified amount of stock of said company, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars; and elections shall be held in any such county, township, city or town as often as a petition shall be presented, as hereinafter specified, until such county, township, city or town shall have subscribed for the full amount of stock authorized by this act.

§ 7. Whenever a petition shall be presented to the county clerk, signed by fifty legal voters of any such county, setting forth the amount of stock proposed to be taken by any such county, and specifying the time for holding such an election, it shall be the duty of the county clerk of such county to give ten days' notice of the time of holding such election, which shall be the same time as that specified in such petition; and whenever a petition shall be presented to the supervisor of any such township, or to the corporate authorities of any such city or town, signed by twenty-five legal voters of any such township, city or town, setting forth the amount of stock proposed to be taken by any such township, city or town, and specifying the time for holding such election, it shall be the duty of the supervisor of every such township and the duty of the clerk of every such city or town to give ten days' notice of the time of holding such election in such township, city or town, which shall be the same time as that specified in such petition—which said notice or notices shall be given in the same manner, and such election or elections shall be conducted in the same mode and at the places provided for holding general elections in such counties, townships, cities and towns; at which election or elections the qualified voters of the respective counties, townships, cities and towns shall vote "For subscription," or "Against subscription;" and the returns of such election or elections shall be made to the county clerk, in the same manner and within the same time, and shall be by him opened and declared in the same manner as for elections held for state and county officers; and if a majority of the votes cast at such election, by voters voting on that subject, shall be "For subscription," it shall be the duty of the county court or board of supervisors of every such

§ 8. It shall be the duty of the respective authorities of the several counties, townships, cities and towns which may vote such subscription and they are hereby required to levy and collect a sufficient special tax on all the taxable property, both real and personal, in such counties, townships, cities and towns, to pay the interest annually accruing on such bonds, and to liquidate the principal of said bonds within the time specified in the same for their payment; and this provision shall apply as well to any vote taken by any county, township, city or town on the line of said railroad, for taking stock in the same, previous to the passage of this act, as for stock taken under the provisions of this act. Said tax shall be levied on the assessments made by the assessors of their respective counties, townships, cities and towns, as provided by the revenue laws of this state for assessing property, and shall be extended on the collector's books of such county, township, city or town as a special railroad tax, and collected by the respective collectors of such counties, townships, cities and towns at the same time and in the same manner as provided by law for collecting state and county tax; which said tax shall be paid by the respective collectors to the county treasurer of the county in which the tax is collected, deducting therefrom one per cent., only, for collecting; and the said county treasurers shall be respectively liable, on their bonds, for the faithful application of said tax to the payment of the interest and principal of the bonds for which said tax was president, with the consent and approval of the board of directors or a majority of them; and power to purchase, contract for and place on the said railroad, heretofore and hereby authorized to be constructed, all machines, machinery, rolling stock and other property which they may deem necessary and proper for building or operating said railroad; and power to transport or carry upon said railroad, by force and power of steam, animals or any combination of them; and may fix, establish take and receive such rates of toll, for all passengers and property conveyed or transported upon the same, as the directors shall from time to time establish; and shall carry and transport the mails of the United States on such terms as may be agreed upon.

Stock.

§ 12. The stock of said company shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued, certified, transferred and registered in such manner and at such places as may be ordered and provided by the board of directors, who shall have power to require the payment of stock subscribed in the manner and at the time and in such sums as they may direct; and on the refusal or neglect, on the part of the stockholders or any of them, to make payment on the requisition of the board of directors, the shares of stock delinquent or so unpaid may, at the option of the said board of directors, after thirty days' public notice, be sold at public auction, under such rules as the directors may adopt, the surplus money, if any, remaining, after deducting the payment due, with interest and cost of sale, to be paid to the delinquent stockholder.

Connections.

§ 13. Said company shall have power to consolidate and connect its railroad with any other continuous line of railroad now constructed or which may be hereafter constructed, either in this state or in the state of Indiana, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the companies so connecting or uniting; and for that purpose full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the object of said consolidation or connection.

Indebtedness.

§ 14. Said railroad company are hereby authorized to borrow money, from time to time, on the credit of said company, at any rate of interest, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, as may be agreed upon between the parties, for the sole purpose of constructing said road and furnishing the same with cars, locomotives and other machinery necessary to carry on the operations of said company, and may issue its corporate bonds therefor in denominations of not less than five hundred dollars, with coupons attached for the interest; and to secure the payment thereof, with the interest that may accrue thereon, may mortgage their corporate property or franchises or both, or may convey the same by deed of trust for said purpose. And they may, by their president or other officers or agents, sell, dispose of or negotiate such bonds or the stock of said company at such times and places, either within or without this state, and at such rates, and for such prices, as, in their opinion, will best advance the interests of said company; and if such bonds or stocks are sold at a discount, such sale shall be as valid and binding, in every respect, as if sold at par value: Provided, that the total amount of first mortgage bonds of said company shall not exceed, in amount, the sum of twelve thousand dollars per mile of the said railroad constructed or to be constructed.

§ 15. The directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bonds, issued for money borrowed as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into the capital stock of said company, at any time not exceeding ten years from the date of the bond, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt. Conversion of
ital stock.

§ 17. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by the board of directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a legal quorum for the transaction of all business; and they shall have power to appoint such other officers, agents or servants as they may deem necessary. Vacancies in the board may be filled by a majority of those remaining—such appointees to continue in office until the successors of the then board shall be qualified. The annual election of directors shall be held on the second Tuesday in January, in each year, at such place as the directors may direct—twenty days' notice being given by publication in one or more newspapers on or near the line of said road: Provided, that the present board of directors and officers, consisting of John Schofield, Samuel W. Quinn, J. F. Alexander, Frederick Remann, William S. Smith, William S. Wait, Henry Weinheimer, Joshua S. Peers and J. P. M. Howard, directors; J. P. M. Howard, president; Williamson Plant, secretary; and Wm. S. Smith, treasurer, (whose election, qualification and acts, as well as those of the preceding board, are hereby legalized,) shall hold their respective offices until their successors are chosen and qualified. And said board of directors shall have power to change its president, secretary or treasurer at pleasure, at any regular or special meeting of the board: Provided, a majority of the nine directors vote for such change. Vacancies in the board may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining, at any regular meeting of the board, or at any special meeting called for the purpose.
Term of office.	§ 4. The within named directors shall within ninety days after their organization, give at least thirty days' notice of the time and places, along the line of said road, where books will be opened for the purpose of procuring subscriptions to the capital stock of said company; and said directors shall continue to receive subscriptions, either personally or by such agents as they shall appoint for that purpose, until the sum of one hundred thousand dollars is subscribed, and five per cent. paid thereon. Said directors or their successors may proceed, by their engineers to survey, locate and construct said railroad as prescribed by the act concerning the right of way, approved March 3, 1845, in the Revised Statutes of the state of Illinois. Certificates of stock shall be signed by the president, and countersigned by the secretary and treasurer of said company, each of whom shall keep a fair record of the same, which shall be subject to the inspection of any stockholder.

conducted by three judges, selected by the stockholders present. No stockholder shall be allowed to vote at any election, after the first, for any stock which may have been assigned to him within thirty days previous to said election, or upon any stock upon which there is any due and unpaid installments.

§ 6. If any board of directors fail or refuse to give notice of the time herein specified for the annual election of directors, then any five stockholders may, in writing, require the secretary to give thirty days' notice, and it shall be his duty to give said thirty days' notice, so required, for any election of directors; and at the expiration of the time the stockholders present shall proceed and elect directors as herein provided for the election of directors; and the directors so elected shall constitute the legal board.

§ 7. The general offices of the company shall be located in the city of Shelbyville, Illinois, where all the books of record shall be kept, and the general business of the company shall be transacted. Said offices may be located at the city of Saint Louis, Missouri, by the action of two-thirds of the directors, at the annual meeting or at any special meeting of the said board of directors, called for the purpose of determining the location of said offices. There shall be kept at the secretary's office in the city of Shelbyville, a full record of the name and residence of each stockholder, and the number of shares held by each. Said record shall at all times, during business hours, be subject to the inspection of any stockholder.

§ 8. The several counties, cities, villages, incorporated towns, and the several townships in counties having township organization, through or near which the said road shall be located, are hereby authorized to raise money, by a tax to be levied upon all the real and personal property in the said several counties, cities, villages, incorporated towns and townships, and to subscribe the same to the capital stock of said corporation hereby created, for the purpose of aiding in the construction and completion of said road; and the said several counties, cities, villages, incorporated towns and townships, as aforesaid, are further authorized to issue bonds, drawing interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum; which said bonds shall be negotiable and payable in the city of New York, in not less than one nor more than ten years after the date of the same: Provided, that no subscription shall be made or no tax shall be levied until the same shall be voted for as hereinafter provided.

§ 9. Whenever twenty-five voters of any such county, city, village, town or township shall make a written application to the county clerk of such county, or twenty-five voters of any such city, incorporated village or town or township shall make such application to the clerk thereof, requiring an election, by the legal voters of such county, city, village or town or township, to determine whether such subscription shall be made and such tax levied, specifying in such application the amount, such clerk shall file such application in his office, and immediately give the notice, as required by law, for an election to be held by the legal voters of such county, city, village or town or township, at the usual places for holding elections; and such election shall be held and conducted in all respects, and the return thereof made, as in case of annual elections.

Issue bonds.

§ 10. If the majority of voters, voting at such election, shall be in favor of such subscription, and tax for the payment thereof, then such county, city, incorporated village or town or township, by its proper corporate authority, shall levy such tax, and subscribe to such corporation the amount thereof to be determined or voted for at any such election, and shall issue to said corporation their bonds for such amount, drawing ten per cent. interest per annum, and payable in not less than one nor more than ten years. The said bonds, when issued, are to be irrevocable, and negotiable and payable as in section 8, as aforesaid.

Who shall represent the corporation in elections.

§ 11. If any county, city, village or town or township shall subscribe to said capital stock, under the provisions of this act, and shall issue their bonds, said bonds shall be in full payment of their said subscriptions; and the supervisors of said townships or county court of such county and the corporate authority of such city, village or town, shall, annually, appoint some suitable person to represent and vote upon the stock so subscribed and levied, as aforesaid.

Charter forfeited.

§ 12. The said company shall be allowed three years from the passage of this act for the commencement of said railroad; and in case at least thirty miles of the same shall not be completed in ten years thereafter, the privilege granted herein shall be forfeited.

Union with other roads.

§ 13. Said company shall have power to unite its railroad, in whole or in part, with any other railroad or railroads now constructed or which may hereafter be constructed in this state, coming in contact therewith, and to grant to any such company or companies the right to use the whole or any portion of said line of road hereby authorized to be constructed, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed between the said company or companies.

Mortgages.

§ 14. Said company are hereby authorized to take and receive, from the several subscribers to the capital stock, mortgages on real estate for and in payment of the full amount of the said subscriptions; which mortgages may bear interest at the rate of ten per cent., annually, and be payable at such time as said directors and said subscribers shall agree.

Capital stock.

§ 15. The capital stock of said company shall consist of two millions of dollars, and may be increased to six millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of fifty dollars each.

§ 16. That said railroad company, by this act incorporated, shall have power to borrow money, on the credit of the company, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, at a rate of interest to be agreed upon per annum, payable semi-annually, and may execute bonds therefor, with interest coupons thereto attached or annexed, and secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust on the whole or any part thereof of the said road, property and income of the company then existing or thereafter to be acquired; and may annex to such mortgage bonds the privilege of converting the same into the capital stock of the company, at par, at the option of the holders, if such election be signified in writing to the company three years before the maturity of said bonds.

Borrow money.

Interest.

§ 17. That the directors of said company be and they are hereby authorized to negotiate and sell the bonds of the said company at such times and in such places either within or without this state, and at such rates and for such prices as, in their opinion, will best advance the interests of the company; and if such bonds are thus negotiated or sold at a discount, below their par value, such sale and disposition thereof shall be as valid and binding on the company, in every respect, as if they were sold or disposed of at their par value.

Negotiation of bonds—sale of.

§ 18. That the said company, in securing the payment of said bonds by a mortgage or deed of trust on the road, property and income of the company, shall have power to execute a mortgage or deed of trust aforesaid to receive the payment of the full amount of bonds and interest which the company may, at the time said deed of trust or mortgage bears date, or at any time thereafter, desire to sell and dispose of; and may execute and sell, from time to time, such amounts of said bonds and of such dates, and payable to such person or persons, as to the directors of said company may seem advisable, till the whole amount of bonds mentioned in such mortgage or deed of trust is executed and sold; and the said mortgage or deed of trust shall be as valid and effectual to secure the payment of the bonds so executed and sold, and of every part thereof, as if the same and every part thereof had been executed of even date with the said deed of trust or mortgage.

Security for payment.

Sales of bonds.

§ 19. The preliminary acts in organizing the Shelbyville, Sullivan and Tolono Railroad Company, contemplating the organization of the road herein incorporated, be and the same are hereby legalized by this act of incorporation of the St. Louis, Shelbyville and Tolono Railroad.

their successors, be and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name of "The Wyanet and Pond Creek Railway and Carrying Company," for the term of thirty years, with all the powers and authority incident to corporations for the purposes hereinafter mentioned.

§ 2. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct, maintain and operate a single or double track railway, with all the necessary and convenient tracks for turn-outs, side-tracks and appendages, in the town and corporation of Wyanet, in the county of Bureau, in the state of Illinois, and in, on, over and along such street or streets, highway or highways, between the stations of Wyanet and Pond Creek, as may be necessary for the construction, operation and maintenance of said railway.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be ten thousand dollars, and may be increased, from time to time, as the same may become necessary, and at the pleasure of said corporation. It shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shares shall be issued and transferred in such manner and upon such conditions as the board of directors of said corporation may direct.

§ 4. All the corporate powers of said corporation shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors and such officers and agents as said board of directors shall appoint. The first board of directors shall consist of David T. Nichols, Franklin Crittenden and Carmi C. Royce, and thereafter of not less than three or more than five stockholders, who shall be chosen each and every year by the stockholders, at such time and in such manner as the said corporation shall by its laws and regulations provide. The said directors shall hold their offices until their successors are elected and qualified, and may fill any vacancies which may happen in such board of directors, by death, resignation or otherwise; they may also adopt such by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of said corporation and the management of its affairs and business as they may think proper, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act or the laws of this state.

§ 5. To enable said corporation to construct said railway, with all the necessary appendages, the said corporation is authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as in their opinion may be deemed necessary to aid the construction of said railway, and to pay any interest therefor, not exceeding the rate of ten per cent. per annum, and to pledge and mortgage the said railway and its appurtenances and appendages, or any part thereof, or any other property or effects, rights or credits or appendages of said company, as securities for any loan of money and interest thereon, and to dispose of the bonds issued for such loan at such rates or on such terms as the board of directors may determine.

ed with all the powers and immunities and franchises of receiving and disposing of real and personal estate which may be needful in carrying fully into effect the purposes and objects of this act; and said company are hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct, furnish, maintain and operate a railroad from Pekin in the county of Tazewell; thence to Lincoln, in the county of Logan, and thence to Decatur, in the county of Macon, with one or more tracks or lines of rails, and with all necessary sidetracks, turn-outs, switches, depots, stations and other necessary buildings, erections and structures. Said company shall commence the construction of said railroad in good faith within five (5) years, and shall complete the same within ten (10) years; and said railroad shall be constructed so as to pass within one-half mile of the town of Mt. Pulas-ki, in Logan county.

leges, etc.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall consist of three (3) millions of dollars, and may be increased, from time to time, by a vote of a majority in interest of the stockholders, at their annual meeting, or at any special meeting that may be called for that purpose, to any sum not exceeding five (5) millions of dollars; which stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. Said stock shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued, certified, registered and transferred in such manner as may be prescribed by the board of directors.

Capital stock.

§ 3. All the corporate powers of said company and its immediate government and direction shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to consist of seven (7) members, and such officers, agents and servants as they may appoint. Said directors shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company, and shall hold their office for one year from and after their election, and until others shall be duly elected and qualified to take their places as directors. Vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining—such appointees to hold their office until the next annual election of directors. No person shall be a director who shall not be a stockholder, and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he shall hold, upon which all calls have been paid. A majority of said directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, and shall elect one of their number to be president of said company, and shall have power to appoint or elect such other officers as they shall deem proper. Annual elections for the election of directors of said company shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company, thirty days' notice being given of the time and place of holding such election, by publication thereof in one newspaper published in each of the cities of Pekin, Lincoln and Decatur.

Directors—
duties of.

Right to establish road.

§ 4. Said company shall have the right to lay out and establish their railroad, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, through the entire line thereof; and it shall be lawful for said company, their officers, engineers and agents, to enter upon any land for the purpose of exploring, surveying and locating the routes of said road, doing thereto no unnecessary damage; and when said route shall be determined, it shall be lawful for them, their agents, officers, engineers and contractors and servants, at any time to enter upon, take possession of and use such lands, not exceeding one hundred feet in width, along the line of said route, subject, however, to the payment of such compensation as the company may have agreed to pay therefor, or such as shall be ascertained in the manner hereinafter provided. And for the purpose of cutting and making embankments, obtaining stone, sand, gravel or other materials necessary for building, ballasting or repairing said road, said company may take and appropriate so much more land, on either side of said road, as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said railroad; and for the purpose of constructing shops, depots, side-tracks, turn-outs and other suitable and convenient fixtures, as appurtenances to said railroad, the said company may take, have, use and occupy any lands on either side of said railroad, not exceeding two hundred (200) feet in width—said company taking all such lands by gift or purchase or making satisfaction for the same in the manner hereinafter provided. Said company shall have power to construct their road across the track of any other railroad whenever they deem it expedient to do so, anything in the laws or charter of any railroad to the contrary notwithstanding; or across any stream of water, road or highway or the route of said road: Provided, the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, road or highway, thus intersected or crossed, to its former state or in a sufficient manner not to impair its usefulness.

Possession of lands, etc.

§ 5. If said company can not agree with the owners of lands which it may be necessary to take for the purposes aforesaid, so as to procure the same by deed or the voluntary act of such owners, or if the owner be an infant, non compos mentis, unknown or not a resident of the county in which the land desired may be situated, the said company are authorized and empowered to take, condemn and use the same, under the provisions of "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for the purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852, and all acts amendatory thereof, or any laws which may be in force for that purpose at the time of any application for such condemnation.

Right of way.

§ 6. The right of way and the real estate for the right of way and for the purposes aforesaid, purchased or acquired by said company, whether by agreement or otherwise, or which may become the property of the company by operation of law, shall, upon the payment of the money agreed or adjudged to be paid to the owner or owners of said land as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

§ 7. Said company is hereby authorized and empowered from time to time, to borrow such sums of money, not exceeding the capital stock of said company, as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, furnishing, operating and maintaining their said railroad; and for such purposes to issue and dispose of the bonds of the company at such rate of interest and at such discount as may be thought for benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property or income or franchises, or to convey the same by deed or trust to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company, for the purposes aforesaid; and any such bonds as may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold or disposed of for the par value thereof. In debt'dness.

§ 8. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who or a majority of them, after a meeting duly called by thirty days' notice in some public newspaper published in each of the three cities of Pekin, Lincoln and Decatur, to be held at Lincoln, shall meet and proceed to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company—ten (10) dollars for each share subscribed to be paid on subscribing. Whenever twenty-five (25) thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, the subscribers may organize said corporation and proceed to the election of directors; and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver the said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books and to fill up the capital stock of said company, or any part thereof, at such time as they may deem expedient; and all installments required to be paid on the stock originally subscribed, or that may be taken to increase said capital, shall be paid at such time and in such amounts as said directors may prescribe. hereby authorized to subscribe to the capital stock of said company in like manner and with like effect as is provided in the act referred to and the acts amendatory thereof: Provided, that the aggregate subscription made by the county of Tazewell and its cities, towns or townships shall not be less than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, nor more than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars; and that of Logan county, and its cities, towns or townships, shall not be less than two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, nor more than three hundred and fifty thousand dollars, and that of Macon county and its cities, towns or townships, shall not be less than one hundred thousand dollars, nor more than two hundred thousand dollars.

To be decided by elections.

§ 10. No such subscription shall be made until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of the county, city, town or township by which the subscription is proposed to be made; and elections may be held therein, as hereinafter provided, on the question whether such county, city, town or township shall subscribe for any specific amount, in shares, of the capital stock of said company. Twenty (20) days' notice shall be given of the time of holding such election, and such election shall be conducted in the mode prescribed in the act entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporation," approved November 5, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof, or in the mode prescribed in any other general law relating to such elections, or in the mode in which such county, city, town or township elections are usually conducted: Provided, however, that no new registry of voters shall be required to be made previous to any such election, but the registry made at the last general election, immediately preceding such election, shall be held and deemed to apply to such election, with a saving of the right to vote at such election to any and all persons who may have acquired such right, since the said last general election, under the general laws of this state or under the charters of any such city or town.

Time and place

§ 11. Whenever said railroad company shall become organized by the election of a board of directors, it shall be and is hereby made the duty of the county court or board of supervisors (as the case may be) of each of the said counties of Tazewell, Logan and Macon, upon the application, in writing of said board of directors, to order the board of directors, to order the holding of an election in their proper counties, upon some day to be named in said application, within a reasonable time from the time of making such application, for the purpose of determining whether said counties will or will not subscribe stock to said company—the amount of the subscription to said stock to be voted on in each county to be determined by said board of directors, and to be named in the application so to be made by them, and which amount shall be within the limits mentioned in the tenth section of this act.

§ 12. Should the voters of any or all of said counties, at such election, refuse to vote in favor of such subscription, the said board of directors, by a petition, signed by at least two hundred legal voters of said county, presented to the county court or board of supervisors thereof, may require said county court or board of supervisors to submit the same proposition to the voters of any of said counties, at any subsequent general election or county election to be held in such county: Provided, such petition shall be presented to the said county court or board of supervisors at least forty days before the time for holding such election; or if no general or county election shall be impending within six months from the time of making such application, then to require said county court or board of supervisors to order a special election, as in the 11th section of this act provided. The said board of directors, upon the petition of fifty citizens of any city, town or township in either of the counties aforesaid, may also require the corporate authorities of any such city, town or township, and it shall be their duty, upon such petition, to order the holding of an election in such city, town or township, upon some day not more than thirty days from the time at which such application shall be made to them, for the purpose of determining whether such city, town or township, will or will not subscribe stock to said company—the amount of the subscription to be voted on at any such election to be named in the application so to be made to them, and which amount shall be within the limits mentioned in the tenth section of this act: Provided, however, that no more than two such elections shall be held in any one city, town or township in any one year; and one of which must be in conjunction with and at a regular election in such city, town or township.

Refusal to subscribe to stock.

No. of elections to be held in each town.

§ 13. If it shall appear that a majority of all the voters, voting at any such election as may be held under this act, have voted "For subscription," it shall be the duty of the county court or board of supervisors of each county so voting, and of the corporate authorities of any such city, town or township so voting, to subscribe, without unnecessary delay, upon the request of said company, through their president or treasurer, for shares of said capital stock to the amount so voted by such county, city, town or township, and to deliver and issue to the president or treasurer of said company, without unnecessary delay, the same amount as the stock so subscribed of the bonds of such county, city, town or township, payable at such time specified therein, not exceeding twenty (20) years from their date, with coupons bearing interest at a rate not exceeding ten (10) per cent. per annum, payable annually; which bonds and coupons shall be made payable at any place within or without this state, as said company may request. Said bonds shall be attested by the clerk of each county, city, town or township so issuing them, and it shall be the duty of such clerk to make a record of the issuing of said bonds: Provided, however, that it shall not be the duty, but shall be at the option of the county authorities of either of said three counties to issue and deliver its said bonds, or to levy any tax to pay the interest thereon, so long as any two of said counties have failed or refused to vote to subscribe to the capital stock of said company, in the aggregate, to the amount or within the limits prescribed in the tenth section of this act.

§ 14. The money realized by or from the bonds of any county or of any city, town or township thereof becoming a subscriber to the capital stock of said company, shall be expended upon the work upon the road in such county so subscribing, or in which any such city, town or township so subscribing shall be situated, unless there should be an overplus left, after finishing the work of grading and bridging the road in such county; then and in that case said overplus may be expended upon the work on the road in either or both of the other of said counties.

Tax.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the respective authorities of the several counties, cities, towns and townships which may have subscribed stock and issued bonds to said company to levy and collect a sufficient special tax, on all the taxable property, both real and personal, in such counties, cities, towns and townships, to pay the interest annually accruing on such bonds. Said tax shall be levied on the assessments made by the assessors of their respective counties, cities, towns and townships as provided by the revenue laws of this state for assessing property, and shall be extended on the collector's books of such county, city, town or township as a special railroad tax, and shall be collected by the respective collectors of such counties and townships at the same time and in the same manner as provided by law for collecting state and county taxes; and shall be levied and collected by the respective authorities of such cities and towns in the same manner and at the same time as other city or town taxes are levied and collected, in and for such cities and towns. The corporate authorities of the cent. to be levied for any year, before the time required by law for said clerk to extend state and county taxes, then it shall be the duty of said clerk to extend such tax for such year at any rate, not less than twenty-five per cent. and not greater than fifty per cent. more than the rate levied as a special railroad tax, for the year immediately previous thereto: And, provided, also, that should such authorities fail to certify the rate per cent. to be levied, for the first year, that said taxes ought or should be levied, under this act, it shall be the duty of said clerk to extend such tax for said year at the rate of one per centum.

§ 16. All special railroad taxes, which shall or may be collected by the respective county or township collectors, shall be annually paid by them to the county treasurer of the county in which the tax is collected, deducting therefrom a commission of one and one-half per centum, only, for collecting; and it shall be the duty of said county treasurer to pay out the amount due upon each of said county bonds, as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, and upon each of the township bonds which may be issued, under this act, by any township in his said county, as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, upon presentation of the coupons, either at his office or at the place where the same are made specifically payable. He shall, also, keep an account with each township of all money received by him and paid out on account of said township, which account, as well as his books, papers and vouchers, showing his receipts and disbursements, both for said county and any township therein, shall at all times be open to inspection by all persons wishing to examine the same. Said county treasurers and collectors shall be respectively liable, on their bonds, for the faithful application of said taxes to the payment of the interest of the bonds for which said taxes were levied and collected to pay, and shall receive therefor, in full compensation, a compensation of one per centum, only, on the amount so paid. Said county treasurers shall make a report annually, or oftener if required, to the county court or board of supervisors, showing the amount so paid to them, for the previous year, by the county or township collectors, as railroad tax, both for county and township purposes; and shall render to them, whenever required, a full, accurate and just account of his disbursements under this act.

Annual exhibit of condition.

§ 17. All special railroad taxes which shall or may be collected, under and by virtue of this act, by the collector of any city or incorporated town, shall be annually paid by such collector to the treasurer of such city or town, deducting therefrom a commission of one and one-half per centum, only, for collecting; and it shall be the duty of such city or town treasurer to pay out the amount due upon each of the bonds of such city or town, as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, upon presentation of the coupons at his office or at the place where the same were made specifically payable. He shall keep an account with said city or town of all money received by him, under this act; which account, as well as all his books and papers, and vouchers, showing his receipts and disbursements, shall at all times be open to the inspection of any person wishing to examine the same. He shall make report to the said city or town authorities, and shall be liable on his official bond for the faithful performance of his duties, under this act, in the same manner as prescribed in the previous section of this act in regard to county treasurers; and shall receive, as a compensation for paying out moneys under this act, one per centum on the amount paid out, and no more.

Elections.

§ 18. In case any of the counties herein named, or any cities, towns or townships therein, shall subscribe stock to said company as hereinbefore provided, it shall and may be lawful for such counties, cities, towns or townships to vote at any and all elections for directors, and upon any and all other questions upon which, under this charter, the stockholders of said company may be entitled to vote—casting such vote in such manner and under such regulations as the said corporate authorities of any such county, city, town or township, from time to time, by resolution, to be entered upon their official records, may prescribe and determine for themselves.

Power to lease railroad.

§ 19. Said company shall have power and it is hereby authorized to lease, for a term of years, its said railroad or any part thereof, or their railroad franchises, real or personal property, to any company or companies which may have been or may hereafter be incorporated, or to any party or parties, and to grant to any such company or companies, party or parties, the right to construct and use any portion of said line of road hereby authorized to be constructed upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the contracting parties: Provided, however, that no railroad company whose line of road shall cross or intersect the road of the Pekin, Lincoln and Decatur Railroad Company shall ever, directly or indirectly, nor shall any person or persons in trust for any such company, become stockholders or bondholders in the company hereby created; nor shall it be lawful for said company to consolidate its line of road or corporate franchises with that of any other railroad company whatsoever.

Consolidation

ing the same, and of a right of way to said material, the said company be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to take, condemn and use the same, under the provisions of an act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement, approved June 22, 1852.

§ 5. Said company shall have power to unite, connect or consolidate its railroad with any other railroad constructed or which may hereafter be constructed in this state, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so uniting, connecting or consolidating; and, for that purpose, full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of such connection or consolidation; and the said corporation may furthermore lease or purchase, upon such terms as may be agreed upon, any other road or parts of road, either wholly or partially constructed, which may constitute or be adopted as part of their main line; and, by such lease or purchase, they shall acquire and become vested with all the rights and franchises pertaining to such road or part of road, so leased or purchased, in the right of way, construction, maintenance and working thereof. Provided, said corporation hereby created shall never consolidate or connect with any other railroad company except a continuous line.

§ 6. The said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, furnishing, operating and maintaining their said railroad; and to issue and dispose of the bonds at such rate of interest and at such discount as may be thought for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid; and the directors of said company may confer on any bondholder of any bond issued for money borrowed, as aforesaid, the right to convert the principal due or owing thereon into stock of said company, at any time, and may, further authorize the holder of any such bond to vote at any and all elections for the election of officers of said corporation, under such regulations as the directors of said company may see fit to adopt; and any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

Indebtedness.

§ 7. All the corporate powers of said company shall be vested in and exercised by a board of directors, to consist of seven members, and such officers, agents and servants as they shall appoint. Vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by a vote of two-thirds of the directors remaining—such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors; which said annual election shall be held at such time and place as may be designated and fixed by the by-laws of said company—thirty days' printed notice being given in two newspapers having circulation along the line of said railroad.

Commissioners
—their duties.

§ 8. The persons named in the first section of this act are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of them, after a meeting, duly called by thirty days' notice thereof in three public newspapers published on or near the route of said road, shall meet and proceed to open books and receive subscriptions to the capital stock of said company. Ten dollars for each share subscribed shall be paid on subscribing; and whenever fifty thousand dollars shall have been subscribed, the subscribers may organize said corporation and proceed to the election of directors; and when the directors of said company are chosen, the said commissioners shall deliver the said subscription books, with all sums of money received by them as commissioners, to said directors. No person shall be a director who shall not be a stockholder, and each stockholder shall be entitled to one vote for each share of stock he shall hold upon which all calls have been paid. The directors of said company, after the same is organized, shall have power to open books to fill up the capital stock of said company, or any part thereof, at such time as they may deem expedient; and all installments required to be paid on the stock originally subscribed, or what may be taken to increase said capital, shall be paid at such time and in such amounts as said directors may prescribe: Provided, that subscriptions of stock may be made to said company in lands, at their cash value at the time of subscription, as may be agreed upon between the subscribers and the directors of said company; such subscriptions to be designated on the books as a land subscription, and to be considered as paid by conveyance of such land to the company: And, provided, also, that owners of land along or near the line of said road may be authorized to subscribe stock, and to secure payment of the same by promissory note and mortgage; such note to draw eight per cent. interest, payable semi-annually from and after the road shall have been completed, through, to or parallel with the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, with the privilege to the maker to discharge the principal at pleasure; such subscription to be designated on the books as a mortgage subscription, and to be free from all calls upon stock. Such subscribers, however, shall have no right to vote as stockholders in said corporation, until interest shall have become payable upon such subscriptions: And, provided, further, that said corporation shall dispose of all lands to which it may acquire title or fee other than such real estate as it may acquire for the use and operations of said road as in this act provided, within five years after the acquisition thereof. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross the track of any other railroad or stream of water, or water course, or road, or highway, on the route of said road, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the railroad, stream of water, water course, road or highway intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in a sufficient manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

§ 9. That the right of way and the real estate for the right of way, and for the purpose aforesaid, purchased or acquired by said company, whether by agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company by operation of law, as in this act provided, shall, upon the payment of the money agreed or adjudged to be paid to the owner or owners of said land, as a compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple.

Other rights conferred.

§ 10. That all the rights, privileges and advantages, with the limitations and restrictions conferred upon the Illinois Central Railroad Company; also, the rights, privileges and advantages, with their limitations, conferred by an act entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof, except as hereinafter qualified, are hereby conferred upon the Jacksonville North-Western and South-Eastern Railway Company. And cities and counties shall be entitled to subscribe for stock in said company, in like manner and with like effect as is provided in the said acts referred to and acts amendatory thereof.

§ 11. To further aid in the construction of said road by said company, any town under township organization, in any county through which the line of said railway may run, may subscribe to the capital stock of said company, in any sum not exceeding fifty thousand dollars.

§ 12. No such subscriptions shall be made until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of the town in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of each of said towns is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition, signed by at least ten citizens who are legal voters and tax-payers of the town for which he is clerk, in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated, to post up notices in at least three of the most public places in said town, which notices shall be posted not less than ten days before the day of holding such election, notifying the legal voters of said town to meet at the usual places of voting, or some other convenient place in said town, for the purpose of voting for or against such subscriptions; but no such vote shall be taken unless at a regular election for town and county officers.

of the supervisor of each of said towns that shall vote for such subscription, to subscribe to the capital stock of said railroad company, in the name of the town for which he is supervisor, the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificates therefor. He shall also execute to said company, in the name of said town, bonds bearing interest not to exceed ten per cent. per annum, which bonds shall run for a term of not less than five nor more than twenty years; and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually; and which bonds shall be attested by the clerk of the town in whose name the bonds are issued, and it shall be his duty to make a record of the issuing of said bonds. Said bonds shall be delivered to the president or secretary of said railroad company, for the use of said company.

town clerk. :

§ 14. It shall be the duty of the clerk of each of said towns in which a vote was given for subscription, within ten days thereafter, to transmit to the county clerk of the county in which said towns are [located], a transcript or statement of the vote given, and the amount voted to be subscribed, and the rate of interest named in the bonds.

Computation
of property.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, annually thereafter, to compute and assess upon all taxable property returned by the assessor of each of said towns which have voted to subscribe a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all bonds issued by the respective towns; which taxes shall be extended upon the collector's books as other taxes are, and shall be collected in the same manner that other taxes are collected, and, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury as county taxes are paid.

§ 16. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of said county to pay out, on the presentation to him of the bonds issued by any town, as aforesaid, the amount due upon each of said bonds, as interest, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, and indorse the payment upon said bonds, or take such voucher as he may prescribe. He shall also keep an account with each town of all money received by him and paid on account of said towns, which account shall, at all times, be opened to inspection by all persons wishing to examine the same.

officers.

§ 17. At all elections for officers, and on all questions voted upon by the stockholders of said company, the supervisors of the town or towns who may subscribe to the stock of said company shall represent and cast the vote which said stock is entitled to.

Provisions
previous acts
this.

§ 18. The provisions of an act entitled "an act supplemental to an act entitled 'An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporation,'" approved November 6, 1849, and also of "An act to facilitate the construction of railroads," approved March 1, 1854, are hereby declared and made applicable to each and every town now incorporated, or that may hereafter be incorporated, situated at either end or near the line of said railway, as it may hereafter be surveyed and located; and the corporate authorities of any such town may order an election or elections to be held in such town, by the legal voters thereof, upon the question whether the town in its corporate capacity will, or will not subscribe to the capital stock of said railway company, any sum not exceeding fifty thousand dollars; and, in case any such election shall be held, the same shall be conducted as the town elections; and if, at any such election, a majority of the voters voting shall be in favor of making such subscription, the provisions of the two acts recited in this section, and also of all other general laws relating to subscriptions by counties or cities to the capital stock of railroad companies, shall apply to and govern the corporate authorities of such town in making such subscriptions, so far as the same is applicable; and in all the subsequent proceedings relating thereto, and the rights of such town against said company, shall be the same, with the like remedies to enforce such rights as the rights and remedies of counties in cases of county subscriptions.

§ 19. The road to be constructed by said company may be divided into two divisions. That portion of the road between Jacksonville and the Illinois Central Railroad shall be designated the first division; and that portion between the Illinois Central Railroad and the Ohio or Wabash river shall be designated the second division; and subscribers, either individual or corporate, to the stock of said company, may designate upon which division of said road such subscriptions shall be applied; and said corporation shall faithfully apply such subscriptions to the division thus designated; but any surplus of stock subscribed for the benefit of said road, remaining after the construction of said division, may be applied by said company in aid of the construction of the other division; and said corporation is authorized and empowered to locate, construct and operate said railway in and through either one of said divisions only, without so locating, constructing and operating through the other division, as said corporation may determine, and, for that purpose, shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities granted by this act.

§ 20. Any railroad company with whose road the aforesaid road may intersect or connect, is hereby authorized and empowered to subscribe to the capital stock of this company any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, and shall have the same rights, privileges and powers as other stockholders in this company, and shall be subject to the same conditions, restrictions and limitations as other stockholders therein.

§ 21. No stockholder, whether corporate or natural person, shall be otherwise liable upon his, her or their subscription of stock, than for the amount of their respective subscriptions of stock to said company, and according to the calls of the directors, as hereinbefore provided.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

In force April 28, 1867. AN ACT to amend an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Northern Railway Company."

Section 2 of act approved Feb. 15, 1865, amended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, Section two of an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Northern Railway Company," approved February 15, 1865, is hereby amended so as read as follows: "The said corporation shall have power and is hereby authorized to locate, construct, maintain and operate a railroad, from the city of Chicago, northwesterly, to such point on the state line, between the states of Wisconsin and Illinois, as may be found most eligible for connection with the Western Union Railroad or other railroads in Wisconsin, already constructed or which may hereafter be constructed; and which connecting road may be independent of any other direct route to Chicago: Provided, that said Northern Railway Company, its successor or successors, shall locate and construct said railroad upon the most direct practicable air line between the city of Chicago and the said point upon the state line, between the states of Wisconsin and Illinois, which may be fixed upon by said company, and that said railroad, when located and constructed, shall cross Fox river in the town of Goodale, in Lake county, at or near the crossing known as Nippersink Crossing.

Consolidation of capital stock.

"§ 2. The said corporation shall have the right and is hereby empowered to consolidate its capital stock, rights, franchises and property with the capital stock, rights, franchises and property, of the Western Union Railroad Company of Wisconsin, or its successors, or with the capital stock, rights, franchises and property of any other connecting railroad, excepting any corporation which shall already possess and control a line connecting with the city of Chicago, from the northwest. Said corporation may sell or lease its road in like manner with all its rights, franchises and property, and may become the purchaser or lessor of such connecting road with which it is empowered to consolidate, and shall have power in such consolidation, sale or purchase, as is hereby authorized, to form a new company, under a new name, as may be agreed upon, which new company shall have all the powers of each of the consolidated companies. The first board of directors shall be chosen as the directors of the companies consolidating their capital stock shall direct and agree; and all subsequent boards, to be elected as herein provided for or as shall be provided by the by-laws of said company; but no consolidation shall be legal nor the sale or transfer of the permanent rights and privileges of said company or purchase of or by said company, without the assent of the majority in interest of stock voting in favor of said consolidation, purchase, sale or transfer, at an annual or regularly called meeting of the stockholders, or unless a majority in interest of the stockholders shall first give their written assent thereto: Provided, said Northern Railway Company shall never consolidate, connect, sell, or lease its road, or any part thereof, with or to the North Western Railway or any of its branches, nor shall said Northern Railway ever be sold to any party or parties or company unless said party or parties purchasing shall stipulate and guarantee to build said road.”

taken upon such terms and conditions and be conveyed in such manner as the said boards of supervisors, respectively, and the company may agree upon: And, provided, also, Proviso. that such powers to subscribe for stock on the part of said counties, payable in lands, shall not be restricted in amount or value to one hundred thousand dollars, nor shall such right of subscription in lands in any manner impair the power of said counties to make a money subscription of one hundred thousand dollars to said company, under the provisions of said act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations and acts amendatory thereof: Provided, Proviso. that a land subscription shall not in any way impair the right or derogate from the power to make a money subscription.

§ 11. To further aid in the construction of said road by said company any town, under township organization, in Lake or McHenry counties, Illinois, may subscribe to the capital stock of said company in any sum not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars. Corporation subscription.

§ 12. No such subscription shall be made until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of the town in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of each of said towns is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition signed by at least ten citizens, who are legal voters and tax payers of the town for which he is clerk, in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated, to post up notices in at least three of the most public places in said town, which notices shall be posted up not less than ten days before the time of holding such election, notifying the legal voters of said town to meet at the usual places of voting in said town for the purpose of voting for or against such subscriptions; but no such vote shall be taken unless at a regular election for town or county officers. Subscription determined by vote.

§ 13. If it shall appear that a majority of all the voters have voted "For subscription," it shall be the duty of the supervisor of each of said towns that shall vote for such subscription to subscribe to the capital stock of said railroad company, in the name of the town of which he is supervisor, the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificates therefor; he shall also execute to said company, in the name of said town, bonds bearing interest not to exceed ten per cent. per annum, which bonds shall run for twenty years, and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually, and which bonds shall be attested by the clerk of the town in whose name the bonds are issued, and it shall be his duty to make a record of the issuing of said bonds. Said bonds shall be delivered to the president or secretary of said railroad company, for the use of said company. Duties of supervisors.

town clerk.

§ 14 It shall be the duty of the clerk of each of said towns in which a vote was given for subscription, within ten days thereafter, to transmit to the county clerk of his county a transcript or statement of the vote given, and the amount voted to be subscribed, and the rate of interest named in the bonds.

Assessments.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the county clerk, annually, thereafter, to compute and assess upon all taxable property returned by the assessor of each of said towns which have voted to subscribe, a sufficient sum to pay the interest on all bonds issued by the respective towns in his county; which tax shall be extended upon the collector's books; as other taxes are, and shall be collected in the same manner that other taxes are collected, and, when collected, shall be paid into the county treasury as county taxes are paid.

Duties of county treasurer.

§ 16. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer of each of the several counties hereinbefore named to pay out, on the presentation to him of the bonds issued by any town in his county, as aforesaid, the amount of interest due upon each of said bonds, out of any money in his hands for that purpose, and indorse the payment upon said bonds or take such voucher as he may prescribe. He shall, also, keep an account with each town of all money received by him and paid on account of said towns, which account shall at all times be open to inspection by all persons wishing to examine the same.

§ 17. At all elections of officers and upon all questions voted upon by the stockholders of said company, the supervisor of the town or towns, who may subscribe to the stock of said company, shall represent and cast the vote which said stock is entitled to.

road.

§ 18. The road to be constructed by said company shall be divided into three divisions. That portion of the road between Chicago and the southern line of Lake county shall be designated the first division; and that portion within the boundaries of Lake county shall be designated the second division; and that portion between the western boundary of Lake county and the state line shall be designated the third division. And subscribers, either individual or corporate, to the stock of said company, may designate upon which division of said road such subscription shall be applied; and said corporation shall faithfully apply such subscriptions to the division thus designated; but any surplus of stock subscribed for the benefit of any one section of said road remaining after the construction of said section may be applied by said company in aid of the construction of any other section.

§ 11. The incorporators hereinafter named are hereby appointed commissioners, who, or a majority of whom, are hereby authorized to open subscription books for said capital stock, at such place or places as they may deem proper, and shall give at least twenty days' public notice of times and places when and where such books shall be opened ; and shall keep such books so opened until the sum of fifty thousand dollars of said capital stock shall be subscribed for ; and when the sum of fifty thousand dollars shall have been so subscribed for, the said commissioners shall call a meeting of said stockholders at the city of Aurora, in Kane county, in this state, to choose the first board of directors of said company, by giving twenty days' public notice of the time, place and object of such meeting ; and when such directors are chosen said commissioners shall deliver such subscription books, with all sums of money received by them, as such commissioners, to said directors. At the time and place so appointed for such meeting and election, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall attend and act as inspectors of said election, and the stockholders, by themselves, or a lawful proxy, shall proceed to and elect nine persons to compose said first board of directors, by ballot. Such election shall be determined by a majority of the votes cast, and the said inspectors, or a majority of them, shall certify the result of said election under their hands ; which certificate shall be recorded in the record book of said company, and shall be sufficient evidence, in all places, of such election of the directors therein named. Said first board of directors shall elect a chairman, to preside at their meetings, until they shall elect their president. The several notices required in this section to be given shall be given by publication in some two or more newspapers having circulation in the vicinity of said proposed railroad.

§ 12. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad, to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad, or any railroad, or any road, highway, lane, canal, stream of water or water course lying on the route of said proposed railroad, it shall be lawful for said company to construct their railroad across the same, respectively : Provided, that said company shall restore the same, respectively, thus intersected or crossed, to their former state, or in a sufficient manner so as not materially to impair their usefulness.

§ 13. It shall be lawful for the directors to make calls upon the sums subscribed to said capital stock at such times and in such manner as they shall deem fit, not exceeding ten per cent. per month, or a proportionate per centage for a longer period, giving at least thirty days' notice of each said call, in at least three newspapers published in the vicinity of said road ; and in case of failure of any stockholder to make payment of any such call for sixty days after the same shall have been due, the board of directors are hereby authorized to declare such stock, so in arrears, and all sums paid thereon, forfeited to the company, or said directors may enforce the payment of the whole amount subscribed by such stockholders, according to law.

of election.

§ 14. In case that it shall at any time happen that an election shall not be made at the time when, in pursuance of this act, it ought to be made, the said corporation shall not for that cause be dissolved, but such election shall be held at any other time directed by the by-laws of said corporation.

Time of com-
and completion of road.

§ 15. Said company shall commence the construction of said railroad within five years, and complete the same, as aforesaid, within fifteen years from the passage of this act.

§ 16. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect from and after its passage.

In force Feb'y 25, 1867. AN ACT to enable the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad Company to acquire and hold real estate.

estate, etc.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That it shall be competent and lawful for the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Railroad Company to acquire, either by purchase or in the manner provided in the "Act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvements," approved June 22, 1852, and the acts amendatory thereto, and to hold in fee simple or in the manner prescribed in said act, when acquired there under, any such real estate which may be necessary and convenient for its stations, grounds, depots and other purposes connected with its business at Chicago, and required for the easy and convenient transaction of its passage and freight traffic, and for the easy connection of its trains with other railroads, and for such other purposes, connected with its business, as may require the use and occupancy of real estate; and the title to all such property shall be as good and valid as if the said company were a corporation, organized and doing business under the laws of this state: Provided, however, that the said company shall not, by reason of anything in this act contained, have the right to condemn or use, for right of way or otherwise, any street or alley or part thereof, within the city of Chicago, without first obtaining permission and authority so to do from the common council of said city.

§ 2. This act shall be deemed a public act, and shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 25, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Illinois River Valley Railroad Company.

In force March 11, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Murray McConnell and John W. Wescott, and whoever they may associate with them as corporators, and their successors, are hereby constituted a corporation, under the name and style of "The Illinois River Valley Railroad Company," and shall possess all the powers, privileges, immunities and rights incident to corporations and necessary to carry into effect the purposes and objects of this act. The said company is authorized and empowered to lay out, construct and operate a railroad, at a point on the Illinois river bottom, at or near the Illinois bluff, where the Toledo, Wabash and Western railroad passes the same, south of the Illinois river, to a point on the Mississippi river, opposite the city of St. Louis, in the state of Missouri, or to connect said road with the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad at any point, north of the said terminus, opposite the said city of St. Louis that said company hereby incorporated may deem convenient for their and the public interest and good.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, which may be increased at any time to the actual cost of all the property of said company, including both real and personal, belonging to them, by a vote of the stockholders at any regular meeting of said stockholders. The capital stock of said company shall be divided

§ 3. The persons named as corporators, and those they may select, shall be commissioners to open books of subscription to the stock of said company, at such time and places as they may deem proper, and whenever fifty thousand dollars of said stock may be subscribed, after notice being served on the stockholders, they may elect seven directors for said company, and there shall be an election for directors annually thereafter; and said directors first elected shall frame by-laws for the rules and government of said corporation, and each board of directors shall have power to choose a president for said corporation, vice president, treasurer and secretary, and such other officers as may be necessary to manage the business affairs of said corporation; and said officers shall hold their respective offices until their successors are elected and qualified.

Elections.

§ 4. Said by-laws framed by the first board of directors shall be adopted or rejected by a meeting of the stockholders, and at all meetings or elections each share of stock shall be entitled to one vote, and cast either in person or by proxy. Said by-laws shall provide for all officers or agents, collecting or receiving money belonging to said corporation, to give bond, with good security, for the faithful discharge of duty and the accounting for said money to the board of directors.

officers, etc.

Right of way.

§ 5. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon all land, on the line of said road, from point to point, to determine, by surveys, the most proper and eligible line for said road, and acquire the right of way along said line, either by purchase, gift or grant, a strip of land fifty feet wide, on each side of said line; and, also, in addition, lands for earth, gravel and water, and the right of way to the same: and, also, as much land as may be necessary for wood-yards, ware-houses, grain and produce elevators, station houses, freight and passenger depots, and accommodations for the public shipping goods, wares, merchandise, grain and produce; and in case the said corporation can not agree with the owner or owners of land, for the said purposes, in purchasing the same, the said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to enter upon said lands and condemn the same for the uses and purposes aforesaid. They shall not condemn, at each termini of said road, to exceed three acres of land, but may be condemned in such shape or form, down to low water mark on the Mississippi river, as said corporation may direct, for the good of the public convenience; and said corporation, in condemning said lands, they shall be entitled to all the benefits and governed by all the forms of an act entitled "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for the purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852.

§ 6. And said corporation is further empowered, that Contracts.
until their road is completed, to make contracts with any railroad company or person or corporation to carry for them, passengers and freight of all kinds and description, and to make contracts of that kind with the Chicago, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company. And said company may commence to construct said railroad at any point on the same they may desire for the public good.

§ 7. It shall be lawful for said company to receive at its Business and operations.
depots and warehouses, and to transport passengers and freights of every kind, on said road; and the directors are authorized to frame such regulations, touching the transportation and delivery of passengers, baggage and commodities, as shall, in their opinion, tend to the safety of passengers and the security of property.

§ 8. The said company shall have power to borrow Indebtedness.
money for the construction and equipment of its road, and to build depots, station-houses and ware-houses to the amount of its capital stock at the time of said loan, and to issue bonds for the same, not to bear interest to exceed ten per cent. per annum; and, also, to execute mortgages on all the real and personal property belonging to said company; and said bonds shall be a lien, as well as said mortgages or deeds of trust given to secure the payment of money shall be a lien upon all the personal property and real estate belonging to said company from the date of their recording in the county where said property may be situated. And when any sale is made upon said liens, the purchaser shall become vested with all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises belonging to said company.

§ 9. The said corporation is hereby authorized to lay Crossings, etc.
its tracks across any railroad track, street, road, lane or alley, by putting said road, street, lane or alley in good repair, so as not to impair its usefulness.

§ 10. The said corporation shall have power to unite its Connections.
track with the track of any other railroad company, when the lines of said road admit of a continuous connection; and such railroad companies are authorized to contract with each other for running, connecting or for the use of the cars and machinery to carry merchandise, passengers or commodities of any kind to and from any point they may desire, or, for purpose of mutual business, to make arrangements of any kind.

§ 11. This act shall be taken and deemed a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED March 11, 1867.

In force March 1, 1867. AN ACT amendatory of an act entitled "An act to incorporate the Grayville and Mattoon Railroad Company," approved February 6, 1857.

read.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the Grayville and Mattoon Railroad Company shall have power and right to extend the railroad authorized by the act of their incorporation, from Olney to any point on the Wabash or Ohio river, and from Mattoon to Decatur, or to any other point or place north of Mattoon; and the board of directors of said company are authorized to change the name of the said company so that the same may be made to correspond with the ultimate location of the said road; and shall have the same rights and powers, subject to the same restrictions and conditions, with respect to every part of the said road, as the same may be extended as aforesaid.

Corporation'

§ 2. Cities, towns and counties shall be authorized to subscribe for stock in the said company in like manner and with like effect as is provided in and by the act entitled "An act to provide a general system of railroad incorporations," approved November 5, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof: Provided, that the county court of any county may, having first submitted the question of subscription to the vote of the people of the county, subscribe for stock in said company, payable in lands or town or city lots, to be taken upon such terms and conditions and be conveyed in such manner as the said court and the said company may agree upon, and that the said subscription shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars; and the said subscription may be made partly payable in lands and partly in money, as the said court and the said company may agree.

County court
subscription.
Bonds.

§ 3. Any county court subscribing for stock in the said company shall be authorized to issue bonds in payment for the same, in the name of the county, of such denominations as the said county may think fit, not exceeding, in the aggregate of the said bonds, the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, drawing interest at the rate of ten per centum per annum, payable semi-annually; the making and the issuing of the said bonds to correspond, in all other respects, with the provisions of the said act, approved November 5, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof.

Assessments

§ 4. The clerk of the county court of the proper county shall, from year to year, as long as may be necessary, add to the assessment of taxes upon all taxable property and rights in the county, an increased rate of assessment, sufficient to pay the interest accruing upon the bonds so issued by the county court; and the collector of the county shall collect the same, in money, at the same time that he shall collect the other revenues; and shall, with all reasonable dispatch, pay the same over to the county treasurer, taking a receipt for the same; and the county treasurer shall pay over to the authorized holders of the said bonds, from time to time, as specified therein, seven-tenths of the ten per cent. interest called for by the said bonds, and retain the remaining three-tenths of the said ten per cent. interest as a sinking fund, which shall be applied by him, from time to time, in good faith, to extinguish and redeem the principal of said bonds: Provided, that the said seven-tenths of the interest accruing on the said bonds shall be paid to the authorized holders thereof in the city of New York.

- Calls for stock. § 7. It shall be lawful for the directors to make calls upon the sums subscribed to the capital stock of said company at such times and in such amounts as they shall deem fit, giving at least twenty days' notice of each of said calls, by personal notice or by publication in a newspaper in the county in which the stockholder resides or in which the subscription was made; and in case of failure on the part of any stockholder to make payment of any call, made as aforesaid by said directors, for sixty days after the same shall have been due, the said board of directors are hereby authorized to declare said stock so in arrears and all sums paid thereon forfeited to the company; or said directors may enforce the payment of the whole amount subscribed by any stockholder by suit.
- Stock in arrears.
- Borrow money. § 8. Said company is hereby authorized and empowered to borrow, from time to time, such sums of money as in their discretion may be deemed necessary to aid in the construction, completing, equipping, operating or repairing of said railroad, and to issue its bonds, payable within or without this state, bearing any rate of interest not exceeding ten per centum per annum, and to sell and dispose of the same at, above or below par, as may be agreed on for any amount so borrowed or obtained therefor; and all sales of bonds that may be made at less than their par value shall be good and valid and binding upon said company the same as if said bonds had been sold at par; and said company shall not have the right to put in a plea of usury in any action founded upon any of said bonds.
- Bonds — payment of—interest on.
- Sales binding.
- Connections. § 9. It shall be lawful for said company to unite or connect with any other railroad or company which may have been or may hereafter be incorporated by this state on the line or route or at either terminus of its said road, and to grant to such company the right to construct or use any portion of said road hereby authorized to be constructed, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between said companies, and also to purchase or to lease all or any part of any other railroad which is or hereafter may be built in this state on the line or route of its road, sell its road franchises, real and personal property, to any other company or companies which may have been or may hereafter be incorporated by this state, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between said companies.

Purchases and leases.

§ 10. Said company shall have authority to construct its road on or across any stream of water, water course, road, highway, railroad or canal, which the route of said road shall intersect, but the company shall restore the stream or water course, road or highway, thus intersected, to its former state, or so near thereto as not to materially impair its usefulness. Whenever the said railroad shall intersect a road or highway the company shall have power to change the line of the road or highway if said change shall not materially impair the usefulness of such road or highway; and the company may take such additional lands as may be necessary for the change of said road or highway, making compensation therefor, to be ascertained as in other cases provided in this act.

Crossings, etc.

§ 11. Any person who shall willfully injure or obstruct said road, or any part of the appendages thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit to the use of the company a sum three-fold the amount of the damages occasioned by such injury or obstruction, to be recovered in an action of debt, in the name of said company, with costs of suit, before any justice of the peace, or before any court of record in this state.

Penalties, etc.

§ 12. Said company shall have power, by mortgage or deed of trust on its railroad and the rents and profits thereof, and on all or any part of the property, real or personal, or franchises owned by said company, to secure the payment of its bonds issued by virtue of the provisions of this act or such sums of money as said company may agree to pay, for all or any of the purposes connected with the construction or operation of its said railroad herein authorized to be constructed.

bonds.

§ 13. Said company shall have power to make and ordain such rules and by-laws as may be necessary or expedient for the government of the company, its servants and agents; and the certificate of the secretary or principal clerk of the company, under the corporate seal of the company, shall be received in all courts and places as evidence of said rules and by-laws, the appointment of agents or officers, or of any order of the company, and also of the due organization thereof.

By-laws, etc.

§ 14. The board of directors shall have power to appoint all necessary clerks, secretaries, and all other officers and agents necessary in the transaction of the business of said company.

Stock transferable, etc. § 15. The stock of said company is hereby declared to be personal property, and transferable in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws of the company.

Donations. § 16. Said company shall have power to have, receive, hold, sell and dispose of any donations of real or personal property, for the use of the company, and to acquire, by purchase, and hold real estate, for the use of said company, in the constructing or operating said railroad, or to sell and convey the same, if found not necessary or proper to be retained.

Commencement of building road. § 17. Said company may commence building its road at any time within five years from the passage of this act, and shall own and operate such part as may be completed, notwithstanding the whole road may not be finished.

Subscription to stock. § 18. Said company is hereby authorized to receive subscriptions to its capital stock, payable at any time or in any manner that may be specially agreed upon by the company and the subscriber.

Question of subscription to be voted on. § 19. Elections may be held by or in any county, city or incorporated town, situated on or near the line of said railroad, as the same may be surveyed or located hereafter, upon the question whether such county, city or town shall subscribe for any specified amount in shares of the capital stock of said company. Twenty days' notice shall be given of the time of holding such election; and the election shall be conducted in the mode prescribed in an act entitled "An act supplemental to an act entitled 'an act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporations,'" approved November 6, 1849, or in the mode prescribed in any other general law relating to such elections, or in the mode in which county, city or town elections are usually conducted, and if a majority of the votes actually cast at any such election shall be "For subscription," it shall be the duty of

Notice of election. the county court, or board of supervisors, where township organization exists, or the corporate authorities of such county, city or town, to subscribe, without unnecessary delay, upon request of said company, for shares of said capital stock to the amount so voted, and to issue and deliver to said company, without unnecessary delay, the same amount as the stock so subscribed of the bonds of such county, city or town, as the case may be, payable at any time specified, in not exceeding twenty years from their date, with annual or semi-annual coupons, for not exceeding ten per centum interest per annum attached; which bonds and coupons may be made payable within or without this state, as said company may request; and the provisions of the above mentioned act, approved November 6, 1849, except such as are inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall apply to and govern every election referred to in this section in getting up the election and the other matters connected with or growing out of such election, but this act shall govern said elections so far as it is applicable to them.

§ 20. It shall be the duty of such county court, board of supervisors, city or town corporate authorities, to order the holding of such election, and give notice thereof, upon being requested so to do by one-fourth of the legal voters of such county, city or town, as the case may be.

Corporation

§ 21. Said company may bring suit against any of its stockholders for capital stock or for any other claims or demands against stockholders or other persons in any county in which the stock may have been subscribed or in which the cause of action may have arisen or accrued, although the defendant or defendants may reside in a different county or counties; and no stockholder or officer of the company shall, on account of his being such stockholder or officer, be incompetent to testify as a witness or to act in any ministerial capacity in any suit or other legal proceeding in which the company may be a party: Provided, that nothing in this section shall authorize any person to testify for himself or herself in any suit brought against such person by the company or against the company by such person.

Suits at law for

Proviso.

§ 22. The said company shall carry and transport the mail of the United States on such terms as may be agreed upon, and all such freight and passengers as may be offered, if required so to do, on the terms usual with like railroad companies.

§ 23. There shall be one resident director of said company in Cass county, one in Morgan county, and one in Macoupin county; and when the removal of any director from either of said counties leaves such county without a resident director such removal shall, of itself, constitute a vacancy in the board, to be filled as other vacancies; and all appointments and elections contrary to the letter and spirit of this section shall be null and void; and in all appointments and elections of directors one only shall be appointed or elected at a time, before the appointment or election of another is acted on. At least this course shall be pursued until each of said counties has secured or obtained one resident director.

of the stock subscribed in or by such county or specially made to be expended in such county, without making the same calls on other counties or the stockholders residing therein; and every such county shall constitute a separate division of the road, to be called by an appropriate name, according to the provisions of such order of the board; and such division may be constructed, completed and operated separately until an adjoining part or division shall be ready for being operated; after which such separate division shall be operated in connection with such adjoining part, division or divisions, and the provisions of this section shall apply to each county on the line of the road.

Line of road.

Proviso.

§ 25. It shall be a sufficient compliance with this act for said company to locate, construct and operate its railroad from any point south of Virginia, on the line or route of the Illinois River Railroad, as the same has been surveyed or may be located, not exceeding five miles south of Virginia, to the said town of Du Quoin: Provided, that said company shall construct its road with reasonable dispatch all the way to Virginia, unless the Illinois River road shall be completed as far south as the point of intersection provided for in this section by the time said road from Du Quoin to said point shall be completed.

§ 26. The right of way and the real estate purchased by said company or donated to it, or which shall become its property by operation of law, whether by mutual agreement or not, shall, upon the payment of the amount due therefor, if anything, to the owner or owners, become vested in said company in fee simple.

Corporation
subscription.

§ 27. In all cases where subscriptions of stock shall be made to said company by any county, city or town, it shall be the duty of the county court, or board of supervisors, where township organization exists, city or town corporate authorities, respectively, to levy a sufficient tax to pay the interest on the bonds to be issued for said stock; which tax may, from time to time, be increased or diminished so as to produce sufficient funds for the payment of said interest as it shall become due.

§ 28. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and shall have the force and effect of a public act, and shall be so deemed and taken notice of in all courts and places, but may not be published with the public laws.

The said company may transport on said railroad any person or persons, merchandise or other property, by the force and power of steam or animals, or any combination of them, and may fix, and establish, take and receive such rates of toll for all passengers and property transported upon their road as the directors of said company shall, from time to time, establish; and the directors are hereby authorized and empowered to make all necessary rules, by-laws and ordinances that they may deem necessary and expedient and necessary to accomplish the designs and purposes and to carry into effect the provisions of this act, and for the transfer and assignment of its stock, which is hereby declared personal property and transferable in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws and ordinances of said company.

By-laws.

Vacancies. § 10. In case of death, resignation or removal of the president, vice president or any director, at any time before the annual election, such vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the year by the board of directors; and in case of absence of the president or vice president the board of directors shall have power to appoint a president pro tempore, who shall have and exercise such power and functions as the by-laws of said company may provide. In case it shall any time happen that an election shall not be made on any day on which in pursuance of this act it ought to be made, the said corporation shall not for that cause be deemed dissolved; but such election shall be held at any other time directed by the by-laws of said company.

Femme covert. § 11. That when the lands of any femme covert, persons under age, non compos mentis, or out of the state, shall be taken in the construction of said railroad, as is provided by this act, the company shall pay the amount that shall be awarded as due to the last mentioned owners, respectively, whenever the same shall be lawfully demanded, together with six per cent. per annum; that the damages to be paid by said company for the taking of the lands of the persons named in this section shall be estimated and assessed in the manner now in such cases provided by law.

Payment.

Crossings, etc. § 12. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross a track of any other railroad, or stream of water or water course, or road or highway, on the route of said railroad, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their railroad across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the said road, stream of water, water course, road or highway, thus intersected or crossed, to its former state, or in a manner not materially to impair its usefulness.

Proviso.

Connections. § 13. Said company shall have power to unite their railroad with any other railroad now constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed within this state or the states of Wisconsin or Iowa, on the line of said road, or at the terminus thereof, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so connecting; and, for that purpose, full power is hereby given the said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the objects of such connection.

§ 14. That the said railroad company by this act of incorporation shall have full power to borrow money on the credit of the said company, not exceeding its authorized capital stock, at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent. per annum, payable semi-annually, and may execute bonds therefor, with interest coupons thereto annexed, and secure the payment of the same by mortgage or deed of trust on the whole or any part thereof of the said railroad stock and income of the company, then existing or thereafter to be acquired, and may annex to such mortgage bonds the privilege of converting the same into capital stock of the company, at par, at the option of the holders, if such election be signified in writing to the company three years before the maturity of said bonds. Indebtedness.

§ 15. That the directors of said company may and they are hereby authorized to negotiate and sell the bonds of the said company at such place, either within or without this state, and at such rates and for such prices as in their opinion will most advance the interests of said company; and if such bonds are thus negotiated and sold at discount below their par value such sale and disposal thereof shall be as valid and binding on the company, in every respect, as if they had been sold and disposed of at their par value. Sale of bonds,

§ 16. That the said company, in securing the payment of said bonds by a mortgage or deed of trust on the road, property and income of the company, shall have power to execute a mortgage or deed of trust aforesaid, to secure the payment of the full amount of bonds which the company may, at the time the said deed of trust or mortgage bears date, or any time thereafter, desire to sell and dispose of; and may execute and sell, from time to time, such amounts of said bonds and of such dates and payable to such persons as to the directors of said company may seem advisable, until the whole amount of bonds mentioned in such mortgage or deed of trust is executed and sold, and the said mortgage or deed of trust shall be as valid and effectual to secure the payment of the bonds so executed and sold, and of every part thereof, as if the same and every part thereof had been executed of even date with the said deed of trust or mortgage. Mortgages and deeds of trust.

§ 17. This act shall be deemed a public act: Provided, said road shall be commenced within five years and finished within ten years from the passage of this act. Commencement of road.

APPROVED February 28, 1867.

In force Feb'y 26, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Illinois South-Eastern Railway Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Charles A. Beecher, Joseph J. R. Turney, Robert P. Hanna, Carroll C. Boggs, Joseph T. Fleming, Henry Halthausen and Edward Bonham, of Wayne county, and John W. Wescott, William B. Wilson, Daniel McConly and William H. Hanna, of Clay county, their associates, successors and assigns, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, under the name and style of "The Illinois South-Eastern Railway Company;" and, by that name and style, shall be capable in law and equity of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, defending and being defended against, in all courts and places whatsoever, in like manner as natural persons; and may have and use a common seal, and alter and renew the same at pleasure; and, by their corporate name and style, shall be capable in law of contracting and being contracted with, and taking and purchasing, receiving, or in any manner receiving, acquiring and holding, leasing, selling and conveying or assigning any property, whether real, personal or mixed, so far as they may deem necessary for the purposes of this act.

§ 2. The Illinois South-Eastern Railway Company shall have full power and authority to locate, construct, finish, equip and maintain a railroad, with one or more tracks, commencing at some suitable point on the Chicago Branch of the Illinois Central Railroad, running thence, by such line as shall be deemed by them most convenient, by way of Fairfield, in Wayne county, to the Ohio river, at any point not south of Metropolis City nor north of Shawneetown; and shall, also, have full power and authority to locate, construct, finish, equip and maintain a branch of said railroad, with one or more tracks, upon such line as they may deem most convenient, from Fairfield, in Wayne county, to the Great Wabash river, at any point not farther north than Greyville, on said river: Provided, that the point of junction or connection of said railroad with the Chicago Branch of the Illinois Central Railroad may be at any point not north of Mason, in Effingham county, nor south of Kinmundy, in Marion county; and said railroad may intersect or cross the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad at any point not further east than Clay City nor west of the town of Xenia, both in Clay county; and if said company shall deem it advisable to build said branch of said railroad before the completion of the main line, or any part thereof, they are hereby fully empowered and authorized so to do.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company may consist of one million of dollars, which may be increased by the board of directors to any sum not exceeding six millions, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which may be sold and transferred in the manner provided for in the by-laws of said company.

§ 4. The affairs of said company shall be controlled and managed by a board of directors, consisting of eighth persons, which may be increased to any number not exceeding thirteen, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. And Chas. A. Beecher, Joseph T. Fleming, William H. Hanna, Joseph J. R. Turney, Carroll C. Boggs, Edward Bonham, William B. Wilson, and John W. Westcott, are hereby appointed the first board of directors, who shall hold their office until their successors are elected and duly qualified in such manner as may be provided by the by-laws of said company; which said by-laws shall be established by the directors of said company; which by-laws may be altered and changed, by a two-third vote of said directors; and said board of directors shall have the power of electing out of their number a president, secretary and treasurer, and such other officers as the by-laws may provide for.

§ 5. The said company shall have full power and authority, by themselves or their agents or employees, to enter upon any lands belonging to individuals or corporations, for the purpose of surveying, re-surveying, examining and locating a line for said railroad or the branch thereof; and shall have full power to receive from individuals or corporations, by purchase, donation or otherwise, any and all lands they may deem necessary for the track or tracks of said road or the branch thereof, not exceeding one hundred and fifty feet in width; also, all lands they may deem necessary for the side-tracks, turn-outs, stations, water-tanks, depots and other buildings and structures; also, they may purchase, hold or receive, as donations from individuals or corporations, all lands and the right of way thereto upon which may be found stone, gravel, wood or coal, suitable for constructing, ballasting, repairing, fencing or operating said railroad or its branch, and for constructing or repairing the buildings, structures or appurtenances of said railroad. Said company may take such conveyance of lands, purchased or donated for the purposes of this section, from individuals or corporations, as may be agreed upon by the parties interested. In case of disagreement as to the right of way, price of any land or lands or other privileges embraced in this section, the same may be condemned, taken, held and used by said company, for the purposes of this act, in the manner provided for in the condemning of lands for right of way in an act entitled "An act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, A. D. 1852.

§ 6. The said company shall have power to unite its railroad with any other railroad now constructed or which

Capital stock.	§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, but the same may be increased by a vote of the stockholders to any amount deemed necessary, not exceeding the total cost of the road of said company. Said
Shares.	stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and shall be deemed personal property, and transferable on the books of the company in the manner and subject to such rules and provisions as shall be determined by the by-laws; and the said capital stock shall be paid in at the time and in the installments required by the directors.
Officers and directors.	§ 3. The business of said corporation shall be conducted by a board of five directors, who shall be elected annually by the stockholders, at such time and under such rules as the by-laws shall determine; and the said directors shall elect from their number a president, secretary and treasurer, who shall hold their offices during the term of their directorships: Provided, however, that the secretary need not be a director; and the board may appoint other officers and agents; they may fill vacancies in their number, make the by-laws, and exercise all the powers necessary to carry this act into effect. Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote, in person or by proxy, in the election of directors or to increase the capital stock.
Vacancies.
Privileges, etc.	§ 4. Said company are hereby authorized to survey, locate, construct, maintain and operate a railroad, with one or more tracks, from the city of Chicago, Illinois, to a point on the Mississippi river, opposite or nearly opposite the city of Keokuk, Iowa, through the village of Lisbon, in Kendall county, the city of Ottawa, in La Salle county, and such other points as they shall, from time to time, as the road progresses, determine for their route, with all necessary side-tracks, switches, turn-outs, turn-tables, depots, station-houses or other erections; and they may locate, construct and operate a branch or side-track from said road, at or near where the same shall cross the Big Vermilion river, in La Salle county, for the distance of not more than ten miles, in a southeasterly direction, along, or near as may be, the course of the said Big Vermilion river; and they may erect shops for the repair or manufacture of any of the equipments, machinery or other property incident to a railroad; and they may run or operate upon said railroad and side-tracks, cars, propelled or driven by steam, for the carrying of passengers and freight. The said company is authorized, by its surveyors, engineers or agents, to cause examinations and surveys to be made of the ground as shall be necessary to determine the most desirable route; and it shall be lawful for the said company to enter upon any lands or real estate, and shall be liable only for the actual damages done by reason of such survey or examination.

§ 5. For the purpose of acquiring the necessary lands for a right of way, not exceeding one hundred feet in width; and for turn-outs, side-tracks, stations and depots, shops or other erections, and for material to build, ballast and repair the same, or any of them, in case of disagreement as to price between the company, by its agents, and the owner or owners of any lands, the same may be condemned, taken and used under the provisions of "An act to amend the law condemning rights of way for purposes of internal improvements," approved June 22, 1852, or of any other act amendatory thereto. All the property acquired by virtue of the provisions of this act shall become vested absolutely in said company.

§ 6. Said company may borrow such sums of money as they may deem necessary for the construction and equipment of their road, or any part thereof, upon such terms as they may make, not exceeding ten per cent. per annum for interest, and, for the purpose of securing said loans, may pledge the property, franchises and income of their roads, by deed, mortgage, bonds or otherwise. The said directors may proceed to survey, locate, construct and operate the said road, by sections, from time to time, until the whole shall be fully completed.

§ 7. The said company may unite or connect its road with any other road now or hereafter constructed in this or any other state, which may connect with the same in such manner as to form a continuous line of road, and make and execute such contracts as shall be deemed necessary to perfect the same.

§ 8. This act shall be a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 28, 1867.

In force Feb'y 28, 1867. AN ACT to amend the articles of association of the Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company, and to extend the powers of and confer a charter upon the same.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the said corporation is hereby created a body politic and corporate, under the name and style of "The Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company," with perpetual succession, and, under that name and style, shall be capable of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, defending and being defended against, in law and equity, in all courts and places whatsoever, in like manner and as fully as natural persons; may make and use a common seal, and alter and renew the same at pleasure; and, by their corporate name and style, shall be capable, in law, of contracting and being contracted with; shall be and are hereby invested with all the powers and privileges, immunities and franchises, of receiving and disposing of real and personal estate which may be needful to carry into full effect the purposes and objects of this act. And said company is hereby authorized and empowered to locate, construct and complete a railroad, extending from the city of Pekin, in Tazewell county, Illinois, through, or as near as practicable, to the towns of Tremont, Mackinawtown, Concord, Bloomington, LeRoy, Mount Pleasant, Mahomet, Champaign City, Urbana and St. Joseph, to the east boundaries of the state of Illinois. And said company may construct said road, with one or more tracks, and shall begin the construction of the same within five years, (5,) and complete the same within ten years (10) from the passage of this act. Said company shall not have the power to locate or construct a road upon any other route than connecting the above named points by such location as may be deemed best for the interests of said company: Provided, that if any incorporated town or city on the line of said route shall refuse or neglect to subscribe a just and equal amount towards securing the building of said road, then in that case the directors of said company shall have the power to be exercised in their discretion, so to change the route as not to run said road through the incorporated town or city so refusing or neglecting to subscribe: Provided, that the directors of the division in which such incorporated town or city may be shall have the sole power of determining as to the sufficiency of such subscription: And, provided, further, that no such power shall be construed to be possessed by the directors when the county or township in which such incorporated town or city may be shall have subscribed, or shall before such change in route is made,

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be two million dollars, and may, by a vote of the majority of the stockholders according to shares, at any regular or special meeting, called for that purpose, be increased to six millions of dollars, to be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. Capital stock.

§ 3. The immediate government and direction of said company shall be and is hereby vested in thirteen (13) directors, who shall be chosen by the stockholders of said company in the manner hereinafter provided for, and who shall hold their offices for the period of one year after their election and until their successors shall be elected and qualified; and the said directors, a majority of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business, shall elect one of their number president of the company, and shall have power to elect or appoint such other officers as they may deem proper; but no person shall be a director who shall not, at the time of his election, be a stockholder; and each stockholder shall, in all elections or votes by stockholders, be entitled to cast one vote for each share of the stock held by him—such vote to be cast either in person or by proxy, and under such regulations as the board of directors may prescribe; and vacancies in the board of directors may be filled by the remaining directors—a two-thirds vote in his favor being required to elect—such appointees to continue in office until the next annual election of directors which said annual election shall be held at such time and place as may be designated by the by-laws of said company, sixty days' printed notice being given by at least five publications in newspapers in Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin. Government of affairs.

§ 4. The persons named as commissioners in said articles of association may be removed at any regular meeting of the board of directors and others appointed in their stead, with the same powers. And the said commissioners shall open books of subscription, from time to time, in each of the cities, incorporated towns and townships along the route of said road first giving ten days' notice of the time and place thereof, by publication in the newspaper published nearest thereto. Removal of officers.

§ 5. The said company shall have power to locate, construct, equip, furnish and maintain and operate a railroad, as aforesaid, with all the necessary tracks, side-tracks, turn-outs, switches, depots, stations and all other necessary buildings, structures and erections; and for this purpose, they are hereby vested with all the powers necessary for the purchasing, taking, holding, selling and transferring property, real and personal, the same as natural persons, as the board of directors may deem it necessary to carry out the objects of this act. Stock subscriptions.

§ 6. For the purpose of acquiring the right of way for the construction and maintenance of said railroad, side-tracks, turn-outs and grounds for depots, stations, erections and structures, and for the purpose of obtaining stone, gravel and other materials for building, ballasting or repairing said road and of obtaining a right of way to said material, the said company be and are hereby authorized and empowered to take, condemn and use the same, under the provisions of an act entitled "An act to amend the law condemning the right of way for purposes of internal improvement," approved June 22, 1852, and all laws that have been or may be hereafter enacted amendatory thereof.

Privileges, etc.

§ 7. Said company shall have power to unite or connect itself with any other railroad company in this state, upon such terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the companies so uniting or connecting, and, for that purpose, full power is hereby given to said company to make and execute such contracts with any other company as will secure the object of such union or connection: Provided, that such union or connection shall only be with companies whose railroads are west of the Illinois river or east of Urbana, running east and west, or whose roads run north and south from either terminus of the said Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company; and the said corporation may, furthermore, lease or purchase upon such terms as may be agreed upon, any other road or parts of roads, either wholly or partially constructed, which may constitute or be adopted as part of their railroad; and, by such lease or purchase, they shall acquire and become vested with all the rights and franchises pertaining to such road, or part of road, so leased or purchased in the right of way, maintenance and construction and operation thereof.

Indebtedness.

§ 8. The said company is hereby authorized, from time to time, to borrow such sum or sums of money as may be necessary for the completing, equipping, operating and maintaining their said railroad, and to issue and dispose of the bonds at such rate of interest, not exceeding ten per cent. and at such discount as may be thought best for the benefit of the company, and to mortgage their corporate property and franchises, or convey the same by deed of trust, to secure the payment of any debt contracted by said company for the purpose aforesaid. And any such bonds that may be sold or disposed of at a less rate than par shall be as valid and binding upon said company as if the same were sold for the par value thereof.

Corporation subscription.

§ 9. Counties, cities, towns or townships through which said [road] is to pass or along the route thereof, which have held or shall hold elections upon the question of subscribing to the capital stock of said company, as by this act or by any general law of this state required or permitted, shall, upon such election being held and carried in favor of so subscribing; adopt the subscriptions of citizens of such county, city, town or township, now made to said capital stock, under said articles of association, as part of their subscription; and, upon the issue of stock by such counties, cities, towns or townships, such citizens shall, by the board of directors, be released from individual liability therefor.

§ 10. The right of way and the real estate for the right of way and for the purpose aforesaid, purchased or acquired by said company, whether by agreement or otherwise, or which shall become the property of the company, shall, upon the payment of the money agreed or adjudged to be paid to the owner or owners of the same, as compensation for the same, become the property of said company in fee simple. Whenever it shall be necessary for the construction of said railroad to intersect or cross the track of any other railroad, or river or stream of water, water course, road or highway, on the route of said road, it shall be lawful for the company to construct their road across or upon the same: Provided, that the said company shall restore the said railroad, river, stream of water, water course, road or highway intersected or crossed, sufficiently near its former state, so as not to materially impair its usefulness. Right of way.

Proviso.

§ 11. That all the rights, privileges and advantages, with the limitations and restrictions conferred upon the Illinois Central Railroad Company; also the rights, privileges and advantages, with their limitations conferred by an act entitled "An act to provide for a general system of railroad incorporation," approved November 5, 1849, and the several acts amendatory thereof, are hereby conferred upon the Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company; and counties, cities, towns and townships shall be entitled to subscribe for stock in said company, in like manner and with like effect as provided in the acts referred to and the acts amendatory thereof, except as by said acts and said articles of association qualified and limited. Vested rights.

§ 12. To further aid in the construction of said road, by said company, any incorporated town or townships in counties acting under the township organization law, along the route of said road, may subscribe to the capital stock of said company in any sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Corporation
limited.

§ 13. No such subscription shall be made until the question has been submitted to the legal voters of such incorporation, town or township in which the subscription is proposed to be made; and the clerk of each of said towns or townships is hereby required, upon the presentation of a petition signed by at least ten citizens, who are legal voters and tax payers of such town or townships for which he is clerk, and in which petition the amount proposed to be subscribed shall be stated, to post up notices in at least three public places in each town or township; which notice shall Determined by

be posted not less than thirty days before the day of holding such election, notifying the legal voters of such town or township to meet at the usual place of holding elections, in such town or township, or some other convenient place named in such notice, for the purpose of voting for or against such subscription: Provided, that where elections may have already been held, and a majority of the legal voters of any township or incorporated town were in favor of a subscription to said railroad, then and in that case no other election need be had; and the amount so voted for shall be subscribed as in this act provided. And such elections are hereby declared to be legal and valid, as though this act had been in force at the time thereof and all the provisions hereof had been complied with.

§ 14. If it shall appear that a majority of all the legal voters of such towns or townships voting at such election have voted "for subscription," it shall be the duty of the president of the board of trustees, or other chief executive officer, if in incorporated towns, and of the supervisor in townships, to subscribe to the capital stock of said railroad company, in the name of such town or township, the amount so voted to be subscribed, and to receive from said company the proper certificates therefor. He shall also execute to said company, in the name of such towns or townships, bonds bearing interest at ten per cent. per annum, which bonds shall run for a term of not more than twenty years; and the interest on the same shall be made payable annually; and which bonds shall be signed by such president, executive officer or supervisor, and be attested by the clerk of the town or township in whose name the bonds are issued; and it shall be his duty to make out a record of the issuing of said bonds. Said bonds shall be delivered to the president or secretary of said company for the use of said company; and when any city or county shall hereafter vote to make subscription, as aforesaid, the chairman of the board of supervisors of such county and the mayor of such city shall be required to subscribe to the capital stock of said company the amount so voted.

§ 15. It shall be the duty of the clerk of any such town or township, in which a vote shall be given in favor of subscription, within ten days thereafter, to transmit to the county clerk of their respective counties a transcript or statement of the vote given, and the amount so voted to be subscribed, and the rate of interest to be paid: Provided, that where elections may have been held, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the town clerks to file with the county clerks of their respective counties, within ten days after the issuing of said bonds, certificates of the votes of their towns, the amount of stock voted to be subscribed, the amount of bonds issued, and the rate of interest payable thereon.

§ 16. It shall be the duty of the county clerk of such county, annually, after the execution and delivery of such bonds, as aforesaid, to compute and assess upon all taxable property returned by the assessor of such town or township, a sum sufficient to pay the interest and costs of collection, and disbursements upon all bonds so issued by the respective towns or townships; which tax shall be extended upon the collector's books as other taxes are, and collected in the same manner that other taxes are collected, and, when collected, shall be paid to the treasurer of the county; and such town or township may, when providing for the levying and collecting of other taxes, also assess upon the property of such town or township any rate, not exceeding three per cent. in any one year, upon the assessment, to provide a fund for the redemption of the principal of such bonds as or when they become due—said tax to be levied and collected as other taxes are and paid to the county treasurer; but no tax shall be computed, assessed or collected, or any interest paid, to be applied upon such bonds unless such bonds have been executed and delivered.

Powers.

§ 20. The president of the Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company, incorporated by an act approved February 10, A. D. 1853, is hereby authorized and empowered to convey to William S. Maus, Samuel R. Saltonstall, and Jerome B. Clark, and Henry Conkling, all the right, title and interest of the said Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company in and to the right of way, grade, road-bed of the Bloomington and Pekin Branch of the Central Railroad, to the same extent as conveyed by the state of Illinois to said Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company, to be held by said parties, in trust, until the completion of said third division of the Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad; and, upon such completion, to be by them conveyed to said last named company; and said last named company are hereby vested with all the powers, rights and privileges conferred by said act of February 10, A. D. 1853, upon the Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act. Said act of February 10, A. D. 1853, is hereby declared to be in full force and effect for the purpose of said conveyance. And the governor of the state of Illinois is hereby authorized, upon application to him of the president of the Danville, Urbana, Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company, to convey to said above named persons all the right, title and interest which may be in the state of Illinois in and to the right of way, grade and road-bed of said Bloomington and Pekin Branch of the Central Railroad.

Liabilities of stockholders.

§ 21. No stockholder, whether corporate or natural persons, shall be otherwise liable under his or their subscription of stock than for the amount of their respective subscriptions of stock to said company, and according to the calls of the directors, under the conditions hereinbefore provided.

Repealed provisions.

Bloomington and Pekin Railroad Company, in conflict with the provisions of this act, is hereby repealed. But nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect the right of any county or city which has heretofore voted to subscribe to the capital stock of said company to limit its subscription, according to the terms and conditions of said articles of association of said company; but any city which, since the adoption of said articles of association, has voted to subscribe to the capital stock of said railroad, may, upon a vote of two-thirds of the common council or board of aldermen thereof, subscribe and issue bonds under the provisions of this charter, instead of upon such terms and conditions contained in said articles of association.

tem of railroad incorporations, approved November 5, 1849, and in an act amendatory to said act, approved June 22, 1852, under which said acts the said company is hereby authorized to proceed for the purpose of procuring the right of way for said road. Said company are hereby empowered, for the purpose of cuttings or embankments and for the purpose of obtaining stone or gravel, to take and appropriate as much more land as may be necessary for the proper construction, maintenance and security of said road and for constructing shops, depots, buildings and suitable fixtures, as appurtenant to said road; they may take, have and use any lands on east side thereof, not exceeding three hundred feet in width from said road—said company taking all such lands as gifts or purchases, or making compensation therefor, as above provided.

§ 3. It shall be lawful for said company, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at any time or times before the expiration of this charter, to project and extend the line of said road from the said town of Forreston to some point on the Mississippi river, by way of Mt. Carroll, in the county of Carroll—the line thereof to pass within sixty rods of the court house, in said Mt. Carroll, and also, in like manner to extend and project the line of said road from the said town of Forreston to the city of Freeport, in the county of Stephenson. Such projections and extensions, with the necessary appendages, shall be laid out, built and governed, and rights of way and other grounds obtained therefor, under and according to the provisions of this act; and such projections and extensions shall be and become, in the aforesaid and all other respects, within the meaning and operation of this act, so far as practicable and applicable, and the same shall be treated in all respects as and be a part and portion of the main line of the aforesaid road.

§ 4. The capital stock of said company shall be one million of dollars, with the right to increase the same to an amount equal to the cost of the construction and equipping said road, which stock shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, which shall be deemed personal property, and may be issued, transferred and registered in such time, place and manner as may be prescribed by said company, who shall also provide the time and manner in which all subscriptions of stock may be paid; and may authorize and conduct all actions and suits at law or in equity for the recovery of such subscriptions or installments thereof, as they may deem necessary; and, in addition, may declare all stock upon which any installment is due and unpaid forfeited, and the same may be transferred, either to said company or to the subsequent purchasers thereof; which proceeding may be had upon and after such notice and the expiration of such time as may be provided for by said company, through the board of directors.

§ 5. The above named persons, or a majority thereof, shall constitute the first board of directors of said company, one of whom shall be elected president of the board. The first meeting shall be held at Forreston, and the subsequent meetings at such time and place as may be designated by said board. Said directors shall hold their office for one year and until their successors shall be chosen and qualified; and the said board shall prescribe the number of subsequent directors, the same to be not less than seven nor more than thirteen, and shall prescribe the time and place of holding such elections, and the qualifications of those voting and to be voted for as directors. Said directors may choose a secretary, who shall keep and preserve a correct record of all the proceedings and doings of said board and of such other matters and things as may be required of him; and the book or books in which said records shall be kept shall be prima facie evidence of the truth of such records in any court or place of adjudication in this state, wherein said company shall be a party. Vacancies in said board may be filled by two-thirds of the remaining members until the next election. The said board of directors, at any meeting, may direct the opening of books at such times and places and in such manner and upon such notice as they may deem advisable; they shall, also, have power to prescribe the amount which shall be paid in at the time of subscription; they may, also commence the construction of said road, without reference to the amount of stock which may be subscribed at the time of such commencement. Said company shall also have power to appoint a treasurer, and may prescribe his duties, and may require a bond, with security, for the faithful performance of his duties as such, which shall be binding in law or equity upon the persons entering into the same. Said company shall have power to regulate the tolls, rates and charges for transportation of freight and passengers upon the said road, and may change and alter the same at pleasure: Provided, that due notice of such change shall be given, as prescribed by the said board. Said company shall also have power to build or purchase all necessary locomotives, passenger, freight and other cars or vehicles, for the use of said road, or to hire or rent the same from other persons or companies.

§ 6. This company shall have power to make, ordain and establish such by-laws, rules and regulations, for the government of the affairs of said corporation, as they may deem proper, and not inconsistent with the constitution of and laws of this state or of the constitution of the United States.

In force January 30, 1867. AN ACT to aid in restoring the records of the Board of Supervisors of Iroquois county, and to legalize the same, when so restored.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the records of the board of supervisors of Iroquois county, including the assessor's books and the collector's books, for the year, A. D. 1866, and the tax sale records of said county, and the journal of the proceedings of said board, were partially destroyed by fire on the 16th day of October last; and, whereas, it became necessary for said board to direct that the several town assessors of said county make out, as nearly as practical, substantial copies of said assessor's books, properly attested by them; and, whereas, said copies have been made and attested, as so directed by said board, and returned to the county clerk's office of said county, and said clerk has made out collector's books and extended the various taxes for said year 1866, in accordance with said copies of assessor's books, so made; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the said copies of the assessor's books, so made, attested and returned to the county clerk's office of said county, and the said collector's books, so made out, and the extension of

D. 1866, in accordance with said copies of assessor's books, so made, attested and returned to said clerk, be and the same are hereby declared, in all respects, to be as valid both in law and equity as assessor's books and collector's books made in the usual manner and at the time required by general law of this state.

§ 2. And be it further enacted, That the county clerk of said county be and he is hereby directed to procure suitable books, at the expense of said county, in which to record, in the same form and manner as the sale of lands for taxes are required by law to be recorded, and shall enter of record therein all the material facts stated in any and all tax sale certificates, heretofore made out by the clerk of said county, and the record of which has been destroyed, which may be presented to him for that purpose; and said record shall, for all purposes, be as valid as tax sale records can or may be under the general laws of this state; and said clerk shall be allowed for the same like compensation and be paid in the same manner as for making tax sale records. And said clerk shall cause to be published, for six weeks, successively, in some newspaper published in said county, a notice to all holders of tax sale certificates of sales of lands for taxes in said county to present the same for record in said clerk's office; and in case any holder of such tax sale certificate shall, for six months after the publication of such notice, neglect or refuse to so present such certificate for record, he or she so neglecting and refusing to present the same for record, and his or her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, shall forfeit all his or her rights, as now exist in law or equity, by virtue of such tax sale certificate, and shall be barred from asserting, in any manner, any right, title or interest under or by virtue of such tax sale certificate.

county clerk.

Compensation.

§ 3. And be it further enacted, That all holders of tax sale certificates of the sale of lands for taxes in said county, who shall neglect or refuse to procure and file for record in the recorder's office of said county any deed or deeds of conveyance of the lands of which such holders may be entitled by law, for six months after the expiration of two years from the sale of such lands, the person or persons so neglecting and refusing, and his, her or their heirs, executors, administrators and assigns, shall, thereafter, forfeit all right, both in law and equity, to in any manner assert or enforce title under and by virtue of such tax sale certificate or certificates.

certificates.

§ 4. And be it further enacted, That the county clerk of said county shall, under the direction of said board of supervisors procure and enter of record upon suitable books for that purpose, copies of all the proceedings of said board for the year, A. D. 1866, and from said last mentioned year up to the said 16th day of October last, as published in the

APPROVED February 28, 1867.

In force April 23, 1867. AN ACT to authorize the transcribing of certain records in Hamilton and Franklin counties.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, certain records of deeds, bonds and mortgages, and other instruments of writing, required by law to be recorded in the office of the recorder of the county of Hamilton, have, from the lapse of years, become greatly impaired and almost illegible; therefore,

Authority granted.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Richard W. Townshend, clerk of the circuit court and, ex officio, recorder, within and for said county of Hamilton, be and he is hereby authorized to transcribe the records contained in deeds record books, marked and lettered A, B, C, and D, or cause the same to be done.

Substitute for original.

§ 2. Be it further enacted, That the said records A, B, C, and D, when they shall be transcribed and completed, shall be considered and are hereby declared to be a substitute for the original records made in said county, as follows, to-wit: Book "A," of the original book in said office, marked "A," and book "B," of the original book "B," and book "C," of the original book in said office, marked "C," and book "D," of the original book of said office, marked "D."

Certified copies

§ 3. Be it further enacted, That certified copies of the instruments in the said transcribed records shall be made, when required, and shall be received and taken as evidence in all cases when copies of the original books in said office would have been so taken and recorded.

Fees.

§ 4. Be it further enacted, That Richard W. Townshend shall be allowed fees for his services as aforesaid, at the rate of ten cents for every one hundred words contained in said transcript, the same to become due and payable whenever the said transcribed records shall be completed and duly certified by him, and ready to deliver for the public use—the amount thereof to be ascertained by the county court of said county; and an order shall be drawn in favor of said Townshend therefor, by said court, upon the treasurer of said Hamilton county; which order shall be paid as other county orders are now by law required to be paid.

When due.

Duties of clerk.

§ 5. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the said Richard W. Townshend, clerk, etc., as aforesaid, to write in said books of transcript, a certificate to the effect that the same are true and faithful transcripts, respectively, of books "A," "B," "C," and "D," therein transcribed, and shall file a copy of said certificates in the office of the clerk of the county court of said Hamilton county, from and after which time this act shall be in force and a public law.

Marriage rec'd

§ 6. And the county court of the county of Franklin is hereby authorized to have the marriage records of said county transcribed into a suitable book, procured for that purpose; and said book, when so transcribed, as aforesaid, or a duly certified copy of the same, or any part thereof, shall be evidence of the facts therein contained, and have the same effect in law as the original record.

AN ACT for the relief of the town of Manteno, Kankakee county, in the matter of assessments.

9, 1867.

WHEREAS there seems to be great inequality in the assessment of the real estate of the town of Manteno, in the county of Kankakee, for the year 1866, making the burden of taxation bear unequally upon the citizens of said town; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the assessment return of said town, for the year 1866, be and the same is hereby set aside, and Joseph E. Saline, of said town, is hereby appointed special assessor, to re-assess the real estate property of said town. That the county clerk of the county of Kankakee furnish the said special assessor with the usual blanks and books for such purpose, and that the said special assessor proceed to make assessment of the real estate of said town, and make return, as soon as practicable, to the county clerk; and that the said clerk shall then proceed to extend the taxes of said town on the new assessment, as is by law required: Provided, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect any other than the assessment of the year 1866.

§ 2. That the time for the collection of taxes in said town be and the same hereby is extended to March 15, 1867.

AN ACT for the relief of Frederick D. S. Stewart.

Preamble.

Judgment against Stewart

WHEREAS Frederick D. S. Stewart was county treasurer of the county of Will, for the years 1860 and 1861, and, ex officio, county collector of taxes for the years 1859 and 1860; and whereas, owing to the financial difficulties arising on the breaking out of the rebellion, in 1861, the said Stewart became delinquent to the state of Illinois for taxes received by him, not through any fault of his own, but in consequence of the failure of banking houses in the city of Joliet with whom said taxes were deposited; and whereas judgment was obtained against said Stewart, in favor of the state, for the sum of three thousand eight hundred and ninety-three dollars and fifty-four cents, at the April term, 1862, of the Sangamon county circuit court; and whereas said judgment has since been fully paid, with interest and costs, by said Stewart; and whereas said Stewart, in order to obtain means to pay said judgment, without permitting his sureties on his official bond to incur any loss whatever, disposed of all his property at great sacrifice and loss; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the auditor of public accounts be and he is hereby directed to draw his warrant on the state treasurer, in favor of said Frederick D. S. Stewart, for the sum of three thousand dollars, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

This bill having remained with the governor from the last day of the regular session of the twenty-fifth general assembly, who, by their adjournment, prevented its return within ten days, and not having been returned on the first day of the meeting of the general assembly, after the expiration of said ten days, has become a law, and is filed in this office, this 12th day of June, A. D., 1857. SHARON TYNDALÉ, Sec'y of State.

AN ACT for the relief of Mrs. Julia Ann Avery.

AN ACT for the relief of Hector S. Humphrey, late treasurer of Kendall county. In force March 6, 1867.

WHEREAS Hector S. Humphrey, late treasurer of Kendall county, is liable to the state, upon his official bond, for the sum of twenty-two hundred dollars, revenue collected by him for the year A. D. 1859, and judgment has been rendered by the supreme court of this state against said Humphrey and his securities, William Wagner, Charles Snyder and John D. Hall, for the amount of the revenue due the state for the year A. D. 1859; and, whereas, the said Humphrey lost by the failure of the bank of Aurora and other banks, an amount of money far greater than said judgment, and by reason of said losses he is unable to pay said judgment; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That if the said Humphrey, or any of said securities, as aforesaid, shall pay, within sixty days from the passage of this act, one half of said judgment and the interest that has accrued thereon, together with all the costs of said suit in the supreme court, then the said Humphrey and the said securities, as aforesaid, be and they are hereby released and discharged from the payment of the residue of the said judgment and interest, so far as the state of Illinois is interested in any revenue due said state in said judgment; and the auditor is hereby authorized and required to cause said judgment to be entered satisfied.

AN ACT for the relief of Johnson county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to us by the citizens and county court of Johnson county, that the county revenue, as now provided by law, of said county, is barely sufficient to pay the ordinary expenses of the county; that there is old outstanding indebtedness against said county, which the present county revenue is wholly insufficient to liquidate; and whereas, also, it is further represented to us that the court house and jail of said county are in a dilapidated and decayed condition, and unsafe and unfit for public use; now therefore, for the relief of said county,

Liquidation of
indebtedness.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That, in case the county court of Johnson county deem it expedient, they are hereby authorized to borrow money for the liquidation of said outstanding county indebtedness and the construction of public buildings for said county, and issue county bonds therefor, each bond for an amount not less than one hundred dollars; and said bonds, in the aggregate, of not more than thirty thousand dollars. Said bonds shall be made due six years from the date of issuing the same, and may be redeemable at any time, at the option of the Officers.

§ 2. The officers of said corporation shall be a president, secretary, treasurer and five directors. Said company may organize by electing the aforesaid officers, at such time and place and in such manner as said corporators may agree upon; and until such officers are chosen and qualified, the business and affairs of said corporation shall be done and managed by said corporators, who shall keep a full account and record thereof.

Capital stock.

§ 3. The capital stock of said company shall be five hundred thousand dollars, and shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, and each share shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote at stockholders' meetings.

Business powers.

§ 4. The said corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to construct and maintain a dam, as high as necessary to obtain a good and sufficient water-power, not exceeding eight feet high above usual low-water mark, across the Illinois river, within the limits of the present limits of town of Marseilles, in the county of La Salle, state of Illinois, and to construct and maintain said dam across said river, together with all necessary race-ways or courses; and, in the construction of the same, may cross any tract, alley, lane or highway in said town, first obtaining consent of the corporate authorities for such purpose; and may construct such races or courses across any private lands, as hereinafter provided: Provided, that this act shall not be so held or construed as to prevent the state from taking possession of said dam, or removing it, at any time, for improving said Illinois river for purposes of navigation, and without any compensation therefor in case of its removal; but said company shall be paid a reasonable compensation therefor, in case said dam is so constructed that it can be used in improving said river; and when so taken, said company shall cease to have any right or authority to construct any other dam or dams.

§ 5. Title to land for right of way for said races or canals, not to exceed one hundred feet wide, over private property, and to land overflowed by such dam, may be acquired by gift, grant or purchase, or in the manner provided by chapter LXXI of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Mills and Millers," and an act amendatory thereof, approved February 26, A. D. 1847, or by chapter ninety-two of the Revised Statutes, or the act amendatory thereof, in force June 22, A. D. 1852, entitled "An act to amend the law condemning right of way for purposes of internal improvement."

Title to land for
right of way.

§ 6. The board of directors shall have the entire management, direction and control of all the property, business, interests and affairs of said company, and may make all such by-laws relative thereto as they may deem proper, not inconsistent with the laws of this state; may appoint all necessary officers and agents whose election or appointment is not otherwise provided for; and shall have power to make such assessments as they may find necessary equally upon the shares of said capital stock, and collect the same by an action in debt, in any court having jurisdiction; and if such lawful assessment shall not be paid upon any stock, to declare such stock forfeited, and to dispose of such forfeited stock in such manner as the by-laws shall provide. A majority of said directors shall constitute a quorum, but any two may call a stockholders' meeting, in such manner as shall be provided by the by-laws. And said directors shall appoint a stockholders' meeting at least once in each year, at such time and place as they may agree upon, and give notice thereof by publication in some public newspaper published in said La Salle county.

Management of
business, etc.

Business and transactions.

§ 7. The said company shall have power to lease and sell lands and town lots and water-power, and to lay out and plat any town or towns or additions thereto, upon any of its lands, and may loan or borrow money at any rate of interest not exceeding ten per cent., and secure its indebtedness by notes or bonds and mortgages or trust deeds upon any or all of its real or personal property or franchises, and may transact any lawful business, in trading, building, transportation or manufacturing.

when said half mile lines miss-match at township lines, and at the river, for the sake of a better crossing.

Oath of office. § 2. Said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall, on the first Monday of March, or within twenty days thereafter, meet at Mattoon, and after being duly sworn by some officer authorized to administer such oath, shall proceed to discharge the duties required of them by this act.

Survey. § 3. Said commissioners, in discharge of their said duties, shall procure the services of a competent surveyor, chain carriers, and other necessary assistants, and shall lay out, view and locate said road.

Plat required. § 4. Said commissioners shall, within a reasonable time after they shall have laid out, viewed and located said road, cause a correct plat thereof to be made by said surveyor, and shall file such plat, together with a copy of the field notes of such survey, in the office of the county clerks of Coles, Moultrie and Shelby counties; and said county clerks shall record said plat and field notes in the book of record of proceedings of the county boards of their respective counties.

Dimensions. § 5. Upon the filing of such plat and field notes in the offices of said county clerks, as by this act required, said road shall be and is hereby declared to be a state road and public highway (66) sixty-six feet in width; and shall be opened, worked and repaired as such. And said commissioners are hereby empowered to proceed to open said road.

Compensation. § 6. Said commissioner shall be entitled to a compensation of one dollar and fifty cents, said surveyor three dollars, the chain carriers and other assistants one dollar and fifty cents, each, for each day employed in the discharge of the duties by this act required, to be paid out of the treasuries of Coles, Moultrie and Shelby, in proportion to the distances that said road passes through said counties respectively.

Assessment of damages. § 7. Said commissioners are hereby authorized to view, survey, lay out and open said road through any and all lands necessary to carry out the meaning and intent of this act, and also to assess the damages, if any, taking into consideration the benefits as well as the damages that may arise from laying out and opening said road; and their certificate of the amount of damage so sustained shall be sufficient evidence for the board of supervisors to authorize the county treasurer to pay such indebtedness.

§ 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

AN ACT to establish a state road therein named.

In force Feb'y
23, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Samuel J. R. Wilson and Daniel Haynes, of Wayne county, and Jesse H. Emerson, of Edwards county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out and establish a state road from the town of Fairfield, in Wayne county, to the town of Albion, in Edwards county.

Names of
commissioners

§ 2. Said road shall be located on a direct line between the above named points, or as near the same as said commissioners may deem practicable and eligible. Said commissioners shall, as soon as said road may be located, make a report and plat of said road and deliver a copy thereof to the clerk of the county court of each county through which the said road may run, which shall be filed by the clerks of said counties in their respective offices.

Location.

§ 3. Said road, when so laid out, shall be and the same is hereby declared a state road, and shall be opened and kept in repair as other state roads. The county courts of said counties shall allow said commissioners three dollars per day for the time necessarily employed in locating said road, which shall be paid by said counties in proportion to the number of miles of road in each county.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

AN ACT to locate a state road from Chebanse, in Iroquois county, to Odell, in Livingston county.

25, 1867.

Commissioners

§ 2. Said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall meet in the town of Chebanse, on or before the first Monday of April, A. D. 1867, or as soon thereafter as practicable, and, after taking an oath, before some person authorized to administer the same, faithfully to perform and discharge the duties required of them by this act, shall take to their assistance a competent surveyor and proceed to lay out said road, placing stakes in the ground or plowing a furrow in the center of said road.

commissioners

Additional commissioners and duties.

§ 3. That John Rodgers, of the county of Ford, and the said Lemuel Milk and George Fanning, shall be and are hereby appointed commissioners for the same purpose, and in the same way, to lay out and establish so much of said road as will lie between Ford and Kankakee counties, and in the like manner as is provided in section two of this act, said commissioners meeting at some convenient point for that purpose, on or before the first day of May, A. D. 1867.

Boundary lines

§ 4. That S. S. Morgan, Ewing Houchin and John Hassack, of the county of Livingston, are, in like manner, in conjunction with the surveyor of said county, hereby appointed commissioners to lay out and establish so much of said road as shall lie in said county of Livingston, west of the boundary line of said Ford and Kankakee counties, beginning at the west end of the boundary line between the two last named counties; thence running west from section corner to section corner, to the Chicago and St. Louis railroad, forming a continuous road between the Chicago Branch of the Illinois Central Railroad and the said Chicago and St. Louis Railroad, and reaching the latter at or near Odell, in Livingston county, and the former at Chebanse, in Iroquois county, and for that purpose said commissioners shall meet at Odell, and make the preliminary affidavits on the first day of April, A. D. 1867, or as soon thereafter as convenient, and shall proceed, in other respects, as provided in section two of this act.

Reports and plats.

§ 5. Said commissioners shall, as soon as the said road is located, make and file a report and plat of said road, showing the course and distance from point to point; which plat and report, when so made, shall be certified by said commissioners, and a copy thereof filed in the office of the clerks of the counties of Iroquois, Kankakee, Ford and Livingston, respectively, and shall, also, make out and present to the board of supervisors of each county, respectively, certified copies of the time and number of hands necessarily employed in each county and their reasonable compensation therefor, including the sum of three dollars a day for each commissioner; and, thereupon, it shall be the duty of said board of supervisors, respectively, to audit the same, and order the same paid by the treasurers of the respective counties proportionably.

Location.

§ 6. Said road, when so located, shall be and the same is hereby declared a state road, and shall be opened four rods wide, and shall be constructed and kept in repair as other state roads: Provided, nevertheless, that it shall be lawful for the owners of lands adjacent to said road to set and grow hedges for fencing purposes six feet in said road on either side thereof.

§ 7. This act to take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 25, 1867.

AN ACT to establish a state road from Fairfield, in Wayne county, to Noble, in Richland county. In force Feb'y 25, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That James McLin, William Holmes, John Forrester and the county surveyor of Wayne county, and Henry Parner and the county surveyor of Richland county, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to lay out, locate and establish a state road from Fairfield, in Wayne county, by the way of Mt. Erie, in Wayne county, to the town of Noble, in Richland county, Illinois. Commissioners Purpose.

§ 2. Said road shall be located by said commissioners on the nearest and most eligible line between said points, having due regard to farms now in cultivation; and for the purpose of locating said road, any four of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for any purpose embraced in this act. And, before entering upon the discharge of their duty, shall take an oath before some officer authorized to administer oaths, faithfully to discharge their duties as such commissioners; and as soon as said commissioners shall have located and established said road, they shall make a plat of the same, and deliver a copy of the same to the county clerk of Wayne and Richland counties; which shall be filed by the clerks of said counties in their respective offices. Location. Oath of office. Plat required.

§ 3. As soon as said road shall be laid out and established, the same shall forever be and remain a public road; and the counties through which the same shall run shall have no power to alter or change the same; but it shall be the duties of the county courts of said counties (or board of supervisors, where said counties are under township organization,) to make immediate provisions for bridging all streams over which said road may run, necessary to make said road passable at all times of the year, and to build all causeways, so as to render said road at all times safe and convenient to travel. And all road officers, in either of said townships through which said road may run, shall work said roads as other public roads are now worked. To be a public road. Bridges, etc.

§ 4. It shall be the duty of the county court of Wayne county, or board of supervisors, as soon as said road shall be located, to appoint a road commissioner, and to fill any vacancy wherever the same may occur, whose duty it shall Repairs:

be to keep all bridges and causeways on said road in good repair; and shall present this bill, from time to [time, to] the county court of Wayne county or board of supervisors; and it shall be the duty of the county court of said Wayne county, or board of supervisors, to pass orders for paying all reasonable and just expense for building and repairing said bridges and causeways on said road.

Expenses.

§ 5. The commissioners herein named shall be allowed four dollars ($4) per day for each day they shall be necessarily employed in surveying and laying out said road, which shall be paid by the respective counties of Wayne and Richland, in proportion to the number of miles of road in each county.

Compensation.

§ 6. This act shall be deemed and taken as a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 25, 1867.

In force Feb'y 23, 1867. AN ACT to locate a state road from Mendota, in La Salle county, to Arlington, in Bureau county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That William W. Gilman, David Nichols and James Winters, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to view and locate a state road, of four rods in width, commencing at the south end of Thirteenth avenue, in the town of Mendota, in the county of La Salle, in this state, or as near such point as practicable, and from thence, crossing to the south side of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, at the same place of the present traveled crossing, and running from thence on the south side or line of said railroad, to the town plat or village of Arlington, in the county of Bureau—said commissioners to have the right to diverge from the south line of said railroad, wherever they may deem necessary, to avoid expensive diking or bridging, and, also, if necessary, in order to strike and intersect a convenient and eligible street, in said village of Arlington.

Commissioners

Duties of commissioners

§ 2. The said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall meet at the town of Mendota as soon and at such time after this act shall come in force as they may deem proper, for the performance of the duties herein assigned them; and after being duly sworn by some officer authorized by the laws of this state to administer oaths, to fairly and impartially do and perform the duties assigned them by this act, the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to proceed and fully carry out the intention of this act, and may employ a surveyor and such chainmen and axe-men as they may deem necessary for the location of said road, who shall perform the duties required of them by said commissioners, and shall receive such compensation or per diem allowance as said commissioners shall certify they are entitled to.

Duties and compensation.

§ 3. Said surveyor shall make out two correct and complete plats of said road, showing the points where the same crosses township lines, and the name or number and range of such townships as said road may cross, with proper field notes, giving courses and distances in each township crossed by said road.

Points and lines of road.

§ 4. Should any damages be claimed by any person or persons, in consequence of said road crossing his, her or their land, or if said road shall cross any tract of land on which no person resides, and no person or persons coming forward and showing his, her or their right to represent the same, then in any such case the said commissioners are empowered, and it is made their duty, to assess such damages, allowing to each such owner of land a just and fair compensation for the land to be occupied by said road—taking into consideration as well the benefits and advantages as the injury and disadvantage of said road crossing such land.

§ 5. Said commissioners acting shall make two full and complete reports of all of their proceedings under this act, to each of which they shall attach one of the plats and survey of said road provided for in this act. Said reports shall be alike, and shall contain a statement of the damages as allowed in each of the townships through which said road passes, together with a statement, showing the expenses of laying out said road and the proportion for each township to pay, according to length of road in each township, and the time occupied as to said commissioners acting may seem just and equitable; one of which reports shall be filed by said commissioners with the clerk of the county court in each of the counties of La Salle and Bureau; and it shall be the duty of each of said clerks to file and safely keep said reports in his office, and also to record the same in full in the record book in each of their respective counties in which the proceedings of the board of supervisors are recorded.

Reports of proceedings.

§ 6. Said road shall be a public highway, from and after the time of filing the report by the commissioners, as in this act provided; and said report, or the record thereof, or a copy of such report or record, duly certified to be such by the said respective clerks, shall be evidence of the matters therein contained and of the location of said road in all courts in this state; and the filing of such report, as herein provided, shall be taken to be due notice of the laying out of said road to all persons and owners of land in each of said counties, respectively, over which the Report to be evidence, etc.

- Penalties, etc. same shall pass; and any owner or other person having the control of any land over which said road shall pass who shall refuse or neglect to remove all fences on their land, respectively, which obstruct the free and complete use of said road, within sixty days from such filing, shall be liable to be proceeded against as for obstructing highways, by the laws of this state, as well as for continuing such obstructions.
- Compensation. § 7. Said commissioners shall receive, as a compensation for their services, five dollars per day for the time they may be employed in the laying out of said road, assessing damages, making their report, and such other work about the same as may be necessary. They shall specify in their report the amount of their compensation, and shall attach thereto an affidavit, in which they shall severally swear that the time employed by them, respectively, was necessary for the due performance of their duties under this act. Said commissioners shall be authorized to employ some competent person to draw up their report, and they may allow such person a reasonable compensation, to be paid for as the other expenses for said road.
- Apportionment. § 8. The board of supervisors in their respective counties shall cause the amount apportioned to each township by said commissioners to be apportioned upon the taxable property and entered upon the tax books of the respective towns, to be collected as other town taxes, and to be paid by the several collectors to the several supervisors of the several towns, to be by them paid to the persons entitled thereto, as shown by said report and certified by the clerk of the county court of the respective counties.
- Object of this act. § 9. It is the object and intent of this act to give full and complete powers to said commissioners to locate and establish said road, and that each town through which said road shall pass shall pay its proportion of the expenses of laying out the same to such of the commissioners and other persons by them employed, in the proportion for each town as such report shall determine, and that each of said towns shall pay all of the damages assessed therein, respectively. The clerks of the county courts to be paid for their services, to be rendered under this act, by their respective boards of supervisors.
- Road to be kept open, etc. § 10. After said road shall become a public highway, under the provisions of this act, the same shall be kept open and worked as other roads in the respective towns.
- § 11. This act to take effect as a public act, and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

AN ACT to authorize the board of supervisors of Knox county to fix the rates of commutation of road labor, and to determine what shall be a lawful fence in said county. In force Feb'y 28, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, The board of supervisors of the county of Knox, at any regular meeting, shall have power and is hereby made their duty to fix and determine the rates of commutation of road labor within said county; also, to determine what shall be a lawful fence within the limits of said county. Notice of. be designated by them, in a notice, to be published in at least two daily papers published in the city of Chicago, (one of which shall be a German paper,) at least one week prior to the time of such meeting. Each share of stock shall entitle the holder thereof to one vote in the election of trustees. And the first election shall be conducted according to rules established by the said commissioners at at such meeting. And on the first Monday in January in each year, thereafter, there shall be elected five trustees, who shall be stockholders, and shall hold their office until their successors are elected and qualified; but a failure to elect trustees, as herein provided, shall not work a forfeiture of the franchises herein granted.

Management of affairs. § 3. The business and affairs of said corporation shall be conducted by the trustees, and they shall elect from their number a president, secretary and treasurer, to whom they may delegate such of their powers as they shall deem proper; and they may appoint other officers and agents and prescribe their duties, and may require bonds, with or without securities, from their officers, agents or employees, with such conditions as they shall require. And the said trustees may fill vacancies and remove any of their number who shall be guilty of malfeasance in office or who shall have been convicted of crime. The treasurer shall keep a correct account of all moneys received and paid out by him; and he shall pay out no money, except by order of the trustees, and then only upon a warrant drawn by the secretary and countersigned by the president. The said trustees may make by-laws and establish rules for their government; and they shall, at each annual meeting of the stockholders, make a report of their proceedings, including a statement of the finances, and cause the same to be printed for distribution along the line of the road of said corporation.

Capital stock. § 4. The capital stock shall be twenty-five thousand dollars, and shall be divided into shares of fifty dollars each, to be deemed personal property, and transferable as such on the books of the company, subject to such rules as shall be established by the trustees; and a proper registry of all certificates issued shall be preserved by the directors. The trustees may declare forfeited any share or shares of stock upon which there shall remain due and unpaid for sixty days any installments thereon. The amount received by the trustees upon the capital stock shall be expended in the construction and improvement of the road hereinafter provided for, including the erection of necessary toll houses.

Possession of roads, etc. § 5. It shall be lawful for the said trustees to take possession of and occupy the road or highway in the towns of Cicero and Proviso, in Cook county, Illinois, commonly known as the extension of Lake street, and to macadamize, gravel, clay, grade or otherwise improve the same, of such § 10. The trustees so appointed by said judge shall not be authorized to receive money on stock nor issue any certificates therefor; but they shall apply all moneys received from tolls in paying the necessary expenses of the collection of the same, and in keeping said road in good repair; and the tolls shall be fixed by them, as near as may be, so that no more money shall be received therefrom than shall be necessary to comply with the provisions of this section. The trustees so appointed may make said road free to the public during a portion of the year, if, in their judgment, the tolls received during the balance of the year will be sufficient to keep the same in good repair. They shall make report of their proceedings, annually, to the said judge of said court; and they shall not be interested in any contract made with reference to said road.

§ 11. Any person who shall break through, tear down or destroy any gate, gate house or other erection of said company, or who shall run through or pass by or around the same, for the purpose of avoiding the payment of the toll, or shall open or construct any turnpike or passage around such gate, where vehicles or animals may pass, for the purpose of avoiding the payment of toll on said road, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof before and justice of the peace in Cook county, be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. Said corporation may also, have and maintain an action against any such person in any court of competent jurisdiction, to recover a penalty of twenty-five dollars for each and every violation of the provisions of this section; or the said company may have and maintain an action of trespass, to recover against any such person or persons so offending double the amount of the actual damages sustained by reason of such wrongful act.

Penalties for injury and destruction of property, etc.

Recovery of penalties.

§ 12. The said corporation are hereby authorized to restrain and prohibit cattle or other animals from running at large on the said road, and may cause the same so running at large to be arrested and confined in any pound in Cook county, where they shall be held, subject to such regulations as are provided for other animals that may be impounded therein; and said company shall have and maintain an action to recover a penalty of three dollars per head for each animal so running at large, against the owner thereof. No trustee, officer, agent or stockholder of said corporation shall be disqualified from testifying in any cause arising under sections eleven and twelve of this act, by reason of interest in said company.

APPROVED March 8, 1867.

In force March 9, 1867. AN ACT to perfect surveys in Mason county and to modify the road law therein.

Preamble. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That, whereas the marks and corners of the original surveys in several townships in Mason county are lost or mutilated, so as to be a matter of dispute; and whereas the county surveyors in said county have hitherto failed to make surveys in said town permanent, thereby preventing improvements of the lands and endangering the peace and prosperity of said towns, it is enacted, that each town may, at its regular annual town meeting, provide for the permanent survey of the in lands said towns, as follows: Notice that the subject is to be voted upon shall be given at least three weeks previously to the day of the said meeting, by posting up notices thereof in four of the most public places in said town, signed by at least ten legal voters of said town. The question shall be voted upon by ballot, by writing upon each ballot "for survey," "against survey" as the voter may desire. And if a majority of the votes cast shall be "for survey" then the survey shall be made, and not otherwise. At the same election three commissioners shall be chosen, also, by ballot, whose duty it shall be to procure some competent surveyor to make the survey, which shall be done within six months after said commissioners shall be chosen; and it shall be the duty of said surveyor to procure the original field notes and proceed to survey the whole township or parts of townships in said town, observing in said survey all corners and lines, where the same can be done, of the original United States survey, establishing the corners in said town, to at least each half quarter section tract, marking said corners by mounds and stones appropriately marked.

Plats. § 2. The said surveyor, when his said survey shall be completed, shall make out a complete plat of the said survey, duly certified and signed, which shall be submitted to the legal voters at the next ensuing annual town meeting, who shall vote on the adoption or rejection of the same, by marking on their ballots "for the adoption of the survey," "against the adoption of the survey." And if a majority

APPROVED March 9, 1867.

In force March 8, 1867. AN ACT to incorporate the Alton and Edwardsville McAdamized Road Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Wm. Henry S. Baker, Zephaniah B. Job, Seth T. Sawyer, Charles A. Murray, John Adkins, John B. Lathy, John A. Prickett, Frederick T. Krafft, Wes. Williams, John W. Ash, Joel T. Rice and Shadrack B. Gillham, and their successors, are hereby created, shall be, and for the term of fifty years from and after the passage of this act, continue to be, a body corporate and politic, by the name of "The Alton and Edwardsville McAdamized Road Company;" and, by that name, shall have succession for the term of years above specified; may sue and be sued, complain and defend, in any court of law or equity; may make and use a common seal, and alter the same at pleasure; may make by-laws, rules and regulations for the management of its property, the regulation of its affairs, the appointment and number of its officers, and for the transfer of its stock, not being inconsistent with the laws of this state or of the United States and may appoint such subordinate agents, officers and servants as the business of said corporation may require, and allow them a suitable compensation, prescribe their duties, and require bond for the faithful performance thereof, in such penal sums and with such sureties as they may choose, who shall hold offices during the pleasure of a majority of the directors of said corporation.

Business rights and privileges. § 2. The said corporation shall have the right to construct, and, during its continuance, to maintain and continue a McAdamized road, of such width as may be deemed advisable by the directors of said corporation, and upon the usual and best mode of constructing the same, and with such appendages as may be deemed necessary for the convenient use of the same, from the city of Alton to Edwardsville, in the county of Madison, and state of Illinois, commencing at the eastern extension of Third street, at the eastern boundary of said city, thence east on the Milton road, through sections No. 18 and 17, in township No. 5 north, range No. 9, west, on the state and county road, through the old town of Milton, on Wood river; thence following the county road known as the Sand Ridge road, or as near the same as may be practicable, to Edwardsville, in said county of Madison.

§ 3. The capital stock of said corporation shall be seventy-five thousand dollars, which shall be deemed personal property, and which shall be divided into shares of twenty-five dollars each. Capital stock.

§ 4. The said persons named as incorporators in this bill shall cause books to be opened for the subscription to the capital stock of said corporation in such place or places as they may think proper, in said county aforesaid, and shall give notice, by advertising in some public newspaper printed in said city of Alton, by posting advertisements in such place or places, as they may think proper of the times and places when books will be opened for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock to said corporation; which notice shall be published for ten days previous to the time appointed for the opening of such books. At the time set in said notice one or more of said incorporators shall attend at the place named in such notice in the city of Alton, Upper Alton, and Edwardsville, and receive from all persons who will subscribe thereto subscriptions to the capital stock of said corporation. Said books shall be kept open at one or more places named in said notice until one week previous to the election of directors; and after the election of said directors the said directors shall keep the books open at the office of the company until the whole of the capital stock of said corporation shall be subscribed for, when they shall be closed. Each subscriber, at the time of his subscription, shall pay to the persons named as incorporators ten per centum upon the whole amount of capital stock subscribed for by him, and the residue of such subscription shall be payable, by installments, as the same shall be required by the directors; but said directors shall not require more than four installments to be paid on each share subscribed in any one year, and such installments shall not exceed ten per centum each upon the amount subscribed; and it shall be the duty of the directors of said corporation to publish, in the city of Alton, at least ten days previous to the time when any installment is required to be paid, the amount to be paid on each share, and the time and place or places of payment. Any stockholder who shall fail to pay any such installment upon the share or shares of said stock held by him, agreeably to such requirements of the directors, shall, at the option of said directors, forfeit to the said corporation the stock held by him, and any and all previous payments made to said corporation thereon. Subscription to stock.

§ 5. The affairs of said corporation shall be managed by Management of affairs.

a board of directors, to be annually chosen by the stockholders, from among themselves. The first board of directors to be chosen as soon as may be after ten thousand dollars of the capital stock aforesaid have been subscribed. The commissioners shall give notice of the time and place at which a meeting of the stockholders will be held for the choice of directors; and at such time and place appointed for such purposes the persons named as incorporators shall attend, or a majority of them, and act as inspectors of said election; and the stockholders shall proceed to elect their directors, by ballot; and the incorporators present shall certify the result of said election under their hands, which certificate shall be recorded in the books of said corporation, and shall be sufficient evidence of the election of the directors therein named. All subsequent elections shall be held at the time and in the manner prescribed by the by-laws and regulations of the said corporation. Each stockholder shall be allowed as many votes as he owns shares of stock at the commencement of each election; and a plurality of votes shall determine the choice; but no stockholder shall be allowed to vote at any election after the first for any stock that may have been assigned to him within thirty days previous to the day of holding such election. The said directors shall hold their offices for one year after their election and until their successors are elected, and shall elect one of their number president of said board.

§ 6. Immediately after the election of directors and the organization of said board the persons hereinbefore named as incorporators shall deliver to the said directors or to their treasurer appointed by said directors the whole amount of moneys received by them on subscriptions to said stock; and it shall be the duty of said directors to keep the books for subscription open until the entire amount is subscribed, as hereinbefore set forth.

Commencement

§ 7. The said corporation is authorized, as soon as the board of directors are elected, as aforesaid, to commence the construction of said road, beginning at any point on said line hereinbefore set forth, as they may deem most for the interest of said corporation; and as soon as said McAdamized road is completed to Milton bridge, said corporation may erect a gate or gates thereon, and collect the tolls allowed by this act; and it shall be the duty of said corporation, when said road or any part of said road shall have been completed and gates erected thereon, to keep it in good repair; and whenever, from any cause, the same shall become injured, said corporation shall immediately proceed to repair the same. It shall be lawful for said corporation to construct bridges over any sloughs or streams anywhere upon the route of said road, when they may deem the same necessary. And said corporation is authorized to borrow any sum of money which they may deem necessary, not to exceed twenty thousand dollars, to aid in the construction of said road.

§ 8. The said corporation is authorized and shall have power to erect and maintain such toll-houses, toll-gates and other buildings, for the accommodation and management of the said road and the transportation thereon, as may be deemed suitable to their interest and the accommodation of the public travel. The county court of Madison county shall, on the first day of the first term thereof after the first day of January, in each year, fix, determine and establish, for the following year, the rates of toll which said company may demand, collect and receive of and from any and every person using said road. It shall be lawful for any toll gatherer to stop and detain any person going on said road until the toll properly chargeable shall have been paid.

§ 4. The said commissioners shall have power to employ a surveyor, and such other persons as may be necessary in the survey and relocation of said part of said road; and they shall make out and present to the board of supervisors of said county a certified statement of the time and number of hands employed; and, thereupon, it shall be the duty of said board of supervisors to make and allow to each commissioner, surveyor and person so employed a reasonable compensation for their services.

§ 5. Said part of said road, when so relocated and laid out shall be and the same is hereby declared a state road, and shall be opened four rods wide, and kept in repair as other state roads; and so much of said road now existing as shall be changed or affected by said relocation shall, after said relocation, be and is hereby forever vacated.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED March 7, 1867.

In force March 7, 1867.

AN ACT to locate a state road on the county line between the counties of Clinton and St. Clair, connecting the St. Louis and Vincennes and Belleville and Hanover roads.

Commissioners

Line of road.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Joseph Hypes, Adolphus Berger and Martin Wiley, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners to locate and establish a state road, commencing at a point in the north east corner of section number twenty-four, (24), in township number two north, of range six west of the third principal meridian, in St. Clair county, where the St. Louis and Vincennes state road crosses the west boundary of said county of St. Clair; thence running due south on the county line until the same intersects the Belleville and Hanover road. And if said commissioners deem it advisable and the public good requires it, they may extend and locate said road northward, from said point of commencement, until the lands intersects the southern boundary of Madison county, having due regard to private property.

§ 2. That said commissioners shall meet on or before the first day of April next after the passage of this bill, or as soon thereafter as possible, and take an oath, before some person authorized to administer oaths, well and truly to perform the duties required of them by this act.

§ 3. When said commissioners shall have viewed the said ground, and shall have located said road, it shall be their duty to make out a plat of the road, and lay said plat before the county courts of the counties in which said road may be located, as soon as practicable after the completion of the same. And the road so located is hereby declared a state road. Plat of road.

§ 4. That said plat shall be evidence, hereafter, in all courts of record in this state; and it shall be the duty of the county courts, when said road is in part or whole located, to record said plat in the records of their office. Duty of county court.

APPROVED March 7, 1867.

AN ACT to incorporate the Highland Park Building Company.

23, 1867.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That Luther L. Greenleaf, George S. Foster, Philip B. Shumway, John Clough, Merrill Ladd, Edwin Haskins, Jesse O. Norton, Henry Booth, Harvey B. Hurd, Cornelius R. Field, Charles W. Boynton, James Farr, William W. Everts, and their associates, assigns and successors, are hereby created a body corporate and politic, by the name and style of "The Highland Park Building Company," for the purpose of laying out a town at Highland Park, and buying, improving and selling land and lots in said town, in Lake county and in the county of Cook, and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be capable, in law and equity, of suing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded, to contract and be contracted with; to adopt and use a common seal, and to alter the same at pleasure; to take, by purchase or otherwise, and hold, improve and sell real estate and personal property. Corporators.
Name and style.
Powers.

§ 2. The capital stock of said company shall be one hundred thousand dollars, which shall be divided into shares of one hundred dollars each. The capital stock may be increased to five hundred thousand dollars, by a vote of two-thirds of the stock, at any regular or called meeting of stockholders. Capital stock.

§ 3. The said corporators may manage the affairs of said company until a board of directors is elected as hereinafter provided, and, until such election, shall be the directors of said company. Management of affairs.

§ 4. When fifty thousand dollars of the capital stock is subscribed, the subscribers may proceed to elect a board of not less than three nor more than ten directors, who shall Organization.

have the power to elect their own president and other officers, and who shall hold their office for one year and until their successors shall be elected. The directors shall have power to fill vacancies in their board.

By-laws.

§ 5. Said corporation shall have power to make by-laws, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of this state and the United States, fixing the time and manner of holding meetings of stockholders and elections, defining the duties of its officers and servants, defining the manner of making calls upon the capital stock and the penalties for non-payment of the same, and generally for the management of its affairs.

§ 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

APPROVED February 23, 1867.

In force March
9, 1867.

AN ACT to change the name of Rachel Paul.

Name changed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly, That the name of Rachel Paul be changed to that of Mary Virginia Munson, and that she be a legal heir as daughter of Franklin Munson and Olive Munson, his wife.

§ 2. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.
APPROVED March 9, 1867.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE, SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS,
August 15, 1867.

I, Sharon Tyndale, secretary of state of the state of Illinois, do hereby certify that the foregoing printed laws are true and perfect copies of the enrolled laws on file in this office, with the exception of the words printed in brackets thus, [].

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand, the day and year aforesaid.

SHARON TYNDALE,
Secretary of State.
